ON THE COVER

The cover of the 1996 Miami Dolphins Media Guide features quarterback Dan Marino along with Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. In 1995, Marino became the most prolific passer in NFL history as he broke each of Fran Tarkenton's four major career passing records - touchdown passes, passing yardage, pass completions, and pass attempts. In 1996, Johnson begins his first season as head coach of the Dolphins.

H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

Owner/Chairman of the Board

NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: December 29, 1937

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and the stadium.

In addition to his ownership of the Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium, his personal investments also include a majority ownership of Major League Baseball's Florida Marlins and 100% ownership of the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers. Other business interests include companies involved in the service industry, real estate, hotels, and entertainment.

A resident of the South Florida area since 1953, Mr. Huizenga began his business career in 1962 when he purchased a one-truck waste collection route in Fort Lauderdale. Southern Sanitation grew rapidly, and by 1971 Mr. Huizenga merged with a relative in Chicago to create Waste Management Inc., which is now the largest waste management firm in the world. He was the company's president and vice chairman prior to resigning in 1984 to pursue his personal investment interests.

In 1987, Mr. Huizenga purchased an interest in Blockbuster Entertainment when the video rental outlet consisted of a total of 19 stores. As chairman and chief executive officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation, Mr. Huizenga saw the franchise grow to over 4,400 stores prior to its merger with Viacom. He is currently chairman of Republic Industries and Huizenga Holdings.

His community involvement and industry leadership have earned him many prestigious awards, including his 1994 induction into the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions. In 1996, Mr. Huizenga was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. He was honored as the 1994 Humanitarian of the Year by the National Conference of Christians and Jews and received the Bronze Award as 1993 CEO of the Year from Financial World. In addition, he was honored along with his wife Marti, as "Outstanding Philanthropists for 1991" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society Fund Raising Executives. Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. He also was named Business Leader of the Year in 1993 by Georgetown University's Business School and was named Success Magazine's 1995 "Entrepreneur of the Year." He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry. He also was honored by the Ft. Lauderdale NAACP for his contribution to its programs.

Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Florida Chamber of Commerce, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army, the Boys Club of Broward County and the Museum of Art and is Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga, 58, and wife Marti live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam and two grandchildren, Savannah and Wayne III.

DON SHULA

Vice-Chairman

College: John Carroll

NFL: 34th Season

Dolphins: 27th Season

Born: January 4, 1930

On January 5, 1996, Don Shula was named as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team after serving as the team's Head Coach since 1970.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only four coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls, and his 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged almost ten wins per season in his career (328 regular season wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games each.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, when he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

In addition to his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including, most recently, the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success.

Shula's oldest son David, 37, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David currently is the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium (in a game Miami won 23-7), it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches.

Shula's other son Mike, 31, was named as the Offensive Coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1996 after spending the three previous seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has three children, Alex, Lindsey, and Tyler, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation. Youngest daughter Annie is involved in running her own pet grooming business.

Shula and his wife Mary Anne reside in Miami and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on Oct. 16, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and eight grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joins Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

JIMMY JOHNSON

General Manager/Head Coach

College: Arkansas
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: July 16, 1943

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95).

Johnson built one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the last two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports and for HBO Sports. He became the first, and one of only two head coaches ever in football history, to win both a Super Bowl title and a national collegiate championship, and he has developed and maintained winning programs everywhere he has been as a head coach.

Prior to his stint at FOX and HBO, Johnson served as Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1989 through 1993. During that time, he became only the fourth man in NFL history to coach consecutive Super Bowl winners, winning Super Bowl XXVII in 1992 and following that with a victory in Super Bowl XXVIII in 1993. His 1992 Super Bowl win made Johnson the first coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title and a major college football championship (University of Miami - 1987).

In his five years in Dallas, Johnson led the Cowboys to two NFL championships, with their first title in 1992 coming just three years after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. In all four years that followed Johnson's initial season with the Cowboys, he was named the NFL Coach of the Year by at least one national news media outlet. In addition, Johnson's post-season winning percentage of .875 (7-1 record) is the second best in NFL history, behind only Vince Lombardi's mark of .900 (9-1).

Since the start of the 1990 season through the 1993 campaign, Johnson's clubs compiled an overall record of 50-22 (.694), going 43-21 (.672) in the regular season as well as 7-1 in the playoffs, and Johnson's regular season winning percentage of .672 over that period is the third best percentage in the NFL during the 1990s, surpassed only by George Seifert and Marv Levy. Even more impressive, starting on November 24, 1991, the Cowboys won 37 of their last 45 games overall (.822) under Johnson before he left the team on March 29, 1994. In addition, during those years Johnson's teams played their best football at the end of the season when championships are decided, as the Cowboys posted a record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January in 1990-93, the best mark in the NFL for those two months in that time span. Johnson also has claimed at least one victory over each of the 13 NFC teams he has faced since 1990, and additionally he is 11-3 in his last 14 games against AFC opponents.

In 1992, Johnson's first NFL championship team set a Cowboy club record for most regular season victories with 13 (13-3), while also establishing a new team standard for most overall wins (16). He did that with the NFL's youngest team that season, utilizing a roster that averaged 25.6 years of age per man. The Dallas defense was ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while the offense exploded for an average of 37 points per game in its last five contests.

In 1993, en route to a second straight Super Bowl win, Johnson's Cowboys were the only team in the league to be ranked in the top 11 in all six of the NFL's major statistical offensive and defensive categories and established a new club record by surrendering an NFL-low six interceptions, while again fielding one of the youngest teams in the league.

During Johnson's tenure in Dallas, in addition to his coaching success, his ability to evaluate talent played a key role in his personnel decisions that rebuilt the Cowboys from the worst team in the league into Super Bowl champions. His five drafts produced 17 players who would eventually become starters in one or more of the three Cowboys' Super Bowl championship teams of the 1990s, and eight of those picks would go on to make the Pro Bowl (Troy Aikman, Daryl Johnston, Mark Stepnoski, Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Erik Williams, Leon Lett, Darren Woodson). In addition to his draft success, Johnson engineered 55 trades of players and/or draft picks during that time and those trades, coupled with free agent signings, added seven other eventual Super Bowl starters, including three more Pro Bowl performers (Jay Novacek, Thomas Everett, Charles Haley), to the Cowboy roster. In all, during his tenure in Dallas, Johnson brought 24 players who started in either Super Bowl XXVII, Super Bowl XXVIII, or Super Bowl XXX, and 11 Pro Bowl performers to the Cowboy team he inherited in 1989.

Before moving to the NFL, Johnson achieved similar success in the college ranks. At the University of Miami (1984-88) Johnson led the Hurricanes to a 52-9 record, including a 44-4 mark over the final four seasons. His Hurricane teams also captured two Orange Bowl titles, a national championship in 1987 and two No. 2 finishes (1986, 1988). Only a combined five-point difference in two losses separated Miami from three straight 12-0 seasons from 1986-88.

During Johnson's reign the Hurricanes were 21-9 against teams that were ranked in the Top 20, and 5-0 against preseason No. 1 clubs. They avoided upsets, putting together an unblemished 31-0 mark versus unranked teams. They won 36 straight regular-season games from 1985-88, the fifth longest streak in NCAA history, and they won 20 consecutive road games from 1984-88.

Johnson had 14 of his Hurricane players go on to become first-round NFL draft choices, while also coaching Heisman Trophy winner Vinnie Testaverde (1986) as well as eight players who would become Pro Bowl performers in the NFL (Eddie Brown, Jerome Brown, Brian Blades, Michael Irvin, Bennie Blades, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Leon Searcy).

In recognition of his accomplishments with the Hurricanes, Johnson was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame on March 30, 1996.

In his first head coaching job, Johnson took over a losing program at Oklahoma State in 1979 and brought it to national prominence, compiling a 29-24-2 record in five seasons, including two bowl appearances. Johnson was named Big Eight Coach of the Year following his first season.

Before becoming a head coach, Johnson spent 14 years as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks. He began his coaching career on the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 1965. When an assistant's job fell through at Florida State in 1966, Jimmy spent the year as an assistant coach at Picayune High School in Mississippi.

He resumed his college coaching career one year later in 1967 as Wichita State's defensive line coach. In 1968 he became a 25-year old defensive coordinator when Johnny Majors, an Arkansas assistant when Johnson played there, brought him to Iowa State.

After two years at Iowa State, Johnson moved to Chuck Fairbanks' Oklahoma staff (1970-72) as defensive line coach. He returned to Arkansas in 1973 for a four-year tenure as his alma mater's defensive coordinator under his college coach, Frank Broyles.

In 1977, Johnson went to Pittsburgh as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, directing one of college football's all-time great defenses for two years. Johnson's 14-year career as an assistant came to an end in 1979 when he took over the rebuilding mission at Oklahoma State.

Johnson also proved to be successful in his two years in the broadcast booth as he was on the football field. While an analyst for FOX, Johnson was named as one of five finalists for the 1995 Sports Emmy Award for outstanding analysis, covering broadcasters from every sport who served as game color commentators or studio analysts.

A native Texan, James William Johnson was born on July 16, 1943 in Port Arthur on Texas' Gulf Coast, where he earned all-state football honors at Jefferson High School as a two-way lineman.

Despite his relatively small size, Johnson became an All-Southwest Conference defensive lineman at Arkansas and helped lead the Razorbacks to the 1964 national championship. A three-year letterman, Johnson was named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team of the 1960s. He graduated from Arkansas with a degree in psychology.

Johnson and his girlfriend Rhonda Rookmaaker reside in Miami, Florida. He has two sons, Brent, an attorney, and Chad, an account executive for Paine Webber.

JOHNSON'S NFL MILESTONES

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson built one of the most successful coaching records in football during his tenure with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-93. In that time span, he guided the team to a pair of Super Bowl titles (SBs XXVII and XXVIII), with his first title coming just three seasons after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989.

DOLPHIN FACT

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, and became the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Excluding the NFL's two newest expansion teams, the Dolphins and Dallas Cowboys (from Landry (1960-88), Johnson (1989-93) and Barry Switzer (1994-current) have both had an NFL-low total of three head coaches in the history of their clubs.

JOHNSON AMONG ACTIVE NFL COACHES

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's overall career winning percentage of .580 ranks among the best of any active coach in the National Football League (minimum 50 career victories).

In addition, Johnson is one of only four active coaches (others are New England's Bill Parcells, who accomplished the feat with the New York Giants, San Francisco's George Seifert, and Dallas' Barry Switzer) who have led a team to a Super Bowl title.

JOHNSON IN THE 1990s

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson has been one of the NFL's most successful head coaches during the 1990s. Thus far in the decade, Johnson is the only coach to win a pair of Super Bowls (XXVII and XXVIII with Dallas) and his regular season winning percentage of .672 is the third best in the league during the 1990s (minimum 50 games coached).

In addition, during his tenure with the Cowboys, Johnson posted a record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January in the 1990s, the best winning percentage of any coach in those two months in the 1990s.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the newly created foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation will contribute, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Miami Dolphins Foundation. Resources for contributions will be procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

Further information on the Miami Dolphins Foundation is available through the Miami Dolphins Community Relations Department or by calling (954) 452-7121.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LARRY BEIGHTOL

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

College: Catawba
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: November 21, 1942

Larry Beightol was named assistant head coach/offensive line by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on February 16, 1996. Beightol joins the Dolphins after 11 NFL seasons with stints with five teams - Houston Oilers, New York Jets, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, San Diego Chargers and the Atlanta Falcons.

Beightol joins the Dolphins after one season as the offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers. Prior to joining the Oilers, Beightol spent five seasons in the same role with the New York Jets (1990-94) and inherited an offensive line that gave up 62 sacks in 1989 and improved that number to 21 in 1993 - an NFL best that season. In 1993, New York's offensive line set a club record by not allowing a sack in eight of the club's 16 games.

He spent the 1989 season as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Dan Henning at San Diego. From 1987-88, Beightol served as offensive line coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before moving to San Diego in 1989. Beightol's first NFL job was as offensive line coach with the Atlanta Falcons (1985-86) and during his stay in Atlanta, Gerald Riggs led the NFC in rushing yards in 1985 and the team finished third in the NFL in rushing yards in 1986.

Before joining the pro ranks, Beightol coached 17 years at the collegiate level with stops at William & Mary (1968-71), North Carolina State (1972-75), Auburn (1976), Arkansas (1977-78, 80-82), head coach at Louisiana Tech (1979), and Missouri (1983-84).

Beightol played guard and linebacker at Catawba College (1961-63) and earned a B.S. in physical education from the school before getting a master's degree from William & Mary. He attended and played football at West Branch High School in Morrisdale, Pa. and is a member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Division). In addition, Beightol has been inducted into the Catawba Sports Hall of Fame for his prowess at the school.

Beightol and his wife, Marian, have one daughter, Kristin and live in Plantation. He was born on November 21, 1942, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

College: Memphis State
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: March 6, 1955

Kippy Brown enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named running backs coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on January 19, 1996. He has 17 years of coaching experience, including four in the NFL, and comes to Miami after one season in the same role with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

He joined the Bucs after two seasons as assistant head coach/wide receivers at the University of Tennessee, his second stint at the school. Prior to rejoining the Volunteers, Brown coached the running backs for the New York Jets from 1990-92. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing and Brad Baxter led all AFC runners in touchdowns.

From 1983-89, Brown was receivers coach at Tennessee under head coach Johnny Majors after spending the 1982 season as receivers coach at the University of Louisville, where he coached future Dolphins wide receiver Mark Clayton. While at Tennessee, Brown tutored future NFL receivers Anthony Miller, Tim McGee and Alvin Harper. He began his coaching career at the University of Memphis as running backs coach in 1978, before handling the wide receivers in 1979 and 1980.

Brown played collegiately at Memphis, where he quarterbacked the Tigers from 1975-77 and was known for his strong arm and scrambling ability. His top collegiate moment came in 1975 when he led Memphis to a 31-20 upset victory over sixth-ranked Auburn.

Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome (1/8/75) and Jennifer (7/28/80), and live in Plantation. He was born on March 6, 1955, in Sweetwater, Tenn.

GEORGE HILL

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill is entering his eighth season with the Dolphins and his first as defensive coordinator after being named to the post by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Hill spent his first seven years with the Dolphins as linebackers coach and will retain those duties along with adding the defensive coordinator title.

Before originally coming to the Dolphins on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts. While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987, the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Hill spent six seasons (1979-84) as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time, the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as Defensive Coordinator at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, Hill was a four-year letterman at Denison (1951-57).

Hill was born on April 28, 1933 in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64) and Tammy (2/26/69).

PAT JONES

Tight Ends

College: Arkansas
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: November 4, 1947

Pat Jones begins his first season as the Dolphins' tight ends coach after being named to the position by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson on January 17, 1996. It is Jones' second year in the NFL after spending 1995 with the Chicago Bears as a special assistant with the offensive line. Prior to joining the Bears, he spent 11 seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State University (1984-94) and has spent 22 years at the collegiate level and 28 years overall in coaching.

Jones led Oklahoma State to a 62-60-3 record during his tenure in Stillwater and was at the helm during the school's only 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) in its football history. He led the Cowboys to four bowl games (1984 and 1985 Gator Bowl, 1987 Sun Bowl and 1988 Holiday Bowl) with three victories during his 11 seasons. Jones finished as the school's all-time winningest coach and 11th-most successful coach all-time in Big Eight history. He was twice named Big Eight Coach of the Year (1984 and 1992) and was National Coach of the Year by Football Yearbook in 1984.

He became Oklahoma State's head football coach when Jimmy Johnson left to become head coach at the University of Miami in 1984 and Jones was promoted from assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Jones' inaugural season at OSU saw the Cowboys achieve its highest national ranking (second in the UPI poll and third in the AP ratings) prior to a regular-season final against Oklahoma for the Big Eight title. The Cowboys finished the season with ten wins and a final ranking of fifth in UPI and sixth in AP. Jones' ten wins was just the third time in conference history that a rookie head coach had achieved that milestone, joining Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Colorado's Chuck Fairbanks. In addition, his Cowboys teams finished three other seasons ranked in the Top 20 with finishes of 17th in 1985, 11th in 1987 and 11th in 1988.

Jones began his coaching career in the Little Rock (Ark.) public schools in 1969 before moving on to the collegiate level as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas under then-defensive coordinator Johnson (1974-75). He also made stops as defensive ends coach at Southern Methodist (1976-77), defensive ends coach at Pittsburgh with Johnson in 1978, and defensive end coach/defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1979-83), before taking the head coach position at OSU in 1984.

Arkansas Tech in 1965 before transferring to Arkansas for 1966-67 as a walk-on linebacker and nose guard.

Jones lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on November 4, 1947, in Memphis, Tenn.

BILL LEWIS

Defensive Nickel Package

College: East Stroudsburg St.

NFL: First Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: August 5, 1941

Bill Lewis is in his first season with the Dolphins after being named defense nickel package coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Lewis joins the NFL coaching ranks after 32 years (1963-94) of coaching at the collegiate level. He will team with Mel Phillips in tutoring the Dolphins' defensive backs for the 1996 season.

He spent 1995 as athletic director at The Marist School in Atlanta after three seasons as head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94. Prior to his stint at Georgia Tech, Lewis served as head coach at East Carolina for three seasons (1989-91), during which he led the Pirates to an 11-1 record and a victory in the Peach Bowl over North Carolina State following the 1991 season. At the conclusion of the '91 campaign, Lewis received National Coach of the Year honors from A.F.C.A., UPI and Scripps-Howard.

Lewis began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg State (Pa.) in 1963 and made stops as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh (1966-68), Wake Forest (1969-70), Georgia Tech (1971-72) and Arkansas (1973-76). He became head coach at Wyoming in 1977 and spent three years at the helm for the Cowboys. He began a nine-year stint at the University of Georgia in 1980 as defensive backs coach before occupying the job of defensive coordinator in his last eight seasons with the Bulldogs.

While in Athens, the Bulldogs won the 1980 National Championship and during his nine years at the school, Georgia appeared in nine straight bowl games and won three Southeastern Conference titles. He coached 23 All-SEC honorees and seven All-Americans.

Lewis was a four-year letterman at quarterback at East Stroudsburg State (Pa.) from 1959-62 and earned Little All-America honors during his playing days. In addition, Lewis spent two years in the Detroit Tigers' minor league system as a pitcher.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Ft. Lauderdale, and have three sons, Mark (7/17/67), Gregg (3/3/70) and Geoff (2/17/72). Lewis was born on August 5, 1941, in Bristol, Pa.

RICH McGEORGE

Assistant Offensive Line

College: Elon

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: September 14, 1948

Rich McGeorge enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named to the position of assistant offensive line coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. McGeorge originally came to the Dolphins on June 1, 1993, as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach. In his current role, McGeorge assists Larry Beightol in coaching the club's offensive linemen.

McGeorge joined the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes.

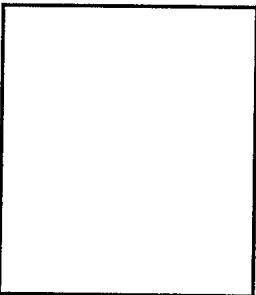

He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons and was the club's Offensive Player of the Year in 1973.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy (12/29/71) and Jason (10/26/73), and they live in Plantation. McGeorge was born September 14, 1948, in Roanoke, Va.

MEL PHILLIPS

Secondary

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: 12th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips enters his 12th season as a coach for the Dolphins. After being retained by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson, Phillips will team with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary. During his first 11 years with the club, Phillips was defensive backs coach.

Before coming to Miami, the 54-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips was on a staff that also included current Dolphins wide receivers coach Larry Seiple.

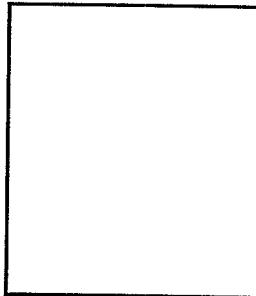

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73) and live in Miami Lakes. He was born on January 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

College: Stephen F. Austin
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: July 4, 1958

Brad Roll is in his first season with the Dolphins after being named assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 1, 1996, by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Roll joins the club after three seasons in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Roll joined the Bucs as strength and conditioning coach in 1993 and was instrumental in helping to develop and implement the club's offseason conditioning program. He went to Tampa after spending the 1989-92 seasons in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. While at UM, the team won the national championship in 1989 and 1991, and Roll worked with players such as Horace Copeland, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp.

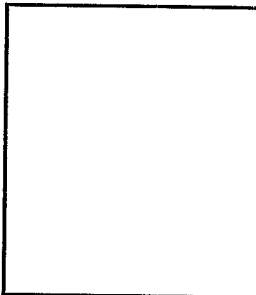

Prior to his arrival at Miami, Roll was strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas from 1987-88, and while at the school, he worked closely with KU's 1987 national championship basketball team. From 1981-86, Roll served as the first full-time strength and conditioning coach at Southwestern Louisiana and he was a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin, his alma mater, in 1980.

Roll played collegiately at Blinn (Tex.) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he was a center. He holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in education.

He lives in Davie and was born on July 4, 1958, in Houston, Tex.

LARRY SEIPLE

Wide Receivers

College: Kentucky
NFL: 16th Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: February 14, 1945

Larry Seiple begins his ninth season on the Dolphins coaching staff after being retained as wide receivers coach by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. He spent 12 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84) and then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff the also included current Miami secondary coach Mel Phillips.

Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphins assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five touchdowns. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633) and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.3-yard average of Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy, have three children, Keri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71) and they live in Pembroke Pines. They have one grandson, Austyn (11/1/93). Seiple was born on February 14, 1945, in Allentown, Pa.

GARY STEVENS

Offensive Coordinator

College: John Carroll

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: Eighth Season

Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his eighth season as an assistant coach with the Dolphins after being retained as offensive coordinator by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. In Stevens' seven years as the club's offensive coach, the Dolphins' offense was ranked eighth or better in the NFL six times, including a number one ranking in 1994.

Before joining the Dolphins, Stevens spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, the final five seasons under Johnson. As offensive coordinator for the club in his last six seasons, Stevens was the architect of the Hurricanes' explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Jim Kelly, current Dolphins quarterback Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde and Steve Walsh. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points a game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980-84, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in 1984, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at UM, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75) and Louisville (1971-74). He began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960's at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens and his wife, Rosemarie, have five children - Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann and Gary Ben.

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State

NFL: 14th Season

Dolphins: 11th Season

Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his 14th NFL season and 11th as Dolphins special teams coach after being retained by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson. Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year as offensive line coach of the Arizona Outlaws of United States Football League in 1985 and three seasons with the Indianapolis/Baltimore Colts serving as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1982-84.

Westhoff's 1995 special teams units are coming off a very successful season in which they ranked sixth in the NFL based on the accumulation ranking of 14 special teams categories.

During his coaching career, Westhoff has been associated with some of the NFL's premier kickers and punters. Rohn Stark (Colts, 1982-84), Reggie Roby (Miami, 1986-92), Raul Allegre (Colts, 1983-84), Dean Biasucci (Colts, 1984), Fuad Reveiz (Miami, 1986-88) and Pete Stoyanovich (Miami, 1989-current). In addition, O.J. McDuffie has emerged as one of the NFL's top return specialists. His special teams units have twice accomplished the rare feat of going through an entire season without a turnover or blocked kick. In 1989, his Dolphins' units led the NFL in special teams scoring and are consistently among the league leaders in blocked kicks and punts. In the past three seasons, his return teams have ranked in the top five on three separate occasions (kickoff returns, 1993-95 and punt

Westhoff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in 1975 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976 before coaching the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. His final two stops at the collegiate level were as offensive line coach at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981).

Westhoff began his collegiate playing days at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He was voted the team's Most Valuable Player as a junior and served as team captain as a senior. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history.

In 1989, the Dolphins players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins and for his courage and determination, the players saluted him with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Westhoff and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, John Thomas (4/27/81) and live in Plantation. Westhoff was born on January 10, 1948, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB ACKLES

Director of Football Operations

NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: September 16, 1938

On January 24, 1996, the Miami Dolphins named Bob Ackles, 57, as Director of Football Operations. Ackles re-joins Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, having worked with Johnson previously in Dallas where he helped lay the foundation that would result in back-to-back Super Bowl wins by the Cowboys. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Ackles is involved in all aspects of the team's football administration, including contract negotiations and player personnel and scouting operations on both the professional and collegiate levels.

Ackles, one of the most widely respected executives in the National Football League, joined the Dolphins from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as Director of Football Administration in 1995. He spent the three previous seasons in the Arizona Cardinals' front office, first as that club's Director of College Scouting from 1992-93 and then as Assistant General Manager in 1994.

Ackles first joined the NFL ranks in 1986 when he was named as the Cowboys' first-ever Vice President of Pro Personnel. Three years later, with the arrival of Johnson as Head Coach in Dallas, Ackles was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel and helped begin the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence as an NFL power. His efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. Those efforts were rewarded in 1991 when, following an 11-5 regular season, Dallas earned a berth in the playoffs, setting the stage for the first of their consecutive Super Bowl wins the following season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ackles spent 11 years as General Manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the winningest teams in the CFL, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In his last season with B.C., the Lions won the Grey Cup, the CFL's equivalent of the Super Bowl.

Ackles first joined B.C. as a water boy at the age of 15 and over the next 34 years, performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization from equipment manager to general manager.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario, near the United States border. Raised in Toronto, and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized football and hockey (goalie), and later coached two years of high school football in Vancouver.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside in Ft. Lauderdale. They have two married sons, Steve (34), and Scott (31), and three grandchildren.

