DEDICATION

The 2010 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of former Dolphins defensive tackle Norman Hand, linebacker Nick Rogers and safety Jarvis Williams.

Hand, who passed away May 14, 2010, at the age of 37, was a fifth-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 1995 from the University of Mississippi and played with the team from 1995-96. He went on to play with the Saints, Chargers, Seahawks and Giants during his ten-year NFL career.

Rogers died in a car crash on May 4, 2010, at age 30. He played in NFL from 2002-05 with Minnesota, Green Bay and Indianapolis before closing his career in 2005, when he played with the Dolphins.

Williams, who passed away on May 25, 2010, at the age of 45, was selected by the Dolphins in the second round (42nd overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft. He played in 91 games with 83 starts at safety for the Dolphins from 1988-93. Overall with the Dolphins, Williams recorded 14 interceptions, including one he returned 42 yards for a touchdown in 1990. He played his final NFL season for the N.Y. Giants in 1994.

INDEX

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins organization believes that a sports franchise should be measured not only by its performance on the field, but by its performance in the community. To that end, the team created the Miami Dolphins Foundation in 1995. MDF is devoted to creating and supporting signature education, physical fitness, volunteer and youth athletic programs that inspire and engage communities throughout Florida.

Under the stewardship of majority owner Stephen Ross, the MDF has reached new levels of community and philanthropic giving. In 2009, MDF donated nearly one million dollars, and, since its inception, has distributed more than $20 million.

The Foundation's mission is divided into four general categories, including education, volunteerism, youth athletic programs and physical fitness. Under these categories, the team supports several programs that impact fans all over South Florida.

The team recognizes that sports figures are often considered role models and takes that responsibility seriously. The Dolphins have the resources and ability to bring attention and funding to needs in the community, and they also have the ability to motivate others to donate their own valuable time and money. Often, the presence of a player or cheerleader or the team's mascot, T.D., can mean even more than a check and the Dolphins use community appearances to not only raise dollars for worthwhile organizations but to draw attention to them as well. Dolphins players – many of whom call South Florida home – and alumni like Nat Moore and Twan Russell, work daily to ensure the Dolphins have a positive presence across the state. By the end of 2009, members of the Dolphins organization had made more than 800 appearances and touched the lives of over 650,000 people.

The Dolphins are also passionate about motivating fans to get involved in their own communities. Early in 2010, MDF launched the Special Teams volunteer unit during the NFL draft. During the draft, the team held a first of its kind telethon with its network partner, CBS-4, to raise volunteer hours for the new program. In the three days of the draft and telethon, fans contributed nearly 30,000 hours of "sweat equity" to help various foundation projects in South Florida. As of July 2010, over 800 individuals have pledged more than 40,000 volunteer hours towards the Special Teams efforts.

Near the end of 2009, the Dolphins held their inaugural "Touchdown For Life" blood drive at Sun Life Stadium and broke the record for one-day collection in Florida with more than1,000 participants. MDF intends to grow and promote its blood drive program to support critical health care organizations throughout the state.

As part of MDF's health and fitness initiative, the team supports the Dolphins Academy and Dol-Fit initiatives led by former Dolphins linebacker and Fort Lauderdale native, Twan Russell. These programs provide physical fitness opportunities for children, teach them the fundamentals of football and instill the importance of exercise, eating healthy and making positive choices. MDF hosts youth events at the stadium, the training facility in Davie and at schools across the state. In total, these programs have impacted more 350,000 boys and girls since 2006.

Through its new partnership with Sun Life, the Dolphins have introduced the Rising Star program, a joint education initiative that will award $50,000 grants to four organizations and reward one college-bound student from each with a $5,000 scholarship.

Both on the field and off, the Miami Dolphins organization stands for commitment, discipline and teamwork. The team puts this attitude into action with these and other MDF initiatives and is proud to say that these efforts have led to visible results in our neighboring communities. Miami Dolphins fans are crucial to the team's work and can participate in a variety of ways:

BECOME A SPECIAL TEAMS VOLUNTEER:

Join the nearly 1,000 MDF volunteers as they tackle charitable projects and issues all over South Florida.

BE A PART OF THE TEAM DURING THE ANNUAL MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION FINSWEEKEND:

MDF Fishing Tournament Presented by eDiets.com – Current players, alumni and coaches join avid fishermen for a full day of fun and deep-sea fishing. The event includes a Captain's Party and an Awards Dinner featuring live and silent auctions. The 14th annual event raised more than $300,000 for MDF programs. The Junior Anglers Clinic Presented by Publix is held prior to the event with kids from the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County.

MDF Golf Tournament Presented by Hublot – The Miami Dolphins Foundation Golf Tournament is held annually during the MDF FinsWeekend and benefits the Miami Dolphins Foundation. Each year, current and former players and coaches participate in the tournament, which has raised nearly $2 million. The event also included a Golf Pairings Party and 2009 Team Awards Presented by Sun Life Financial.

DONATE MONEY AND WIN EXCITING DOLPHINS SIGNATURE ITEMS WITH THE DOLPHINS AUCTIONS:

Dolphins players lend more than 400 signatures on items that are auctioned off on www.dolphins.com to raise money for Miami Dolphins Foundation programs. In addition to the autographed memorabilia, fans have the opportunity to bid on game-used items and unique game-day experiences.

SHOW-OFF YOUR DOLPHINS LICENSE PLATES:

Fans show their love of the team and help support Miami Dolphins Foundation programs with the purchase of Miami Dolphins license plates. From each license plate purchase, $2.50 is contributed to MDF programs. Annually, the sale of these custom license plates helps to raise more than $50,000 for foundation initiatives.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The assistance that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot) and front office personnel working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Miami Dolphins.

When the final chapter of 2009 was written, members of the Dolphins organization made more than 800 community appearances totaling over 2,736 hours and reaching 673,894 of our fellow Floridians. The team said yes to more than 99-percent of the requests it received from charitable organizations and distributed 2,600 donations throughout the state.

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of the youth of South Florida is of utmost importance. For this reason, the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs. In 2008, the Miami Dolphins received the Commissioner of Education Awards for their partnerships with Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Schools.

"Sunland Park appreciates the selfless and exciting things the Miami Dolphins have and continue to do for our children. They have embraced Sunland Park and impacted our community as well. We are truly blessed by their partnership. They have served as a motivational tool for students to strive towards academic and behavioral success." - Shawn Allen, Principal at Sunland Park Elementary Student of the Week Program – The Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each of their partner schools at all of the team's regular season home games. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments, they are presented with a plaque during an on-field presentation. Publix also donates a $25 gift certificate to each Student of the Week.

"Through the Student of the Week program, the Dolphins have provided a flexible and powerful tool for our schools to motivate their students. We are grateful for the strong commitment the Dolphins have shown to the students of Broward County" - Janet Del Pinal, Community Involvement Broward Public Schools

Teacher of the Year Awards – One teacher from each partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and is recognized for their accomplishments during a pre-game, on-field presentation.

Miami Dolphins Foundation Scholarship – A $2,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $1,000 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

Summer Reading Program at the Libraries – The Miami Dolphins are the first team to partner with the entire State of Florida Library System for the Summer Reading Program. The Jake Long, one of many Dolphins who frequently visit schools and libraries, reads to a group of children as part of the Most Valuable Reader Program.

CEO Mike Dee hands out plaques to Student of the Week winners before a home game.

Ronnie Brown participates in the Miami Dolphins Foundation Summer Reading program.

Greg Camarillo visits Nova Blanche Forman Elementary School and speaks with students about the importance of giving back to the community.

Miami Dolphins also partner locally with the Miami-Dade Libraries, Broward Libraries and Palm Beach County Public Libraries for the summer reading program. Each year, the club extends its support which includes funding reading incentives such as posters, signed hats and footballs and Miami Dolphins teddy bears signed by the Dolphins players. The Miami Dolphins Foundation sponsors bags which kids color and design football-themed artwork for prizes. Books are also distributed state-wide to kids for summer reading prizes sponsored by the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders make appearances at local libraries in both Broward and Miami-Dade counties in conjunction with their summer reading programs. In addition, the Dolphins offer prizes to the kids including tickets and a VIP experience for the top winners to attend training camp practice as a VIP for the day. The team also sponsors Broward's summer reading game, which is distributed to 20,000 children. The Miami Dolphins Foundation sponsors the programs.

Most Valuable Reader – The Miami Dolphins have joined forces with local libraries and schools in encouraging South Florida's youth to read by developing the Most Valuable Reader Program. This year-round initiative provides incentives for children to read. Kids have the chance to read books in exchange for the opportunity to attend a Dolphins home game. Other events at the libraries include Teen Read Week, Children's Book Week and the Books & Bears program.

"When many families could not afford summer camps this year, and were looking for free activities in their community to engage their kids, the library and the Miami Dolphins - with the new and improved Dolphins Reading Game and prizes - were there. Record crowds of kids flocked to our libraries in 2009 for the Summer Reading Program" - Katy Mullon, Specials Events Coordinator Youth Services, Broward County Library

Commit 2B Fit – The Miami Dolphins have teamed up with the Commit 2B Fit Program, which promotes physical activity and healthy eating to more than 45,000 students and their families in South Florida. Dolphins players, alumni and cheerleaders visit schools to speak to children. Kids also receive incentives such as Dolphins charms and rulers.

"We greatly appreciate our partnership with the Miami Dolphins. Together, we've been able to impact over 160,000 children in South Florida, giving them the tools and education needed to create healthier lifestyles." - Michelle Schect, Co-Founder of Commit 2B Fit Empty Bowls – The Miami Dolphins work with Broward County Public Schools on the Empty Bowls Program, which gives students an opportunity to fight hunger and poverty. Dolphins players make visits to schools to make bowls with the children. More than 82 schools have signed up for the program each year, helping to raise more than $32,000 annually for a variety of charities, including the Cooperative Feeding Program and Broward Partnership for the Homeless.

