How does it feel to win back-to back division titles? “That’s a big deal. We talked about it all week. This is a pretty special moment. I’ve been here for 13 years. To go back-to-back is pretty cool. Before the season, you want to win the AFC West, that’s what you want to do. You want to take control of the division and today we sealed the deal.”

What does it mean to be in the playoffs? “It’s huge. Everybody doesn’t get a chance to get a seat at the table. We get a chance to sit down and break bread with everybody and hopefully we can be greedy.”

Comments on his forced fumble: “It was a great play by them. I had number three (receiver from the sideline). They did a knife play where he was going to the sideline. They blocked up everybody else, one and two on the outside, and I had to chase him down. I tried to separate him from the ball. Being a linebacker hitting a receiver, that’s what you try to do and that’s what happened.”

Did you see Marcus Peters recover the fumble? “My head was down and I went in there and speared at the ball. The ball came out. I saw the replay and that’s how MP is. He’s always by the ball.”