TOM HECKERT

Director of Pro Personnel

College: Youngstown State
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his eighth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Pro Personnel prior to the start of the 1996 season. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1989 as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the evaluation of talent on the professional level and will have other overlapping duties as well.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced seven starters, three Pro Bowl selections (Cox, Sims, and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's four seasons in pro personnel, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Mark Ingram, Ron Heller, Keith Byars, Bernie Kosar, Gene Atkins, Michael Stewart, Eric Green, Gary Clark, Trace Armstrong, Terrell Buckley and Randal Hill.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 58, joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim (32) and Tom, Jr. (29), and three grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is a scout for the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette
NFL: 32nd Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992, replacing Tom Heckert, who earlier was elevated to the position as the team's Director of Player Personnel. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Braatz is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft. In that role, he works closely with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and the rest of the team's football staff. In the past three years, he played a key role in the selection of a number of players who made an immediate impact as rookies, including the 1994 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive lineman Tim Bowens, along with linebacker Aubrey Beavers, running back Terry Kirby, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie and tackle Billy Milner.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 32 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons and the Green Bay Packers.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 63, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 33, and Jon, 29.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

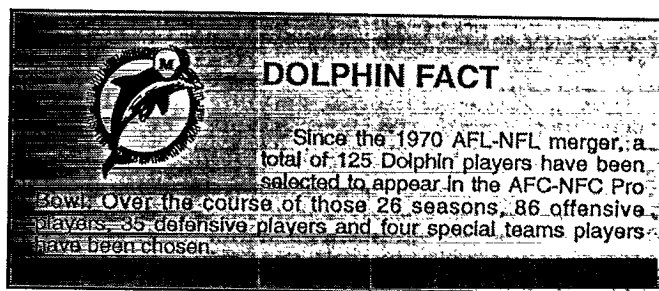

College Scout

College: Wyoming
NFL: 18th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his 14th Dolphins season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a total of 125 Dolphin players have been selected to appear in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Over the course of those 26 seasons, 86 offensive players, 35 defensive players and four special teams players have been chosen.

TOM HECKERT, JR.

College Scout

College: Hillsdale
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season
Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his sixth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert, Jr. will be responsible for scouting college players in the southeast and also will be involved in pro scouting as well. In his first four seasons in Miami, where his primary involvement was in pro personnel, he played a role in the acquisitions of Dolphins players such as Mark Ingram, Irving Fryar, Ron Heller, Keith Byars, Bernie Kosar, Gene Atkins, Michael Stewart, Eric Green, and Trace Armstrong.

Heckert, 29, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985.

Heckert, his wife Kathy and son, Griffin (one), reside in Weston.

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his seventh year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

Labadie, 47, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (21), Brad (18) and Ben (14).

JEFF SMITH

College Scout

College: Washington State
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: May 20, 1947

Beginning his first season with the Dolphins, Jeff Smith is responsible for scouting the plains states for the team.

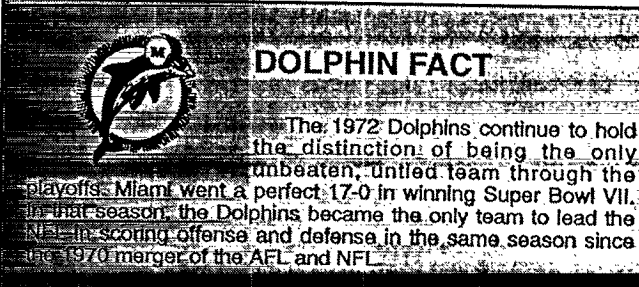

Smith joined the Dolphins on May 21, 1996, from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent the 1996 season working with current Dolphins Director of Football Operations Bob Ackles as a national scout responsible for evaluating draft-eligible players throughout the country.

Smith spent the previous seasons (1993-94) with Denver as the Broncos' Director of College Scouting. In that role, he coordinated all phases of the Broncos' college scouting operation. Before that, he was a member of the Cowboys' scouting department from 1984-92, working with Ackles and current Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Smith first entered the NFL ranks in 1980 when he became a full-time scout with the Seattle Seahawks after spending the previous four seasons grading film on a part-time basis for Seattle while coaching full-time at Mercer Island (WA) High School. He began his coaching career at South Mercer (WA) Junior HS in 1970.

After two years as an offensive tackle with Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to WSU, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

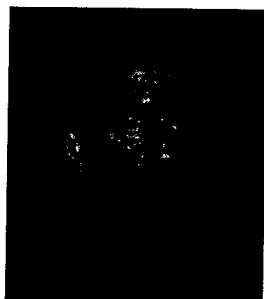

Smith was born in Williamsport, PA, and grew up in Clarkston, WA, where he attended Clarkston High School. He and his wife, Ann Bixby, reside in Dallas.

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his ninth season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his seventh season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include the scouting of the southwestern states.

Stripling, 61, joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

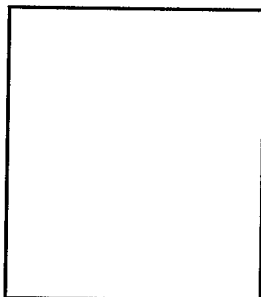

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain and was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (36) and Susan (34).

KEVIN O'NEILL

Head Athletic Trainer

College: Pittsburgh
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: August 2, 1954

Kevin O'Neill joined the Dolphins on March 1, 1996, as Head Athletic Trainer after serving seven seasons in a similar capacity with the Dallas Cowboys. Along with Ryan Vermillion and Troy Maurer, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff. He also will have other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins head coach Jimmy Johnson.

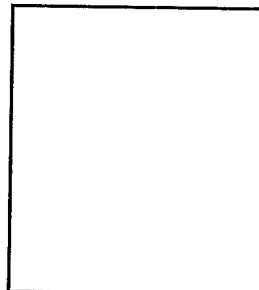

O'Neill re-joins Johnson with the Dolphins, having worked with him previously in Dallas and at the University of Miami. During his tenure in Dallas (1989-95), O'Neill was part of three Cowboys Super Bowl wins. He also was a member of Johnson's University of Miami National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the school.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his Master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

He serves as chairman of the public relations committee for the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife Anne have two children, McKenzie and Kaitlyn and live in Fort Lauderdale.

RYAN VERMILLION

Director of Rehabilitation/ Associate Athletic Trainer

College: Miami
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion, who joined the Dolphins training staff on April 10, 1992, serves as the club's Director of Rehabilitation and Associate Athletic Trainer. He is responsible for the day-to-day rehabilitative needs of the team as well as many of the overall programs designed to maintain the team's health and welfare.

Vermillion served as the club's Physical Therapist in 1991, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 32, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1987 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their daughters Erin and Riley.

Joe Robbie Stadium, "South Florida's Major League Facility," will again serve as home of the Miami Dolphins for the 1996 season. Now in its tenth year of operation, the 75,000 seat, 115 million dollar, state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds. It was named after Joe Robbie, the founder of the Dolphins.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. Plans for the stadium were first announced on March 5, 1984. The clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985 and ground breaking ceremonies were held on December 1, 1985, just 20-1/2 months prior to the first game.

Financing for Joe Robbie Stadium was based largely upon the licensing of executive suites and club seats on a 10-year basis. Executive suites which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box initially ranged in price from $30,000 and up per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, two TV monitors and telephone service, along with catered food and beverage service. Suite patrons also receive two complimentary parking passes as well as four guest passes.

Club Seats, which initially were priced from $800-$1,800 per year on a 10-year license, are 21" wide with chairbacks and arm rests. Club Seat patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow circulating air down on them. They are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck.

Suite and Club Seat patrons have access to JR's in the Stadium. A sports lounge located in the east end of the stadium, it commands a panoramic view of the playing area with casual snacks and beverages available.

The home of first class events, JRS hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. The stadium hosted its second NFL Championship game, when Super Bowl XXIX came to JRS on January 29, 1995.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty (50) percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to JRS. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise.

On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining 50-percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership of JRS.

Since Huizenga's outright purchase of the stadium, over $22 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and improve the building. Access and parking operations have been improved as JRS has increased the number of fixed parking spots by more than 10,000, bringing the total number of spaces available in JRS lots to 25,000. The next major phase of this plan saw the immediate and preferred parking areas expanded to allow for more spots within the lot directly around JRS as well as more spaces available for JRS Club and Suite guests. Over 1,000 palm trees and 5,000 flowers have been introduced to the stadium's surrounding areas in an effort to capture South Florida's native foliage. Other new additions include the new Welcome Center at Gate 4. The center serves all guests during non-event days and special request/VIP guests during events.

SportsTown, an entertainment complex located on the south side of the stadium between gates F and H, consists of two 7,500 square foot tents, ten interactive games, six distinct food stands, and two large bars. In addition, the complex includes eight 32" color TV monitors, radio broadcast and entertainment stages, along with a state-of-the-art sound system, novelty and souvenir merchandise kiosks and a Guest Service/Ticket kiosk.

Upon entering JRS, improvements will quickly become noticeable no matter which entrance is used.

The 100 and 400 level concourses now have a new flooring system. This system is a waterproof, heavy duty, slip resistant surface which also keeps aesthetics in mind. The flooring, called silikal, is installed in a series of applications and provides a functional and safe surface. It is also a water resistant surface (negating leaks) to increase the comfort level of all guests. While this system has been used at other major facilities, JRS is the only facility to bring aesthetics into the equation by asking the manufacturer to incorporate team colors of the Dolphins and Marlins into the floor. The 100 level and 400 level concourses have also been painted to create a cleaner, brighter atmosphere. To augment the painting, JRS management has also begun the introduction of large photographs representing the Marlins and Dolphins located at section 143.

Two new elevators have been installed at Gate G as well. The new elevators assist a great deal in the expedient servicing of club level and disabled guests. This brings the total number of elevators dedicated to club level and disabled use to seven (4 at Gate G, 2 at Gate C and one at Gate E) and the total number of elevators at JRS to 13 (1 at baseball pressbox, 1 at football pressbox, 2 service elevators, 1 office elevator and 1 freight elevator).

Joe Robbie Stadium's entire Club Level has also undergone a complete renovation. The series of lounges and concourse areas that service Club Seat and Suite guests now has new furniture (sofas, tables, chairs, bar stools, etc.), new wallpaper, new paint and trim, and new carpet.

Concessions at the stadium have also been improved. All 28 concession stands on the 100 and 400 levels have been refurbished at a cost of over $500,000. These changes provide a better looking stand capable of quicker and more efficient service. In addition, new themed areas have been incorporated into the building. A Caribbean area, Country & Western area, Nautical area and Health Food Stand have all become permanent additions to the concessions available at JRS. Each area offers a variety of food and beverage specific to its theme.

No matter where an individual sits during an event at JRS, there are a few other things that are noticeable. Every seat, wherever possible, at the stadium is now equipped with a cupholder. These cupholders not only provide convenience for guests, but also reduce the garbage and spillage during events. Joe Robbie Stadium is one of the few stadiums with two Sony JumboTRON video boards. This ensures that all visitors enjoy an unobstructed view of at least one board. The board on the east side of the stadium (right field) has been replaced by a new JumboTRON. Work on this project was completed just prior to Super Bowl XXIX. This scoreboard is one of the largest video boards in any stadium in America, over 1,200 square feet. The picture quality on this board is significantly improved as well. In fact, it has twice as many lines of resolution as the old board, providing a picture that is 100% improved. It is a full 120 square feet larger than the old board and was installed at a cost of four million dollars.

Joe Robbie Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

As the seasons change, so do the sporting events at Joe Robbie Stadium. Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of JRS as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, JRS had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans that paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, JRS underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the south west corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of an electric disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at JRS.

The facility displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events and the past year was no exception. Along with Miami Dolphins football, college football took the field with the sixth annual Car Quest (formerly Blockbuster) Bowl and the Orange Bowl game will be played at JRS for the first time ever on New Year's Eve, December 31, 1996. Also, Major League Baseball's premier event, the All-Star Game, will take place at JRS in 2000. Music filled the air around JRS as Pink Floyd opened their world tour at JRS, continuing the stadium's concert tradition. They joined the stellar list of musical talents that include Hall & Oates, Chicago, Rod Stewart, The Who, The Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, U2, Elton John, Billy Joel, Paul McCartney, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, New Kids on the Block, and Guns 'N Roses who have all performed at JRS. One of Joe Robbie Stadium's memorable events took place in 1992 when Gloria Estefan and Comic Relief joined forces to create a 15-hour marathon that raised over two million dollars for the victims of Hurricane Andrew. Other events held in the past at Joe Robbie Stadium include international soccer games, featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

The stadium was designed with the spectator in mind. The general seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field and there are no obstructed seats in the stadium. Access to seats is easily gained by the two ramps or the escalators located at each of the four entrance gates.

JRS offers the utmost in comfort and convenience. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands, each featuring a TV monitor, so as not to miss a minute of the action. Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men and 40 women).

Joe Robbie Stadium is located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line and sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 18 miles south of Fort Lauderdale.

There are a total of 23,000 parking spaces for cars and 300 parking spaces for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad on the premises.

Joe Robbie Stadium is truly "South Florida's Major League Facility."

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 68,226 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other recently constructed NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, and an auditorium that will function as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Joe Robbie Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Joe Robbie Stadium itself. When JRS was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of fixed concrete seating areas from the stadium had to be removed. Those sections have now been relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex, including many of the chair back seats that formerly were at the stadium. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including many in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and special events. In addition, the structure also includes additional permanent amenities for fans such as concession areas, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1996

TRACE ARMSTRONG...

- needs 3.5 sacks to reach 50 career sacks. He has 46.5 sacks.

FRED BARNETT...

- needs 366 receiving yards to reach 5,000 career receiving yards. He has 4,634 yards.

KEITH BYARS...

- to extend his streak of consecutive games with a reception. He has caught a pass in 128 straight games.
- needs 35 catches to move into first among the NFL's all-time reception leaders among running backs, passing John L. Williams (546), Marcus Allen (549) and Roger Craig (566). He has 532 career catches.
- needs 75 receiving yards to reach 5,000 career receiving yards. He has 4,925 yards.

JEFF CROSS...

- needs 8.5 sacks to break the team record for career sacks, surpassing Vern Den Herder (64 sacks), Doug Betters (65.5) and Bill Stanfill (67.5). He has 59.5 sacks.
- should he lead the team in sacks, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time and break the team record for most seasons leading the team in sacks. He has led the team in sacks five seasons (1989-91, 1993-94) and is currently tied with Bill Stanfill (1969-70, 1973-74 and 1976).

ERIC GREEN...

- needs 59 catches to reach 300 career catches. He has 241 catches.

BERNIE KOSAR...

- needs 1,907 passing yards to reach 25,000 career passing yards. He has 23,093 yards.

DAN MARINO...

- needs 1,159 passing yards to become the only quarterback in NFL history to reach 50,000 career passing yards. He has 48,841 yards.
- needs to play in five regular season games to break the team record for career regular season games, surpassing Bob Kuechenberg (190 games). He has played in 186 games.
- needs to play in 14 regular season games to become the first player in Dolphins history to play in 200 regular season games. He has played in 186 games.
- needs to play this season to play in his 14th season with the Dolphins and tie him with Bob Griese (1967-80) and Don Strock (1974-87) behind only the 15 seasons of Bob Kuechenberg (1970-84).
- should he lead the league in attempts, he would accomplish the feat for the fifth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), John Unitas (1957, 1959-61) and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65).
- should he lead the league in completions, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984-86, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48).
- should he lead the league in passing yards, he would accomplish the feat for the sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the league in that category. He led the league in 1984-86, 1988 and 1992 and is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969).

- should he lead the league in touchdown passes, he would join only two other to have led the NFL in that category for four seasons. He led the league in 1984-86.

O.J. McDUFFIE...

- needs to return a punt for a touchdown to set the team record for career punt returns for touchdowns, breaking a tie with Freddie Solomon (two) and Tom Vigorito. He has returned two punts for touchdowns.

BERNIE PARMALEE...

- needs 849 rushing yards to move past Mark Higgs (2,648) into fifth place on club's all-time career rushing yards list. He has 1,800 career rushing yards.
- needs eight rushing touchdowns to move past Lorenzo Hampton (22 career rushing TDs) and Andra Franklin (22) into fifth place and 11 rushing touchdowns to move past Don Nottingham (25) into fourth place on the club's all-time career rushing touchdowns list. He has 15 career rushing touchdowns.
- needs two 100-yard rushing games to move past Mark Higgs (seven career 100-yard games) into fourth place and three 100-yard rushing games to move past Benny Malone (eight) into third place and five 100-yard rushing games to move past Mercury Morris (ten) into second place on the club's all-time career 100-yard rushing games list. He is tied for fifth place with Delvin Williams with six career 100-yard rushing games.
- needs 241 rushing attempts to move past Mark Higgs (702) into fifth place and 271 rushing attempts to move past Tony Nathan (732) into fourth place on the club's all-time rushing attempts list. He has 462 career rushing attempts.

KEITH SIMS...

- to extend his streak of consecutive starts to 85 games by starting all 16 games in 1996. He would move past Jeff Cross (81) and Vern Den Herder (81) into seventh place and Jake Scott (84) into sixth place on the club's all-time list for most consecutive starts. He has started 69 consecutive games.

PETE STOYANOVICH...

- to break the team record for career points, surpassing Garo Yepremian (830 scoring points). He has 774 points.
- to break the team record for consecutive points after touchdowns scored. He has converted 110 straight PATs and is tied with Garo Yepremian.

RICHMOND WEBB...

- to move as high as third on the Dolphins' most consecutive regular season games started list. He has started 78 consecutive regular season games and would pass Dwight Stephenson (80 straight starts), Jeff Cross (81), Vern Den Herder (81), Jake Scott (84), Bob Baumhower (86), Dick Anderson (87) and Norm Evans (91).
- should he be selected to the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the seventh consecutive season and break the team record for most consecutive Pro Bowls. His six consecutive Pro Bowls are tied with Jim Langer who went six straight years between 1973-78.
- should he be selected to the Pro Bowl, he would accomplish the feat for the seventh season and break the team record for most Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive lineman. His six Pro Bowls are tied with Jim Langer (1973-78) and Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83).

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins, who own a regular season record of 257-133-2 (.658) and an overall mark of 274-147-2 (.650), have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16 game season.

In his career, with 6,531 attempts, Marino ranks first in NFL history in pass attempts, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 6,467 attempts on Dec. 11, 1995 against Kansas City . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a two yard completion to Eric Green in the fourth quarter of that game and broke the record with an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill later in that quarter . . . With 3,913 pass completions, Marino ranks first in NFL history in completions, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 3,686 completions on Oct. 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a five-yard touchdown pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter of that game and broke the record with a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter . . . With 48,841 yards passing, Marino ranks first in NFL history in total yards passing, breaking Fran Tarkenton's NFL record of 47,003 passing yards on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England on a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter . . . With 352 touchdown passes, Marino ranks first in NFL history in touchdown passes, breaking Tarkenton's NFL record of 342 TD passes with a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars in the second quarter on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a four-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter on Nov. 20, 1995 vs. San Francisco . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: Marino has led the NFL in pass attempts four times during a season (1984, 1986, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (four) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1947-48), Johnny Unitas (1957, 1959-61), and George Blanda (1953, 1963-65) . . . Marino led the NFL in pass completions five times in his career (1984-86, 1988, 1992) . . . He tied the NFL record for most season leading the league in pass completions (five) with Sammy Baugh (1937, 1943, 1945, 1947-48) . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino attempted the 6,468th pass of his career (an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill) to break Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for most career pass attempts . . . On Oct. 8th, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed the 3,687th pass of his career (a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter) to break Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for most career completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Fouts (3,297) and Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . Marino's completion percentage in 1995 of 64.1% is the second highest completion percentage of his career, surpassed only by his team record of 64.2% in 1984 and is the second highest single season completion percentage in Dolphin history . . . Marino has suffered just 20 sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 186 regular season games (184 starts) and the Dolphins are 7-13 in those games . . . Including playoffs, has completed less than half his passes 23 times in 199 games (197 starts), and the Dolphins are 7-16 in those games . . . Marino did not have any sub-50 percent completion percentage games in 1995; his last game of completing less than half of his attempts was on Oct.

16, 1994 vs. L.A. Raiders . . . That game followed the previous contest, at Buffalo on Oct. 9, 1994 when Marino also failed to complete half of his attempts, the only time in Marino's career that he had back-to-back games when he completed less than 50% of his passes . . .

YARDAGE: Marino's 48,841 yards passing ranks first on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list:

On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, the 11th time (1984-92, 1994-95) in his 13 seasons in the NFL he has passed for 3,000 or more yards . . . His 11 seasons of passing for 3,000 or more yards extended his own NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons . . . He set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons (before John Elway moved ahead of Montana in 1994):

In addition, Marino's nine consecutive 3,000-yard seasons (1984-92) is the NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino has 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs), one of his many other NFL records, and the Dolphins are 8-5 in those games (9-6 overall, including playoffs) . . . Included in that total are two 400-yard passing games in 1995, in the AFC First Round Playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo when he threw for 422 yards (the most by any Dolphins player in playoff history), and on Oct. 1, 1995 at Cincinnati, when he threw for 450 yards, the fourth highest single game total of his career and the fourth highest single game total in club history:

Of all the quarterbacks in the Top 10, Marino has played the second fewest number of years and in the Top Twenty is tied for the fourth fewest years played (along with John Elway) behind Jim Kelly, Boomer Esiason, and Warren Moon . . . Through his first 13 seasons, Marino has averaged 27.1 touchdown passes per season and 1.89 TD passes per game he has played . . . At his current per-game pace, Marino would pass for his 400th touchdown pass in the tenth game of the 1997 season . . . Marino and the "Marks Brothers", Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, combined for the first and sixth (tied) most prolific quarterback to wide receiver scoring combinations in NFL history: Marino and Clayton combined for 79 touchdown passes, the highest scoring duo in league history, surpassing other famous quarterback-to-receiver combinations such as Baltimore's Johnny Unitas to Raymond Berry (63 touchdowns), and San Francisco's Joe Montana to Jerry Rice (55 touchdowns), while the Marino-to-Duper combination, with 55 touchdowns, ranks tied for sixth:

Overall in Marino's career the Dolphins won only eight of the 23 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass, with one victory coming in 1995 (Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo), one win in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit), two in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. Patriots), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. Patriots) . . . Marino has six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins are 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino has 20 career games passing for four or more touchdowns (including one in 1995, on Nov. 26th vs. Indianapolis when he threw four touchdown passes), and he is 15-5 in those 20 contests (including 0-1 in 1995) . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . In his career he has thrown three or more touchdowns in 55 games (60, including playoffs), and he is 36-19 in those contests (39-21 including post-season games) . . . On Dec. 3rd vs. Atlanta, his second touchdown pass of the game, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, was Marino's 20th touchdown pass of the season . . . He has thrown for 20 or more TD passes in 12 of his 13 years in the NFL . . . The only season when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1993, when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1995, Marino extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 12 seasons . . . In 1991 Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL:

NFL LEADERS, MOST SEASONS OF 20 OR MORE TOUCHDOWN PASSES

NAME	YEARS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	SEASONS WITH 20-PLUS TDs	NFL SEASONS	CAREER TOUCHDOWNS
DAN MARINO	12	1983-92, 94-95	13	352
John Unitas	8	1957, 59-60, 62-63, 65-67	18	290
John Hadl	7	1965-68, 70-71, 74	16	244
Fran Tarkenton	7	1962, 64, 67-69, 75, 78	18	342
Sonny Jurgensen	7	1961-62, 64, 66-67, 69-70	17	255
Jim Kelly	7	1986, 89-92, 94-95	10	223

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . He also holds the NFL record with three consecutive seasons (1984-86) of throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes . . . No other quarterback has thrown 30 or more touchdown passes three times, and only seven other quarterbacks have thrown 30 or more TD passes twice (Sonny Jurgensen, 1961, 1967; Y.A. Tittle, 1962, 1963; Daryle Lamonica, 1967, 1969; Dan Fouts, 1980, 1981; Steve Bartkowski, 1980, 1981; Warren Moon, 1990, 1995; and Brett Favre, 1994, 1995) . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: In his career, Marino has not thrown an interception in 63 games (67, including playoffs), including three games in 1995, on Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo, on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis and on Sept. 18th vs. Pittsburgh . . . The Dolphins are 45-18 in those 63 games in which he was not intercepted (48-19, including playoffs), including a 2-1 record in 1995 . . . When Marino was intercepted by Junior Seau in the second quarter on Nov. 5, 1995 at San Diego, it ended a streak of 114 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the first quarter at Cincinnati on October 1st when Andre Collins intercepted a Marino pass, covering the remainder of that game, the next two games Marino played (Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis and Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo) and the Charger game until Seau's INT . . . It left Marino eight attempts short of Bob Griese's team record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception . . . In addition, when Marino was intercepted by Wilbur Marshall in the first quarter in 1995 season opener vs. N.Y. Jets on Sept. 3rd, it ended a streak of 105 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, including his final 102 passes in 1994 (covering all three final regular season games) and the first three passes he threw in the Jets contest in 1995 . . . On Dec. 24, 1995 at St. Louis, Marino was intercepted by Toby Wright, Marino's 200th interception of his career . . .

SACKS: Marino's 22 sacks in 1995 marks the third time in his career he has been sacked 20 or more times in a season, along with 1992 (28 sacks) and 1991 (27 sacks) . . . Marino was not sacked four times in 1995 (five times, including playoffs), on Dec. 3rd vs. Atlanta, Nov. 5th at San Diego, on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis and on Sept. 10th at New England (as well as the AFC Wildcard playoff game on Dec. 30th at Buffalo) and the Dolphins went 3-1 in those contests (3-2, including playoffs) . . . On Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times, the second straight game he was sacked four times . . . He also had been sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1995 vs. San Francisco, including three sacks in the Dolphins' first three offensive plays from scrimmage . . . The four sacks in those two games are both tied for the second highest single game total of Marino's career, surpassed only by his five sacks at New Orleans on November 29, 1992 . . . For nine consecutive seasons (1982-90), the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . .

RUSHING AND RECEIVING: Marino has rushed for a touchdown eight times in the regular season (nine, including playoffs): Dec. 12, 1994 vs. Kansas City, four yards, Sept. 26, 1993 at Buffalo, four yards; Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards (and one playoff contest - Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in AFC Division Playoff contest, two yards) . . . The Dolphins are 7-1 in those regular season contests (7-2 including playoff games) when Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . Marino has caught one pass in his career, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he caught his own deflected pass for a six-yard loss . . .