"Our partnership with the Dolphins organization provides a working example of ways to identify and meet community needs. Caring is not an abstract thought that is nice to talk about. Our students can understand that every individual has the potential to impact real-world issues." - Pam Brown, Nova Blanche Forman Elementary art teacher

Kids and Fins Publix Shopping Spree Hosted by Wide Receiver Greg Camarillo – One hundred kids are given the opportunity to shop with a player, alumni or cheerleader with a $100 Publix gift certificate for a Thanksgiving meal. The event includes a party prior to their shopping experience.

Lousaka Polite visits a local elementary school as part of the Commit 2B Fit program.

To help fight hunger and poverty, Yeremiah Bell and elementary school students make bowls for the Empty Bowls Program.

Lousaka Polite, Nate Jones, Patrick Turner and Tyler Thigpen serve holiday meals at the Cooperative Feeding Program on Dolphins Community Blitz Day.

"The partnership with the Miami Dolphins, Publix and the school board has just been fantastic. It breaks your heart to hear some of these kid's stories, but anything we can do to help put a smile on their face is extremely worthwhile and for a great cause." - Bill Fauerbach, Vice President of Retail Operations for Publix Supermarkets, Miami Division.

Backpack and School Supply Giveaway - 150 children from Miami-Dade and Broward schools and additional local charities are invited to the Dolphins Practice Bubble for a party to receive backpacks and school supplies.

"Thank you for the school supplies and the wonderful prizes and especially your autographs. You guys made me feel really good" - Ashanti, student at Gratigny Elementary

PHILANTHROPIC INITIATIVES

NFL Tuesdays - NFL Tuesdays are the traditional day off for NFL players during the season, but many players use the day off to go to work in their communities. Visiting children in the hospital, speaking to high school football teams or reading books to children are just a few of the activities Miami Dolphins players participate in on their day off during the season.

FEEDING THE NEEDY

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with Feeding South Florida, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with Feeding South Florida on the following projects:

Canned Food Drive – Each year the "Fins and Fans Tackle Hunger" canned food drive is held at a Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collection containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway – The Miami Dolphins organization, along with the coaches, players and staff, contribute monetary donations to purchase more than 900 Thanksgiving meals to feed more than 9,000 underprivileged people in South Florida. Dolphins players join volunteers from Feeding South Florida to distribute turkeys to various agencies affiliated with the Feeding South Florida.

"Every year the Miami Dolphins has demonstrated their unwavering dedication, not only to excellent sportsmanship but a willingness to serve those less fortunate. We are grateful for the wonderful partnership we share with the Dolphins at the annual canned food drive and turkey meal giveaway; this is an incredible super bowl win for all who are hungry in South Florida" - Judith Gatti, Executive Director of Feeding South Florida.

Shop with a Fin – Ten Dolphins players each shop at Publix with a family selected by the Cooperative Feeding Program. The families also attend a Dolphins home game.

"I am so in awe because this organization is always there when I call and most times you contact me before I can even let you know there's a need – you have supplied it! It has been an extraordinary blessing to be partnered with The Miami Dolphins for myself and my clients. For me because I see the faces of people who have no hope immediately beam with joy" - Gwen Perry, Cooperative Feeding/Client Services

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Holiday Hospital Visits – Each year during the holiday season, Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the spirits of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot Channing Crowder and Davone Bess hand out Thanksgiving meals to needy South Florida families.

Brandon Marshall shops at Publix with a local family selected by the Cooperative Feeding Program.

Donald Thomas, Jake Long and Nate Garner were among several Dolphins players and alumni who handed out toys at the annual Holiday Toy Giveaway inside the team's practice bubble.

The wives of Dolphins players and staff, Michele Garner, Renee Weinstein and Karen Dee, visited hospitalized children during the Holiday Season.

visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs.

"Thank you all so much for all the great toys you delivered to the Chris Evert Children's Hospital. We all really appreciate you taking the time to get such great gifts for the patients here." - Katie Anderson, Childs Life Specialist

"Toys For Tots" – Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for underprivileged children in the South Florida community. Dol-Fans are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped toys at entry gates on their way into the stadium. The toys are then distributed through the United States Marine Corps to the less fortunate families in the local area.

Holiday Toy Event – Dolphins players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff make toy donations during the holidays to various organizations in the community that are in need. More than 175 kids from Miami-Dade and Broward County Public Elementary schools and kids from H.A.N.D.Y. and Forever Family are invited to a holiday celebration at the Miami Dolphins Training Facility.

NFL Student All-Star Program – The NFL Student All-Star Program is an NFL initiative that awards small level grants to help finance student-initiated proposals on how to better the community. The goal of the program is to promote community investment and volunteerism in children. Each winning organization receives a grant of $300 to help fund their service projects.

NFL Junior Community Quarterback – The NFL Junior Community Quarterback Award recognizes student-initiated projects focusing on community betterment. The program awards $7,000 in grants. Grants range from $2,000 - $5,000. Students partner with a 501(c)(3) organization for their project.

Breast Cancer Awareness – As part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, the wives and girlfriends of Dolphins players, coaches and staff pass out pink ribbons to fans. In 2009, the Miami Dolphins Foundation made a donation to the Susan G. Komen For The Cure, conducted a pre-event press conference with CEO Mike Dee, Head Coach Tony and Jeanette Sparano and U.S. Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz and auctioned off items to support breast cancer awareness.

United Way – Along with the NFL, the Miami Dolphins actively support the United Way through monetary contributions made by the coaches, players and staff. In addition, the Dolphins also work closely with the United Way of Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties on several projects throughout the year, including filming a Public Service Announcement featuring a prominent Dolphins player as a spokesman. Dolphins players also participate in the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle Day, a national day of community service.

Make-A-Wish Foundation – The Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Miami Dolphins have developed a close relationship over the years in granting wishes of terminally-ill children. Make-A-Wish children are given the opportunity to attend a home game and meet with coaches and players during a post-game visit.

Dolphins Salute to Veteran's Luncheon – The Miami Dolphins running backs Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown hosted soldiers from the Wounded Warrior Project for a luncheon on Veteran's Day.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON MIAMI DOLPHINS COMMUNITY RELATIONS EVENTS, PLEASE CALL (305) 943-7200

During Super Bowl week, Ricky Williams helps build a house in Homestead for Habitat for Humanity.

Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz, Jennifer Lopez, Karen Dee, Jeanette Sparano, Gloria Estefan, Nancy Brinker of Susan G. Komen and Kara Ross teamed up to raise funds for the battle against breast cancer.

During the Easter holiday, Ricky Williams (center), Richie Incognito, John Denney, Vernon Carey and teammates passed out meals at Sun Life Stadium.

Dan Carpenter joined with children to plant trees in South Florida.

To support the Wounded Warriors Project, Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams hosted a luncheon in appreciation of our soldiers.

ALL-COMMUNITY TEAM

For the fifth straight season in 2009, many Miami Dolphins players and coaches made the dreams of underprivileged children come true through the team's "All-Community Team" program.

The Dolphins "All-Community Team" program allowed players and coaches to purchase a block of tickets to all Miami Dolphins regular season home games and donate them to a charitable organization of their choice. Their chosen charities then distributed the tickets to youth groups or others associated with their organization so the recipients had the chance to experience a Dolphins game at Sun Life Stadium.

For every home game, the players and coaches treated each of the guests of the "All-Community Team" with a gameday ticket, an in-game public address announcement and scoreboard mention, in addition to a voucher good for a hot dog, popcorn and a soft drink.

The following are the Dolphins players and coaches who participated in the "All-Community Team" in 2009, and the organizations they benefitted:

STEPHEN M. ROSS
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: Michigan
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Founder of Related Companies, an international real estate firm, began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50% partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium, and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95% ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly increased their presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charity initiatives. The team also has improved the game-day experience for their fans by upgrading all facets of stadium operations and by introducing amenities and events that have made Dolphins home games the place to be during the fall. On the football side, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to support Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells and his staff in every way possible, working with them to add such talented players as Brandon Marshall and Karlos Dansby to the roster and ensuring that the coaches, staff and players have all of the necessary resources to build a winning team.

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered the most prominent privately owned real estate firm in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing, and sales. Related has real estate assets worth over $15 billion including the landmark Time Warner Center in New York City and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross began his career in Detroit, Michigan as a tax attorney and later moved to New York where he specialized in real estate and corporate finance at two investment banking firms immediately prior to founding Related. Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He then received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc. and chairperson emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association. As a member of the Board of Trustees of the Guggenheim Foundation, Mr. Ross was involved in the planning of a major renovation of the Frank Lloyd Wright iconic building in New York and other new museums. He is a trustee of New York Presbyterian Hospital, the Urban Land Institute, the NY Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International, the Levin Institute, and is a director of the Jackie Robinson Foundation and the World Resources Institute. He also serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Most recently, on June 5, 2010, Mr. Ross' alma mater, Miami Beach High School, named its football field Ross Field, in recognition of his work to spearhead the refurbishment of that facility. Before that, he was named the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. In 2007 he received The National Building Museum Honor Award and in 2005, REBNY presented him with the Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award. In 2003, he received the Jack D. Weiler Award from UJA. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and Mr. Ross was recognized by NYC & Company with their Leadership in Tourism Award.

MIKE DEE
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: Franklin and Marshall
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Mike Dee was named as Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium by Stephen M. Ross on May 3, 2009. Dee came to South Florida and the NFL after a distinguished 15-year career in Major League Baseball, where he played a lead role in the resurgence of two franchises and was a member of two World Series Championship teams.

Since joining the Dolphins, Dee has laid out the three fundamental commitments that guides the franchise during the Ross ownership era: 1) To create a tier one organization that provides the resources to put a team on the field that is worthy of the fans' support with the goal of competing for a playoff berth each season; 2) To consistently strive to enhance the fan experience at Sun Life Stadium and aggressively market the team to a broad region and diverse fan base; and 3) To be active participants in the community.

