POSTGAME QUOTES

Jets WR Robby Anderson (transcribed by the New York Jets)

On how it feels to get the first win...

Great. That's why we play the game – to win. It's a great feeling. We have to build on it; stay focused on our mission.

On whether they listen to what people say about the team...

No. We don't really pay too much mind to negativity, especially outside of our building. It's not too hard.

On whether their confidence kept building throughout the game...

I think we came out this week with a different energy and a different mindset that we were going to dominate and we weren't going to let people get in the way. It's the NFL, there are going to be good players every single week lined up on the other side of you, but we had a mindset and we weren't going to let anything stop us.

On his speed opening up the middle of the field...

I think we have a group that compliments each other. We all have different gifts and different ways to get open. We can find those holes and exploit defenses. We just have to keep building and keep finding the holes and keep preparing.
