POSTGAME QUOTES

Baltimore Ravens Defensive Lineman Patrick Ricard (transcribed by Daniel Chavez)

(How do you think things have gone for you as a defensive lineman?) – “I think they’re going well. All the guys, the group of guys, are really great to me. I’m learning a lot from them, just competing with them and having fun. I think I’m just building practice after practice, just getting better.”

(So what’s it like when you’re in the big locker room and you have a guy kicking your legs out a little bit like today?) – “It happened so fast that you just react and just play as hard as you can and just see what happens. I didn’t really notice that at all.”

(What did they tell you about being a full back?) – “They just pretty much said ‘Hey we’re going to try you at fullback’ and they just tell me what I do and I go out there and just do it. I did it in high school so it feels a little natural to me so its not like I’ve never done it before but it felt great.”

(So is that going to be a full time position?) – “I think more the focus is on defense, defensive line. When they need me just go and practice, get a couple reps in practice, just make sure they can trust me to do my job right and then I come out here when my name’s called. Like tonight I had five-six plays on offense, just execute when I’m out there.”