Dee has spearheaded the team's efforts to live up to those commitments. He placed a particular emphasis on improving the club's community relations efforts. He significantly upgraded the Dolphins charitable golf and fishing events as well as the team's educational, literacy and physical fitness programs in the South Florida community. He greatly expanded the club's fan base by introducing a series of programs in the western and central regions of the state, and worked tirelessly to improve the game-day experience for the team's fans by introducing a series of entertainment and culinary innovations that has made the atmosphere at Dolphin games unique in the NFL. On the business side, Dee finalized a ground-breaking naming rights deal for the stadium with Sun Life Financial, revamped and improved the club's broadcast and internet platforms and developed a series of innovative programs designed to enhance the team's relationship with its business partners.

After beginning his sports career in San Diego with the Padres (1995-2002), Dee followed his mentor, CEO Larry Lucchino, to Boston and assumed the role of Executive Vice President of Business Affairs for the Red Sox. He was promoted to Chief Operating Officer in 2004, a position he held until his departure to join the Dolphins. During his tenure in Boston, the Red Sox won two World Series titles and set franchise records for attendance and revenue each year – including a MLB record for consecutive sellouts dating back to 2003. Other noteworthy achievements while in Boston include bringing annual concerts to Fenway Park and directing the expansion of the team's business and real estate interests that stemmed from the eight-year renovation of Fenway Park and the surrounding neighborhood. Dee also has a history of working in the Sunshine State as earlier in 2009 he consummated a 30-year agreement with Lee County Florida to build the Red Sox a new, publicly-financed Spring Training facility that is set to open in 2012.

Dee also served as President of Fenway Sports Group, a company that he created in 2004 under the direction of Red Sox owners John Henry and Tom Werner. An enterprise charged with diversifying the business interests of the Red Sox beyond baseball, FSG developed a wide array of endeavors across the sports and media landscape. In February, 2007, FSG acquired a 50% interest in Roush Racing and formed what is known today as Roush Fenway Racing, NASCAR's largest race team. Dee served on the board of Roush Fenway as a Managing Director and during that time the team won two notable championships – Carl Edwards' 2007 Busch Series Championship and Matt Kenseth's Daytona 500 victory in February, 2009.

Dee is active in many different charitable and philanthropic activities including serving on the board of the Pan Mass Challenge, a cycling event and the nation's largest athletic fundraiser which has raised more than $260 million for cancer research. Dee is an avid cyclist and rides in the event each August.

Dee attended Franklin & Marshall College in Lancaster, Penn., where he played basketball and earned a degree in government. He currently serves on the Advisory Board at F&M.

Dee and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Spencer (10) and Tommy (8).

BILL PARCELLS
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: Wichita State
NFL: 26th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Bill Parcells, one of the most highly regarded and respected figures in the National Football League for more than two decades, signed a four-year contract to become Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Miami Dolphins on December 20, 2007.

Parcells had an immediate impact on the organization. Under his guidance, the 2008 Dolphins had a single season turnaround matched just once in NFL history. The Dolphins went 1-15 in 2007 and then stunned the league with an 11-5 record in 2008, Parcells' first season in charge, capturing the AFC East title and earning a playoff berth. That ten-game improvement had been accomplished only one other time in NFL history, when the Indianapolis Colts went from 3-13 to 13-3 in 1999.

In addition, since 1978 eight teams have finished with a 1-15 record, and the 2008 Dolphins had the best record of any of those teams the season following their 1-15 finish; they also were the only one of those teams to qualify for the playoffs. But it wasn't the first time Parcells engineered a turnaround of a one-win team. The Dolphins in 2008 were one of only three of those one-win teams to post a winning record the next season; the last team to do so had been the 1997 New York Jets, who Parcells led to a 9-7 record in his first year as the team's head coach after they finished with a 1-15 mark in 1996, a year prior to his arrival there.

Parcells' success in 2008 extended beyond the playing field to the front office. He brought on board Head Coach Tony Sparano, who in his first year at the helm of an NFL team led that historic turnaround and earned numerous Coach of the Year accolades for his accomplishments.

Parcells also named Jeff Ireland as the team's General Manager. Viewed as one of the best young executives in the league, Ireland spearheaded the turnover of the team's roster that year that resulted in the Dolphins' ten-game improvement. Along the way, three of his draft choices earned starting positions on Opening Day, with one of them, Jake Long, the first pick in the draft, going on to make the Pro Bowl as a rookie.

In 2009, the Dolphins were again in playoff contention right until the end of the year despite season-ending injuries to a number of key performers, including starting quarterback Chad Pennington. While staying in the playoff hunt all season, the team was able to inject a number of young players into the starting lineup that Parcells originally helped bring to Miami, such as quarterback Chad Henne, wideout Davone Bess and defensive backs Vontae Davis and Sean Smith. In addition, Parcells was instrumental in the acquisition of two of the most highly sought-after players in the 2010 off-season, wide receiver Brandon Marshall and linebacker Karlos Dansby. Coupled with a productive draft that brought a host of new faces to the defense, those acquisitions further strengthened Parcells' turnaround of the team.

Of Parcells' 24 previous seasons in the NFL before joining the Dolphins, 19 were spent as a head coach, beginning in 1983 with the New York Giants. His head coaching tenure consisted of subsequent stops with the New England Patriots, New York Jets, and most recently the Dallas Cowboys, with whom he served from 2003-06. Over those 19 seasons, his teams put together a regular season record of 172-130-1, and a playoff mark of 11-8. His 183 combined victories rank ninth in NFL annals. In all four of his head coaching tenures, Parcells molded teams that either went to the Super Bowl or contended for a title berth. In fact, coupled with the Dolphins' playoff berth in 2008, Parcells became the first person in NFL history to lead five different franchises to playoff appearances.

In eight seasons as head coach of the Giants (1983-90), Parcells guided the franchise to two Super Bowl wins, following the 1986 and 1990 seasons. He concluded his stint with the Giants after that second Super Bowl victory, and in those eight seasons, the club compiled a regular season mark of 77-49-1, including six winning seasons among the eight. What makes Parcells' run with the Giants even more impressive is the fact that prior to taking over the reigns as head coach in 1983, the team had experienced just one winning campaign in the previous 10 years. He was named NFL Coach of the Year by at least one major media outlet in 1986 and 1989.

Following a two-year hiatus (1991-92) in which he worked as an analyst for NBC-TV's coverage of the NFL, Parcells returned to the sidelines in 1993 with the New England Patriots. Although the Patriots posted a composite record of 14-50 in the four years prior to his arrival, Parcells led the club to a 10-6 record in just his second season in Foxborough (1994), while his fourth and final year there resulted in an 11-5 record, the AFC East title and a berth in Super Bowl XXI against Green Bay. Following that 1994 season, he was a consensus choice for NFL Coach of the Year. He also is one of only five head coaches in NFL history to have led two separate teams to the Super Bowl, joining Don Shula, Dan Reeves, Dick Vermeil and Mike Holmgren.

In 1997, Parcells moved on to the New York Jets, where he guided the team to a 9-7 record in his first season as head coach. They barely missed out on an AFC playoff berth, following a stretch of eight straight years (1989-96) in which the club did not compile a winning mark, including a record of 1-15 in the year prior to his appointment. Not only did the team experience a three-game improvement the following year (1998) – producing a record of 12-4 – but they captured the franchise's first-ever AFC East title. The Jets proceeded to the AFC Championship game for the first time since the 1982 season, where they were defeated by the eventual Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos at Mile High Stadium. Following his three-year stint as the Jets' head coach, Parcells moved on to the administrative side in 2000, when he served as the club's Director of Football Operations, his only year in that post.

After another two-year layoff from football, Parcells became head coach with the Dallas Cowboys in 2003, and spent the next four years in that position. In his first year there, he led the team to a record of 10-6 and a Wild Card playoff berth, the club's first playoff spot since 1999 and its first winning record since 1998. The Cowboys also qualified for the postseason in Parcells' final year at the helm. Of the 53 players on the 2007 Cowboys team that finished 13-3 and won the NFC East, 36 were acquired during Parcells' four-year tenure. In addition, 16 of the team's 22 starters at the end of the season joined the club while Parcells was there.

Parcells began his collegiate playing career at Colgate before transferring to Wichita State. He then spent 14 years as a collegiate assistant (1964-77), a stretch which consisted of six different schools, including Florida State from 1970-72, where he served as the Seminoles' linebackers coach. His first head coaching post came at the Air Force Academy, where he served the 1978 season. He began his NFL tenure with the New England Patriots in 1980 before heading to the New York Giants in 1981 where he served as defensive coordinator for the next two campaigns.

Parcells is a native of Oradell, N.J., where he was a member of the first graduating class at River Dell High School in 1959. As a prep performer, he starred on the school's football, basketball and baseball teams. He has three daughters, Suzy, Jill, and Dallas and three grandchildren.

OFF AND RUNNING

The Dolphins have put together five consecutive seasons with an average per rush attempt of 4.0 yards or better (4.3 in 2005, 4.2 in 2006, 4.0 in 2007, 4.2 in 2008 and 4.4 in 2009). In fact, this streak is the first time the Dolphins have amassed this average in five or more straight seasons in team history. In addition, the Dolphins are one of only three NFL teams to have registered a 4.0-yard average per rush attempt or better each of the last five seasons, along with Denver (4.7 in 2005, 4.4 in 2006, 4.6 in 2007, 4.8 in 2008, and 4.2 in 2009), the New York Giants (4.7 in 2005, 4.7 in 2006, 4.6 in 2007, 5.0 in 2008 and 4.1 in 2009). Combined over this 80-game span the Dolphins have had 23 individual 100-yard rushing performances, including five in each of the last two years. Four different players have accounted for 100-yard rushing games over this stretch, including 14 by Ronnie Brown, seven by Ricky Williams and one apiece by Sammy Morris and Jesse Chatman.

JEFF IRELAND
GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: Baylor
NFL: 14th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Jeff Ireland was named as the Dolphins' General Manager on January 2, 2008. He joined the club after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, including his last three seasons there as the team's Vice President of College and Pro Scouting.