DURABILITY: Marino missed two games in 1995, on Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and on Oct. 15th at New Orleans when he was recovering from a bruised left hip and arthroscopic surgery on his right knee . . . Marino was permanently forced from a game due to injury once in 1995, on Sept. 18th vs. Pittsburgh, when he left the contest permanently late in the third quarter due to a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by the Steelers' Greg Lloyd . . . He also missed some snaps in two games in 1995 due to an injury: a dislocated fourth left finger on Dec. 17th at Buffalo, missing one play (the final play of the first half) and a bruised left hip on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis, missing one series . . . In that Indianapolis contest, Marino also suffered cartilage damage in his right knee but he did finish the game . . . Including the games missed due to his torn Achilles' injury in 1993 (the final 11 games of that season), Marino has started 175 of the Dolphins' last 188 regular season games (and 188 of 201 games overall including playoffs) since the start of the 1984 season, not counting the three replacement games in 1987 . . . Prior to the two games he missed in 1995, the last game he missed was on January 2, 1994 at New England, the last of the 11 games Marino missed at the conclusion of the 1993 season as a result of his Achilles' injury . . . Marino suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10, 1993 . . . He was placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 13th and missed the remaining 11 games of the season . . . In addition to the two games he missed in 1995 and the 11 games he missed in 1993, the only other full games he missed due to an injury in his career were the two final games of the 1983 season . . . The first game he missed as a result of his Achilles' injury, on October 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his streak of playing 145 straight regular season games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season (155 straight games if playoff games are counted) . . . Before that injury, Marino was the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino is one of only five NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight regular season games since the 1970 merger (also: Ron Jaworski, Phila., 116 games [1977-84], Brian Sipe, Cleve., 109 games [1975-83], Joe Ferguson, Buff., 107 games [1977-84], and Steve Bartkowski, Atl., 100 games [1977-84]) . . .

OPERATIONS: Did not undergo any surgery procedures following the 1995 season . . . It marked only the seventh time in his career that his off-season was surgery-free (after the 1995, 1994, 1992, 1990, 1989, 1988, and 1986 seasons) . . . On Oct. 9, 1995, Marino underwent surgery by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Holy Cross Medical Center to repair cartilage damage to his right knee that was injured on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis . . . He missed the next two games (Oct. 15th at New Orleans and Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets) due to that injury . . . It was his first surgery since he underwent arthroscopic surgery on March 31, 1994 to remove bone spurs from his right ankle . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10, 1993 . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center and he missed the final 11 games of the 1993 season . . . In addition, Marino also has undergone surgery on his left knee five times since joining the Dolphins, most recently arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . The other operations to that knee took place on March 8, 1988 (after the 1987 season), February 7, 1986 (after the 1985 season), April 3, 1985 (after the 1984 season), and on Jan. 6, 1984 (after the 1983 season) . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall Marino holds 25 NFL records and is tied for seven others . . . In addition to the above records for attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, and 1992, Marino joined only three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again in 1996, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHINS RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 30 Dolphins team records and is tied for four others . . . Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions, and TD passes:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
352 Marino	48,841 Marino	6,531 Marino	3,913 Marino	200 Marino
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	172 Griese

Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his 13th NFL year . . . On September 25, 1994 threw his 173rd career interception to break Griese's club record in that category . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

UNDER DON SHULA: Marino is one of ten quarterbacks to have started games when Don Shula coached the Dolphins from 1970 through 1995, and his 184 regular season starts under Shula is the most by any Dolphins quarterback during that time:

DOLPHIN STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER DON SHULA

QUARTERBACK	YEARS	STARTS
Bob Griese	1970-80	119
George Mira	1971	1
Earl Morrall	1972-76	12

Kyle Mackey (Replacement games)	1987	3
Scott Mitchell	1990-93	7
Steve DeBerg	1993	4
Bernie Kosar	1995	2

In addition, in Shula's coaching career (including his tenure as head coach of the Colts from 1963-69), Marino has accounted for more wins during that span than any other quarterback:

Marino's 116 wins under Shula are the most victories by a head coach-quarterback combination in NFL history, surpassing the previous high of 107 wins recorded by Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw . . . In addition, the Marino-Shula duo was together for 13 seasons, which is tied for the second longest quarterback-head coach combination in NFL history:

LONGEST RUNNING QUARTERBACK-COACH COMBINATIONS IN NFL HISTORY

QUARTERBACK	COACH	TEAM	YEARS TOGETHER
1. Terry Bradshaw	Chuck Noll	Pittsburgh	1970-1983 (14)
2. DAN MARINO	DON SHULA	MIAMI	1983-1995 (13)

COMEBACKS: In 1995, Marino led the Dolphins back from a fourth quarter deficit to a victory twice: On Dec. 3rd vs. Atlanta and on Oct. 1st at Cincinnati . . . On Dec. 3rd vs. Atlanta, the Dolphins entered the fourth quarter trailing 14-9 and later fell further behind 20-9 with 13:32 left in the quarter . . . After the Dolphins cut the lead to 20-15 with 7:54 to go, Miami held the Falcons three times with a yard to go for a first down and took over on their own 28-yard line with 1:49 left in the game . . . Marino took the Dolphins on a 72-yard drive covering eight plays in 1:38, culminating in a 21-yard pass to Irving Fryar with 11 seconds left in the game to give Miami their comeback 21-20 victory . . . In that drive Marino was 4-7 for 60 yards and one touchdown and also had a 12-yard run, and overall in the fourth quarter of that game Marino was 13-21 for 138 yards, one touchdown and one interception . . . On Oct. 1st at Cincinnati the Dolphins entered the fourth quarter of that game trailing 17-16 and later were behind 23-19 with 3:39 left in the contest . . . At that point, Marino led the team on a ten-play drive covering 91 yards in 2:36, culminating in a 16-yard touchdown pass to McDuffie with 1:03 left in the game to bring the Dolphins back from that 23-19 deficit to a 26-23 victory . . . In that drive Marino was 8-10 for 76 yards and a touchdown, and overall in the fourth quarter of that game he was 13-18 for 148 yards and one touchdown and no interceptions . . . Over the course of Marino's 13-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 31 times, with 18 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 13 on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . With 31 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second among active quarterbacks in that category: Denver's John Elway has 37 final period come-from-behind wins . . . In Marino's 31 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 233 of 364 passes (64.0%) for 3,051 yards with 26 touchdowns and eight INTs for a rating of 105.0:

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1995 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his right knee . . . He joined three other Dolphins, tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox, to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's ninth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), and his seventh selection as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he has been able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections extends his Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts extends his own Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . .

HONORS: Marino was named AFC Player of the Week once in 1995, for the week of December 2-3 following his performance on December 3rd against Atlanta when he went 35-50 for 343 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . His second touchdown pass, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, came with 11 seconds left in the game, accounted for the final points in the game to bring the Dolphins back from a 20-15 deficit to a 21-20 comeback win . . . His touchdown pass to Fryar also was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season, marking the 12th time in his 13 years in the NFL he has thrown for 20 or more touchdown passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 20 or more touchdowns . . . Marino's 343 yards passing versus the Falcons was his third 300-yard passing game of the season and his 52nd career 300-yard passing game in the regular season (55, including playoffs), breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of most career games passing for 300 or more yards (51) . . . In addition, Marino's 35 completions against the Falcons is tied for the second highest completions in a game in Marino's career (accomplished twice previously) and in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . Marino now has won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor 15 times in the regular season (and 17 times overall, including playoffs), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his 13-year NFL career . . . It is the most times any player has won AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway is second with 13 awards, Boomer Esiason is third with nine awards (he also has a Player of the Month Award), Jim Kelly is fourth with eight AFC awards (along with two AFC Player of the Month Awards), while Warren Moon has six AFC awards (as well as one monthly honor) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1995 in balloting of South Florida media for the 12th year (1983-92, 1994-95) . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) . . . Marino won the MVP award each of his first ten years in the league (1983-92), and no other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . In addition, in 1995 Marino was named the winner of the Miami Dolphins' Leadership Award for the first time, an award presented annually to the Miami player chosen by Dolphin management and coaches for leadership on and off the playing field . . . Marino has won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award ten times (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his one playoff game in 1995, an AFC First-Round playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo, Marino was 33-64 (51.6%) for 422 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions for a 63.4 rating . . . His 64 attempts is Marino's single game career high (playoffs or regular season), it is the most by any Dolphins player in a postseason or regular season game, breaking Marino's club playoff record of 50 attempts in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 and it surpassed the overall Dolphins team record of 60 attempts by Marino on October 23, 1988 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . In addition, his 64 attempts ties the highest single game total in NFL postseason history, matching the record of 64 attempts by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3,

1987 . . . Marino's 33 completions is his single game playoff high and it is the most by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single game playoff record of 29 completions, which was set by Don Strock on January 2, 1982 vs. San Diego and later tied by Marino in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 . . . It also is tied for the second highest single game total in NFL playoff history, along with the 33 completions by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 and matched by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987, surpassed only by the NFL postseason record of 36 completions by Houston's Warren Moon at Buffalo on January 3, 1993 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing vs. the Bills was the most yards passing by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single game playoff record of 421 yards passing by Marino in the AFC Championship game vs. Pittsburgh on January 6, 1985 . . . It also was the third highest single game total in NFL playoff history, surpassed only by the 489 yards passing by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 and the 433 yards passing by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing was his second 400-yard passing game in 1995 and it also was his 15th career 400-yard passing game (including two playoff games) . . . It also was Marino's 56th career 300-yard passing game (including four playoff games) . . . In that Bills' contest, Marino extended his Dolphins career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in 13 playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

29 Marino	3600 Marino	518 Marino	291 Marino	17 Marino
10 Griese	1467 Griese	208 Griese	112 Griese	12 Griese

With his 422 yards passing in 1995 AFC First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo, Marino has four postseason games of 300 or more passing yards, which ties him with Warren Moon and Troy Aikman for the third highest total in postseason history, surpassed only by the five 300-yard passing games by Dan Fouts and the six 300-yard passing games by Joe Montana . . . Marino's two touchdown passes in that AFC First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo came on a five-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie and a 45-yard TD pass to Randal Hill . . . Marino now has thrown at least one touchdown pass in each of his 13 playoff contests . . . His 13-game postseason streak with at least one touchdown pass establishes NFL record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass, and he broke that record on December 31, 1984 vs. Kansas City when he threw a touchdown pass for the 11th consecutive game before extending the mark to 13 straight games following his two touchdowns at Buffalo in an AFC First-Round Playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995:

REGULAR SEASON GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT ST. LOUIS (DEC. 24): On Dec. 24th at St. Louis, Marino was 23-35 for 290 yards, two touchdowns, and two interceptions . . . His touchdowns came on a six-yard pass to Irving Fryar and a seven-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 17): On Dec. 17th at Buffalo, was 17-27 for 244 yards, one touchdown, one interception and three sacks . . . Suffered a dislocated fourth left finger in that contest, and missed one play (the last play of the first half) due to that injury . . .

VS. KANSAS CITY (DEC. 11): On Dec. 11th vs. Kansas City, Marino was 18-34 for 156 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one sack . . . In that contest, his pass attempt to Randal Hill in the fourth quarter of that game that fell incomplete was the 6,468th pass attempt of Marino's career, breaking the NFL record for most career attempts that was formerly held by Fran Tarkenton (6,467 attempts) and making Marino the NFL's all-time leader in pass attempts . . . Marino also surpassed the 3,000-yard mark in passing for the season in the Chiefs game, marking the 11th time in his career he has passed for 3,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 3,000 yards . . .

VS. ATLANTA (DEC. 3): On Dec. 3rd vs. Atlanta, Marino was 35-50 for 343 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . His second touchdown pass, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, came with 11 seconds left in the game and accounted for the final points in the contest to bring the Dolphins back from a 20-15 deficit to a 21-20 comeback win . . . It marked the second time in 1995 and the 31st time in Marino's career that he led the Dolphins to a fourth-quarter comeback win . . . In the fourth quarter of the Falcons game, Marino was 13-21 for 138 yards, one touchdown and one interception . . . His touchdown pass to Fryar also was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season, marking the 12th time in his 13 years in the NFL he has thrown for 20 or more touchdown passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 20 or more touchdowns . . . Marino's 343 yards passing versus the Falcons was his third 300-yard passing game of the year and his 52nd career 300-yard passing game in the regular season, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of most career games passing for 300 or more yards (51) . . . In addition, Marino's 35 completions against the Falcons is tied for the second highest completions in a game in Marino's career (accomplished twice previously) and in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . For his efforts in the game against Atlanta, Marino was named as the AFC Offensive Player of the Week . . . It was the only time in 1995 he was named to that honor and the 17th time in his career (including twice in the playoffs) that he was named AFC or NFL Player of the Week . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 26): On Nov. 26th at Indianapolis, was 23-36 for 254 yards, four touchdowns, one interception, and four sacks . . . His first touchdown of the game, a six-yard pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was the 343rd touchdown pass of Marino's career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of 342 TD passes to become the NFL's all-time leader in career touchdown passes . . . It was the only time in 1995 and the 20th time in his career (regular season) that Marino has thrown four or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 0-1 in 1995 and 15-5 in his career when he has thrown for four or more TD passes . . . It marked the second straight game Marino was sacked four times (having been sacked four times on Nov. 20th vs. San Francisco), and his four sacks is tied for the second highest single game sack total of his career, surpassed only by his five sacks at New Orleans on November 29, 1992 . . .

VS. SAN FRANCISCO (NOV. 20): On Nov. 20th vs. San Francisco was 23-38 for 255 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and four sacks . . . His first touchdown came on a 42-yard pass to Gary Clark . . . Marino's second touchdown pass, a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter, was the 342nd touchdown pass of Marino's career, tying him with Fran Tarkenton for first place among the NFL all-time leaders in career touchdown passes . . . Marino's four sacks in that contest, including three sacks on the Dolphins' first three plays from scrimmage in the game, was tied for the second highest single game sack total of his career . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 12): On Nov. 12th vs. New England, Marino was 27-37 for 333 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and two sacks . . . His nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of that Patriot game made Marino the NFL's all-time leader in passing yardage, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of 47,003 yards . . . In addition, it was Marino's second 300-yard passing game of the season, and the 51st regular season 300-yard game of his career . . . It tied Marino with Dan Fouts for the most career regular season 300-yard passing games (51) in NFL history . . . In that Patriots contest he also had a lost fumble as well as a reception for minus-six yards, coming off a deflected pass . . . It was the first reception of Marino's career . . .

AT SAN DIEGO (NOV. 5): On Nov. 5th at San Diego, was 25-39 for 291 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and no sacks . . . It was his first career win in Jack Murphy Stadium after five straight losses . . . When he threw his interception to Junior Seau in the second quarter of that game, it broke a string of 114 consecutive pass attempts by Marino without an interception, dating back to the first quarter of the contest against the Cincinnati Bengals on October 1st when Andre Collins picked off a Marino pass . . .

VS. BUFFALO (OCT. 29): Returned to action on Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo after missing two previous contests while recovering from knee surgery and hip injuries, and in that Bills game was 20-35 for 232 yards, no touchdowns or interceptions and two sacks . . . It was the only game in 1995 and the 23rd regular season game of his career that Marino has gone without throwing a touchdown, and it was only the eighth time (8-15) that the Dolphins have won when Marino did not have a touchdown pass . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (OCT. 8): On Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis, was 19-30 for 194 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a five-yard pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter . . . That completion was the 3,686th completion of Marino's career, which tied him with Fran Tarkenton for the NFL record for all-time career completions . . . Marino's next completion, a six-yard completion in the second quarter to Keith Byars, gave Marino 3,687 career completions, breaking Tarkenton's record and setting a new NFL mark for most career completions . . . It was the second time in 1995 Marino did not throw an interception . . . Marino suffered a contusion of his left hip and cartilage damage in his right knee, missing one series as a result of the hip injury . . . He underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on October 9th at Holy Cross Medical Center by Dolphin team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato to remove loose cartilage in that knee . . .

AT CINCINNATI (OCT. 1): On Oct. 1st at Cincinnati was 33-48 for 450 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on an eight-yard pass to Eric Green and a 16-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie . . . His 33 completions is tied for the fourth highest single game total in his career and is tied for the fourth highest single game total in Dolphin history . . . His 450 yards passing is the fourth highest single game yardage total of his career and the fourth highest single game yardage total in Dolphins history . . . It was Marino's only regular-season game in 1995 of 400-yards passing and his 13th career regular season 400 yard game . . . It also was his first 300-yard game of the season and his 50th career regular season 300-yard game . . . The Dolphins entered the fourth quarter trailing 17-16 and later were behind 23-19 with 3:39 left in the game . . . At that point, Marino led the team on a ten-play drive covering 91 yards in 2:36, culminating in a 16-yard touchdown pass to McDuffie with 1:03 left in the game to bring the Dolphins back from that 23-19 deficit to a 26-23 victory . . . In that one drive, Marino was 8-10 for 76 yards and one touchdown, and overall in the fourth quarter he was 13-18 for 148 yards and one touchdown and no interceptions . . . It was Marino's first fourth-quarter comeback in 1995 and the 30th of his career . . .

VS. PITTSBURGH (SEPT. 18): On Sept. 18th vs. Pittsburgh was 16-27 for 183 yards, one touchdown (coming on a 28-yard pass to Terry Kirby), no interceptions and two sacks for 14 yards in losses . . . It was the first time in 1995 Marino did not throw an interception . . . He was forced from the game permanently late in the third quarter with a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by Pittsburgh's Greg Lloyd . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (SEPT. 10): On Sept. 10th at New England was 14-20 for 193 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and no sacks . . . It marked the 11th straight time the Dolphins have beaten the Patriots when Marino started at quarterback . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 3): Was 16-26 for 250 yards, three touchdowns, two interceptions and one sack on Sept. 3rd vs. N.Y. Jets . . . It was the 54th game of Marino's career that he has thrown three or more touchdowns . . . It also was the 11th time in Marino's 22 career games against the Jets he threw for at least three touchdowns . . . When Marino was intercepted by Wilbur Marshall in the first quarter, it ended a streak of 105 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, including his final 102 passes in 1994 (covering all three final regular season games) and the first three passes he threw in the season opener against the Jets in 1995 . . . It left Marino 17 attempts short of Bob Griese's team record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception . . .

1994 - Started all 16 games (and both playoff contests) in 1994 and finished the season going 385 for 615 (62.6%) for 4,453 yards, 30 touchdowns, 17 interceptions and 17 sacks for an 89.2 rating . . . In the preseason played in four games and was 22-43 (51.1%) for 314 yards, three touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks for a rating of 79.0 . . . Marino ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Steve Young and Brett Favre) in passing efficiency, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Drew Bledsoe) in attempts, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in completions, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in yards passing, and first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Young and Favre) in touchdown passes . . . It marked the first time that Marino has led the AFC in passing efficiency since 1986 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: With 615 pass attempts in 1994, Marino had the second highest number of attempts in Dolphins history, surpassed only by the team record he set in 1986 with 623 attempts . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts . . . On Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati, Marino attempted his 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . With 385 completions in 1994, Marino set a new Dolphins record for most completions in a season, breaking the former team record for most completions in a season, which he set in 1986 with 378 completions . . . On Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota, Marino completed the 3,298th pass of his career to move past Fouts into sole possession of second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton . . . Marino's completion percentage in 1994 of 62.5% was the third highest completion percentage of his career and is the fourth highest single season completion percentage in Dolphins history . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis, Marino passed Dan Fouts (43,040 career passing yards) and moved into second place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list . . . Marino's 4,453 yards passing in 1994 is the third highest single season total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his NFL record of 5,084 yards passing in 1984 and 4,746 yards passing in 1986 . . . On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season, marking the sixth time in his career he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95) and Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino's six 4,000-yard seasons account for five of the top twenty and six off the 22 leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his tenth 3,000-yard season . . . Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1994, on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when he threw for 473 yards, and on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards . . . Those two figures represent the second highest and sixth highest single game passing yardage totals in Dolphins history . . . Marino had five 300-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards, on Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, when Marino threw for 312 yards, on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw for 359 yards, and on Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, when he threw for 311 yards . . . Marino's three consecutive games of 300 or more passing yards (Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo) tied his own team record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games . . . He previously had three consecutive 300-yard passing games in the 14th through 16th game in 1984 and then tied that record in the 13th through 15th game in 1988 . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: On September 4, 1994 vs. New England, Marino threw for five touchdown passes . . . His second touchdown pass in that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th touchdown pass of Marino's career . . . He joined Fran Tarkenton (342 career TD passes) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to reach that milestone . . . Marino, who took 157 career games to throw for 300 TD passes, reached that plateau faster than Tarkenton (217 games):

In addition to that game, Marino had one other contest in 1994 when he threw for four or more touchdown passes, throwing four TD passes on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets . . . All four of his TD passes in that Jets contest were caught by Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphin single game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, all of which originally were set by Paul Warfield when he had four TD receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4th vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago, Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson was his 20th TD pass of the season, his 11th season throwing 20 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino finished the 1994 season with 30 touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single season total of his career, surpassed only by his NFL record of 48 touchdown passes in 1984 and his 44 TD passes in 1986 (he also had 30 touchdown passes in 1985) . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar, which was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season . . . It marked the fourth time in his career (1984-86, 94) he has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . .

INTERCEPTIONS, SACKS AND RUSHING: Marino did not throw an interception in five games in 1994 (seven, including playoffs), and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those five games (4-3, including playoffs) . . . Overall including the post-season, Marino went the final five games of the 1994 season without throwing an interception (the last three regular season contests and the playoff games on December 31st vs. Kansas City and January 8th at San Diego), covering his last 169 pass attempts . . . On Nov. 6th at Indianapolis, Marino threw an interception to the Colts' Ray Buchanan, who returned it 28 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time Marino had an interception returned for a TD since Bobby Houston of the New York Jets returned a Marino interception for a touchdown on December 20, 1992 in Miami . . . Marino was not sacked in seven games in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, Oct. 30th at New England, Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Oct. 2nd at Cincinnati and Sept. 18th vs. N.Y. Jets), and the Dolphins went 6-1 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, the most he has been sacked in a game in 1994 and it was tied for the second-highest single game sack total of his career . . . In his first game of the 1994 season, on September 4th vs. New England, Marino finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with eight yards on two carries, including a ten-yard run . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino rushed for a four-yard touchdown, his only rushing touchdown of the 1994 season . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1994, Marino led the Dolphins to four fourth-quarter comebacks: On Nov. 27th in New York, when Marino was 15-18 for 164 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 24-14 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 28-24 win (In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win; the Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory); On Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, when Marino went 13-16 for 123 yards, one touchdown, and one interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 22-21 win; On Oct. 16th vs. the L.A. Raiders, when Marino went 4-9 for 55 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions in the fourth quarter and overtime to lead the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 win in overtime; And on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when Marino went 8-13 for 179 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 35-32 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 39-35 victory . . . His 179 yards passing in the fourth quarter of that game are the most yards passing for Marino in the fourth quarter in any of his fourth-quarter comeback wins . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his Achilles' . . . He joined four other Dolphins, tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, wide receiver Irving Fryar, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox, to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's eighth career Pro Bowl selection and his sixth selection as a starter . . .

HONORS: For the 1994 season, Marino was named as second-team all-NFL by the Associated Press, first team all-AFC by United Press International and Football News, the AFC Most Valuable Player by the National Football League Players Association, and AFC Comeback Player of the Year by the NFLPA . . . Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week Award twice overall in 1994, once in the regular season and once in the playoffs . . . His regular season honor was for the week of Sept. 4-5, when he was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . In that game Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . His honor in the post-season came when he was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 following his performance in the AFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31st . . . In that contest, he went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino has thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1994 in balloting of South Florida media for the 11th year . . . Marino also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the tenth time he won that award (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1994 playoffs, Marino was 46-67 (68.7%) for 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 116.4 . . . In AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 8, 1995 at San Diego, Marino was 24-38 for 262 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . His three touchdown passes was tied for the third highest single game total in Dolphin playoff history . . . In AFC First Round Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31, 1994, went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on a one-yard pass to Ron Williams and a seven-yard pass to Irving Fryar . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino has thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino had been tied with ten consecutive post-season games with a TD pass along with Joe Montana (1988-93) and Ken Stabler (1973-77) . . . For his efforts in that Chiefs game, Marino was named as the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 . . . It was the second time Marino won AFC or NFL Offensive Player of the Week honors in 1994, having also won the award for the week of September 4-5 as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . It also was the second time Marino won a post-season award, as he was named as NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the NFL First Round Playoff Games (January 5-6, 1990) following his performance on January 5, 1990 vs. Kansas City . . .

1993 - Played only five games and finished 91-150 (60.7%) for 1,218 yards, eight touchdowns, three interceptions, and seven sacks for a rating of 95.9 . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10th . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on October 13, 1993 and missed the remainder of the season . . . The first game he missed because of his injury, on Oct. 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his string of playing 145 straight games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season . . . The last games he missed due to injury before that Colts contest were the final two games of the 1983 campaign . . . Started all four preseason games and was 38-71 (53.5%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating 86.7 . . . In 1993 for the first time in his career, Marino did not finish among the conference and league leaders due to his Achilles' injury that ended his season after five games . . . However, at the time of his injury (following the weekend of Oct. 10th), Marino ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in passer ratings, fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in pass attempts, third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in completions, third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passing yards, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . With his 11-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the fourth quarter on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino went over the 40,000 yards passing mark for his career . . . He became only the fourth quarterback to pass for 40,000 yards and reached that milestone in 153 games, faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

Limited to only five games in 1993, Marino threw for 1,218 yards, the lowest single season figure of his career . . . Marino did not have a 400-yard or 300-yard passing game in 1993 . . . Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the all-time TD list . . . On October 4, 1993 vs. Washington, Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin . . . It was tied for the third longest pass play in Marino's career and it was tied for the fourth longest play in Dolphins history . . . It also was the longest play by the Dolphins since Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in all five of his regular season games in 1993 . . . Marino did not throw an interception in two of his five games in 1993, and the Dolphins went 1-1 in those two contests . . . Marino was sacked seven times in his five games in 1993 . . . Marino was sacked four times on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, the most he was sacked in a game in 1993 . . . It was the ninth time in his career he was sacked four or more times and was one sack shy of his single game career high of five sacks . . . On September 26, 1993 at Buffalo, Marino scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the seventh time in the regular season (and eighth overall) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . In 1993, Marino led the Dolphins to one fourth quarter comeback, on Sept. 5th at Indianapolis, from a 20-17 deficit to a 24-20 victory . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award once in 1993, for the week of September 26, 1993, when he was 20-32 for 282 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one rushing touchdown in the Dolphins' 22-13 win at Buffalo over the Bills . . .

1992 - In 1992 he started all 16 games and was 330-554 (59.6%) for 4,116 yards, 24 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and 28 sacks for a rating of 85.1 . . . Marino finished second in the AFC (behind Warren Moon's rating of 89.3) and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.1 . . . He was first in the AFC and the NFL in pass attempts (554), first in the AFC and the NFL in completions (330), first in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards (4,116), and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL in touchdown passes (24) . . . Marino's league-leading 554 pass attempts marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season . . . Marino's league-leading 330 pass completions marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphins team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphins record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS
NAME	DATE	OPPONENT	CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . In addition, in that Oiler contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's league-leading 4,116 passing yards marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the all-time TD list . . . He passed for four touchdowns on October 18th against New England, tying him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec.

