What were the keys to stopping Ajayi this time compared to last time?

We were ready. We kind of already knew what they had. It was mano-y-mano, who was going to win? And we won more matches than they did, and came out with a victory.

How does your knee feel?

I feels great. I feel awesome. I'm blessed to be able to recover from what I did in a two-week span. I going to keep moving forward.

What was the emphasis on stopping the run? Was it about the usual, more or less leading up to the game?

Of course, we want to stop the run. This is the playoffs. If you watch any of the games, if somebody has 100 yards rushing, they are going to win. So want to try to make a team as one-dimensional as possible. You have to be physical, you have to be detailed. You have to be able to be accountable for each other. And you have to want it more. And we went out there today, and it showed.

What did you think of Harrison today?

He was awesome. That's a veteran guy. Game-in and game-out, at his age, to be able to produce like he does—that's a guy we look up to. That's a guy we follow.