In his role with the Dolphins, Ireland is not only responsible for overseeing and coordinating the college and pro personnel departments, but also helps manage the team's salary cap and player contracts. He supervises all scouting efforts that relate to the college draft, free agency, the Canadian Football League, and personnel of the other 31 NFL teams. Ireland works hand in hand with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells and Head Coach Tony Sparano in implementing a personnel plan to build the Dolphins into a championship caliber team.

In Ireland's two seasons in Miami, he already has seen some of the acquisitions play a key role in the development of the team. In 2009, quarterback Chad Henne, seeing his first significant playing time, won seven of his 13 starts. Fellow sophomores Jake Long and Dan Carpenter won Pro Bowl honors, while another second year player, Davone Bess, led the team in receptions. Rookies also made an immediate impact last year, as cornerbacks Vontae Davis and Sean Smith excelled in their NFL debuts and wide receiver Brian Hartline also made important contributions offensively. Ireland continued to strengthen the team during the 2010 off-season, landing perhaps the two most coveted players available, wide receiver Brandon Marshall and linebacker Karlos Dansby, while significantly upgrading the team's defense through the college draft.

Inheriting a 1-15 team in 2008, Ireland's first season in Miami, he worked with Parcells and Sparano to overhaul the team's roster. Their efforts resulted in an 11-5 mark, the AFC East title and a playoff berth, a turnaround unprecedented in NFL annals.

Ireland replaced almost half of the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. One of those newcomers, quarterback Chad Pennington, went on to win the NFL Comeback Player of the Year award and finished tied for second in voting for the league's Most Valuable Player award.

Also among the new faces Ireland brought on board in 2008 were 11 rookies who made the team, including eight draft choices, three of whom were in the opening day starting lineup. Long, the team's first pick of the draft, went on to earn Pro Bowl honors at the conclusion of the season. Ireland added rookie talent beyond the draft, as Bess had the second-highest single-season reception total in the last 40 years among undrafted college free agents in their rookie season, while rookie free agent kicker Dan Carpenter led the Dolphins in scoring.

In 2007, Ireland's last season in Dallas, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East title. Of the 53 players on the active roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's Vice President of Scouting. Seven of those players made the Pro Bowl during that time, including DeMarcus Ware (Ireland's first pick as the team's lead scout), fellow 2005 fourth round selections Chris Canty and Marion Barber, 2007 draft choice Nick Folk and two free agent acquisitions that season, Leonard Davis and Ken Hamlin. In addition, since Ireland arrived in Dallas, seven other Cowboys made their Pro Bowl debuts.

Ireland began his tenure with the Cowboys as the team's national scout in 2001, evaluating all of the top collegiate prospects in the country. In his four years in that role, his skill as a talent evaluator helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers, Roy Williams (who was selected five straight years), Terence Newman, Andre Gurode and Jason Witten.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years in Kansas City as an area scout helping the Chiefs draft players like Dante Hall in the fifth round and Greg Wesley in the third round. Ireland started his NFL career evaluating talent as an area scout for the National Football Scouting Combine from 1994-1996.

Before becoming a full-time talent evaluator, Ireland helped coach special teams at the University of North Texas from 1992-1993. He was a four-year starter as a placekicker at Baylor University from 1988-1991, finishing his collegiate career third on Baylor's all time scoring list with 213 points. His 45 career field goals, which included a 58-yard effort against Rice in 1991, established a school record for field goals made. Following his senior season he was selected as the South team's kicker in the 1992 Senior Bowl.

Ireland, an Abilene, Texas native, is the stepson of Kansas City Chiefs Hall of Fame linebacker/center E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Philadelphia Eagles player and longtime Chicago Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer. Jeff and his wife, Rachel, have three daughters, Annie and twins Haley and Hannah, and a son, Riley.

DAWN APONTE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: Delaware
NFL: 20th Season
DOLPHINS: First Season

Dawn Aponte joined the Miami Dolphins on February 1, 2010, bringing with her a wealth of football experience at the team and league level. Reporting directly to Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells, she is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Dolphins salary cap, player contracts and budgets. Aponte also serves as the team's liaison on league affairs.

A veteran football executive, Aponte joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as Vice President of Football Administration for the Cleveland Browns. In her role with the Browns, Aponte's primary responsibilities included player contract negotiations, salary cap management, player cost budgeting, league compliance, and assisting in other legal matters.

Aponte joined the Browns organization after spending the previous three years at the NFL office, where she served on the League's Management Council as the Vice President of Labor Finance. In her position at the NFL Management Council, Aponte represented the 32 clubs in dealings with the NFL Players Association and Class Counsel on salary cap and other labor related matters. She also dealt with the clubs on CBA, salary cap and player contract matters. Aponte served on the Management Council Working Club Executive Committee and worked with the ten-member owner committee (Management Council Executive Committee) on collective bargaining issues and labor related matters.

Prior to joining the league office, Aponte worked for the New York Jets for nearly 15 years in various capacities, most recently as the club's Senior Director of Football Administration. In this role, she worked closely with the Assistant General Manager on matters pertaining to the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, player contract negotiations and salary cap management. Aponte graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Delaware in 1993 and passed the C.P.A. exam shortly thereafter. She went on to receive her Master's degree in Finance and Management from Wagner College in 1999, then continued on to earn her Juris Doctorate from New York Law School and is a member of the New York State Bar.

DOLPHINS RECORD IN CLOSE GAMES

The Dolphins owned a 1-1 record in 2009 in games decided by three points or less and 5-3 mark in games decided by seven points or less. In games decided by three points or less, Miami is 78-65-4 (.538) since the team's inception in 1966. Miami's record in games decided by seven or fewer points is 150-128-4 (.536).

TODD BOYAN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS-SUN LIFE STADIUM

COLLEGE: Georgetown
DOLPHINS: Seventh Season

Todd Boyan is Senior Vice President of Operations-Sun Life Stadium and has been in the NFL for the past 16 years. Sun Life stadium is the home of the Miami Dolphins (NFL), Florida Marlins (MLB), Orange Bowl (BCS), University of Miami Hurricanes (NCAA) and other world-class events. Boyan is responsible for all aspects of stadium operations and oversees engineering, grounds, guest services, housekeeping, operations, parking, and security, as well as coordinates event logistics with various local, state and federal governmental agencies.

During Boyan's tenure, Sun Life Stadium has hosted numerous national and international sporting events including Super Bowl XLI in 2007, the BCS National Championship game in 2009, the 2010 Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl XLIV in 2010. The stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the US mainland in 30 years. Sun Life Stadium is recognized throughout the industry as one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to the stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Since Boyan joined Sun Life Stadium in 2006, he has played an integral role in securing some of the biggest music artists to perform at the venue including The Police (2007), Madonna (Sticky and Sweet Tour in 2008), Paul McCartney (Up and Coming Tour in 2010) and U2 (360 Tour in 2011). In addition to these high profile concerts, the stadium hosts other special events that include Monster Jam, Jazz in the Gardens, and international soccer, as well as more than 200 other events that are held on stadium grounds.

Boyan is a member of the Miami Dade Sports Commission which is actively participating in the USA's bid to host either the 2018 or 2022 FIFA World Cup. Sun Life Stadium is one of 18 stadiums selected as part of the USA's bid to host World Cup Soccer matches. He is highly regarded within the facility's industry and is regularly called upon by the NFL and others to consult or provide expertise.

Boyan came to Sun Life Stadium after a nine year career as the Vice President of Operations for the Washington Redskins. He joined FedEx Field in Washington upon its opening in 1997. Boyan was responsible for stadium operations for Redskins games, college football games, security, team travel arrangements, and training camp. He also assisted NFL Transportation with the development and implementation of traffic plans with Super Bowl XXIX through Super Bowl XXXVII.

Boyan was familiar with South Florida prior to his career with the Redskins. He had worked for the Marlins Baseball Club from 1992-1995 in ticketing. He also managed ticket operations for the Marlins Spring Training site, Space Coast Stadium in Melbourne, when it first opened.

Boyan graduated from Georgetown University in 1992 where he also played varsity baseball. Boyan and his wife, Christine, live in Plantation with their two children, Rachel and Jack.

MONDAY NIGHT MADNESS IN MIAMI

In their history, the Dolphins have appeared on Monday Night Football a total of 75 times, the most of any NFL team, and four games ahead of the Dallas Cowboys, whose 71 games are second-most in the history of MNF. In those 75 contests, the Dolphins have compiled a record of 40-35, including a home record of 33-18 and a road register of 7-16. Entering 2010, the Dolphins' 40 victories are second-most in Monday Night Football history, trailing only the 43 by the Cowboys. Since MNF's inception in 1970, the only three years in which the Dolphins did not make an appearance was 1989, 2005 and 2008. They are scheduled for one contest in 2010 (October 4 vs. New England Patriots).

BILL GALANTE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS-DAVIE

COLLEGE: St. Mary's
DOLPHINS: 17th Season

Bill Galante is in his 17th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. As Senior Vice President of Operations-Davie, Galante is responsible for the supervision of the Dolphins facility operations at the Davie training headquarters, while overseeing several business aspects, including game operations and team travel. In 2007, those duties included managing all of the logistics involved in hosting the NFL's first-ever regular season game overseas in London, and he handled those same challenges in 2008 when the Dolphins traveled to Canada to play the Bills in Toronto.

Galante spent his first six years in Miami overseeing the stadium's ticket sales, including the last three seasons as Vice President - Ticket Sales and Operations. During that time, he also oversaw the ticket operations of the Florida Marlins, including their inaugural season in 1993 and their World Championship season in 1997. He began his career with the Chicago Cubs in 1983.

Bill and his wife, Barbara, are members of the ALS Association, which works toward finding a cure for Lou Gehrig's Disease. They live in Plantation with their son, Christian.

HARVEY GREENE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF MEDIA RELATIONS

COLLEGE: Pennsylvania
NFL: 22nd Season
DOLPHINS: 22nd Season

Harvey Greene is in his 22nd season with the Miami Dolphins and his ninth as the club's Senior Vice President of Media Relations. He and his staff are responsible for implementing the team's media policy on both a local and a national level.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award, an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best public relations department. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL PR staff at 20 of the past 21 Super Bowls and at two Pro Bowls.