20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . . Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned for 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing in 1992 with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also had his single season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . In his two games in the 1992 playoffs Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . In AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17th, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10th vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single game mark in Dolphin playoff history . . . Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his fifth selection as a starter . . . League-wide in 1992 Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . He also won the Dolphins'

Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time he won that award.

1991 – In 1991 he started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit were only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games, with the other time coming on December 10, 1989 vs. New England and December 17, 1989 at Indianapolis . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, the longest such stretch of his career . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the third lowest total of his career (in a full season) . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his 28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year.

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the second fewest of his career in a full season (behind only his 20 TD passes as a rookie in 1983), but his 11 interceptions also was the second fewest of his career in a full season (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts . . . Marino joined San Francisco's Joe Montana as the only active quarterbacks with 30,000-plus passing yards, while Steve DeBerg joined that group in 1991, Warren Moon, Phil Simms, and John Elway joined that group in 1992, Dave Krieg joined in 1993, Boomer Esiason joined in 1994, and Jim Everett and Jim Kelly joined in 1995:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall, Dolphins quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-38) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff Game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in next game, in AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incomplection . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphin post-season history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the first round playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 - In 1989 was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets on Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Ryplen for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England was the 200th career TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . He reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in but his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When the Bills' NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphins team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts both are the lowest single game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 - Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions

(23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the high yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphin single game record, but it also is the third highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. N.Y. Jets	10/23/88

Vince Ferragamo, Rams	46-30	509	3 TDs	Lost vs. Chi.	12/26/82

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried ball 20 times for -17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphins history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 - Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 - Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta(11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett (Dallas) . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Tampa Bay/Miami) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting . . . Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5) for 2,876 yards, 37 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was MVP at Sugar Bowl that year for second-ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia . . . Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8) for 1,609 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions . . . Became starter midway through freshman season of '79 hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6) for 1,680 yards, 10 scores and nine pick-offs . . . Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery . . . Has B.A. in communications.

PRO: 1995 – Started all 16 regular season games and one playoff contest . . . Finished with 62 receptions for 819 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Ranked 13th in AFC in receptions and 13th in AFC in receiving yards and finished second on club in receiving and reception yardage . . . Set career-highs in receptions, reception yardage and scoring . . . Ranked third on team in scoring with 50 points on eight touchdowns and one two-point conversion . . . Led club in both punt returns with an average of 6.8 yards per return and kickoff returns with an average of 24.5 yards per return . . . Ranked seventh in AFC and tied for ninth in NFL in kickoff returns . . . Led Dolphins in receptions four times and in reception yardage five times . . . Voted by South Florida media as club's Outstanding Receiver Award for first time in career . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Caught three passes for 38 yards in season-opener against N.Y. Jets (9/3) . . . Had four receptions for 65 yards against Pittsburgh (9/18) . . . Had five catches for 54 yards, including a game-winning 16-yard touchdown pass with 1:03 left in game to put team ahead 26-23, at Cincinnati (10/1) . . . Led club in both receptions and receiving yardage at New Orleans (10/15) with seven catches (tied career-high established against Indianapolis on 11/6/94) for 86 yards (third-highest of career) and a touchdown . . .

Caught five passes for team-high 60 yards at N.Y. Jets (10/22) . . . Had three receptions for 46 yards with a touchdown and had added one rush for 11 yards, his first rushing attempt of season, against New England (11/12) . . . Notched six catches for 66 yards against San Francisco (11/20) with one touchdown, quarterback Dan Marino's 342nd TD pass of career, tying him with Fran Tarkenton for first place on NFL's all-time list . . . His touchdown against 49ers was fourth of season, a new career-high . . . Led club with six catches for 76 yards and two touchdowns at Indianapolis (11/26), first game of career with two or more touchdown receptions . . . Had regular-season-high 96 receiving yards on six catches vs. Atlanta (12/3) . . . Scored a touchdown to go along with four catches for 34 yards against Kansas City (12/11) . . . Tied for team-lead with four receptions and led club with 79 receiving yards at Buffalo (12/17) and added one rush for no yards . . . Concluded regular season at St. Louis (12/24) with three catches for 61 yards and one touchdown, including career-long 48-yard reception (breaking old high of 35-yard reception achieved 9/18/95 against Pittsburgh) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) . . . Established team playoff record with 11 receptions for 154 yards . . . His 11 receptions broke old playoff mark of ten established twice by running back Tony Nathan, who caught ten passes in Super Bowl XIX versus San Francisco (1/20/85) and in AFC Divisional Playoff game against Cleveland (1/4/86) . . . His 154 receiving yards broke old playoff mark of 148 yards, set by wide receiver Mark Duper in divisional playoff versus Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . His 280 combined yards (154 receiving, nine rushing, 12 punt returns and 105 kickoff returns) set an all-time Dolphins postseason mark and is second all-time in club history, behind Mercury Morris' 302 total yards (89 rushing, 68 receiving, 142 kick/punt returns) at Baltimore on Nov. 1, 1970 . . . After a fourth quarter touchdown by running back Terry Kirby, caught first two-point conversion in team playoff history . . .

FIRST DOWNS: Has proven to be adept at converting first downs . . . In 1995, he touched the ball 65 times (62 receptions and three rushes) on offense and picked up a first down 52 times (51 by passing and one by rushing) . . . On third down in '95, he touched the ball 24 times (all receptions) with 21 plays being good for first downs . . . Over the course of his three-year NFL career, McDuffie has touched the ball 127 times (118 catches and nine rushes) on offense and converted those into 99 first downs (95 by passing and four rushing) . . . On third down in his career, McDuffie has touched the ball 52 times (51 catches and one rush) and has picked up a first down 47 times (46 by passing and one by rushing) . . . The only five occasions that McDuffie caught a pass on third down and did not convert the play into a first down was against San Francisco on November 20, 1995, when he caught a pass on third-and-five and fumbled the ball once he was tackled; on October 29, 1995, against Buffalo when he caught a one-yard pass on third-down-and-seven; on October 22, 1995, at N.Y. Jets when he caught a five-yard pass on third-and-six; while the first two both occurred during the 1993 season as he caught an eight-yard pass on a third-and-10 play at Dallas on November 25, and posted a three-yard catch on a third-and-10 play against New England on November 21 . . . In playoff action during career he has touched the ball 21 times (18 receptions, two rushes and one pass attempt) on offense and picked up a first down on 12 occasions (11 by receptions and one rushing) . . . On third or fourth down in the playoffs, McDuffie has touched the ball three times (all receptions) with all three being good for first downs:

Joined LB Bryan Cox as the only players in Dolphins history to win AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors more than once in their careers . . . Recorded ten tackles at N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Finished with six tackles and a pass defended vs. Buffalo (11/16) . . . Had two interceptions of quarterback Browning Nagle vs. N.Y. Jets (12/20) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished second on team with 17 tackles and tied for team lead with two interceptions . . . Added a forced fumble and two passes defended . . . Had four tackles and an interception in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Led team with 13 tackles and also added an interception and a forced fumble in AFC Championship game vs. Buffalo (1/17/93) . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Oliver recorded team-high five interceptions in 1992 which tied his single season career high that he established in 1990 and 1991 . . . Led or tied for team lead in interceptions in each of his first four seasons in league and is the only player in team history to lead or tie for team lead in interceptions in each of his first four professional seasons . . . Overall, became first Dolphin player to lead or share the team lead in interceptions for four consecutive years since Glenn Blackwood (1984-87) . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for 11th in the AFC . . . His five interceptions in '92 came in two games as he had three interceptions at Buffalo (10/4) and two picks vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/20) to up his career total to three games of two or more interceptions . . . Had a career game in Miami's 37-10 win at Buffalo (10/4) with three tackles, three passes defended and a career-high three interceptions . . . His three INTs surpassed his previous best of two interceptions which he recorded on October 20, 1991, against Houston . . . Became first Dolphin player to record three interceptions in a game since William Judson recorded the feat at the N.Y. Jets on October 16, 1983 . . . In addition, Oliver also returned one of his interceptions for a touchdown as he intercepted a Jim Kelly pass three yards deep in the end zone and returned the ball 103 yards for a touchdown . . . Oliver's 103-yard return tied the NFL record for the all-time longest interception return, which had been set by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987:

LONGEST INTERCEPTION RETURNS IN NFL HISTORY

	NAME	TEAM	DATE	OPPONENT	INT. RETURN
1.	LOUIS OLIVER	MIAMI	10/4/92	AT BUFFALO	103 YARDS
	Vencie Glenn	San Diego	11/29/87	Denver	103 yards
3.	Bob Smith	Detroit	11/24/49	Chicago	102 yards
	Erich Barnes	N.Y. Giants	10/15/61	Dallas	102 yards
	Gary Barbaro	Kansas City	12/11/77	Seattle	102 yards
	Louis Breedon	Cincinnati	11/8/81	San Diego	102 yards
	Eddie Anderson	L.A. Raiders	12/14/92	at Miami	102 yards
	Donald Frank	San Diego	10/31/93	L.A. Raiders	102 yards

In addition, the 103-yard return broke the team record for longest interception return, which was a 96-yard return for a touchdown by Dick Anderson on November 24, 1968, off a Tom Sherman pass at Boston . . . The touchdown return was Oliver's first career touchdown (in fact, it was his first touchdown on any level, including high school college, or pro), and he became the first Dolphin player to return an interception for a touchdown since Jarvis Williams had a 42-yard scoring return at Washington on December 2, 1990 . . . Overall, Oliver's three interceptions netted him a total of 170 return yards in the game, which is the most in Dolphin history, breaking the record held by Dick Anderson with 121 yards on four interceptions against Pittsburgh on December 3, 1973 . . . It also was the second-highest single-game total in NFL history, behind only San Diego's Charlie McNeil, who had 177 yards on interception returns against Houston on September 24, 1961 . . . In addition, Oliver's three interceptions is tied for the second highest single game total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by Anderson's four interception game against the Steelers.

1991 - Started all 16 games at free safety . . . Finished season with team-leading totals of 88 tackles (73 solo) and five interceptions . . . Added a fumble recovery and eight passes defended . . . Voted as Miami's Outstanding Defensive Back by South Florida media . . . Became first Dolphins defensive back to lead team in tackles since Willie West in 1966 . . . His five interceptions placed him tied for fourth in the AFC and tied for fifth in the NFL . . . Total of five interceptions matched his previous career best of five INTs in 1990 (equaled in 1992) . . . Opened season with team-leading 13 tackles and added an interception (picked off a Jim Kelly pass in end zone and returned it 37 yards) at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Had team-high eight tackles at Detroit (9/15) . . . Registered three tackles and first career game with two interceptions vs. Houston (10/20) by picking off two Warren Moon passes and returning them a total of 26 yards . . . It was the first time a Dolphins player had two interceptions in a game since Jarvis Williams had two INTs vs. Indianapolis on December 30, 1990 . . . Had two tackles and an interception at Colts (11/3) . . . Finished with three tackles, two passes defended and an interception vs. Tampa Bay (12/1) . . . Closed season with team-leading eight tackles vs. N.Y. Jets (12/22).

1990 - Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests in 1990 . . . Named second team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Finished with 65 tackles (54 solo), five interceptions, six passes defended and a sack . . . His five INTs were a career-high and tied Jarvis Williams for the team lead . . . Oliver's five interceptions were the most by a Dolphin since Glenn Blackwood had six INTs in 1985 . . . Finished tied for third in the AFC and tied for tenth in the NFL with five INTs . . . Finished fourth on the Dolphins in tackles with 65 (54 solo, 11 assisted) . . . Recorded two tackles and first INT of season vs. Buffalo on Sept. 16 . . . Recorded seven tackles at Giants (9/23) . . . Tied for team lead with seven tackles vs. Jets (10/7) . . . Left Colts game on Oct. 28 with a knee injury that did not prove to be serious . . . Recorded team-high five tackles and registered an INT vs. Phoenix (11/4) . . . Had three tackles and an INT at N.Y. Jets (11/11) . . . Tied for team lead with seven tackles and added a pass defended and his fourth INT of season at Cleveland (11/25) . . . Had five tackles and an INT vs. Philadelphia (12/9) . . . Finished second on team with six tackles and a his first career sack vs. Indianapolis (12/30).

1989 - Played in 15 games with 13 starts as rookie . . . Finished with 62 tackles (51 solo), six passes defended, a forced fumble and a team-leading four interceptions . . . Became just the fourth Dolphins rookie to lead the team in INTs (Jarvis Williams in 1988, Lloyd Mumphord in 1969 and Dick Anderson in 1968) . . . Teamed with former Univ. of Florida teammate Jarvis Williams to form one of NFL's top safety duos . . . Named by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Rookie for '89 season . . . Opened season as starter at free safety vs. Buffalo (9/10) and led team with 11 tackles . . . Registered first career interception and added eight tackles and two passes defended at Houston (10/1) . . . Recorded four tackles and key interception when Miami defeated Cleveland 13-10 in overtime on Oct. 8 . . . Forced overtime period when he intercepted a Bernie Kosar pass on the Miami's 26-yard line with less than a minute remaining in regulation and the score tied 10-10 . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for performance against Cleveland . . . Recorded six tackles and combined with E.J. Junior to tackle Jets QB Ken O'Brien on goal-line on second-and-goal play to force Jets to settle for field goal in Miami's 31-23 victory at New York (11/12) . . . Forced to leave contest in the second quarter vs. Pittsburgh (11/26) with contusion of right shoulder and did not return . . . Did not play the following week, on Dec. 3 at Kansas City, the only game he missed in '89 . . . Injury hampered him the rest of the season, limiting his playing time mainly to passing situations as part of Miami's nickel and dime defensive packages . . . Started game but played only briefly vs. New England (12/10) because of injury . . . Came off bench and registered interception of Colts QB Jack Trudeau on Dec. 17 vs. Indianapolis . . . Played mainly in passing situations vs. Kansas City (12/24) and recorded INT of Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg . . . First-round draft choice (25th overall) of Miami in 1989.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and four-year letterman at Florida . . . Redshirted as freshman in 1984 . . . Originally joined Gators as walk-on . . . Registered career totals of 221 tackles (152 solo), 11 interceptions, three forced fumbles and five fumbles recovered . . . Added 39 receptions for 345 yards with a long of 35 yards and one score . . . Set career-highs in rushing yards, receptions, receiving yards, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns . . . His rushing yards led the team (ninth-highest season rushing total in club history) and finished eighth in AFC . . . Became just fourth back in club history to rush for 800 or more yards in two or more seasons (he had 868 in 1994), joining Larry Csonka (1970-73, 1979), Mercury Morris (1972-73), and Mark Higgs (1991-92) . . . Also led club and ranked 12th in AFC in total yards from scrimmage with 1,223 yards (878 yards rushing and 345 yards receiving) . . . Ranked second on team with 60 points (nine touchdowns rushing and one touchdown receiving) . . . Led Dolphins in rushing on ten occasions, in receptions once and in receiving yards once . . .

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Had three 100-yard rushing games during 1995 season and now has six for his career, tying him with Delvin Williams for fifth place on the Dolphins' all-time list of most career 100-yard rushing games . . . His three 100-yard games in '95 tied him with 11 other Dolphins (including himself in 1994) for third place on Miami's all-time list for most 100-yard rushing games in a season, behind the four 100-yard games by Larry Csonka in 1972 and the five 100-yard rushing games by Delvin Williams in 1978 . . . In 1995, Parmalee gained 120 rushing yards (fourth-highest total of career) on 24 carries at N.Y. Jets (10/22); 103 yards rushing on 19 attempts at San Diego (11/5); and 102 rushing yards on 20 carries at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . In 1994, Parmalee gained a career-high 150 yards rushing against L.A. Raiders (10/16); 123 yards rushing at New England (10/30); and 127 yards rushing against Kansas City (12/12) for his first 100-yard games of his career:

MOST 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES IN DOLPHINS HISTORY

PLAYER	100-YARD RUSHING GAMES	SEASONS
Larry Csonka	15	1968-74, 1979
Mercury Morris	10	1969-75

Delvin Williams	6	1978-80
Jim Kllick	5	1968-74

. . . His back-to-back 100-yard games in '94 against Raiders and New England marked the ninth time in team history that a Dolphins running back gained 100 or more yards rushing in consecutive games, tying the team record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Started season-opener against N.Y. Jets (9/3) and led club with 52 yards rushing on 16 carries and scored two touchdowns, his second multiple touchdown game of career . . . Gained 72 yards on 15 carries and added three receptions for 22 yards at New England (9/10) . . . Came off bench against Pittsburgh (9/18) and scored a touchdown to go along with 13 yards on eight carries . . . Caught three passes for 41 yards, including a career-best 35-yarder, against Indianapolis (10/8) . . . Started at N.Y. Jets and led club in rushing with 120 yards on 24 carries and added six receptions for 12 yards against Jets . . . Led club against Buffalo (10/29) with 83 yards on 20 carries and a touchdown and added career-high 48 receiving yards on three receptions . . . Had team-high 103 rushing yards on 19 carries (including a 40-yarder) at San Diego (11/5) . . . Notched career-high 91 receiving yards on six receptions against New England (11/12) . . . Scored a touchdown and ran for 34 yards on nine carries against San Francisco (11/20) . . . Had third 100-yard game of season (tying single-season career-high achieved in 1994) by rushing for 102 yards on 20 carries at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . Ran for 70 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown and added four catches for 19 yards at Atlanta (12/3) . . . Tallied 83 yards on 24 carries and added two receptions for nine yards vs. Kansas City (12/11) . . . Started AFC First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo (12/30) and ran five times for 13 yards and caught four passes for 51 yards.

1994 – Played in 15 games with ten starts in regular season and started both playoff contests . . . Finished with 216 carries for 868 yards (4.0 yards per rush) with six touchdowns . . . Added 34 receptions for 249 yards and one touchdown . . . Ranked eighth in AFC and 16th in NFL in rushing, 14th in AFC in total yards, and tied for 11th in AFC and tied for 25th in NFL in touchdowns . . . Led team in rushing 11 times during season . . . Gained 736 yards on 182 carries (4.0 yards per carry) in his ten starts for an average of 73.6 yards per game . . . If those ten games were projected over a 16-game schedule, he would have totaled 1,178 rushing yards . . .

BIGGEST RUSHING IMPROVEMENT: Parmalee was the NFL's most improved running back in 1994 . . . After gaining only 14

rushing yards in 1993, his increase to 868 yards in 1994 was an improvement of 854 yards . . . That total was the largest single season rushing improvement in Dolphins history and also was the largest improvement by any NFL running back in 1994 from his 1993 total (not counting rookie running back totals, and Minnesota's Terry Allen, who missed the entire 1993 season on Injured Reserve):

MIAMI DOLPHINS SINGLE SEASON RUSHING IMPROVEMENT

BACK-TO-BACK RUSHING YARDAGE: Parmalee posted the most productive two-game streak of any running back in team history . . . Had combined total of 273 rushing yards in consecutive games (150 yards on 30 carries on October 16 against the L.A. Raiders and 123 yards on 25 carries on October 30 at New England) to set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, breaking the former team record of 258 yards rushing in back-to-back games that was set by Mercury Morris in 1973:

MOST RUSHING YARDS IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES

PLAYER	COMBINED RUSHING YARDS	BACK-TO-BACK GAMES
BERNIE PARMALEE	273	30 carries for 150 yards vs. L.A. Raiders, 10/16/94 25 carries for 123 yards at New England, 10/30/94
Mercury Morris	258	15 carries for 197 yards vs. New England, 9/30/73 18 carries for 61 yards at N.Y. Jets, 10/7/73
Mark Higgs	257	30 carries for 146 yards at Buffalo, 9/1/91 27 carries for 111 yards vs. Indianapolis, 9/8/91

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Rushed for 37 yards on ten carries and first career touchdown against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Saw extensive action at Minnesota (9/25) in place of injured Terry Kirby and led team in rushing with 22 yards on six carries and a score and added one catch for nine yards . . . Came off bench to lead team with 73 yards on 18 carries and added three catches for minus-two yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Made first NFL start at Buffalo (10/9) and had team-high 91 rushing yards on 15 carries with long of 27 yards . . . Earned game balls for both offense and special teams against L.A. Raiders (10/16) with 50 rushing yards on 30 carries, while recovering a fumble off a Tim Brown punt return that eventually led to a Miami touchdown . . . Rushing total was most by a Dolphins player since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990 . . . Parmalee's 30 rushing attempts was the third highest single game total in Dolphin history (behind 31 carries by Mercury Morris at Green Bay on October 5, 1975, and 33 carries by Larry Csonka against Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974) . . . Had second consecutive 100-yard game at New England (10/30) with 123 yards on 25 carries and added four receptions for 21 yards . . . Marked ninth time in team history a runner had consecutive 100 rushing yard games, tying the club record (the last was Mark Higgs in 1991) and his total of 273 yards rushing in those two contests set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous two-game best of 258 rushing yards by Mercury Morris in successive games in 1973 . . . Had team-high 81 yards on 22 carries and added two catches for 11 yards against Indianapolis (11/6) before being forced from game permanently in second half with right knee and shoulder injuries . . . Missed contest against Chicago (11/13) due to knee injury . . . Returned to starting role at Pittsburgh (11/20) and gained 29 yards on 16 carries . . . Caught six passes for 40 yards and gained 23 rushing yards on eight carries at N.Y. Jets (11/27) . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week with 19 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown and adding two catches for 32 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . It was his first time winning that honor, and was just the second time a Dolphins running back has captured that award (Troy Stradford was named as the Offensive Player of the Week following the 11th weekend of the 1987 season) . . . Had 33 rushing yards on 16 carries and tied for team lead with five catches for 44 yards at Indianapolis (12/18) . . . Closed regular season against Detroit (12/25) with 18 carries for 39 yards and three touchdowns and added five catches for 47 yards . . . Tied a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, which was accomplished 12 previous times, most recently by Sammie Smith against New England on December 10, 1989 . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games . . . Led team in rushing with 73 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown and added four catches for 42 yards . . . Rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown and added two catches for 34 yards in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Recorded 16 yards on seven carries in Divisional Playoff Game at San Diego (1/8/95).

1993 - Played in all 16 games . . . Finished with four carries for 16 yards and one reception for one yard . . . Ranked tied for second on team with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded only carries of the season at San Diego (12/27) by gaining 16 yards on four carries, including a long run of 12 yards . . . Also recorded first career NFL reception with one catch for a one-yard gain against Chargers.

1992 - Played in ten regular season games and one playoff contest as rookie in 1992 . . . Saw action as reserve running back and kickoff returner . . . Signed by Miami as undrafted free agent on May 1, 1992 . . . Rushed six times for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards . . . Added seven special team tackles and 14 kickoff returns for 289 yards for a 20.6 average and a long of 32 yards . . . Waived on final roster cut on August 31 . . . Signed for team's practice squad on September 1 . . . Activated by team on October 21 after running back Aaron Craver was placed on Injured Reserve . . . Saw first NFL action vs. Houston (10/22) . . . Had only rushing attempts of regular season at Indianapolis (11/8) with six carries for 38 yards . . . Saw action in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) and rushed five times for 18 yards with a long of six yards . . . Was deactivated on January 16, 1993, and missed AFC Championship game.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Ball State . . . Graduated as school's all-time leading rusher with 805 carries for 3,483 yards and 26 touchdowns . . . Added 96 catches for 812 yards and three scores . . . Had 16 career games of over 100 yards . . . Named second-team All-Mid American Conference as senior . . . SCORING: Ranks as the second-leading scorer in Dolphins history with 774 career points and trails only Garo Yepremian (830 points) . . . Needs 57 points to supplant Yepremian and become leading scorer in team history . . . Finished with 118 points in 1995 for his sixth consecutive 100-point season (1990-95) to extend club record for career seasons with 100 or more points . . . Yepremian (three, 1971-73) is the only other Dolphin to have multiple 100-point scoring seasons . . . Stoyanovich's 118 points also marked third highest single season scoring total in Dolphin history . . . Holds the top three and six of the top 12 single season scoring totals in Dolphins history after just seven years in the NFL:

*Playoffs

Has booted two longest field goals in team history with a 59-yarder on November 12, 1989, at the N.Y. Jets and a 58-yard effort on January 5, 1991, in playoff game against Kansas City . . . The 59-yard kick set NFL record for longest field goal by a rookie and broke team record for longest field goal, previously held by Garo Yepremian with 54-yard field goal on October 22, 1972, against Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal is tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history, and his 58-yard FG against the Chiefs in the 1990 playoffs is tied for the eighth longest field goal, giving Stoyanovich two of the eight longest field goals in NFL history:

CLUTCH KICKS: Stoyanovich has won 11 games for Miami by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or overtime to give the Dolphins their final points and either break a tie or bring the team back from a deficit to give them a victory . . . He has kicked a field goal that either won a game in overtime or fourth quarter or tied a contest in final period that sent the game into overtime a total of 14 times in his career . . . Has hit on 14-of-19 (73.7%) kicks in his career in fourth quarter (or overtime) game-tying or game-winning situations . . . Those 19 kicks (including five misses) cover 16 games, and the Dolphins have won 11 of those 15 contests . . . Two of his five missed kicks in the fourth quarter or overtime to tie or win the game came in contests when he would come back to later kick game-winning field goals . . . The first of those misses came when he missed a 45-yard kick on October 8, 1989, in Cleveland with eight seconds left in regulation to break a 10-10 tie in a game that the Dolphins eventually won 13-10 when Stoyanovich kicked the game-winning FG in overtime . . . His second miss came on November 25, 1993, at Dallas when his 41-yard kick with 15 seconds left in regulation and the Dolphins trailing 14-13 was blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones, however, Dallas' Leon Lett attempted to recover the loose ball and fumbled it away to Jeff Dellenbach, who recovered on Dallas' one-yard line with three seconds left in the game and gave Stoyanovich a second chance to win the game, and on the next play his 19-yard field goal as time expired gave Miami a 16-14 victory . . . His third miss, on November 13, 1995, against Chicago, was the first time he missed a kick in fourth quarter or overtime that cost the Dolphins a potential victory as his 45-yard attempt with two seconds left in that contest was deflected at the line of scrimmage by Chicago's James Williams and fell short, preserving the Bears' 17-14 win . . . He missed a 48-yard effort with Miami trailing 22-21 and eight seconds left in regulation in a Divisional Playoff contest at San Diego on January 8, 1995 . . . The third time he missed a game-winning or tying kick in a game the Dolphins eventually lost was on October 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, when he missed a 49-yard field goal with six seconds left in regulation in a 24-24 game, sending the contest into overtime, with the Colts then winning 27-24 in OT . . .

