POSTGAME QUOTES

Bills DT Kyle Williams (transcribed by the Buffalo Bills)

Q: Richie [Incognito] said that if anybody said you were 8-6 or 6-2 at home in August we'd be laughing at you guys. No one is laughing at you guys. What do you make of it where this team is at right now?

A: It is no surprise. Day in and day out you spend the time with these guys. You see the way they work. You see the way they care about their teammates and the way they care about preparing. Everybody wants to win but not everybody is willing to prepare. These guys are willing to prepare. These guys are willing to get ready and pay the cost Monday through Saturday. The record is not perfect, we wish it could be better, but that's why we are what we are this week because of the guys in this room.

Q: Getting pressure today and forcing the turnovers, was that the key to the defense playing so well?

A: I mean it could go two ways. If you're getting pressure on [Jay Cutler], he has to get the ball out faster. Then if we can get turnovers and sacks it holds them, but we'll take those turnovers. So yes, they can swing a game for sure.

Q: At this point in your career how good does it feel to essentially be playing meaningful football down the stretch? You haven't had that a lot. You haven't had that much lately.

A: It's fun. It's good to get up in the morning and go have everything you want to accomplish right in front of you. Then go get to work, help your teammates, and get ready and prepare. It's all a lot of fun.

Q: You made a point last week about the fans here and just how strong they are battling the snow and that stuff. You had to take a moment coming off the field today at least for a moment to appreciate what this place has meant for you?

A: Well yeah. I don't think I've ever taken this place for granted or ever not noticed it. They've always been in the forefront of my appreciation of what they do and what they stand for or who they are. Hopefully I've been clear about that over the years and if I haven't, I apologize as I should do better. Though those guys are awesome. It's been quite the privilege to play for them and like I said, I'm not going to go there - we still have some games left.