Before joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), where he served as the main spokesman for principal owner George Steinbrenner. Prior to that, he spent three years as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), twice winning the McHugh/Splaver Award as the outstanding PR Director in the NBA. During his tenure with the Yankees he was part of Major League Baseball's PR staff for the World Series and served in a similar capacity at the NBA Finals when he was with the Cavs. He also worked for three years (1980-83) as the PR Director for the Madison Square Garden Network, the country's largest regional sports television network.

Internationally, Greene has worked three Olympic Games in a media relations role. He served as an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles and supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and for the men's ice hockey competition at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver. He also was an Assistant Venue Press Chief for the 1994 Soccer World Cup and for the World Baseball Classic in 2006 and 2009.

On a civic level, Greene was a press officer at the 2004 Democratic Convention in Boston and was a press advance lead for President Bill Clinton and Senator Hillary Clinton during portions of her 2007-08 presidential campaign. Since then, he has continued to serve periodically in an advance capacity for President Clinton and on White House trips for Vice President Joe Biden.

Greene received his B.A. with honors in Chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.S. in Sports Administration from the University of Massachusetts. He resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

ADAM GROSSMAN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

COLLEGE: Duke
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Entering his second season as the team's Senior Vice President of Public Affairs, Adam Grossman oversees the organization's marketing, community relations, events and entertainment, internet and publications and government affairs departments. He also heads up the Miami Dolphins Foundation which is devoted to providing and supporting signature education, health, youth athletic programs and volunteer activities that inspire and engage communities throughout Florida. In 2009, Grossman initiated and expanded a number of the organization's regional marketing, Hispanic outreach, corporate communications and community efforts, including the development of the Miami Dolphins Special Teams volunteer force and the inaugural Miami Dolphins "Touchdown for Life" Blood Drive, which became Florida's largest one-day blood drive. He was also instrumental in the expansion of Fins Weekend, the Miami Dolphins Foundation's annual golf and fishing fundraiser.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Grossman served as Vice President/Marketing for the Boston Red Sox in 2008. In that capacity, he worked with the club's advertising firm, Conover Tuttle Pace, to execute the organization's first season-long branding initiative. Additionally, he coordinated the club's regional marketing activities and collaborated on the Red Sox Nation fan club program. Grossman began with the Red Sox in 2002 and became the Special Assistant to President/CEO Larry Lucchino. He worked with Major League Baseball International on all aspects of the Red Sox presence in Japan, including the 2008 Opening Series in Tokyo. Grossman played a key role in expanding non-major league game opportunities at Fenway Park, including the "Futures at Fenway" minor league doubleheaders, a sold-out event which brought the first official minor league games to Fenway Park.

A graduate of Duke University where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Public Policy, he currently serves on the board for City Year Miami and the Mass Mentoring Partnership in Boston. Grossman resides in Miami with his wife, Candy Hannemann.

SIX TEAMS WINLESS IN MIAMI

Entering 2010, there are five NFL teams that are winless against the Dolphins during the regular season in Miami. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Carolina, 7-0 vs. Denver, 4-0 vs. Detroit, 3-0 and 4-0 vs. Washington. From this list, the Dolphins will play host to Detroit (December 26) in 2010.

TERY HOWARD
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER

COLLEGE: Florida International
DOLPHINS: 12th Season

Tery Howard is entering her 12th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium as Senior Vice President and Chief Technology Officer. She joined the Dolphins after 15 years with Carnival Cruise Lines, where she managed all of Carnival's shipboard technologies.

Under Howard's leadership, Sun Life Stadium has implemented numerous leading edge technologies, including the deployment of Cisco's Stadium Vision, fan-facing mobile solutions and wireless infrastructure throughout the stadium using innovative systems architecture. Howard also oversees telecommunications, scoreboard operations and football operations technologies, providing the business intelligence needed to sustain a competitive advantage. Howard and her team focus on ensuring that both the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium are at the forefront of the industry.

Respected by her colleagues and the business world, Howard is frequently called upon to contribute in the community, participating in panel discussions and conferences and is actively involved with several advisory boards. Howard and her team have received numerous accolades for their technical prowess as well as for their work in implementing safeguards for online surfing.

Howard received both her undergraduate and MBA from Florida International University. She is married to Eric Howard and has three children, Natalie, Charlie and Monica.

JIM RUSHTON
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS & INTEGRATED MEDIA

COLLEGE: Hamilton
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Jim Rushton is the Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships and Integrated Media for the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. In this capacity, he oversees the revenue and corresponding support services for all Dolphins sponsorship and media assets.

Rushton joined the Dolphins from Entercom Communications where he spent 16 years, most recently as Vice President Sports of Sales and Marketing for Entercom and Entercom New England. He was responsible for all revenues associated with the WEEI Sports Radio Network including the Boston Red Sox and Boston Celtics radio networks and the New England Patriots Monday/Friday radio network.

During his tenure with Entercom, Rushton helped establish WEEI as one of the most successful all-sports stations in the United States. In this time, the Red Sox radio network grew to become the highest grossing play-by-play franchise in all of Major League Baseball. Rushton has also been a pioneer in integrating the radio businesses for which he was responsible into a multi-media platform that activated advertising/sponsorship campaigns utilizing audio, visual, text/mobile, experiential and sports media assets. This included the launch and development of WEEI.com.

Rushton re-located to South Florida in mid-November 2009 and since then has been part of the team to rename the stadium Sun Life Stadium; host the Orange Bowl, Pro Bowl, and Super Bowl; and negotiate a new six-year multi-media broadcast agreement with Clear Channel Communications.

JILL R. STRAFACI
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

COLLEGE: Florida
NFL: 22nd Season
DOLPHINS: 22nd Season

Beginning her 22nd season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafaci serves as Senior Vice President of Finance. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. Her duties include all financial operations of the team and the stadium, including budgeting, forecasting, cash management, insurance, federal and state tax matters and administration of the club's NFL benefit plans, while also assisting with special projects. Her duties also include the financial reporting for the Miami Dolphins Foundation, which she helped implement in 1995. Strafaci interacts with the NFL on financial matters and works closely on league-wide reporting and revenue sharing issues.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafaci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafaci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Davie with her husband, Frank, and their sons, Trent and Ty.

HAROLD TALISMAN
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: Florida
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Harold Talisman joined the Dolphins in 2009 as Chief Administrative Officer. In his role, Talisman oversees the finance and accounting, human resources, outside legal and general administrative functions for the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Talisman worked for 12 years with Boston Red Sox owner John Henry for The Henry Organization providing oversight of investments, taxes and financial management of multiple businesses. Talisman spent seven years (2003-09) as Chief Financial Officer of New England Sports Ventures (NESV), the parent company of the Boston Red Sox, New England Sports Network (NESN) and Fenway Sports Group (FSG).

With NESV, Talisman helped lead the financial diligence and negotiations for NESV's acquisition of the Red Sox and NESN. He also assembled and oversaw investment partnerships that raised the debt and equity financing which were necessary to close on the purchase. Additionally, Talisman was instrumental in the acquisition of FSG's 50-percent interest in Roush Fenway Racing, NASCAR's largest race team.

Prior to his role with NESV, Talisman worked several years with The Henry Organization and played a key role in the financial diligence and negotiation of John Henry's acquisition of the Florida Marlins from Wayne Huizenga in 1998.

Talisman, a Florida native, graduated from the University of Florida and resides in Parkland, Fla., with his wife, Marci, and their daughters, Erin and Jenna.

MARK TILSON
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND TICKET OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: Columbia
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Mark Tilson was named Senior Vice President by the Dolphins in August, 2009. Tilson oversees the club's ticket, premium and event sales as well as ticket operations.

Tilson joined the Dolphins organization after working as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Kansas City Royals since February 2007. In his three years in Kansas City, the Royals increased revenues by more than 67-percent and experienced one of the largest percentage increases in MLB attendance figures. Tilson also played a key role in the $250 million renovation of Kauffman Stadium and an extensive re-branding campaign that included team marks and corporate imaging. Prior to his time with the Royals, Tilson spent nearly 11 years with the San Diego Padres, his most recent post as Vice President of Sales and Services. While with San Diego, he was instrumental in the Padres transition to PETCO Park and oversaw a 125-percent increase in season ticket sales as the Padres attendance grew to more than three million fans in 2004. Tilson also implemented a highly-successful premium membership sales program which generated significant incremental revenue for the Padres during the construction of PETCO Park.

Tilson received a bachelor of arts degree in international politics from Columbia University where he was also a four-time varsity letter winner in track and field and played on the basketball team. A native of Los Angeles, CA, he and his wife, Brooke, reside in Ft. Lauderdale with their daughter, Dylan and son, Wyatt.

WHAT A RUSH

The Dolphins have fielded one of the top pass rushing teams in the NFL throughout the past decade. From 1998-2009, the Dolphins totaled 506 sacks, second best in the NFL, trailing only Pittsburgh (520) and edging out the New York Giants (498). Over this 12-year period, the Dolphins have had ten individual double-digit sack seasons, including six by Jason Taylor, two by Trace Armstrong and one each by Adewale Ogunleye and Joey Porter. In fact, Armstrong led the AFC in sacks in 2000 with 16.5, Taylor led the NFL in 2002 with 18.5, Ogunleye topped the AFC in 2003 with 15 and Porter led the AFC with 17.5 sacks in 2008.

NAT MOORE
VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL ADVISOR

COLLEGE: Florida
NFL: 18th Season
DOLPHINS: 18th Season

Longtime Miami Dolphins player and executive Nat Moore was named as the team's Vice President/Special Advisor on March 12, 2010. In his new role, Moore will continue to oversee the Dolphins alumni activities and will take on an expanded senior advisory role working closely with Dolphins Chief Executive Officer Mike Dee on a variety of special projects.