EXTRA POINTS: Has missed four extra points in his career . . . Stoyanovich's fifth and last extra point in the season finale on at St. Louis (12/24) was his 110th consecutive extra point made, tying Garo Yepremian's all-time Dolphins record for most consecutive extra points (seventh game of 1972 season to second game of 1975 season); Stoyanovich's streak started on December 27, 1992, the last game of the 1992 season, with his last extra point miss coming on December 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . Kicked seven extra points against the N.Y. Jets (9/3), tying a Dolphin team record held by Garo Yepremian, who kicked seven extra points in a game twice in his career, on Nov. 12, 1972 vs. New England (seven attempts), and on Oct. 24, 1977 at St. Louis (eight attempts) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Scored 10 points in season-opener against N.Y. Jets (9/3), going 1-1 in field goals, connecting from 25 yards out, and 7-7 in extra points; his seven extra points tied a Dolphin team record held by Garo Yepremian, who kicked seven extra points in a game twice in his career, on Nov. 12, 1972 vs. New England (seven attempts), and on Oct. 24, 1977 at St. Louis (eight attempts) . . . Hit on all four field goal attempts (from 21, 46, 36, and 35 yards out) and 2-2 in extra points at Cincinnati (10/1); his four field goals tied his single game career high (he kicked four field goals in a game four times previously), and his 14 points tied the second highest single game point total of his career, surpassed only by his 15 points vs. Tampa Bay on December 1, 1991 . . . Hit on field goals from 49, 44, and 48 yards at N.Y. Jets (10/22) to mark the second time in his career he kicked three field goals of 40 or more yards in a single game, having kicked three 40-yard field goals or longer (44, 50, and 48 yards out) on Oct. 30, 1994 at New England . . . Converted all three field goal attempts (24, 33, and 22 yards) against Buffalo (10/29) with his 33-yarder in the second quarter of that contest being the 166th field goal of Stoyanovich's career, breaking Garo Yepremian's Dolphins team record of 165 career field goals . . . Did not attempt a field goal or an extra point for the first time in his career he did not score a single point in a game at Indianapolis (11/26) . . . Hit on field goals from 50 and 30 yards out and made both extra points at Buffalo (12/17) to put him over 100 points for the season, his sixth consecutive season scoring 100 or more points, extending his club record for career seasons of 100 or more points scored . . . Scored 11 points by hitting on all five extra points and both field goals attempts (33 and 48 yards) at St. Louis (12/24) with his last extra point in the game being his 110th consecutive extra point made, tying Garo Yepremian's all-time Dolphin record for most consecutive extra points . . .

PLAYOFFS: Scored two points in First-Round Playoff contest at Buffalo (12/31) . . . Hit on both extra point attempts but missed 53-yard field goal attempt.

1994 - Played in all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests . . . Signed four-year contract with Dolphins on February 21, 1994 . . . Finished with team-high 107 points on 24 of 31 field goals and 35 of 35 extra points . . . Ranked seventh in AFC and tenth in NFL in scoring among kickers . . . Posted 100 or more points for fifth time in career (1990-94) to extend club record . . .

HONORS: Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week following performance at New England (10/30) when he was 3-3 in field goals, connecting on efforts of 44, 50 and 48 yards in Miami's 23-3 win . . . It marked first time in career that Stoyanovich kicked three or more field goals of 40 or more yards in a single game . . . It was his first-ever AFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award and joined punter Dale Hatcher (Week 12 of the 1993 season) as only Dolphins to win that award . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Missed 40-yard field goal attempt at Minnesota (9/25) and coupled with two field goal misses against N.Y. Jets (9/18) from 37 and 63 yards out marked the first time in Stoyanovich's career that he missed three straight field goal attempts . . . Scored 11 points on 3-3 field goals (28, 27, and 32 yards) and 2-2 in extra points at Cincinnati (10/2) with his first field goal ending streak of missing three straight field goals . . . Booted 29-yard field goal with 5:46 elapsed in overtime to break a 17-17 tie and give the Dolphins a 20-17 win against L.A. Raiders (10/16) for 12th time that he has kicked a field goal that has won a game in either overtime or the fourth quarter or tied a contest in the final period that sent the game into overtime . . . Scored 11 points at New England (10/30) on 3-3 field goal attempts and 2-2 extra points and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week . . . His three field goals at the Patriots were from 44, 50, and 48 yards out, marking the first time in his career he kicked three field goals of 40 or more yards in length in a single game . . . Booted 34-yard field goal with four seconds left in game to bring the Dolphins back from 21-19 deficit to 22-21 win against Indianapolis (11/6) . . . Missed 45-yard field goal attempt with two seconds left in regulation (deflected by Chicago's James Williams) as Dolphins dropped 17-14 decision against the Bears (11/13) for the first time a missed field goal attempt by Stoyanovich cost the Dolphins a potential victory . . . Hit on 48-yard field goal on final play of regulation to tie the game at 13-13 and send game into overtime at Pittsburgh (11/20) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Saw action in both playoff games . . . Tied for team lead in scoring in playoffs with 12 points on 2-3 field goals and 6-6 extra points . . . Led team in scoring with nine points in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) by going 2-2 in field goals (both from 40 yards) and 3-3 in extra points . . . Hit on all three extra point attempts but missed only field goal attempt of game, going wide right on 48-yard effort with one second remaining in game and Dolphins trailing by a 22-21 score in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego (1/8/95) . . . It was only the second time in his career the Dolphins lost a game after Stoyanovich missed a fourth quarter kick with a chance to tie or lead the game.

1993 - Played in all 16 games . . . Led Dolphins in scoring with 109 points (24 of 32 field goals and 37 of 37 extra points) . . . Hit on 22 of 30 field goal attempts inside 50 yards and was two of two in field goal tries from 50 yards or more . . . Finished sixth in AFC and 11th in NFL in points and eighth in AFC and 14th in NFL in field goals . . . Reached 100 points for season at San Diego Chargers (12/27) which marked the fourth time in his career (1990-93) that he scored 100 or more points and became the first Dolphin player to register four 100-point seasons, breaking a tie with Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three different seasons . . . Named as the Dolphins' nominee for the 1993 Edge NFL Man of the Year Award . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Kicked 102nd career field goal to pass Uwe von Schamann and move into sole possession of second place for the most career field goals by a Dolphin, trailing only all-time leader Garo Yepremian (165 field goals) at Indianapolis (9/5) . . . Moved past Nat Moore into fourth place among the Dolphins' all-time scoring leaders with ten points on 4-4 field goals and 1-1 extra points at Buffalo (9/26) . . . Booted season-long 52-yard field goal and hit on all three extra points at Cleveland (10/10) . . . Scored season-high 11 points by going 5-5 in extra points and 2-3 in field goals against Indianapolis (10/24) . . . Moved past Mark Clayton (492 points) into third place among the Dolphin all-time leading scorers with seven points on 1-1 in extra points and 2-2 in field goals (46 and 47 yards) at Philadelphia (11/14) . . . Scored 500th career point on 23-yard field goal and also booted two extra points against New England (11/21) . . . Kicked on ice-covered field at Dallas (11/25) and was 1-1 in extra points and 3-5 in field goals (20, 31, and 19 yards and missing from 44 and 41 yards) . . . His 41-yard field goal attempt with 15 seconds left in regulation and the Dolphins trailing 14-13 was blocked by Jimmie Jones but when Dallas' Leon Lett fumbled in an attempt to recover the loose ball at the seven-yard line, Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovered the fumble at the one-yard line with three seconds left in the game which gave Stoyanovich a second chance, and he kicked the game-winning 19-yard field goal on the next play as time expired to give Miami a comeback 16-14 win . . . Went over the 100-point mark for the season for the fourth time in his career with eight points on 2-2 in field goals (31 and 50 yards) and 2-2 in extra points at San Diego (12/27) . . . Scored nine points by converting 2-2 field goals (29 and 24 yards) and 3-3 in extra points at New England (1/2/94) with his second field goal in that contest coming with nine seconds left in regulation to bring the Dolphins back from a 27-24 deficit to a 27-27 tie and send the game into overtime.

1992 - Led entire NFL in scoring with 124 points (30-37 in field goals and 34-36 in PATs) . . . Was first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (along with Washington's Chip Lohmiller) in field goals made (30) and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Lohmiller) in field goals attempted (37) . . . Had accuracy percentage of 81.1% (30-37) which ranked fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL . . . Was 27-29 in field goal attempts inside 50 yards but was 3-8 in field goal tries from 50 yards or more . . . Set team single season scoring record with 124 points, breaking the former team record of 121 points which he set in 1991 . . . Became only the second Dolphin ever to lead the NFL in scoring, joining Garo Yepremian, who led the NFL in scoring in 1971 with 117 points . . . In addition to his duties as a placekicker at Cleveland (9/14) he also was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt) in that contest, an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . Selected as first team All-Pro by the Associated Press and the Sporting News . . . Named first-team All-AFC by United Press International . . . Was the kicker named among the 1992 NFL Alumni Players of the Year . . . Reached 100 points for season on Dec. 14, 1992, against the L.A. Raiders which marked the third time in his career (1990-92) that he scored 100 or more points and joined Garo Yepremian (1971-73) as the only Dolphins to score 100 or more points in three different seasons . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Opened season by going 2-2 in field goals and 3-3 on extra points for nine points at Cleveland (9/14) as he moved past Fuad Reveiz into sixth place on the Dolphins' all-time scoring list . . . He was called on to handle the punting duties after Reggie Roby's knee injury and punted twice for 90 yards (including a 48-yard punt), an average of 45.0 yards per kick, without a return . . . It was only the second time in his NFL career that he was used as a punter, punting twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) on December 22, 1991, vs. the N.Y. Jets following Roby's Achilles' heel injury . . . Scored 14 points on 4-5 in field goals and 2-2 in PATs against the L.A. Rams (9/20) for his second highest single game total, surpassed only by his 15 points on Dec. 1, 1991 vs. the Bucs . . . Converted all four field goal attempts and only extra point attempt at Seattle (9/27) as his 13 points in that contest moved him past Larry Csonka and into fifth place on Miami's all-time scoring list . . . Scored 13 points at Buffalo (10/4) by going 3-3 on field goals attempts (30, 43, and 34 yards) and 4-4 in extra points . . . Missed both field goal attempts (both from 50 yards) which broke his streak of 10 consecutive field goals made and also ended streak of kicking at least one field goal in 13 consecutive games against Atlanta (10/11) . . . Scored 13 points by going 4-4 in field goals (38, 40, 29, and 52 yards) and 1-1 in extra points with his final field goal being a 52-yard game-winning kick with two seconds left in the game that broke a 16-16 tie and gave the Dolphins a 19-16 victory against Houston (11/22) . . . Booted 37-yard field goal with seven seconds left in contest to give the Dolphins a 19-17 win against N.Y. Jets (12/20) as he redeemed himself for missing an extra point with 2:30 left in the contest that left the Dolphins trailing the Jets by one point, 17-16 . . . Converted all three field goal attempts and kicked game-winning 35-yard field goal 6:43 left in overtime at New England (12/27) to give the Dolphins a comeback 16-13 win . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as Dolphins' second leading scorer with 11 points on 2-2 in field goal attempts and 5-5 in extra points . . . Converted only field goal attempt and made all four PATs in Divisional Playoff contest against San Diego (1/10/93) . . . Was 1-1 in field goals by hitting on an AFC Championship game record 51-yard field goal attempt against Buffalo (1/17/93) . . . It was the second longest field goal in Dolphin playoff history (surpassed only by Stoyanovich's 58-yard field goal vs. Kansas City on January 5, 1991).

1991 - Scored 121 points, going 31-37 (83.8%) in field goals and 28-29 in extra points, playing in only 14 games . . . His 121 points ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind the Redskins' Chip Lohmiller's 149 points) in scoring and he led the Dolphins in that category . . . Also ranked first in the AFC and tied for first the NFL (with Lohmiller) in field goals made with 31 FGs . . . He became only the second Dolphin in club history to lead the AFC in scoring (Garo Yepremian led the NFL in scoring with 117 points in 1971) and he became only the second Dolphin to lead the AFC in field goals (Yepremian led the NFL in field goals with 28 in 1971) . . . At the time, Stoyanovich's 121 points set a new Dolphin individual single season scoring record, breaking Garo Yepremian's former team record of 117 points in a season (he then broke his own record in 1992 with 124 points) . . . Stoyanovich's 31 field goals made also set a new Dolphin single season record for most field goals, breaking the former team record which was set when Garo Yepremian kicked 28 field goals in 1971 . . . His accuracy mark of 83.8% (31-37) was the Dolphins' second best single-season accuracy mark, surpassed only by his team mark of 84.0% (21-25) which he set in 1990 . . . His 83.8% accuracy percentage in 1991 ranked second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, behind the Rams' Tony Zendejas (who was 17-17 for 100%), the Raiders' Jeff Jaeger (29-34 for 85.3%), and Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek (28-33 for 84.8%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first nine field goals of 1991 before missing on a 58-yard attempt on the last play of the first half on October 6th at New England . . .

Scored 73 points in his last seven games, going 18-21 in field goals and 19-20 in extra points . . . As an unsigned veteran he missed the first regular season game at Buffalo on Sept. 1st as well as all of training camp, including all five preseason games . . . After signing a contract on September 6th was granted a two-week roster exemption and was not activated for game vs. Indianapolis on September 8th, missing his second regular season game . . . Was activated on September 14th and made his season debut on September 15th at Detroit . . . On September 29th at the N.Y. Jets, Stoyanovich kicked a 53-yard field goal, his sixth career field goal (including playoff games) of 50 or more yards, breaking the team record (previously held by Garo Yepremian) for the most career field goals of 50 or more yards . . . Stoyanovich accomplished the feat in just his third season, while Yepremian's Dolphin career lasted nine years (1970-78) . . . Twice in 1991, Stoyanovich won games by kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter or in overtime . . . On Nov. 24th in Chicago, his 27-yard field goal with 4:11 gone in overtime provided the winning points in the Dolphins' 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . On September 22nd in Miami's 16-13 win over Green Bay, Stoyanovich booted a 31-yard field goal with 8:21 remaining in the game to provide the winning points for the Dolphins . . . After missing a 49-yard field goal vs. New England on Nov. 10, 1991, he made 14 straight field goals covering five-plus games (his last kick in that Patriot game followed by all of his kicks in each of the next five games, through Dec. 15th at San Diego) before missing from 53 yards out in his first field goal attempt on Dec. 22nd vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . That streak matched his previous career high for most consecutive field goals, which he set by making his last field goal in 1989 and his first 13 field goals in 1990, and was two field goals short of Garo Yepremian's single season team record of 16 consecutive field goals, which he set during the eighth through 16th weeks in 1978 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 2-4 in field goals on Dec. 22nd vs. N.Y. Jets . . . It was only the fourth time in career that he missed two field goals in a contest . . . His first miss in that game, from 53 yards out, broke his streak of 14 straight field goal conversions, stretching from his last kick vs. New England on Nov. 10th through his only kick at San Diego on Dec. 15th, covering five-plus games . . . Also was forced into punting duties in that Jets contest following Achilles heel injury to Reggie Roby . . . Stoyanovich became the first Dolphin to punt in a contest other than Roby since 1987 . . . Stoyanovich punted twice for 85 yards (42.5 yards per kick) in that contest, the first two punts of his NFL career, and had a long kick of 49 yards . . . Scored 13 points on Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, going 3-3 in field goals (hitting from 50, 22, and 36 yards out) and 4-4 in extra points . . . Was blocked hard by Bengals' special team player Alex Gordon following a kickoff that precipitated an altercation along the Bengal sideline, and while shaken up was not seriously injured . . . Scored a career-high 15 points on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay, going 4-4 in field goals and 3-3 in extra points . . . His four field goals surpassed his previous single game high of three field goals (accomplished eight times previously) and was tied for the second highest number of field goals made in a game by a Dolphin, behind Yepremian's club record of five field goals made, set on September 26, 1971 at Buffalo . . . Stoyanovich's 15 points vs. the Bucs eclipsed his former single game high of 12 points, set Nov. 10, 1991 vs. New England . . . Scored ten points on Nov. 24th at Chicago, going 3-3 in field goals . . . His final field goal, from 27 yards out with 4:11 elapsed in overtime, provided the winning points in Miami's 16-13 victory over the Bears . . . Had 12 points on Nov. 10th vs. New England, going 3-3 in extra points and 3-4 in field goals . . . Missed a 37-yard field goal Nov. 3rd at Indianapolis, his first miss from under 40 yards since Dec. 30, 1990 vs. Indianapolis, hitting on six in a row since then before that miss . . . Was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, including a 53-yard field goal that was his sixth career FG of 50 or more yards, setting a new Dolphin record . . . Also was 3-3 in field goal attempts on September 22 vs. Green Bay, including a 52-yard field goal . . . Made his season debut on September 15th after being activated the previous day and was 2-2 in field goal attempts.

1990 - Finished sixth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in scoring among kickers with 100 points, and led the Dolphins in scoring . . . Hit on 21 of 25 field goal attempts (84.0%) and all 37 PATs . . . His 21 field goals were the most by a Dolphin player since Fuad Reveiz kicked 22 field goals in 1985 . . . His 100 points exceeded his rookie total of 95 points in 1989 . . . He became the first Dolphin to score 100 or more points since Fuad Reveiz's 116 points in 1985 and his 100 points is the ninth best single season scoring total in Dolphins history . . . His 84.0% accuracy mark is the best single season accuracy mark in Dolphins history and was fourth best in the AFC in 1990 behind Kansas City's Nick Lowery (34 of 37 for 91.9%), San Diego's John Carney (19 of 21 for 90.5%), and the N.Y. Jets' Pat Leahy (23 of 26 for 88.5%) . . . Stoyanovich made his first 13 attempts in 1990 before missing a 53-yard FG on Nov. 11th at N.Y. Jets and was the last kicker in the NFL to miss a field goal in 1990 . . . Dating back to his last kick in 1989, he connected on 14 consecutive field goals over two seasons before missing against the Jets . . . His 14 straight field goals broke his former single season best of eight consecutive FG, which he accomplished earlier in 1989 and fell two short of Yepremian's club record of 16 consecutive field goals made . . . His last miss before the Nov. 11th Jet game was a 56-yard attempt on Dec. 24, 1989 vs. Kansas City, his second-to-last FG attempt that season (he then hit a 22-yard FG vs. the Chiefs in that game to begin his two-season streak of 14 straight field goals) . . . Converted 18 straight field goal attempts under 40 yards before missing a 28-yard FG attempt Dec. 23rd at Buffalo . . . That miss also was his first career miss of a field goal attempt under 30 yards . . .

PLAYOFFS: Finished as the Dolphins' leading scorer in the postseason with 15 points, going 3-4 (75%) in field goal attempts and 6-6 in point after touchdown kicks . . . Hit on field goals of 58, 49, and 22 yards while missing from 57 yards out . . . Was 1-2 in field goal attempts in playoff game on Jan. 5th vs. Kansas City, hitting his record 58-yard field goal and missing on a 57-yard attempt . . . In playoff game at Buffalo on Jan. 12th was 2-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 22 yards out . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Was 3-3 in field goals Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia, including two clutch kicks . . . His 34-yard field goal with :03 seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the Dolphins a 20-20 tie with the Eagles, sending the game into overtime, and his 39-yard FG with 2:28 left in OT provided the game-winner in the Dolphins' 23-20 comeback victory . . . It was the second time in his career he won a game with a field goal in overtime . . . On Oct. 28th at Indianapolis he kicked a 53-yard field goal, the third longest of his career, tied for the fourth longest in Dolphins history, and the longest FG ever kicked against the Colts . . . Connected on his only field goal attempt on Sept. 23rd vs. the Giants in Giants Stadium, hitting a 51-yard field goal . . . It was the only points the Dolphins scored in their 20-3 loss to the Giants.

1989 - Had an impressive rookie season . . . Finished initial NFL campaign hitting on 19 of 26 field goal attempts and 38 of 39 extra points for 95 total points . . . Connected on 14 of 15 FG attempts inside the 40-yard line . . . Point total placed him sixth in the AFC and 14th in the NFL in scoring among kickers . . . His 95 points was the third highest total by a Dolphin rookie in club history, surpassed only by Fuad Reveiz' 116 points in 1985 and Uwe von Schamann's 99 points in 1979 . . . His 19 field goals were the third most in team history by a rookie, trailing only Reveiz's 22 FGs in 1985 and von Schamann's 21 FGs in 1979 . . . Finished eighth in the AFC and 17th in the NFL with 19 field goals made . . . Hit 59-yard field goal Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets . . . It was tied for the fourth longest field goal in NFL history and it set an NFL record for the longest field goal by a rookie . . . It also broke Garo Yepremian's team record for the longest field goal in Dolphins history . . . Yepremian had booted a 54-yard field goal on Oct. 22, 1972 vs. Buffalo . . . Went from goat to hero with overtime field goal vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th . . . Missed potential game-winning 45-yard field goal with eight seconds left in regulation and score tied 10-10 . . . Rebounded in overtime with game-winning 35-yard FG to give Miami a 13-10 victory . . . Recorded season-high three field goals, including 33-yard boot with six seconds left in contest to break a 20-20 tie and give Miami a 23-20 victory over Green Bay on Oct. 22nd . . . Made professional debut vs. Bills (Sept. 10) and converted a 29-yard field goal and all three of his PATs . . . Eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Miami in 1989.

PRO BOWL: Voted as starting offensive tackle for Pro Bowl team . . . Selected to start contest along with fellow offensive lineman Keith Sims in Pro Bowl for the first time that the Dolphins had two offensive linemen start in the Pro Bowl since 1984 when center Stephenson and guard Ed Newman were named as starters . . .

AGAINST SACK LEADERS: As Miami's starting left tackle, Webb was responsible for blocking some of the NFL's best pass rushers . . . Went up against San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (12.5 sacks) in the playoffs and held the AFC's second-leading sacker to two tackles and no sacks . . . Faced Kansas City's Derrick Thomas (11 sacks) on two occasions and held him to seven tackles and a sack . . . Battled Buffalo's Bruce Smith (ten sacks) on two occasions in '94 and limited him to nine tackles and one sack . . . Also faced Pittsburgh's Greg Lloyd (ten sacks) and held him without a sack.

1993 - Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Selected as starter for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for fourth time in career and second time as starter . . . Was named second-team All-Pro by Associated Press and first-team All-AFC by The Football News and United Press International . . . Selected by the NFL Players Association as AFC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year . . . Became first Dolphin offensive lineman to win the honor since Dwight Stephenson in 1987 . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for fourth straight season (1990-93) and joined Hall of Famer Jim Langer (1973-77) as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award four or more consecutive seasons . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1993 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked second consecutive Pro Bowl start . . . Webb is the only tackle in Dolphin history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter . . . Joined teammate guard Keith Sims on the Pro Bowl squad as they became the first pair of Dolphins offensive linemen to be selected to the Pro Bowl in the same year since 1985 when center Dwight Stephenson and guard Roy Foster were selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

1992 - Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left tackle . . . Was selected as starter for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Earned Pro Bowl recognition for third time in career and first time as starter . . . Named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press and The Sporting News and second-team All-NFL by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Honored with first-team All-AFC honors by The Football News and United Press International . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman for third straight season (1990-92) and joined Hall of Famers Larry Little (1970-72) and Jim Langer (1973-77) as well as Dwight Stephenson (1982-87) as only players in team history to win award three or more consecutive seasons . . . Was hampered by ankle injury vs. Houston (11/22) . . . Started at left tackle in both playoff games . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named as a starter at tackle for 1992 AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . It marked first career Pro Bowl start . . . Webb became the first tackle in Dolphins history to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a starter.

1991 - Started each of the last 14 games at left tackle in 1991 . . . Was selected for the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991 for second consecutive season . . . Voted by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman . . . Was inactive for first two games of season while recovering from preseason knee injury . . . Had suffered ligament damage to left knee vs. L.A. Raiders in Tokyo (9/4), however no surgery was necessary . . . Missed the final three preseason games and first two regular season contests as a result of knee injury . . . Was one of two inactive players in season-opener at Buffalo (9/1) . . . Dressed but did not play vs. Indianapolis (9/8) . . . Saw first action of season as starting left tackle at Detroit (9/15) . . . Held Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (13.5 sacks in '91) to just three tackles and no sacks at Kansas City (10/13) . . .

PRO BOWL: Was selected as reserve tackle for 1991 Pro Bowl squad . . . Webb's two Pro Bowl selections tied him with Evans for the most Pro Bowl selections by an offensive tackle in team history, a club mark he broke with his third Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

1990 - Started all 16 regular season games and two playoff contests at left tackle . . . Actually played in all 1,028 offensive downs for Miami in regular season and playoffs . . . In fact, only missed one offensive series (seven plays) in preseason . . . Selected as reserve to 1990 AFC Pro Bowl squad, but started game due to injury to Cincinnati's Anthony Munoz . . . Named NFL Rookie of the Year by United Press International, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly (see complete list of honors below) . . . Key member of the Dolphin front line that allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks . . . Was accountable for only two sacks . . . Amazingly, Webb was called for only one holding call in '90 . . . Made first NFL start in season opener at New England (9/9) . . . Anchored offensive line which allowed Miami to rush for 177 yards which was team's highest single-game rushing output in a non-replacement contest since 178-yard effort on December 5, 1982 against Minnesota . . . Started in opener alongside rookie left guard Keith Sims (second round pick) and became the first Dolphin rookie draft choices ever to start in the season opener on the offensive line . . . They also became just the third and fourth rookie draft choices to start on opening day on offense in the history of the Dolphins; the only other rookie draft choices to start for Miami on offense on opening day were WR Otto Stowe (1971) and FB Larry Csonka (1968) . . . In addition, rookie NT Alfred Oglesby (third round pick) also started in season opener at New England which marked the first time in Dolphin history that each of the team's top three draft choices all started on opening day . . . First-round draft choice (ninth overall) of Miami in 1990 . . .

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

DOLPHIN FACT

Running back Bernie Parmalee holds the team record for rushing yardage in consecutive games. Parmalee gained 150 yards on 30 carries against the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, and followed that performance with a 123-yard effort on 25 carries at New England on October 30. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 253 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS 14-0 VS. 2 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 14-0 regular-season record against two clubs in the National Football League through the 1995 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-8), and Arizona (0-6). The Dolphins play the Cardinals during the 1996 season.