One of the most celebrated players in Dolphins history, Moore was drafted in the third round of the 1974 draft (78th overall) out of the University of Florida. Moore spent his entire 13-year NFL career as one of the most productive offensive players in Dolphins' history. Moore ranks among the top three players in team history in seven major statistical categories. He is second in team history in career touchdowns (75), receiving touchdowns (74) and combined yardage (8,950) and third in receptions (510), receiving yards (7,547), total yards from scrimmage (7,795) and receiving touchdowns (12) in a season.

Moore earned All-Pro recognition and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1977 and was named the team's Most Outstanding Receiver in six straight years (1974-79). On December 5, 1999, the Dolphins organization honored Moore as the 12th honoree and second receiver to be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. He also is one of 15 former Dolphins to be inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

Establishing a positive reputation on and off the field led Moore to be named the 1984 NFL "Man of the Year," an honor bestowed on the player who gives outstanding service to his community, and earned him the 1986 Byron White Humanitarian Award for his service to his team, community and country. In recognition of Moore's impact in South Florida, in 2005 the Dolphins renamed their community service award to The Nat Moore Community Service Award. This award is given each year to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community.

The wide receiver founded the Nat Moore Foundation in 1998 to improve the quality of life for disadvantaged Miami Dade County youth and their communities by focusing on education, sports development and youth health needs. The foundation has granted funds to area non-profit organizations that offered services to enrich the lives of disadvantaged youth. Since its founding, the Nat Moore Foundation has dispersed over $1,800,000 to South Florida-based programs and initiatives.

In addition, Moore has represented the Dolphins franchise at countless charitable and civic activities. He handled alumni, youth, and special projects for the team starting in 2006, serving as a key organizational liaison to former Dolphin players and coaches nationwide. He represents the alumni on the team's Honor Roll selection committee and is a major contributor to all of the team's activities honoring the great teams and individuals in Dolphins history.

1984 DOLPHINS OFFENSE IS BEST IN NFL

In the 1984 season, the Dolphins established a number of NFL season records, including most yards gained (6,936), most yards gained by passing (5,018), most first downs (387), most touchdowns (70), most passing touchdowns (49) and most PATs (66). Four of the six marks still stand as NFL records. The only exceptions are yards gained passing, which was eclipsed by the 2000 St. Louis Rams (5,232), and passing touchdowns, which was surpassed by the 2004 Indianapolis Colts (51).

COACHING STAFF

TONY SPARANO
HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: New Haven
NFL: 12th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season
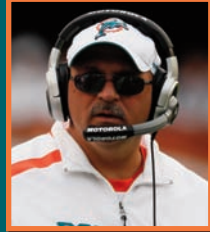

Tony Sparano, entering his 12th season in the NFL and his 27th year in the coaching profession overall, was named the eighth head coach in Miami Dolphins history on January 16, 2008. He came to the Dolphins after spending the previous five years with the Dallas Cowboys. He also joined the team with five years of experience as a head coach at the collegiate level.

In 2009, his second year in Miami, Sparano had the Dolphins in playoff contention right until the end of the season despite season-ending injuries to four key starters - Chad Pennington and Ronnie Brown on offense and Will Allen and Jason Ferguson on defense. Rebounding from an 0-3 start, Sparano's team won seven of its next ten contests, all coming with quarterback Chad Henne playing his first games as an NFL starter, to get right back in the middle of the playoff picture.

Sparano accomplished the difficult task of balancing the need to add youth to his squad while keeping the Dolphins in the thick of the playoff hunt. Like he did with Henne, who won seven of his 13 overall starts in his first season seeing regular action under center, Sparano furthered the growth of fellow second year players Davone Bess, who led the team in receptions, Jake Long, who was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl squad, defensive ends Kendall Langford and Phillip Merling, as well as Pro Bowl kicker Dan Carpenter, who set Dolphins special teams records.

Sparano also accelerated the development of many of the team's 2009 draft choices. Rookie cornerbacks Vontae Davis and Sean Smith excelled defensively while starting most of the season, while other draft picks, including quarterback Pat White and wideout Brian Hartline, made significant offensive contributions.

On the other side of the spectrum, Sparano coaxed productive seasons from the teams veteran players, as Ricky Williams became the seventh running back in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards at age 32 or older, while a number of experienced players led a pass rush that accounted for 44 sacks and ranked first in the NFL in sacks per pass play. In addition, the offensive line proved to be one of the most effective in the league, as the team finished fourth in the league in rushing yards per game and was second in the NFL in third down efficiency, with another veteran, fullback Lousaka Polite, playing a key role in those conversions when called upon.

In 2008, Sparano's first year as the Dolphins' head coach, he guided the team to a single-season turnaround matched just once in NFL history. Taking over a 1-15 squad from a year earlier, he led the Dolphins to an 11-5 record and the AFC East title. His ten-game improvement has been achieved only one other time in league annals, in 1999 when the Indianapolis Colts went from 3-13 to 13-3:

LARGEST SINGLE SEASON IMPROVEMENT IN NFL HISTORY

TEAM	YEAR 1	YEAR 2	CHANGE	YEAR 2 PLAYOFFS
Indianapolis Colts	3-13 (1998)	13-3 (1999)	+10	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
MIAMI DOLPHINS	1-15 (2007)	11-5 (2008)	+10	AFC EAST CHAMPIONS, 0-1, REACHED WILD CARD ROUND
N.Y. Giants	4-7-2 (1928)	13-1-1 (1929)	+9	None
Oakland Raiders	1-13 (1962)	10-4 (1963)	+9	None
St. Louis Rams	4-12 (1998)	13-3 (1999)	+9	3-0, Won SB XXXIV
Pittsburgh Steelers	6-10 (2003)	15-1 (2004)	+9	1-1, Reached AFC Championship
Baltimore Colts	2-12 (1974)	10-4 (1975)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
N. England Patriots	3-11 (1975)	11-3 (1976)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
Cincinnati Bengals	4-11 (1987)	12-4 (1988)	+8	2-1, Reached Super Bowl XXIII
Indianapolis Colts	1-15 (1991)	9-7 (1992)	+8	None
N.Y. Jets	1-15 (1996)	9-7 (1997)	+8	None
Chicago Bears	5-11 (2000)	13-3 (2001)	+8	0-1, Reached Divisional Round
San Diego Chargers	4-12 (2003)	12-4 (2004)	+8	0-1, Reached Wild Card Round

In addition, since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, there have been eight teams that have experienced a 1-15 season, including the 2007 Dolphins. With their 11-5 finish in 2008, the Dolphins under Sparano posted the best record of any of those teams the year following their 1-15 season and are the only one of those teams to qualify for the playoffs the next year. In fact, of the previous seven teams, just two went on to post a winning record the following season, most recently the 1997 Jets, who under the guidance of first-year Head Coach Bill Parcells, went 9-7 a year after finishing with a 1-15 mark in 1996.

RECORD FOLLOWING 1-15 SEASON

TEAM	1-15 YEAR (COACH)	FOLLOWING YEAR RECORD (COACH)
New Orleans	1980 (Dick Nolan, Dick Stanfel)	4-12 (Bum Phillips)
Dallas	1989 (Jimmy Johnson)	7-9 (Jimmy Johnson)
New England	1990 (Dick MacPherson)	6-10 (Dick MacPherson)
Indianapolis	1991 (Ted Marchibroda)	9-7 (Ted Marchibroda)
N.Y. Jets	1996 (Rich Kotite)	9-7 (Bill Parcells)
San Diego	2000 (Mike Riley)	5-11 (Mike Riley)
Carolina	2001 (George Seifert)	7-9 (John Fox)
MIAMI	2007 (CAM CAMERON)	11-5 (TONY SPARANO)

For his efforts, Sparano was named as 2008 NFL Coach of the Year by the NFL Alumni and the Pro Football Weekly/Professional Football Writers of America, and AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City 101 Committee. He shared USA Today's Coach of the Year honors with Atlanta's Mike Smith. In addition, he finished second by one vote for the Associated Press (AP) NFL Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the 2008 Motorola NFL Coach of the Year.

Working under Sparano's mantra of "Tough, Smart, Disciplined," the 2008 Dolphins lived up to those words by playing aggressive and intelligent football all season long. Sparano had the team playing hard, rebounding from a 2-4 start to win nine of their last ten games to finish at 11-5 and capture the AFC East title. That strong finish was reflective on an individual game basis as well, as the Dolphins outscored their opponents 82-62 in the fourth quarter and held the ball for ten minutes or more in that quarter in seven of their games in 2008.

Sparano and his staff were innovative in introducing a new offense, the "Wildcat," in the midst of the season, and that formation went on to pile up 580 yards (including an average of 6.1 yards per rush) and eight touchdowns in the 91 times it was used. He emphasized the importance of protecting the football, a lesson that was well-learned by the team. The Dolphins committed just 13 turnovers and, along with the New York Giants that year, set a new NFL record for fewest turnovers in a 16-game season, breaking the old mark of 14 turnovers set in 1990 by the Giants. In addition, the Dolphins' takeaway-giveaway ratio of plus-17 led the NFL in that category in 2008. As another measure of the team's discipline, Miami committed only 81 penalties, the fewest by a Dolphin team since 1993 (81).

With the Cowboys, Sparano served as the team's tight ends coach from 2003-04, offensive line/running game coordinator in 2005, assistant head coach/offensive line/running game coordinator in 2006 and assistant head coach/offensive line in 2007. During those five years, the Cowboys qualified for the playoffs three times, including 2007 when they won the NFC East with a 13-3 record.

In 2006, with Sparano as the Cowboys' primary play caller, the team ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense, as they averaged 360.8 yards per game. In addition, their 425 points scored was the fourth-highest total in the NFL. Of the team's 52 touchdowns on the year, 21 came via the ground, the third-highest figure in the league. Quarterback Tony Romo – in his first season as an NFL starter after having joined the team as an undrafted college free agent in 2003 – completed 220 of 337 passes (63.5%) for 2,903 yards with 19 TDs, 13 INTs and a passer rating of 95.1 despite only starting the final 10 games. He was one of four Cowboys on the offensive side of the ball to be selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad (T Flozell Adams, C Andre Gurode, TE Jason Witten), the most offensive players to represent Dallas in the annual all-star game since 1996, also the last time the team sent a quarterback to the Pro Bowl. In addition, Dallas produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in 2006 (Terrell Owens, Terry Glenn) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Julius Jones), just the second time in team history that feat had occurred (1979).

In Sparano's first year with the Cowboys, rookie tight end Jason Witten, a third-round draft choice that year, caught 35 passes for 347 yards and a TD. His reception total that year tied for fourth among all NFL rookies and was first among the league's rookie tight ends. The following season, Witten established himself as one of the NFL's premier tight ends as he totaled 87 receptions for 980 yards and six TDs, becoming the first Cowboys tight end to make the Pro Bowl since Jay Novacek in 1995. Witten's reception and yardage totals both led all NFC tight ends and ranked second in the NFL. Over a three season span (2005-07), four different Cowboys offensive linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl a total of five times, including three in 2007 (T Flozell Adams, G Leonard Davis and C Andre Gurode). Over the last two seasons in that period (2006-07), the Cowboys totaled 35 rushing touchdowns, the fifth-highest total in the NFL in that stretch and the top figure among NFC clubs. Julius Jones surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing barrier in 2006 with 1,084 yards, while Marion Barber, who fell just 25 yards shy of the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2007 but averaged 4.8 yards per attempt (204-975), compiled 24 rushing touchdowns over that two year period (2006-07), the second-highest total in the NFL over that stretch.

Sparano got his start in the NFL as offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns in 1999 – the first year that the team resumed play following a three-year absence. The next year, he was promoted to offensive line coach, where he oversaw a unit that allowed 40 sacks, 20 fewer than they did the year before. He moved on to the Washington Redskins in 2001, where he served as that team's tight ends coach. He assumed the same role with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2002, and that year the team's tight ends totaled 69 receptions for 712 yards and six TDs, including 43 catches for 461 yards and four scores by Kyle Brady.

Immediately preceding his NFL tenure, Sparano was the head coach at the University of New Haven from 1994-98, where his teams made a pair of trips to the Division II playoffs during that time, including a runner-up finish in 1997. He was named the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Division II Coach of the Year that season and was the New England Football Writers Division II/III Coach of the Year in both 1995 and 1997.

Sparano began his coaching career at New Haven in 1984, where he spent four seasons tutoring the offensive line and serving as recruiting coordinator at the school. He moved on to Boston University in 1988 and served the next six years at the school. His first two years were spent as the Terriers' offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and academic liaison before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1990, spending his final four years there in that post, including the 1993 season when the team put together an 11-0 mark.

Sparano was a four-year letterman at New Haven, where he started at center and went on to earn his degree in criminal law. He is a native of West Haven, Conn., where he attended Richard C. Lee High School. Sparano and his wife, Jeanette, have two sons, Tony, a defensive line assistant coach for the Hartford Colonials of the UFL, and Andrew, a member of the University at Albany (N.Y.) football team, and a daughter, Ryan Leigh.

TAKE IT AWAY

For the Dolphins, the takeaway/giveaway ratio is the statistical category that has had the biggest correlation between wins and losses. Over the last 14 years (1996-2009), the Dolphins are 79-25 (.760) in games where they have claimed the turnover battle, including a 3-2 mark in 2009. They are 14-71 (.165) over this same stretch in games where their opponent has held the advantage in that department, including a 1-6 register a year ago.

JOHN BONAMEGO
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 12th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

John Bonamego is entering his third season in his current role after being named the Dolphins' special teams coordinator on January 28, 2008. His appointment followed a two-year stint in the same capacity with the New Orleans Saints. He now has been an NFL assistant for 11 seasons and during that time the teams with which he has coached have won five divisional titles and advanced to a pair of conference championship games.

The success of the Dolphins special teams paid dividends during the 2009 campaign as Bonamego's units contributed to record-setting performances, while individuals were honored for their season-long consistency. In the Dolphins' 30-25 victory over the New York Jets on November 1, 2009, Ted Ginn, Jr. became the first player in NFL history with two kickoff return touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game. Additionally, Ginn became the first player in 42 years to record two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter while also recording 299 return yards, the second-most kickoff return yards in a game in NFL history.

Punter Brandon Fields also turned in a record-setting campaign as his season's net average of 39.8 yards per punt became the highest single-season figure in Dolphins history, surpassing Donnie Jones' previous team record of 39.3 yards which was set in 2005. Fields' season gross average of 46.3 (46.293) yards per punt was the second highest figure in Dolphins history, behind only John Kidd's 46.3 yard average (46.295) in 1996.

Another of Bonamego's pupils was rewarded for his consistency over the 2009 season as placekicker Dan Carpenter was named to the AFC Pro Bowl team. Carpenter finished the 2009 season with a career high 112 points as he connected on 25 of 28 field goals and 37 of 38 point after touchdown attempts. He also notched two game winning kicks during the 2009 season. Carpenter became only the third Dolphins kicker to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Garo Yepremian (1973, 1978) and Olindo Mare (1999).

Bonamego's units as a whole also made their mark on the NFL as they were the second least penalized unit in 2009, while finishing in the Top 10 in gross punting average, net punting average and field goal percentage.

While Bonamego was with the Saints, his unit proved pivotal in catapulting the club to a 10-6 record and the NFC South crown in Bonamego's first season of 2006, as it recorded two signature plays during the course of the season. The first occurred in a Monday night game against Atlanta on September 25 - the first game back at the Superdome following Hurricane Katrina - when Curtis Deloach recovered a Steve Gleason blocked punt in the end zone to open the scoring en route to a 23-3 victory as the Saints started 3-0 for just the fifth time in franchise history. Two weeks later against Tampa Bay, rookie Reggie Bush's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown with 4:17 remaining in the contest erased a 21-17 deficit and gave the Saints a 24-21 victory. Prior to his tenure with the Saints, Bonamego tutored the special teams unit with the Green Bay Packers from 2003-05. He got his start in the NFL as assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1999, a spot he held for three seasons where he worked under Frank Ganz Sr. for two years and Larry Paquale for a year, before being promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002.

In Bonamego's eight seasons heading up a special teams unit, his groups have finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall special teams rankings under a formula devised by the Dallas Morning News on five occasions, including a top 10 finish in 2009. This includes a No. 3 finish by his Jacksonville Jaguars squad of 2002, which blocked four kicks and was second in the league in kickoff coverage. Also that year, punter Chris Hanson was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. In the past eight seasons, his units blocked a total of 14 kicks, consisting of seven field goals, five punts and two PATs. They recorded at least one blocked kick in seven of those eight campaigns.

Prior to starting his NFL stint, Bonamego held assistant posts at Maine (1988-91), Lehigh (1992) and Army (1993-98). In 1987, he also coached at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School and was a player-coach in Europe with the Verona (Italy) Redskins. A wide receiver and quarterback at Central Michigan, Bonamego earned his degree in health and fitness from the school in 1987. He then went on to earn his master's in physical education from Maine in 1992. He also received an honorary doctorate degree from Central Michigan in 2009, and is a graduate of Paw Paw (Mich.) High School. Bonamego and his wife, Paulette, have two sons, Javier and Giovanni, and a daughter, Bellina.

TODD BOWLES
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SECONDARY

COLLEGE: Temple
NFL: 19th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Todd Bowles is entering his third season in his current post, having been named to the position on January 23, 2008. Prior to joining the Dolphins he had spent the previous three years as the secondary coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

During his second season with the Dolphins, Bowles was instrumental in the development of rookie cornerbacks Vontae Davis and Sean Smith. Smith was one of only two Miami defenders to start all 16 regular season games in 2009 while Davis led the team with four interceptions. Bowles' secondary was also represented at the 2010 Pro Bowl as safety Yeremiah Bell concluded a stellar season by being named to the AFC squad.

In Bowles' three years in Dallas, three Cowboys defensive backs were chosen to a combined five Pro Bowls, including three by safety Roy Williams. In 2007, three-fourths of Dallas' backfield was selected to the NFC All-Star squad, as cornerback Terence Newman and safety Ken Hamlin joined Williams in Honolulu. Over those three seasons (2005-07), the Cowboys as a team came up with 52 interceptions, tied for the third-highest total in the NFC. Before going to the Cowboys, Bowles had a four-year stint (2001-04) on the staff of the Cleveland Browns, including the first three years as the defensive nickel package coach and the final season as secondary coach. In that 2004 season, the Browns ranked fifth in the league in pass defense, as they allowed an average of just 181.3 passing yards per game. In Bowles' first year with Cleveland, the Browns led the league and set a franchise record with 33 interceptions, 28 of which were accounted for by defensive backs, including 10 by rookie Anthony Henry. Bowles' first NFL coaching position came as defensive backs coach with the New York Jets in 2000, when he helped the unit to a No. 6 NFL ranking in pass defense, permitting an average of only 183.3 yards passing per outing.

Bowles, a native of Elizabeth, N.J., was a four-year letterman as a defensive back at Temple University (1982-85). He went on to play eight seasons in the NFL, including stints with Washington (1986-90, 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991). In his career, he appeared in 117 regular season games and accounted for 15 interceptions. He was a member of the Redskins team that captured the Super Bowl XXII championship following the 1987 season. Upon conclusion of his playing career, Bowles worked in the player personnel department of the Green Bay Packers from 1995-96. He was defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Morehouse College in 1997 and defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at Grambling State from 1998-99. He and Taneka reside in Parkland, FL. Bowles has a daughter, Sydni, and sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

TODD BOWLES' COACHING CAREER

1997	Morehouse College – Defensive Coordinator/Secondary Coach
1998-99	Grambling State – Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs Coach
2000	New York Jets – Defensive Backs Coach
2001-04	Cleveland Browns – Defensive Nickel Package Coach (2001-03)
	– Secondary Coach (2004)
2005-07	Dallas Cowboys – Secondary Coach
2008-	Miami Dolphins – Assistant Head Coach/Secondary

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

COLLEGE: Southern Connecticut State
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Steve Bush is entering his third season as an NFL assistant in 2010. Prior to joining the Dolphins, he experienced a successful 26-year run as a coach at both the high school and collegiate levels.