Five NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-6), Dallas (1-6), St. Louis Rams (1-6), Seattle (1-4), and Tampa Bay (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Cowboys and Seahawks in 1996.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns — none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame — it ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHINS 52, N.Y. JETS 14
September 3, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami's defense forced six turnovers (four interceptions and two fumbles) and QB Dan Marino threw three touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 52-14 win over the New York Jets before a Joe Robbie Stadium season-opener record crowd of 71,317. The game, played in a Dolphins home game record 94 degree heat, marked a tie for the second-most points (52) scored in a game by the Dolphins in team history - only in a 55-14 win at St. Louis on 11/24/77 did Miami score more points in a game. The 38-point margin was the largest in a season-opening game for the Dolphins, surpassing an 18-point win (35-17) over the Washington Redskins on 9/2/84 and the game marked the fourth consecutive opening day win for the Dolphins, tying a team-best. The four interceptions for Miami marked the first time since 9/18/94 vs. N.Y. Jets that the club had four in a game. After a scoreless first quarter, Miami opened the scoring when RB Bernie Parmalee ran 24 yards for a touchdown to give the Dolphins a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. After the Jets fumbled the ensuing kickoff, the Dolphins extended the lead to 14-0 when Marino, playing in his 12th consecutive season-opener, hit WR Irving Fryar on a four-yard TD strike. After a Jets punt gave the ball to Miami at their own three-yard line, Parmalee fumbled on the first play and New York DT Matt Brock picked it up and rumbled three yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 14-7. Following a second Parmalee fumble, the Jets tied the score at 14-14 when QB Boomer Esiason hit WR Charles Wilson on a six-yard touchdown pass to cap a five-play, 31-yard drive with 1:48 left in the first half. Miami then drove 68 yards on eight plays before Marino hit FB Keith Byars on a one-yard touchdown pass to take a 21-14 lead with four seconds left in the half. After an interception by CB Troy Vincent, Miami drove 84 yards on six plays, capped by a four-yard touchdown run by Parmalee for a 28-14 lead. On New York's next possession, Vincent intercepted Esiason a second time, returning it 69 yards for a touchdown and a 35-14 lead with 4:02 remaining in the quarter. On its next possession, Miami tied a team-record with 21 points in the third quarter as Marino hit Fryar with a 50-yard touchdown pass and a 42-14 lead heading into the final period. Midway through the fourth quarter, K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 25-yard field goal to extend the margin to 45-14 as the Dolphins capitalized on the third interception of the game by Esiason. Miami capped the scoring when RB Irving Spikes scampered 17 yards for a touchdown to give the Dolphins a 52-14 lead with just 1:36 left in the game.

DOLPHINS 20, NEW ENGLAND 3
September 10, 1995

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Miami jumped out to an early first quarter lead and held on to beat the New England Patriots, 20-3, as the Dolphins rushed for 182 yards, the most accumulated by the team since rushing for 212 yards at Indianapolis on 11/8/93. The Dolphins marched 62 yards on 15 plays, taking 7:39 off of the clock before K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. Following a change of possession that gave the ball to the Dolphins on their own 33-yard line, QB Dan Marino went deep and connected with WR Irving Fryar on a 67-yard touchdown to put the team ahead 10-0 late in first quarter. The touchdown marked the longest scoring play from scrimmage for the Dolphins since a 77-yard touchdown run by FB Keith Byars on 11/25/93 at Dallas. On its next possession, New England drove 50 yards on eight plays, capped by a K Matt Bahr 29-yard field goal that closed the gap to 10-3 on the second play of the second quarter. After the two teams traded interceptions on back-to-back plays that gave Miami the ball on its own four-yard line, the Dolphins marched 96 yards on seven plays and took a 17-3 lead on a 31-yard halfback pass from RB Terry Kirby to Fryar. It marked the first touchdown pass of Kirby's career. The story of the second half was the Dolphins defense as the Patriots were inside the Miami 30-yard line on four occasions and were unable to score. New England's best opportunity came following a fumble by Miami RB Bernie Parmalee on the Patriots' seven-yard line. New England drove 92 yards where on fourth down and one-yard to go RB Curtis Martin was stuffed for a two-yard loss by NT Chuck Klingbeil and S Michael Stewart. Miami completed the day's scoring when Stoyanovich booted a 19-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 20-3 lead with just 2:12 remaining in the game.

DOLPHINS 23, PITTSBURGH 10
September 18, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami scored 17 points off of three Pittsburgh turnovers in the first half en route to 23-10 victory over the Steelers as the Dolphins improved their record to 3-0 in 1995. On the Steelers' first possession, they drove to the Dolphins 43-yard line before CB J.B. Brown intercepted a QB Mike Tomczak pass to kill the drive. Miami then drove 41 yards on five plays, capped by a 37-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich to give the Dolphins a 3-0 lead. After the teams traded two punts each, Tomczak was again victimized by the Miami secondary when CB Troy Vincent caught an errant pass that appeared to slip out of Tomczak's hand and right to Vincent, who returned it four yards to the Steelers' 14-yard line. Three plays later, RB Bernie Parmalee slashed two yards for a touchdown, and after the extra point by Stoyanovich, Miami had a 10-0 lead with 14:09 left in the half. After the teams again exchanged punts, Pittsburgh drove 13 plays and 39 yards and closed the Dolphins lead to 10-3 when K Norm Johnson booted a 40-yard field goal. Following a stalled Miami drive that gave the Steelers the ball on their own 17-yard line, RB John L. Williams fumbled (forced by DE Trace Armstrong) on the first play from scrimmage and it was recovered by DE Jeff Cross on the 21-yard line with just 1:21 left in the second quarter. Three plays later, after an intentional grounding penalty that pushed the ball back to the 28-yard line, QB Dan Marino connected with RB Terry Kirby on a 28-yard scoring strike that gave the club a 17-3 halftime lead. On the opening drive of the second half, Miami drove 44 yards on nine plays before stalling at the Steelers' 21-yard line and took a 20-3 lead when Stoyanovich kicked a 39-yard field goal. Late in the third quarter, Marino suffered a sternum contusion when LB Greg Lloyd tackled him after he released a pass to WR Mike Williams. Marino did not return to the game and was replaced by QB Bernie Kosar, who continued the drive and led team to the Steelers' four-yard line before Stoyanovich booted his third field goal of the game, this time from 21 yards out for a 23-3 lead. Kosar was four of four for 41 yards in the drive after replacing Marino. Pittsburgh, led by reserve QB Jim Miller, then drove 88 yards on 14 plays and cut the lead to 23-10 when Miller threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to WR Ernie Mills. The score by the Steelers was the first allowed by the Dolphins defense in nine quarters, dating back to the second quarter of week one against the Jets. The victory gave the Dolphins an 11-2 record since 1992 in the month of September, the best mark in the NFL in those years.

GAME 4

DOLPHINS 26, CINCINNATI 23
October 1, 1995

Riverfront Stadium
Cincinnati, OH

Miami K Pete Stoyanovich booted four field goals and QB Dan Marino connected with WR O.J. McDuffie on a 16-yard touchdown pass to give the Dolphins the go-ahead touchdown with 1:03 left in the game as Miami edged the Cincinnati Bengals, 26-23, in front of 52,671 fans at Riverfront Stadium. The victory was clinched when Cincinnati K Doug Pelfrey missed a 45-yard field goal wide left with just two seconds remaining in regulation. The contest was nationally dubbed as "the Shula Bowl" as it marked the second consecutive season that the Shula family made sports history with a game in which father and son battled as head coaches as Don Shula and the Dolphins took on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Bengals. The "Shula vs. Shula" match-ups are the only times in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son faced off as opposing head coaches. Overall, the elder Shula improved to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach. Those other Shula Bowls occurred while Don Shula's sons, David and Michael, were either players or assistant coaches for other NFL teams. Marino's 450 yards passing (on 33 completions of 48 attempts) marked the fourth-highest total of his career, trailing only games in which he threw for 521 yards (10/23/88 vs. N.Y. Jets), 473 yards (9/4/94 vs. New England) and 470 yards (12/2/84 vs. L.A. Raiders). The game also marked the 13th game of his career in which he has thrown for 400 yards or more in a game (an NFL record). On the opening drive of the game, Miami drove 77 yards on 10 plays, but stalled inside the 20-yard line and settled for a 21-yard Stoyanovich field goal and a 3-0 lead. Cincinnati took a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter when QB Jeff Blake hit WR Carl Pickens on a three-yard touchdown pass to cap a 15-play, 87-yard drive. The Cincinnati score marked the first time the Dolphins had trailed during the 1995 season. Miami came back on its next drive and re-gained the lead, 10-7, when Marino found TE Eric Green on an eight-yard touchdown toss, culminating a five-play, 78-yard drive. Later in the second quarter, the Bengals tied the game at 10-10 when Pelfrey kicked a 28-yard field goal. The Dolphins went back ahead, 13-10, with 1:01 left in the half when Stoyanovich kicked a 46-yard field goal. The Dolphins extended the lead to 16-10 when Stoyanovich kicked his third field goal of the game, this time from 36 yards out, as Miami drove 45 yards on 12 plays. Just two minutes later, the Bengals re-gained the lead at 17-16 when Blake and Pickens again connected for a touchdown, this time a 44-yarder and it capped a five-play, 80-yard drive. With 10:00 left in the game, Stoyanovich kicked yet another field goal, this time from 35 yards out, and it gave the club a 19-17 lead. The Bengals continued the see-saw game when they jumped to a 23-19 lead by driving 71 yards on 10 plays, capped by another Blake to Pickens connection, this time a 10-yarder. The Bengals' attempted two-point conversion failed and the lead stayed at four points. Miami, led by Marino, then embarked on a drive that took ten plays (six first downs) and went 91 yards and culminated with the TD strike to McDuffie that gave the Dolphins the victory and a 4-0 record.

GAME 5

INDIANAPOLIS 27, DOLPHINS 24 (OT)
 October 8, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard kicked a 27-yard field goal on the first drive of overtime as the Colts capped a 21-point comeback for a 27-24 victory over the previously unbeaten Dolphins. The win, in front of 68,471 fans at Joe Robbie Stadium, lifted Indianapolis' record to 3-2 while Miami fell to 4-1. The loss came on a day that Miami QB Dan Marino became the NFL's all-time leader in pass completions, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (3,686), when he connected with FB Keith Byars on a six-yard pass in the second quarter. The Dolphins opened the scoring taking a 7-0 lead when RB Terry Kirby ran three yards for a touchdown, a score set up by a Colts RB Marshall Faulk fumble that gave Miami the ball on the Indianapolis 34-yard line. With the touchdown, Kirby became just the third player in team history to throw, rush and receive a touchdown in a single-season - the others were QB David Woodley in 1981 and FB Keith Byars in 1993. The Dolphins extended the lead to 14-0 late in the first quarter when Marino hit RB Irving Spikes on a five-yard touchdown pass (completion tied Tarkenton's record) to cap an 11-play, 50-yard drive. Indianapolis got on the board when Blanchard kicked a 21-yard field goal, capping a 10-play, 77-yard drive. Miami went ahead 21-3 when Kirby scored again (his first multiple rushing TD game of his career), this time on a two-yard run. The Dolphins closed out the first half scoring when K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 51-yard kick that gave Miami a 24-3 lead at halftime. The second half belonged to the Colts as they worked on erasing the large deficit. Late in the third quarter, Indianapolis cut the Miami lead to 24-10 when QB Jim Harbaugh connected with WR Floyd Turner on a three-yard touchdown on a fourth down play. The Dolphins responded by driving 84 yards to the Colts' nine-yard line, only to have a Stoyanovich 27-yard field goal sail wide right. Midway through the fourth quarter, the Colts cut the lead to 24-17 as Harbaugh again found Turner, this time from 47 yards out as the Colts drove 80 yards on six plays. Indianapolis tied the game at 24-24 with 1:09 remaining in the game by driving 76 yards on 12 plays where Harbaugh hit WR Aaron Bailey on a 21-yard touchdown play. After the ensuing kickoff, the Dolphins drove to Indianapolis' 31-yard line and with 12 seconds left in regulation, Stoyanovich hooked a 49-yard field goal wide left, sending the game into overtime. The Colts won the overtime coin toss and drove 57 yards on nine plays to the Dolphins ten-yard line where Blanchard booted his game-winning field goal from 27 yards out to give Indianapolis the improbable comeback victory. The Dolphins fell to 9-14-1 overall in overtime games, including 0-2 against the Colts.

GAME 6

NEW ORLEANS 33, DOLPHINS 30
 October 15, 1995

Superdome
 New Orleans, LA

New Orleans QB Jim Everett threw four touchdown passes and Miami committed five turnovers, four of which led to Saints touchdowns, as the Saints defeated the Dolphins, 33-30, in front of 55,628 fans at the Superdome in New Orleans. Miami QB Bernie Kosar, starting in place of an injured Dan Marino, completed 29 (third-highest total of his career) of 42 passes for 368 yards (fourth-highest of career) and WR O.J. McDuffie tied a career-high with seven receptions for 86 yards. On Miami's second play from scrimmage, Kosar bobbled a hand-off intended for RB Terry Kirby and the Saints' DE Renaldo Turnbull recovered at the Dolphins' 36-yard line. On New Orleans' first play, RB Marlo Bates scampered 35 yards and followed that with a one-yard touchdown run to give the Saints a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, the Saints increased their lead to 13-0 when Everett connected with WR Michael Haynes on a 23-yard touchdown, capping a seven-play, 84-yard drive. The point after was aborted after holder Klaus Wilmsmeyer bobbled the snap and was stopped short on an attempted run. Miami trimmed the deficit to 13-7 when TE Eric Green caught a 31-yard touchdown from Kosar, culminating a six-play, 78-yard drive. Late in the first half, the Dolphins drove 55 yards on 12 plays but were unable to score a touchdown on three attempts inside the five-yard line and had to settle for a 20-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich to cut the lead to 13-10 with seven seconds remaining before intermission. Following a New Orleans fumble by TE Irv Smith, recovered by CB J.B. Brown, Miami gave the ball right back to the Saints when Kirby fumbled at the Dolphins' 30-yard line on the very next play. It took the Saints four plays to travel the 30 yards and they extended their lead to 19-10 when Everett found WR Quinn Early on a 25-yard touchdown pass. K Chip Lohmiller's extra point attempt hit the goal post. Following a fumble (recovered by DE Trace Armstrong) by New Orleans RB Lorenzo Neal at the Saints' 26-yard line, Kosar hit McDuffie for a 12-yard touchdown pass to make the score 19-17. After the Miami defense forced New Orleans to punt on its next possession, McDuffie muffed the return and S Vince Buck recovered for the Saints at the Dolphins' 22-yard line. On the first play following the fumble, Everett connected with Haynes for another touchdown, this time from 22 yards out to increase the lead to 26-17. After Kosar was intercepted by New Orleans LB Ernest Dixon deep in Dolphins territory early in the fourth quarter, the Saints made the score 33-17 when Everett threw his fourth touchdown pass of the game, this time to Smith, capping a five-play, 11-yard drive. Miami went to the hurry-up offense and drove 84 yards on 10 plays and cut the lead to 33-23 when Kosar plunged one yard for a touchdown with 8:05 left in the game. A two-point conversion attempt failed as Kirby's run attempt was stopped short of the goal-line. On Miami's next possession, the club capped a 77-yard, 10-play drive when Kosar connected with Kirby on a 16-yard touchdown with 1:54 left in the game. Following the extra point, the score was 33-30 but Miami could not come any closer as the Saints were able to run out the clock to preserve their first victory of the season.

GAME 7

N.Y. JETS 17, DOLPHINS 16
 October 22, 1995

 East Rutherford, N.J.

The New York Jets scored 17 second half points, paced by QB Bubby Brister's two touchdown passes, as the Jets handed the Dolphins their third consecutive loss, 17-16, in front of 67,228 fans at Giants Stadium. The three-game losing streak marked the longest for the Dolphins since dropping the final five games of the 1993 season and is only the second time since 1988 that Miami has had longer than a two-game losing streak. The Dolphins, who had RB Bernie Parmalee rush for 120 yards, lost for the first time in 11 games when they had an individual run for 100 or more yards in a game. The last time Miami lost with a runner going over the 100-yard mark was on 9/1/91 at Buffalo when RB Mark Higgs ran for 146 yards in a 35-31 loss to the Bills. Miami opened the scoring late in the first quarter when they drove 49 yards on 14 plays, capped by a 49-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich to make the score 3-0. The Dolphins increased the lead to 6-0 when Stoyanovich booted a 44-yarder midway through the second quarter. Following a Jets punt late in the first half, Miami drove 33 yards on eight plays, and took a 9-0 advantage when Stoyanovich kicked his third field goal of the half, this time from 48 yards out with two seconds left on the clock. Miami outgained the Jets 169-67 in the first half and had 11 first downs to New York's two. Jets KR Dexter Carter returned the second half kickoff 57 yards to give New York great field position at the Miami 36-yard line. Five plays later, Brister found WR Wayne Chrebet on a 12-yard touchdown to close the score to 9-7. On the Dolphins' next possession, QB Bernie Kosar was intercepted by Jets LB Mo Lewis who returned it to the Miami 25-yard line. The Dolphins defense did not allow a first down, but New York took a 10-9 lead when K Nick Lowery booted a 50-yard field goal with 8:24 left, in the third quarter. Following a Miami punt, the Jets took over on their own 25-yard line but three plays later, TE Johnny Mitchell fumbled and Dolphins S Gene Atkins recovered on the Jets 39-yard line. Following two running plays by Parmalee of 12 and 25 yards, RB Terry Kirby plunged two yards for a touchdown as Miami re-gained the lead 16-10. On New York's next possession, the Jets drove 61 yards on nine plays and took a 17-16 lead when Brister connected with Mitchell on a three-yard touchdown early in the final quarter. Miami could not re-gain the lead as their final three possessions ended in turnovers — a fumble and two interceptions. The Dolphins' final hope ended when Kosar was hit as he threw and CB Victor Green intercepted him on the New York 37-yard line with 1:11 left in the game. The Jets then preceded to run out the clock and hold on for the one-point victory.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 23, BUFFALO 6
 October 29, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, buoyed by the return of QB Dan Marino from a two-week absence, defeated the AFC East Division rival Buffalo Bills, 23-6, in front of 71,060 fans at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win was the first home victory for the Dolphins over the Bills since a 30-7 triumph on 9/16/90 and improved Miami's record against Buffalo at Joe Robbie Stadium to 2-8. The six points scored by Buffalo marked the first time the Dolphins did not allow a touchdown by the Bills since 9/11/88 at Buffalo when Miami dropped a 9-6 decision at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins opened the scoring by driving 74 yards on 17 plays and taking a 3-0 lead when K Pete Stoyanovich kicked a 24-yard field goal. Buffalo tied the game at 3-3 just eight seconds into the second quarter when K Steve Christie booted a 32-yard field goal to cap an 11-play, 59-yard drive. Miami took a 6-3 lead when Stoyanovich kicked a 33-yard field goal with 3:15 left in the half. Stoyanovich's field goal was the 166th of his career, surpassing Garo Yepremian (165) for the Dolphins' club record for career field goals. On the first drive of the second half, Buffalo drove 67 yards on 12 plays and tied the game at 6-6 when Christie split the uprights with a 32-yard field goal. On their next possession, the Dolphins re-gained the lead at 13-6 when RB Bernie Parmalee capped a nine-play, 73-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown run. Miami increased the margin to 20-6 with 11:35 left in the game when RB Terry Kirby ran 11 yards for a score, capping an eight-play, 61-yard drive. The Dolphins closed out the scoring when Stoyanovich booted his third field goal of the game, this time from 22 yards out to make the score 23-6 with 1:56 remaining in the game. Miami held the Bills to 186 total yards of offense in the game and just 47 yards on the ground. Following Buffalo's initial drive of the second half, the Miami defense held the Bills to 44 yards of offense and sacked Bills QB Jim Kelly twice. The Dolphins improved to 8-15 when Marino did not throw a touchdown pass in a game.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 24, SAN DIEGO 14
 November 5, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
 San Diego, CA

Miami QB Dan Marino completed 25 of 39 passes for 291 yards and two touchdowns and RB Bernie Parmalee rushed for 103 yards as the Dolphins defeated the San Diego Chargers, 24-14, in front of 61,996 spectators at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego. The Dolphins, by winning in San Diego for the first time since a 28-21 victory on 10/15/78, improved their record in games played in San Diego to 3-8 and snapped a five-game losing streak against the Chargers in Southern California. The 103 yards by Parmalee was his fifth 100-yard game of his career (tying him with Jim Kick for sixth on the club's all-time list) and second of 1995. On the opening kickoff, San Diego KR Andre Coleman returned the ball to the Dolphins' 46-yard line and the Chargers took advantage of the field position by driving 31 yards on 10 plays and taking a 3-0 lead when K John Carney kicked a 33-yard field goal. On the drive, the Chargers had a five-yard touchdown nullified by a holding penalty. On their opening series, the Dolphins drove 70 yards on nine plays and took a 7-3 lead when Marino hit WR Irving Fryar for a 23-yard touchdown pass. Marino was five for five for 64 yards on the touchdown drive and FB Keith Byars caught a pass in his 121st consecutive game, tying him with Mel Gray for sixth on the NFL's all-time list. After a San Diego punt, Miami again drove deep into Chargers territory and faced a third-down-and-nine from the Chargers nine-yard line when Marino was intercepted by LB Junior Seau at the goal line to stop the threat. The interception snapped a string of 114 consecutive passes thrown by Marino without an interception, eight shy of the club record held by Bob Griese. After a Miami punt to start the second half, San Diego marched 61 yards on 14 plays but again, the Miami defense stiffened as the Chargers neared the end zone and they had to settle for another Carney field goal, this time from 39 yards out to cut the Dolphins' lead to 7-6. Miami responded by a good drive of their own as Marino hit RB Terry Kirby on a five-yard touchdown pass to cap a 66-yard, seven-play drive to make the score 14-6. The drive was highlighted by a 50-yard pass from Marino to WR Randal Hill. San Diego answered with a five-play, 76-yard drive that saw a 50-yard touchdown pass from QB Stan Humphries to WR Tony Martin cut the lead to 14-12. The Chargers tied the score with a two-point conversion pass from Humphries to WR Mark Seay. On its next drive, Miami went 62 yards on 15 plays, taking 6:47 off of the clock, and re-gained the lead at 17-14 when K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 36-yard field goal. San Diego gave up the ball on its next possession when Humphries had a pass bounce out of Martin's hands into the waiting arms of Miami LB Chris Singleton, who picked it off and plunged three yards to the Chargers' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Byars dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown and a 24-14 lead with 7:22 left in the game. San Diego responded by driving to the Miami 21-yard line, but lost the ball when TE Alfred Pupunu caught a Humphries pass but had the ball stripped loose by Dolphins S Gene Atkins and CB J.B. Brown recovered at the five-yard line. Miami then was able to run out the clock by driving 75 yards, mainly on the ground, to the San Diego 20-yard line. Miami's final drive of the game was highlighted by a 40-yard scamper by Parmalee that pushed him over the 100-yard mark.

GAME 10

NEW ENGLAND 34, DOLPHINS 17
 November 12, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

New England scored 24 second half points, breaking a 10-10 halftime score, as the Patriots defeated the Dolphins, 34-17, in front of 70,399 fans at a sold-out Joe Robbie Stadium. New England defeated the Dolphins for only the second time in the past 14 meetings between the two clubs and it marked the first Patriots win in Miami since a 6-3 victory on 11/20/88. After each team was unable to score on its first possession, Miami drove from its own 20-yard line to the New England one-yard line, before the drive stalled and the Dolphins were forced to try a field goal. K Pete Stoyanovich was good on an 18-yard attempt but LB Bryan Cox was called for holding on the play. Stoyanovich was forced to try a 29-yard field goal which he missed wide left. The drive was notable as QB Dan Marino broke Fran Tarkenton's (47,003) all-time record for passing yardage with a nine-yard pass to WR Irving Fryar. New England opened the scoring early in the second quarter as they drove 64 yards on 12 plays and took a 7-0 lead when RB Curtis Martin ran three yards for a touchdown. Miami answered with a 60-yard, three-play drive and tied the game at 7-7 when Marino hit RB Bernie Parmalee with a 31-yard touchdown pass. The Patriots, on their next possession, drove the length of the field before stalling at the Miami one-yard line. K Matt Bahr then attempted a 18-yard field goal but it was deflected by Dolphins DT Tim Bowens and it hit the crossbar no good. Miami took possession with 2:34 left in the half and took a 10-7 lead when Stoyanovich kicked a 36-yard field goal with just 18 seconds left. New England RB/KR David Meggett then returned the ensuing kickoff 62 yards to the Miami 37-yard line where Bahr was then good on a 55-yard field goal to tie the game as the clock ran out in the half. The 55-yard field goal against the Dolphins tied the second-longest field goal ever made against the club (with Indianapolis' Dean Biasucci on 12/30/90), trailing only Buffalo's Steve Christie's 59-yarder on 9/26/93. The Patriots opened the second half with an eight-play, 77-yard drive and took a 17-10 lead when Bledsoe hit WR Vincent Brisby on a 47-yard touchdown. Miami tied the score at 17-17 when they marched 60 yards on eight plays and saw Marino connect with WR O.J. McDuffie on a 20-yard scoring play. On their next possession, the Patriots drove to the Dolphins' 13-yard line where Bledsoe was stopped cold on a sneak attempt on a fourth-down-and-one play, giving the ball back to Miami. However, on the second play from scrimmage, Marino was sacked by New England LB Willie McGinest and fumbled the ball, recovered by DT Troy Barnett at the Dolphins' seven-yard line. Three plays later, Bledsoe threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to TE Ben Coates on a score that saw the football tipped by Meggett into the waiting hands of Coates. Trailing 24-17, Miami moved the ball to the Patriots' 28-yard line before the club was stopped on a fourth down play. New England was then able to increase its lead to 31-17 as they drove 65 yards on eight plays before Martin scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from one-yard out. The Dolphins then marched to the Patriots 21-yard line before Marino was intercepted by Patriots S Myron Guyton, who returned it 45 yards to the New England 48-yard line. The Patriots then preceded to put the game away with a 47-yard field goal that increased the lead to 34-17. Martin finished the game with 142 yards rushing, the first time the Dolphins had allowed an opposing runner to surpass the 100-yard mark during the regular season since Buffalo RB Thurman Thomas ran for 125 yards on 10/9/94, a span of 20 games. In addition, the 142 yards by Martin were the most given up to an opposing rusher since Kansas City's Christian Okoye ran for 153 yards on 10/13/91.

GAME 11

SAN FRANCISCO 44, DOLPHINS 20
 November 20, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

San Francisco jumped out to an early lead and cruised to a 44-20 win over the Dolphins as QB Elvis Grbac, subbing for the injured Steve Young (shoulder), tallied career-highs with 382 passing yards and four touchdowns to lead the 49ers to the victory. The loss, in front of a Joe Robbie Stadium record 73,080 fans and a national television audience, dropped the Dolphins to 30-20 all-time on Monday nights and evened the all-time series between the two teams at 4-4. San Francisco totaled 497 total offensive yards, the most allowed by the Dolphins since giving up 582 yards at Buffalo in a 35-31 loss on 9/1/91. The lone bright spot for the Dolphins was QB Dan Marino, who tied Fran Tarkenton (342) for first place on the NFL's all-time list for touchdown passes. Miami won the coin toss but the first offensive series set the tone for the remainder of the game as Marino was sacked on each of the first three plays from scrimmage. Following a Dolphins punt, the 49ers drove 43 yards on just four plays, capped by a three-yard touchdown run by RB Derek Loville for a 7-0 lead. Miami tied the game at 7-7 just 11 seconds into the second quarter when WR Gary Clark caught a 42-yard touchdown pass from Marino. The reception moved Clark past Stanley Morgan (10,716 yards) into eighth place on the NFL's all-time list for receiving yards. San Francisco re-gained the lead at 14-7 as Grbac connected with WR Jerry Rice on a 47-yard touchdown pass midway through the second quarter. Following a fumble by Miami WR O.J. McDuffie that gave the 49ers the ball at the Dolphins' 22-yard line, the 49ers extended the lead to 17-7 on a 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Wilkins. The Dolphins tried to mount a drive at the end of the first half but Marino was intercepted by S Merten Hanks at Miami 46-yard line. Five plays later, the 49ers had a 24-7 advantage as Grbac connected with TE Brent Jones on a 23-yard score with nine seconds left in the half. The second half didn't start much better for the Dolphins as San Francisco drove 66 yards on eight plays and took a 31-7 lead when Jones caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Grbac. Miami displayed some offensive life on the next possession as Marino drove the club 69 yards on eight plays and the Dolphins made the score 31-13 with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Bernie Parmalee. The Dolphins' attempt at a two-point conversion was no good as Marino threw an incomplection intended for Clark. San Francisco only needed three plays to march 75 yards and extended the lead to 38-13 as Grbac connected with Rice again, this time from 46 yards for a score. Miami drove 80 yards on nine plays on its next possession and closed the gap to 38-20 when Marino tied Tarkenton's mark with a four-yard TD pass to McDuffie. San Francisco closed out the game's scoring with two Wilkins field goals in the fourth quarter (31 and 20 yards) to give the 49ers the 44-20 victory.

INDIANAPOLIS 36, DOLPHINS 28

RCA Dome
 Indianapolis, IN

Miami QB Dan Marino became the all-time NFL leader in touchdown passes, surpassing Fran Tarkenton (342), with a six-yard pass to FB Keith Byars with 1:06 remaining in the first half, but the Indianapolis Colts spoiled the day with a 36-28 win in front of 60,414 fans at a sold-out RCA Dome. The game marked the first Indianapolis season sweep since winning both games in the 1988 season. Marino finished the game with four touchdown passes but saw the Dolphins' record fall to 15-5 when he throws four or more TDs in a game. RB Bernie Parmalee finished the game with 102 yards rushing on 20 attempts, his sixth 100-yard rushing game of his career, tying him with Delvin Williams for fifth place on the Dolphins' all-time list. On its first drive, the Colts drove 77 yards on nine plays and took a 7-0 lead when QB Jim Harbaugh connected with WR Sean Dawkins on a five-yard touchdown strike. Harbaugh completed five of five passes for 65 yards and ran for nine more on the drive. On Miami's first drive of the game, Marino was hit as he dropped back to pass by Colts DE Tony Bennett and fumbled the ball, recovered by LB Quentin Coryatt, who returned the ball to the Dolphins' 37-yard line. Three plays later, the Colts went ahead 14-0 as Harbaugh found WR Aaron Bailey on a 34-yard touchdown pass. Following a Dolphins punt, Indianapolis extended the lead to 17-0 with a 29-yard field goal by K Cary Blanchard, capping a nine-play, 69-yard drive. After another Miami punt that gave the Colts the ball on the Dolphins' 49-yard line, Bailey ran 34 yards off of a reverse on the first play of the drive and Indianapolis increased their lead to 24-0 as Harbaugh threw his third touchdown of the first half, this time a seven-yarder to RB Marshall Faulk. Miami got on the board late in the first half by driving 80 yards on eight plays, capped by Marino's record-breaking TD pass to Byars to make the score 24-6 (following a unsuccessful two-point conversion) at halftime. Indianapolis outgained the Dolphins (total yards) by a 253-104 margin in the first half. Miami took the ball on its first possession of the third quarter and marched 79 yards on 13 plays and closed the gap to 24-14 as Marino connected with WR O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard scoring play and then hit TE Eric Green for the two-point conversion. After the Miami defense stiffened and forced a punt, the Dolphins took over on its own ten-yard line but on the second play of the drive, Bennett sacked Marino in the end zone for a safety and a 26-14 Colts lead late in the third quarter. The safety allowed by the Dolphins was the first regular season safety allowed since 12/5/93 vs. N.Y. Giants when Keith Hamilton tackled Dolphins QB Steve DeBerg in the end zone. Following the Miami free kick, Indianapolis increased its lead to 29-14 when Blanchard kicked a 31-yard field goal, capping a six-play, 36-yard drive. On their next possession, the Dolphins drove 75 yards on 12 plays and scored on Marino's third touchdown pass of the game, this time a five-yarder to WR Irving Fryar. Miami was no good on a two-point conversion and the Colts lead remained at 29-20 at the midway point of the fourth quarter. The Dolphins defense was unable to hold Indianapolis on its next possession as the Colts marched 75 yards, highlighted by a 40-yard run by Faulk, on 11 plays as they increased their lead to 36-20 on a one-yard fourth-down plunge by Harbaugh. The Dolphins did close the gap to 36-28 when Marino hit McDuffie on a 19-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 17 seconds left in regulation. However, Miami was unsuccessful on an onside kick attempt and Indianapolis was able to run out the clock.

DOLPHINS 21, ATLANTA 20
 December 3, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Miami QB Dan Marino connected with WR Irving Fryar on a 21-yard touchdown pass with just 11 seconds remaining to give the Dolphins a 21-20 come-from behind victory in front of 63,395 fans at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino finished with 343 yards passing, his 52nd career 300-yard passing game, moving him past Dan Fouts into first place on the NFL's all-time list. In addition, Marino's 35 completions (on 50 attempts) tied for second-best in his career (a feat accomplished twice before), trailing only his 39 completions at Buffalo on 11/16/86. Miami took the opening drive and marched 55 yards on 14 plays and took a 3-0 lead on a 42-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich. Atlanta answered on their initial drive by taking a 7-3 late in the first quarter as QB Jeff George hit WR Bert Emanuel on a one-yard touchdown pass to culminate a nine-play, 56-yard drive. After the two teams exchanged punts, Miami drove inside the Falcons' five-yard line where on third-down-and-goal Marino was intercepted by S Kevin Ross who returned out to the Atlanta 32-yard line. The Falcons then drove 68 yards on six plays and increased their lead to 14-3 when WR Eric Metcalf took a handoff and scampered 23 yards for a touchdown with 3:37 left in the first half. The Dolphins closed the gap to 14-9 at halftime when Marino hit WR Gary Clark on a six-yard touchdown with 28 seconds left in the half, to cap a 76-yard, nine-play drive. Miami's two-point conversion attempt was no good as RB Bernie Parmalee was stopped short of the goal line after catching a Marino pass in the flat. Following an Atlanta punt to begin the third quarter, Miami drove to the Falcons' four-yard line before stalling and had a 21-yard Stoyanovich field goal attempt sail wide left after being deflected by Atlanta's Gene Williams. Atlanta upped its lead to 20-9 early in the final period as George threw his second touchdown pass of the game, this time a 16-yarder to Terence Mathis, to take a 20-9 lead. The Falcons tried an unsuccessful two-point conversion after the score. The Dolphins rebounded to drive 80 yards on 13 plays and cut the lead to 20-15 when Parmalee ran three yards for a touchdown. Miami was unsuccessful on a two-point attempt. Following an Atlanta punt, Marino was intercepted by Falcons LB Clay Matthews at the Miami 48-yard line with 4:49 left in regulation. The Falcons drove to the Dolphins' 27-yard line where on fourth-down-and-one, RB Craig Heyward was stopped cold by Miami LB Bryan Cox, giving the ball to Miami on the 28-yard line with 1:49 remaining in the game. Marino then drove the Dolphins to the game winning score by completing four of seven passes for 60 yards (and also scrambling once for 12 yards) and won the game with the 21-yard scoring pass to Fryar with just 11 seconds left in the contest to bring the score to 21-20. The Dolphins failed on a two-point conversion attempt. Atlanta got the ball back following the kickoff, but Miami held on for the victory.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 13, KANSAS CITY 6
 December 11, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins built a 13-0 halftime lead and held on to defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 13-6, in front of 70,321 fans at a sold-out Joe Robbie

309

Stadium. The victory improved the Dolphins to 31-20 on Monday Night Football, tying the Oakland Raiders for the most wins on Monday nights. The game was highlighted by Dolphins QB Dan Marino breaking the fourth of four of Fran Tarkenton's passing records (the four that make up the passing rating) as he became the NFL's all-time leader in pass attempts. Marino surpassed Tarkenton's 6,467 with a fourth quarter attempt intended for WR Randal Hill that fell incomplete. In addition, Marino surpassed the 3,000-yard mark for the 11th time in his career, an NFL record. On the second play of the game, Chiefs RB Kimble Anders was jarred loose from the football by Dolphins DT Tim Bowens and it was recovered by LB Chris Singleton at the Kansas City 45-yard line. It was the first takeaway by the Dolphins defense since S Gene Atkins forced San Diego TE Alfred Pupunu to fumble (recovered by CB J.B. Brown) on November 6. Miami returned the favor just three plays later when Marino was intercepted by Chiefs FS William White who returned the ball to the Dolphins' 48-yard line. However, on the very next play, Dolphins CB Troy Vincent intercepted Chiefs QB Steve Bono, giving the ball back to Miami at the Kansas City 38-yard line. The interception gave Vincent five on the season, tying a career-high. The Dolphins converted the turnover into points by driving 29 yards on seven plays and taking a 3-0 lead on a 33-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich midway into the first quarter. Following an exchange of punts, the Dolphins forced their third turnover of the first quarter, when Bowens forced and recovered a fumble by Kansas City RB Greg Hill at the Chiefs 42-yard line. Miami capitalized by driving 27 yards on eight plays and taking a 6-0 with another Stoyanovich field goal, again from 33 yards out with 1:30 left in the initial frame. Kansas City, on its next drive, marched to the Dolphin 27-yard line but had a 44-yard K Lin Elliott field goal sail wide right just 16 seconds into the second quarter. After each team punted on their next possessions, the Dolphins drove 63 yards on 11 plays, taking 7:07 off of the clock, and took a 13-0 lead when Marino hit WR O.J. McDuffie on a three-yard touchdown with 2:52 left in the first half. Following a Dolphins punt to start the second half, Kansas City drove to the Miami four-yard line before the defense stiffened. Chiefs RB Marcus Allen was stuffed by Vincent on both third-down-and-one and fourth-down-and-one, giving the ball back to the Dolphins and preserving the 13-point lead. The Miami defense came up big again on the Chiefs' next possession as Kansas City drove to the Dolphins' 27-yard line where on fourth-down-and-inches, Chiefs FB Donnell Bennett was stopped short by Bowens late in the third quarter. Following two Dolphins and one Chiefs punt, Kansas City drove 75 yards on seven plays and cut the Miami lead to 13-6 when Bono connected with WR Webster Slaughter on a five-yard touchdown pass. Elliott, however, missed the point after, keeping the Dolphin lead seven points with 5:04 remaining in the game. On Miami's next possession, RB Bernie Parmalee fumbled and the ball was recovered by Kansas City LB George Jamison at the Dolphins 36-yard line with 3:38 left in the contest. Kansas City then drove to the Miami nine-yard line where on fourth-down-and-six with 1:36 on the clock, a Bono pass intended for Slaughter in the end zone, was broken up by CB Terrell Buckley, giving the ball back to the Dolphins.

GAME 15

BUFFALO 23, DOLPHINS 20
 December 17, 1995

Rich Stadium
 Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins, trailing 13-3 at halftime, rallied to tie the game at 20-20 in the fourth quarter but were unable to pull out the victory as Buffalo recorded a 23-20 victory in front of 79,531 fans at a sold-out Rich Stadium in Orchard Park, New York. After the two exchanged punts on their first possessions of the game, Miami drove to the Buffalo 35-yard line where on fourth-down-and-one, Dolphins RB Terry Kirby fumbled, and although the ball was recovered by Miami, it was short of the first down and the ball went back to Buffalo. The Bills then drove 62 yards on 12 plays but stalled at the Dolphins' three-yard line and had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by K Steve Christie for a 3-0 lead. Following another Dolphins punt, the Bills embarked on a methodical 14-play, 74-yard drive but again stalled deep into Miami territory, this time at the six-yard line, and had to settle for another Christie field goal, this time a 24-yarder for a 6-0 lead. Miami answered on their next possession by driving 36 yards on nine plays and cut the lead to 6-3 when K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 50-yard field goal with 5:33 remaining in the first half. Buffalo took the ensuing kickoff and drove 69 yards on 10 plays and increased their lead to 13-3 with just 38 seconds remaining in the first half as Thomas ran two yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins helped keep the drive alive with two penalties (a pass interference by S Michael Stewart and a offsides by DE Trace Armstrong) that gave Buffalo first downs. On Buffalo's first drive of the second half, Bills QB Jim Kelly fumbled the ball on a handoff and it was recovered by Miami DT Steve Emtman at the Buffalo 33-yard line. Miami drove to the Buffalo five-yard line, but were unable to punch it in and settled for a 30-yard field goal by Stoyanovich to cut the lead to 13-6. Three plays later, Kelly had a pass attempt tipped by Dolphins DE Marco Coleman and had it intercepted by CB Calvin Jackson (the first of his career), who returned it 23 yards to the Bills 25-yard line. On the next play, Miami tied the game at 13-13 when Marino found TE Eric Green on a 25-yard touchdown pass midway in the third quarter. Following an exchange of punts that gave the ball to Buffalo at the Miami 46-yard line, it took the Bills six plays to drive the distance and regain the lead at 20-13 when Kelly hit Thomas on an 11-yard scoring strike with five seconds left in the third quarter. After another exchange of punts that gave the Dolphins the ball at the Buffalo 49-yard line, Miami drove the distance in five plays and tied the game at 20-20 when RB Bernie Parmalee ran five yards for the score with 9:11 remaining in regulation. After Miami forced Buffalo to punt, Marino was intercepted by LB David White on the first play from scrimmage and returned the ball nine yards to the Dolphins' 11-yard line. The Dolphins defense came up big on three consecutive running plays and forced the Bills to kick a field goal and Christie booted a 25-yard field goal to put Buffalo back on top at 23-20 with just over six minutes left in the contest. The Dolphins, on their next possession, were able to record one first down before stalling and punting the ball back to the Bills with 4:32 left in the game. The Dolphins defense, however, was unable to stop the Bills as Buffalo was able to ground out three first downs and run out the clock.

GAME 16

DOLPHINS 41, ST. LOUIS 22
 December 24, 1995

Trans World Dome
 St. Louis, MO

The Dolphins, taking advantage of four St. Louis turnovers that led to 28 points, defeated the Rams, 41-22, in front of 63,876 Christmas Eve fans at the Trans World Dome in St. Louis. The win, coupled with an Oakland loss in a game played at the same time, put the Dolphins in the playoffs for the 16th time in Head Coach Don Shula's 26 years at the Dolphins' helm. In addition, the win gave Miami a 9-7 overall record, the 20th time that the club has posted a winning record under Shula. The Rams took the opening kickoff and drove 59 yards on seven plays and went ahead 3-0 on a 42-yard field goal by K Dean Blasucci. Miami responded with a 45-yard, eight play drive and tied the score at 3-3 when K Pete Stoyanovich booted a 33-yard field goal. Late in the first quarter, the Dolphins punted to the Rams, but PR Todd Kinchen fumbled the ball (forced by Miami LB Jeff Kopp) and it was recovered on the St. Louis 22-yard line. Four plays later, Dolphins RB Bernie Parmalee ran three yards for a touchdown and a 10-3 lead. Following an exchange of punts, the Rams cut the Miami lead to 10-6 as a 61-yard, seven-play drive was capped by a 27-yard Blasucci field goal early in the second quarter. On its next possession, the Dolphins extended the lead to 17-6 when QB Dan Marino hit WR Irving Fryar on a six-yard touchdown pass, capping a seven-play, 47-yard drive. For Fryar, the TD reception was his eighth of the season, a new career-high. The drive was highlighted by a bizarre play when, facing second-down-and-six from the St. Louis ten-yard line, Marino was intercepted by Rams LB Roman Phifer but on the return was tackled by Miami FB Keith Byars and fumbled, recovered by WR O.J. McDuffie on the St. Louis eight-yard line. On the very next offensive play for the Rams, QB Mark Ryplien was intercepted by Dolphins CB Terrell Buckley at the Dolphins' 40-yard line. Miami responded by driving 60 yards on seven plays and took a 24-6 lead when Marino hit McDuffie with a seven-yard touchdown pass with 3:28 left in the first half. St. Louis cut the lead to 24-12 when Ryplien connected with Kinchen on a seven-yard touchdown pass with 32 seconds left in the half. A two-point conversion attempt was no good when Buckley broke up a pass in the end zone. Miami was able to add on a field goal late before the end of the half by driving 44 yards on five plays and went up 27-12 with a 48-yard Stoyanovich kick. On the Dolphins' opening drive of the second half, they drove to inside the Rams' 20-yard line but Marino was intercepted by S Toby Wright, who returned the ball out to his own 15-yard line. St. Louis capitalized on the Miami mistake by marching 85 yards on 11 plays and closing the gap to 27-19 when Ryplien found WR Isaac Bruce on a five-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter. Following a Miami punt, the Rams drove to the Dolphins' 13-yard line before stalling, but Blasucci missed wide right on a 32-yard field goal on the final play of the third quarter. Following three punts - two by Miami and one by St. Louis - the Rams cut the lead to 27-22 when Blasucci capped a nine-play, 47-yard drive with a 38-yard field goal midway in the final quarter. Following the Rams' score, Miami KR Irving Spikes returned the ensuing kickoff 55 yards to the St. Louis 36-yard line. The return set up a Parmalee seven-yard touchdown run just five plays later for a 34-22 Miami lead with just 3:57 left in the game. Two plays into the next Rams drive, Dolphins CB J.B. Brown forced Kinchen to fumble and the ball was returned 37 yards for a touchdown by CB Pat Johnson, to make the score 41-22 with 1:19 left in the contest. St. Louis then lost its next possession on downs and Miami ran out the clock to end the game. For the Rams, Bruce finished the game with 15 receptions, a new record for opponent receptions in a game, breaking the old mark of 14 by WR Al Toon at the N.Y. Jets on 11/27/88. In addition, Bruce's 210 yards receiving ranks second on the all-time opponent's list, trailing only the Rams' Ron Jessie, who had 220 on 10/3/76 vs. Los Angeles.

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 125 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (19 times; led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only nine occasions (Richmond Webb, six times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have selected a player from a Florida university in 17 of the team's 29 college drafts. Overall, the Dolphins have drafted 34 players from the State of Florida. The Univ. of Miami leads the way with 13 Dolphin draftees, followed by nine from the Univ. of Florida, six from Florida State Univ., four from the Univ. of Tampa and one from both Florida A&M and Bethune Cookman.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,336), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66).

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to have opened up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while four other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (60 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins) and Washington (11 games) in 1991.

PRESEASON GAME 1

JACKSONVILLE 24, DOLPHINS 21
August 4, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Jacksonville rookie RB Ryan Christopherson scored three touchdowns and K Scott Sisson booted a 32-yard field goal with one second left in regulation, to give the expansion Jaguars their first win in team history, 24-21, over the Dolphins in front of 51,745 fans at Joe Robbie Stadium. Following a fumble recovery by Miami DT Steve Emtman, forced by a sack of QB Steve Buerlein by LB Aubrey Beavers, the Dolphins drove 12 yards on four plays, capped by a three-yard touchdown run by RB Bernie Parmalee to take a 7-0 lead. Miami extended its lead to 14-0 as RB Robert Wilson plunged one-yard for a touchdown to cap an 18-play, 80-yard drive midway through the second quarter. Jacksonville closed the gap to 14-7 late in the first half when RB Ryan Christopherson completed an 11-play, 88-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown scamper. The Jaguars tied the score at 14-14 when Christopherson scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from two yards out, as Jacksonville drove 84 yards on seven plays midway through the third quarter. Miami re-captured the lead 21-14 when QB Dan McGwire found WR Ricky Sanders, playing in his first game in a Dolphins uniform, on a 15-yard scoring strike to climax a three-play, 32-yard drive set up by a muffed Jacksonville punt. With 9:02 left in the game, Christopherson capped a dream game by plunging one-yard for his third touchdown of the game as the Jaguars drove 69 yards on 14 plays to tie the game 21-21. After the Dolphins' next possession, Jacksonville took the ball with 4:51 left in the game and drove 65 yards on 12 plays, including two key third down conversions, to set up Sisson's game-winning 32-yard attempt with one second left on the clock. Miami was unable to score on the following kickoff and time ran out, preserving the Jaguars' initial NFL victory.

PRESEASON GAME 2

ATLANTA 37, DOLPHINS 0
August 11, 1995

Georgia Dome
Atlanta, GA

Miami fell to 0-2 in the 1995 preseason, as the Atlanta Falcons handed the Dolphins their worst preseason loss in team history, 37-0, in front of 42,579 fans at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta in a game when Dan Marino for the first time ever failed to complete a pass. Late in the first quarter, Atlanta QB Jeff George connected with WR Terance Mathis on a nine-yard touchdown to culminate an 11-play, 64-yard drive and give the Falcons a 7-0 lead. Following a Dolphins punt early in the second quarter, Atlanta marched 28 yards on 10 plays and Andersen completed the drive by kicking a 44-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-0 lead. With 1:17 remaining in the first half, Dolphins WR Demeris Johnson blocked a Dan Stryzinski punt and LB Dion Foxx recovered on the Atlanta 20-yard line. Miami could not take of the break, however, as FB Robert Wilson fumbled (recovered by DT Thomas Williams) on the Falcons' 10-yard line with just 28 seconds left. After a Miami fumble (RB Irving Spikes) in the third quarter gave the ball to the Falcons on the Dolphins' 10-yard line, it took Atlanta just one play, a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Perry Klein to WR Tyrone Brown, to take a commanding 17-0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 20-0, when Andersen booted a 51 yard field goal to culminate a 12-play, 49-yard drive late in the third quarter. After a Miami interception (QB Doug Pederson), the Falcons drove seven yards on four plays and extended the lead to 23-0 as Andersen kicked this third field goal of the game, this time from 52 yards out. Following another Dolphins interception (Pederson), Falcons QB Browning Nagle connected with WR Mario Bailey on a 72-yard touchdown for a 30-0 lead with 11:11 remaining in the game. Midway in the final frame, Atlanta drove 39 yards on five plays and completed the game's scoring when Nagle hit Brown for a seven-yard touchdown and a 37-0 lead.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 27, WASHINGTON 13
August 19, 1995

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins notched their first victory of the 1995 preseason as QB Dan Marino, seeing his first extended action of the preseason, completed 10 of 21 passes for 140 yards and a touchdown to lead the team to a 27-13 win over the Washington Redskins in front of 48,556 fans at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins won the coin toss and took the opening drive 63 yards on nine plays, capped by K Pete Stoyanovich's 26-yard field goal to put Miami up 3-0. Following a Washington punt, Marino connected with WR Gary Clark, who withstood a vicious hit by S Stanley Richard, on a 16-yard touchdown pass to make the score 10-0. On the ensuing kickoff, Redskins KR Brian Mitchell returned the ball 53 yards to the Dolphins 41-yard line and it took Washington eight plays to drive 32 yards as they cut the lead to 10-3 when K Eddie Murray booted a 26-yard field goal. Miami concluded the first half scoring by taking the next possession, and driving 70 yards on 17 plays and capping the drive with a 22-yard Stoyanovich field goal to take a 13-3 lead at halftime. The Redskins opened the second half scoring when Murray kicked a 25-yard field goal to cap a six-play 24-yard drive that began after Mitchell returned a Miami punt 20 yards to the Dolphins 31-yard line. Following a Washington punt that left the ball at the Miami one-yard line and with QB Bernie Kosar at the helm, the Dolphins drove 99 yards on 19 plays and took a 20-6 lead when rookie RB Brent Moss plunged one yard for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Miami's 99-yard drive was their longest drive, preseason or regular season, since 9/24/88 vs. N.Y. Jets they drove 99 yards on seven plays and capped the drive with a "Hail Mary" touchdown from Marino to WR Fred Banks on the final play of the first half. On Washington's next drive, the Redskins drove to the Dolphins nine-yard line only to have Miami S Louis Oliver, seeing his first action in a Dolphins uniform since 11/25/94, intercept a QB Heath Shuler pass and return it 97 yards for a touchdown and a 27-6 Miami lead with 6:15 left in the game. Oliver's interception marked the longest return for the Dolphins since Oliver returned a Jim Kelly pass 103 yards for a touchdown at Buffalo on 10/4/92. On the next drive, with QB Gus Frerotte calling signals, Washington drove nine plays and 72 yards and capped the drive with a 29-yard touchdown pass from Frerotte to WR Orlando Tuit to cut lead to 27-13 with just 3:14 remaining in the game. That was the closest the Redskins would come, however, as Miami ran out the clock to preserve their first win of the 1995 preseason.

324

PRESEASON GAME 4

TAMPA BAY 24, DOLPHINS 14
August 25, 1995

Citrus Bowl
Orlando, FL

The Miami Dolphins concluded the 1995 preseason with a 24-17 loss to the

325

Tampa Bay Buccaneers in front of 58,595 fans at Orlando's Citrus Bowl. RB Errict Rhett rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown and CB Martin Mayhew returned an interception 41 yards for a score to lead the Bucs to the win. Miami won the toss and took the first possession 80 yards on eight plays, capped by a four-yard touchdown run by RB Bernie Parmalee to take a 7-0 lead. The drive was highlighted by the return of FB Keith Byars, seeing his first action since injuring his knee at Indianapolis on 11/6/94. On their first possession, Tampa Bay drove 50 yards on six plays, capped by a 32-yard field goal by K Michael Husted. On Miami's next possession, QB Dan Marino was intercepted by Tampa Bay CB Martin Mayhew and he returned it 41 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 Buccaneers lead. Following a Dolphins punt, Tampa Bay drove 38 yards on two plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 38-yard touchdown pass from QB Trent Dilfer to TE Jackie Harris. The Dolphins closed the gap to 17-14 following an interception by CB Troy Vincent that led to a 21-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Parmalee with 4:00 left in the half. Following a Tampa Bay punt, the Dolphins drove inside the Bucs' 10-yard line only to have Marino intercepted by CB Mike McGruder in the end zone with 32 seconds remaining in the half. The Bucs increased their lead to 24-14 as they took the opening drive of the second half and marched 75 yards on 11 plays, capped by a fourth down, two-yard touchdown scamper by RB Errict Rhett. Miami answered on its first drive of the second half as QB Bernie Kosar led the Dolphins on an 11-play, 56-yard drive, capped by a 28-yard field goal by Pete Stoyanovich to close the gap to 24-17 entering the fourth quarter. In an attempt to increase their lead the Bucs drove to the Dolphins five-yard line but after the drive stalled, Husted had a 23-yard field goal blocked by Miami S Gene Atkins. However, the Dolphins were unable to get any closer and on their final drive of the game, the club turned the ball over on downs at the Tampa Bay 39-yard line. The Bucs ran out the clock to preserve the win.

- Jan. 20 - The Dolphins drop a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, California.
- Feb. 15 - Miami names 42-year-old Mel Phillips as its new defensive backfield coach. Phillips comes to the Dolphins after five seasons in the same capacity for the Detroit Lions.
- March 14 - Following a presentation led by Joseph Robbie to NFL owners at the league meetings in Phoenix, Miami is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIII (1989).
- Sept. 29 - In a game billed nationally as "Marino-Elway I," Miami's Dan Marino wins this one over Denver, 30-26, completing 25 of 43 passes for three TDs and a season-best 390 yards. Veteran WR Nat Moore also produces his top performance of 1985 with the 12th 100-plus yard game of his career. WR Vince Heflin's first-ever NFL TD, a 46-yard catch, proves to be the game-winner.
- Oct. 9 - The Dolphins acquire All-Pro linebacker Hugh Green from Tampa Bay in exchange for a first- and second-round draft pick in 1986.
- Nov. 10 - Wide receiver Mark Duper, in his first game back after being sidelined for seven weeks with a broken leg, establishes a new Dolphin record by gaining 217 reception yards. In addition, his 50-yard scoring catch from Dan Marino with less than a minute remaining gives the Dolphins a 21-17 win over the Jets and the start of an eight-game winning streak.
- Dec. 1 - Owner Joseph Robbie officially breaks ground on the new 75,000-seat Dolphin Stadium.
- Dec. 2 - Led by a swarming defense that produces six sacks and three interceptions, the Dolphins administer the only defeat to be suffered by the eventual Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears, 38-24. A season-high Orange Bowl crowd of 75,594 witnesses the Monday night affair.
- Dec. 31 - Owner Joseph Robbie obtains the construction loan and is granted permanent financing for the new Dolphin Stadium.

- Jan. 4 - The Dolphins rally from a 21-3 deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns 24-21 in an AFC divisional playoff game. Miami is led offensively by Tony Nathan's 10 receptions for 101 yards and rookie Ron Davenport's two touchdowns.
- Jan. 12 - Despite 20 tackles by LB Bob Brudzinski, the Dolphins commit six turnovers and lose 31-14 to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship game before 74,978 fans in the Orange Bowl. It marks Miami's first loss in an AFC title game in six tries.

- June 3 - Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.

- Sept. 6 - Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as QB of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child - Daniel Charles.
- Sept. 21 - Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game. Standout LB Hugh Green suffers a knee injury which sidelines him for the season.
- Oct. 12 - In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.
- Nov. 24 - The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.
- Nov. 25 - Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.
- Dec. 14 - Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.
- Dec. 22 - The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl - a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.
- Jan. 27 - Former Dolphin greets Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the proud franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.
- Aug. 16 - The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.
- Sept. 22 - NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is cancelled because of strike.
- Oct. 4 - The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

- Oct. 11 - Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y. Jets at the Meadowlands.
- Oct. 25 - After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.
- Nov. 1 - Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 29 - The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 - the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.
- Dec. 20 - Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.

- July 11 - Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players - the largest group of players in Shula's tenure as Dolphin head coach.
- July 31 - The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.
- Sept. 18 - Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.
- Oct. 9 - The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
- Oct. 16 - Miami wins its third consecutive game this season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).
- Oct. 23 - Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history - 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y. Jets defeat the Dolphins 44-30 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Oct. 30 - Shula Bowl III - Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

- Dec. 12 - Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

- Jan. 22 - Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. - Sept. 10 - Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.
- Sept. 17 - In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Oct. 8 - In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.
- Nov. 5 - Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.
- Nov. 12 - Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.
- Nov. 19 - Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.
- Dec. 3 - Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

- Dec. 24 - The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40 degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

- May 23 - At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).
- Aug. 3 - The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.
- Aug. 20 - Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 22 - Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (325 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.
- Nov. 10 - In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.
- Nov. 18 - During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. The game is witness by 71,062 fans which is the largest crowd to watch a Dolphin game at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 24 - The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win in Chicago in 27-degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.
- Dec. 1 - Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.
- Dec. 9 - Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins' coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.
- Dec. 15 - Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

- Dec. 22 - The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just :44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

- May 20 - Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.
- June 1 - Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.
- June 4 - Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- June 12 - Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- July 17 - Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.
- Aug. 16 - The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have traveled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).
- Aug. 31 - Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.
- Sept. 29 - The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.
- Oct. 4 - The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.
- Oct. 18 - Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

- Nov. 8 - The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.
- Nov. 16 - During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 - Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angeles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 20 - The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties John Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.
- Dec. 23 - Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer. Voted to join Marino in Honolulu are linebacker Bryan Cox, tight end Keith Jackson and tackle Richmond Webb (all as starters).
- Dec. 27 - The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

- Jan. 10 - The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.
- Jan. 17 - The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff.
- Jan. 26 - Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.
- Jan. 30 - Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.
- Feb. 7 - The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

- Feb. 11 - Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.
- Feb. 22 - Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.
- May 21 - Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.
- June 1 - Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.
- June 4 - Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.
- July 11 - Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.
- Sept. 12 - Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.
- Oct. 10 - Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.
- Oct. 24 - Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The games marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.
- Oct. 31 - Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.
- Nov. 14 - The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.
- Nov. 21 - Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats' game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.

- Nov. 25 - The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.
- Dec. 5 - Miami drops a 19-14 decision to the New York Giants at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins fall to 12-1 at home against teams in the NFC East since the NFL merger in 1970 and 11-1 at home against opponents from the AFC since the team moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. The last team to defeat the Dolphins in an inter-conference game played in Miami was the Atlanta Falcons who earned a 20-14 win on November 30, 1986, in the Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 13 - During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 - Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

- Jan. 2 - The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.
- Jan. 24 - The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Feb. 8 - Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.
- March 16 - John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.
- March 23 - The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.
- June 28 - H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.
- July 8 - The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.
- July 21 - H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.
- Sept. 4 - Dan Marino throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with John Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343

- touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.
- Oct. 2 - Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 23-7 win over the Bengals.
- Oct. 16 - Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls - one for offense and one for special teams - for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.
- Oct. 30 - The Dolphins earn a 23-3 win at the New England Patriots to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. The win improves Miami to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. In addition, Bernie Parmalee gains 123 rushing yards and ties the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games surpasses the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris who accomplished the feat with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.
- Nov. 13 - Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Shula battles his son and Bears' tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.
- Nov. 27 - Mark Ingram catches four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trail by an 18-point margin midway through the third period (24-6) before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tie the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four touchdowns (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973.
- Dec. 7 - Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.
- Dec. 12 - Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.
- Dec. 25 - The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

- Dec. 27 - Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.
- Dec. 31 - Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

- Jan. 9 - Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.
- Jan. 18 - Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.
- Feb. 6 - Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.
- Feb. 9 - Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.
- May 19 - The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.
- Sept. 3 - The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.
- Oct. 1 - The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.
- Oct. 8 - Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).
- Oct. 30 - The Dolphins earn their first home win over the Buffalo Bills since the 1990 season with a 23-6 triumph at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's last home win against Buffalo was a 30-7 victory on September 10, 1990. The game marks the first time that the Dolphins have held the Bills without a touchdown since Miami dropped a 9-6 decision at Rich Stadium on September 11, 1988.

- Nov. 12 - Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 26 - Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.
- Dec. 11 - Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.
- Dec. 24 - The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record and clinch a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration.
- Dec. 30 - Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards.

- Jan. 5 - Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.
- Jan. 11 - Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the last two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first, and only, head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).
- Jan. 16 - Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.
- Jan. 17 - The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.
- Jan. 19 - Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

- Jan. 24 - Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).
- Feb. 16 - The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).
- March 1 - The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
- April 23 - Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- April 26 - The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins' head coach.

DOLPHIN FACT

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1965, was traded on Dec. 26, 1967, to the Cincinnati Bengals and second-round draft choices in 1968. He returned to the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on Nov. 26, 1971, to the Denver Broncos for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14 Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs) Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3
 January 16, 1972 Tulane Stadium
 New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
 December 24, 1972 Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews, put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulldozed eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
 December 31, 1972 Three Rivers Stadium
 Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards - the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff - to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7 Rice Stadium
 January 13, 1974 Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

 December 21, 1974 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

 December 24, 1978 Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 53 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked -- a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13
 January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards - 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards - their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
 January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season - two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season - but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
 January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl - 103,667 fans - the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play - fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play - Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
 December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
 December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28
January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play - Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Werschling's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play - 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21
 January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
 January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mose Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
 January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts - third longest in team history - to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The win raised Miami's playoff record to 15-10 (all under Don Shula). Shula's overall playoff record improved to 17-13. Miami increased their record to 11-4 at home in playoff contests. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, the Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal.

Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34
January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals - from 24 and 22 yards - to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second TD of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard TD pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the endzone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marked the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The old record was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempted was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, KANSAS CITY 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliot booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

457

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, DOLPHINS 21
 January 9, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
 San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson.

The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the endzone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the endzone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the endzone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play - the safety by Parmalee - in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 37, DOLPHINS 22
 December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
 Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The Bills, led by RB Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers vs. Boston in 1963. Miami QB Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the

459

Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo K Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when FB Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills DE Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by LB Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit WR O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by FB Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with WR Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when RB Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and S Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills CB Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

DOLPHIN FACT

Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian is the only player in Miami history to be named as Most Valuable Player in the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest. On Jan. 20, 1974, Yepremian scored five field goals to account for all of the AFC's scoring in a 13-10 win.

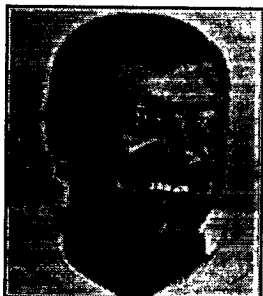

DOLPHIN FACT

In season openers, Miami is 15-14-1. The Dolphins are 11-10-1 in season openers on the road and 4-4 in season openers which have been at home.

DOLPHINS HALL OF FAME

LARRY CSONKA

#39

Fullback
Born: 12/25/46
College: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979
Year Inducted: 1987

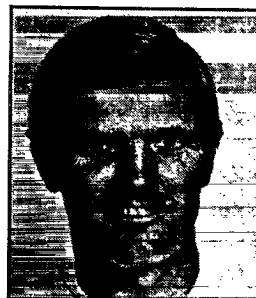

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

#12

Quarterback
Born: 2/3/45
College: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1967-80
Year Inducted: 1990

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

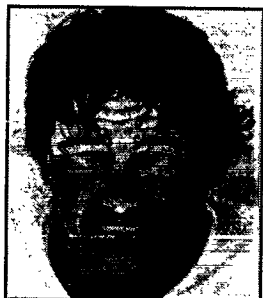

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center #62
Born: 5/16/48
College: South Dakota St.
'70
NFL: 1970-81
Dolphins: 1970-79
Year Inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royaltan, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

LARRY LITTLE

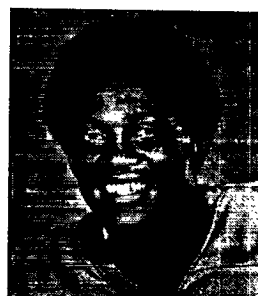

Guard #66
Born: 11/2/45
College: Bethune-Cookman '67
NFL: 1967-80
Dolphins: 1969-80
Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

PAUL WARFIELD

Wide Receiver #42
Born: 11/28/42
College: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
Dolphins: 1970-74
Year Inducted: 1983

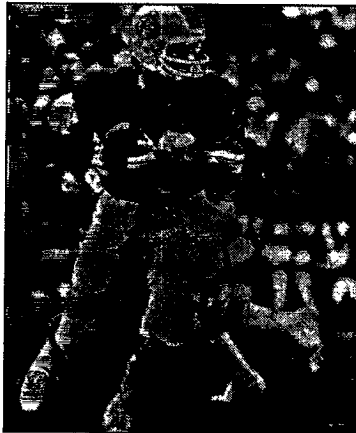

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs — good enough to place him eleventh on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs, and his 85 touchdown catches is tied for the fifth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1996 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL record for most consecutive home games won. Miami won 27 straight regular season home games (31 overall) at the Orange Bowl from 1971-74.

- Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970-79.
- Starting with the 1987 season, the Bills have won 17 of the last 21 games (including playoffs) played between the two teams. Miami's only wins against Buffalo since 1987 are a 30-7 triumph on September 16, 1990, at Joe Robbie Stadium, a 37-10 win on October 4, 1992, at Rich Stadium, a 28-13 win on September 26, 1993, at Rich Stadium and a 23-6 victory on October 29, 1995, at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- During the 1992 and 1993 seasons, Miami posted wins at the Bills in consecutive seasons for the first time since a five-year streak from 1982-86. The Dolphins' wins in 1992 and '93 snapped a six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. Prior to 1992, the Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986.

- The game marks Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's first game against his former team. Johnson coached Dallas to two Super Bowl titles (1992 and 1993) and compiled a 51-37 overall record as head coach of the Cowboys from 1989-93. When Dallas won the Super Bowl in 1992, it marked the first NFL Championship for the team since the 1978 season, a span of 13 years.
- The Dolphins are 13-3 in home games versus NFC opponents since the club moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987.
- Miami owns an all-time record of 3-5 in games against defending Super Bowl champions in regular season action. In fact, two of the Dolphins' wins against a defending Super Bowl champ came against Dallas - a 16-14 decision on November 25, 1993 (Thanksgiving Day) at Dallas and a 23-16 win at the Orange Bowl on November 5, 1978. Dallas enters the 1996 season as defending Super Bowl champions after defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 27-17, on January 28, in Phoenix.
- Miami and Dallas met in Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 6, 1972, with the Cowboys earning a 24-3 win in the Dolphins first trip to the NFL's championship contest.

- This is the first meeting between Houston and Miami since the 1992

- Miami trails in the all-time series against the Oilers by a 12-11 margin. Houston is one of only four teams with a winning all-time edge in the series against the Dolphins. The other teams are Oakland (16-6-1), New York Giants (2-1) and San Diego (12-8).
- Dolphins QB Dan Marino threw the longest pass completion of his career with an 85-yard touchdown pass to WR Mark Duper against the Oilers on November 2, 1986. He also threw an 85-yarder to Duper versus Baltimore on November 11, 1983.
- The Dolphins are 5-6 all-time in games played in the Astrodome, 17-17 overall in domed stadiums.

- The Monday night game at Indianapolis on September 23, marks the Dolphins' first-ever prime time road game against the Colts.
- The Colts swept the series between the two teams in 1995, marking the first time since 1988 Indianapolis had won both games of a season. Dating back to the second meeting of the 1994 season between the two club, the Colts have now won three consecutive games versus the Dolphins.
- Miami has won 27 of the last 35 meetings between the two teams. The Dolphins had defeated the Colts 14 straight times between 1980-87, before Indianapolis defeated the Dolphins 40-21 on November 6, 1987 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami is 16-8 against the Colts since the team moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- The Dolphins are 17-17 in games played in a domed stadium - 8-4 against Indianapolis (RCA Dome), 5-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 1-2 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-3 against New Orleans (Superdome), 1-1 against Seattle (Kingdome), 0-1 against Minnesota (Metrodome) and 1-0 against St. Louis (Trans World Dome). The Dolphins are scheduled to play in the RCA Dome and Astrodome in 1996.

- Dan Marino has faced the Colts 25 times in his career and owns a 17-8 record against the team. Marino has a better touchdown to interception differential with a +30 (43 TDs to 13 INTs) against the Colts than against any other single opponent.
- The last shutout recorded by the Dolphins defense occurred against the Colts with a 28-0 win on November 1, 1992, at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Before that game, the last road shutout for the Dolphins' defense was on September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium.

- Miami will open the regular season at home for the third consecutive season but just the fourth since 1975 and only the ninth time in the 30-year history of the Dolphins. The other opening-week home games occurred in 1966-68, 1973, 1975, 1990, 1994 and 1995. The club was scheduled to open the 1992 season at home but the game was postponed due to effects of Hurricane Andrew on the South Florida area.
- Overall, the Dolphins own a 15-14-1 record on opening day, including a 4-4 mark in season-openers played in Miami. In addition, the Dolphins have a 23-6-1 record in home openers.
- Miami has swept the season series over the Patriots in five of the last seven years and have won 12 times in the last 14 games played between the two teams.
- Miami's longest win streak against New England is nine games which occurred with season sweeps from 1989-92, while the Patriots longest streak is six straight games from 1986-88.
- Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino has earned wins in 11 of the past 12 games he has played against New England. In that 12-game span, Marino has thrown 23 touchdown passes against the Patriots.

- The game marks just the fourth meeting in the history of the series. This is the fewest total games between Miami and an opponent, ahead of the five games between the Dolphins and the Detroit Lions and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- Miami trails in the all-time series against the Giants by a 2-1 margin. New York is one of only four teams with a winning all-time edge in the series against the Dolphins. The other teams are Houston (12-11), Oakland (16-6-1) and San Diego (12-8).
- This will be just the second regular season appearance by the Giants in Miami. The teams have also played two regular season games in New York during the series. The Giants were scheduled to play at Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987, however the game was canceled due to the NFL players' strike.
- The Giants are the only team in the NFL that Dolphins QB Dan Marino has not thrown a touchdown pass against during his career. Marino, the NFL's all-time leader in career touchdown passes, completed 14 of 30 passes for 115 yards and two interceptions in a 20-3 loss in 1990.

- The game marks the Dolphins' first appearance in Oakland since November 2, 1980, when the Raiders defeated Miami by a score of 16-10. The Dolphins have never won at Oakland Alameda County Coliseum in eight tries (six regular season games and two playoff games). In two tries against the Raiders at the L.A. Coliseum, Miami was 1-1 with a 24-14 victory in 1988.
- The Raiders own the best all-time series record of any NFL team against Miami with a 16-6-1 advantage. The Dolphins have won three of the past four contests between the two teams.
- Dolphins QB Dan Marino saw his first NFL regular season action in a contest at the Raiders during his rookie season on September 19, 1983, in Miami's 27-14 loss. Marino completed 11 of 17 passes for 90 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

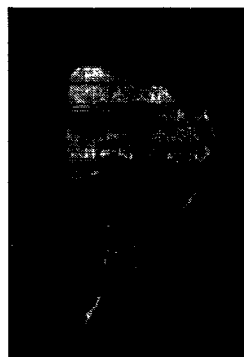

WIOD

In 1996, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 24 radio stations (over 70 markets) with Miami's WIOD (610 AM) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception.

Known for its outstanding sports programming, WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL, including camp reports before the season begins, "Live from Nova University," daily Dolphins updates, "Sportstalk 610: Dolphin Edition," and over eight hours of game-day coverage beginning four hours before each kickoff, "Live from SportsTown JRS" (the Dolphins' fan-friendly tailgate party outside Joe Robbie Stadium).

Handling the play-by-play and entering his third season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer joined the Dolphin broadcast crew following a six-year stint (1988-93) as the football play-by-play radio voice of Penn State University. He also served as play-by-play announcer on television for selected men's and women's basketball games. Zimpfer served as a sports anchor and talk show host on WIP Radio in Philadelphia, hosting "NFL Sunday" during the football season.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth will be analyst and ex-Dolphin favorite Jim Mandich. Mandich, in his fifth year as the color commentator on WIOD's game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 19th in Dolphin team history in receiving and tied for 16th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since 1973 when the local TV blackout first could be lifted provided that a game is sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff, Miami is 86-72 (544) in games where the game is locally televised. The Dolphins are 47-17 (734) when a home game has been televised in the Miami area. When a road game has been televised in the city of the opposing team, Miami is 39-55.

WCMQ

On May 19, 1995, the Miami Dolphins signed a two-year agreement with WCMQ Radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for all Dolphin games, home and away, including pre-season, regular season, and post-season contests.

WCMQ Radio has a strong sports presence in South Florida, carrying the Spanish broadcast of all Florida Marlin baseball games, as well as all home games of the NHL's Florida Panthers. In the event of a schedule conflict between the Dolphins and the Marlins, the Dolphin game will be carried on WCMQ-FM (92.3).

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphins games for all 15 years, will handle the play-by-play for his 12th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will be joined by color analyst Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast team.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Two of the four Dolphins preseason games in 1996 will be telecast on a national basis by NBC-TV and ABC-TV, while the other two games will be broadcast in Miami on WFOR-TV (Channel 4). In addition, the preseason games that are broadcast on WFOR also will be telecast by WPBF-TV in West Palm Beach and WFTX-TV in Ft. Myers.

The Dolphins' first preseason game, on Saturday, August 3rd against Tampa Bay at Joe Robbie Stadium, will be telecast live at 7:00 PM by WFOR if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be broadcast on a delayed basis. WFOR also will televise live the Dolphins' preseason finale, on Friday, August 25th against the Buccaneers at Tampa Stadium at 7:30 PM.

The Dolphins will make their first national television appearance of the season on Sunday, August 11th, when their game against the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field will be televised live by NBC-TV beginning at 1:00 PM. They will make their second preseason appearance on national TV when they play the Minnesota Vikings at Joe Robbie Stadium on Monday, August 19th at 8:00 PM in a game that will be televised by ABC-TV. That game will be televised locally if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be blacked out.

ESPN Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will handle the play-by-play for the WFOR telecasts for the fifth straight year. He has broadcast a variety of events in his career that included two years at CBS Sports before joining ESPN in September, 1992. Former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, will be the color analyst for the first telecast for WFOR, while long-time sports personality and football analyst Irv Cross will handle the color commentary for WFOR's second broadcast. WFOR-TV sports anchor Joe Zagacki will host the pregame, postgame, and halftime shows during those telecasts. Mac McDonald returns as producer for WFOR-TV.

SPORTSCHANNEL

SportsChannel's new fall line-up kicks off with the premiere of five Miami Dolphins related programs. Included in this year's schedule will be "The Jimmy Johnson Show," "The Dan Marino Show," "Sunday Morning nFL," "Sunday Night nFL," and "Miami Dolphins Magazine."

Coach Jimmy Johnson talks to fans, players and coaches alike every Sunday morning from 10:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m. on "The Jimmy Johnson Show." Coach Johnson previews the day's big contest, giving his candid and unique perspective to SportsChannel viewers. "The Jimmy Johnson Show" repeats at 11:30 a.m. on WTVJ NBC-6 for the benefit of SportsChannel South Florida's sports fans.

Each week future Hall of Famer Dan Marino moves from behind center to in front of the camera on "The Dan Marino Show." Fans across the state can catch the Dolphins superstar quarterback Thursday nights from 7:30 p.m.-8:00 p.m. as he gives his insight on everything from football to fatherhood.

Fans can preview each Dolphins matchup on "Sunday Morning nFL," live from 10:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. every Sunday morning.

SportsChannel reporters look ahead to upcoming games of the Dolphins, Buccaneers and Jaguars, getting the inside story from players and coaches. SportsChannel's staff tackles the issues at the forefront of Florida's three professional football teams in a fast paced hour originating from Joe Robbie Stadium.

When the action on the field is over, it continues on SportsChannel's "Sunday Night nFL," a live post-game show seen from 9:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. The SportsChannel cameras are in the locker room after each game to bring back first hand reports from Dolphins players and coaches, as well as review the weekend outcomes of Florida's other NFL teams and major colleges.

Before fans tune into Monday Night Football, they can check out "Miami Dolphins Magazine" for an in-depth look at the previous day's contest and a look ahead to the coming week's opponent. In addition to a look at the stats, injuries and analysis of Sunday's match-up, "Miami Dolphins Magazine" visits with current and former players of Florida's oldest professional sports franchise. "Miami Dolphins Magazine" is produced live at various locations throughout South Florida.

From the first day of camp to the final whistle, SportsChannel provides Dolphins fans with the most comprehensive coverage of the 1996 Miami Dolphins in Florida.

SportsChannel Florida is managed by, and is a service of, Front Row Communications, Inc., of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Dean J. Jordan was named as President of Front Row Communications on February 22, 1996. Jordan serves as Vice President of Business Operations for the Florida Panthers and as the point person for the sports broadcasting interests of the Dolphins, Marlins and Panthers. Front Row was created to manage and market those broadcast interests as well as to create and seek other strategic growth opportunities by relying on its resources of marketing and programming capabilities.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino has thrown a touchdown pass in each of his 13 playoff contests. His streak of 13 consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes is the longest in NFL post-season history.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator to the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Johnson will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Director of Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd., Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (954/384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media (and, except for the final 15 minutes, all local media) unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction: for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotal Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.