During the 2009 campaign the Dolphins offense finished fourth in the NFL in rushing and second in both third and fourth down efficiency. In 2008, Bush's first season with the Dolphins, the offense committed a total of only 33 penalties, tied for the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL.

From 2000-04, Bush coached at Syracuse as the school's defensive backs coach (2000) and quarterbacks coach (2001-04). In that 2000 season, Bush coached cornerback Will Allen, a first-team All-Big East selection that year who went on to become a first-round draft choice of the Giants in 2001 and is currently with the Dolphins. Immediately preceding his tenure with the Dolphins, Bush was the head coach at West Genesee (N.Y.) High School for three years (2005-07), and in 2007 he guided the school to a record of 11-2 and its first New York State Class AA state title.

Bush got his start in the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at Southern Connecticut State, where he served from 1982-83. He moved on to Springfield College where he was the school's defensive coordinator/secondary coach from 1984-85. That was followed by stints as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at the University of New Haven from 1986-87 and defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Boston University from 1988-89. During the '86 campaign he worked alongside Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano, also a member of that staff. The pair also served together at BU from 1988-89. Bush moved on as a head coach at the high school ranks, first at Longmeadow (Mass.) High from 1990-92 and then at Manalapan (N.J.) High from 1993-99.

Bush was a defensive back at Southern Connecticut State (1978-81), where he earned both his undergraduate and master's degrees. He and his wife, Maria, have two daughters, Kacey and Leah, and two sons, Kevin and Shane.

DAN CAMPBELL
COACHING INTERN/OFFENSE

COLLEGE: Texas A&M
NFL: 12th Season
DOLPHINS: First Season

Dan Campbell makes the transition from player to coach as he joins Tony Sparano's staff for the 2010 season as a coaching intern/offense. His responsibilities will include assisting the offensive coaches with all facets of preparation with an emphasis on the offensive line.

Campbell joins the Dolphins with 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and most recently the New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in 114 games with 75 starts over the course of his career and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Campbell attended Texas A&M where he was a four year letter winner and an agricultural development major. The Clifton, Texas native and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody.

DAN CAMPBELL'S COACHING CAREER

2010-	Miami Dolphins – Coaching Intern/Offense

A PLAYER'S COACH

When James Saxon was named as the team's running backs coach in 2008, he became the eighth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Saxon was a running back with the team from 1992-94. The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Saxon are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004) and Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

DAVID CORRAO
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Arizona
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

David Corrao is entering his third season as both an NFL assistant and as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2010.

Corrao joined the Dolphins after coaching the linebackers at the University of Mississippi in 2007. He served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Ole Miss the previous two years (2005-06), when he worked with linebacker Patrick Willis, a first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 2007 and the 2007 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. Prior to joining the Ole Miss staff, Corrao tutored the tight ends at Northeastern University in 2004. After several years coaching in the high school ranks, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University from 2000-03. During his tenure at the school, Corrao worked under former Dolphins' defensive coordinator Paul Pasqualoni, then the head coach with the Orange.

Corrao attended the University of San Diego, where he was a member of the football team as a freshman in 1992. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Arizona in 1997 and a master's in instructional design development & evaluation from Syracuse in 2003. He is a graduate of Trabuco Hills High School in Mission Viejo, Calif. Corrao lives in South Florida with his wife, Trisha.

JOE DANNA
ASSISTANT SECONDARY

COLLEGE: Central Michigan
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: First Season

Joe Danna is the most recent addition to Tony Sparano's staff as he was named the Dolphins' assistant secondary coach on February 21, 2010. His responsibilities will include assisting Assistant Head Coach/Secondary Todd Bowles with the Miami defensive backfield.

Danna joins the team with 11 years of coaching experience, including the past two with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant.

Danna, a four-year letter winning wide receiver at Central Michigan University (1995-98), remained with the Chippewas following his playing career to serve as a student assistant (1999) and then as a graduate assistant (2000). Following a season as graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (2001), Danna returned to his alma mater, serving as wide receivers coach (2002, 2005) and safeties coach (2003-04). Following his tenure at Central Michigan, he spent the next two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Georgia Southern (2006) and James Madison (2007) before joining the Falcons in 2008.

Danna earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education and social sciences with a language arts minor from Central Michigan. The Midland, Michigan native and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Luke and Zack, and a daughter, Lindsey.

DAVE DeGUGLIELMO
OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Boston University
NFL: Seventh Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season
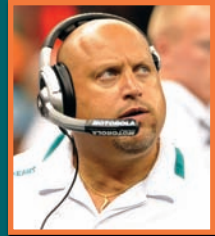

Dave DeGuglielmo begins his second season in Miami in 2010 after being named the Dolphins' offensive line coach on January 15, 2009.

DeGuglielmo (pronounced Day-Ghoul-Yell-Mo) came to the Dolphins in 2009 after spending the previous five seasons (2004-08) as a member of the New York Giants staff, including his last four as assistant offensive line coach. Anchored by Pro Bowl left tackle Jake Long, the Dolphins offensive line paved the way for the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing attack in 2009, led by Ricky Williams, who broke the NFL record for longest span between 1,000 yard seasons.

DeGuglielmo joined the New York Giants in 2004 as the assistant offensive line/quality control coach and was elevated to assistant offensive line coach in 2005. During his tenure (2004-08), the Giants consistently ranked in the top ten in the NFL in rushing. The Giants are one of only four NFL teams to have put together a 4.0-yard average per rush attempt or better each of his last four seasons (2005-08). Also during this four-year stretch, the Giants allowed 28 or fewer sacks each time and qualified for the Playoffs four consecutive years for the first time in franchise history. In 2008 the team led the league and established a new franchise record with 2,518 rushing yards and 5.0 yards per carry. A member of the Super Bowl XLII Champion staff, DeGuglielmo also assisted in tutoring 2009 Pro Bowl selections guard Chris Snee and center Shaun O'Hara, the first Giants offensive linemen named to the Pro Bowl since guard Ron Stone in 2001.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, DeGuglielmo spent 13 seasons at the collegiate level, including the final five at the University of South Carolina (1999-2003), where he tutored the offensive line for two years (1999, 2003), and the offensive tackles and tight ends for the balance (2000-02). While with the Gamecocks he helped return the institution back to respectability within the Southeastern Conference, which included two Outback Bowl victories over Ohio State at the conclusion of the 2000 and 2001 seasons. In 2003 the South Carolina offensive line finished the season ranked nationally and tops in the SEC after giving up only 11 sacks in 12 games. Before joining South Carolina, he spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the University of Connecticut (1997-98), where the Huskies appeared in the 1998 NCAA 1-AA playoffs, the first postseason appearance in school history and the first and only 10 win season in school history. Prior to that, DeGuglielmo spent four seasons (1993-96) at his alma mater Boston University, the first three as offensive line coach and the final one as offensive line/assistant head coach. In his first season at BU, the school posted an 11-0 mark in the regular season and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs. DeGuglielmo began his coaching career at Boston College, spending two seasons with the Eagles (1991-92), where he was the school's graduate assistant offensive line coach.

DeGuglielmo grew up in Lexington, Mass, and was a four-year letter-winning offensive lineman at Boston University (1987-90), while playing both the guard and center positions. In fact, Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano was the offensive line coach on the BU staff in DeGuglielmo's final three seasons. A two-time Yankee Conference All-Academic Player and a First Team All-New England selection, he earned a bachelor's degree in 1990 and a master's degree in 1991.

DAVE DeGUGLIELMO'S COACHING CAREER

1991-92	Boston College – Graduate Assistant Offensive Line Coach
1993-96	Boston University – Offensive Line Coach (1993-95)
	– Offensive Line/Assistant Head Coach (1996)
1997-98	Connecticut – Offensive Line Coach
1999-2003	South Carolina – Offensive Line Coach (1999, 2003)
	– Offensive Tackles/Tight Ends Coach (2000-02)
2004-08	New York Giants – Assistant Offensive Line/Quality Control Coach (2004)
	– Assistant Offensive Line Coach (2005-08)
2009-	Miami Dolphins – Offensive Line Coach

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: Connecticut
NFL: Fourth Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

George DeLeone is entering his fourth season as an NFL assistant coach and his third with the Dolphins in 2010.

During the 2009 season, DeLeone nurtured a young group of talented tight ends who were big contributors to the Dolphins' highly successful ground game. The unit, consisting of Anthony Fasano, Joey Haynos and Korry Sperry, played a critical role and helped pave the way for the NFL's fourth-best rushing attack that averaged nearly 140 yards per game. The unit also provided insurance in the passing attack as the trio combined for 53 catches for 532 yards and five touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, DeLeone was the offensive coordinator at Temple University the previous two seasons (2006-07), while also tutoring the interior offensive linemen in 2007 and the quarterbacks in 2006. Prior to that, he was the run game coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Mississippi in 2005. DeLeone's first year in the NFL came in 1997 when he coached the offensive line with San Diego Chargers.

The bulk of his coaching career has been spent at Syracuse University, where he served as an assistant from 1985-96 and 1998-2004. During that 19-year span DeLeone served in a variety of roles including offensive line coach (1985-86, 2000-04), offensive coordinator (1987-96), defensive coordinator (1998) and quarterbacks coach (1999). He also held the title of associate head coach from 1998-2004. During DeLeone's time tutoring the offensive line, five of his pupils were drafted into the NFL. In 10 years as offensive coordinator, five of his players were first-team All-America selections. In his 19 years with the Orange, the team produced 15 winning records and appeared in 13 bowl games.

DeLeone began his coaching career at Southern Connecticut State in 1970 as offensive line coach. After six years in that post he was promoted to head coach in 1976 and served four years in that role. In 1980, he moved on to Rutgers as an assistant where he was the Scarlet Knights' defensive line coach (1980), defensive coordinator (1981-82) and offensive line/special teams coach (1983). In DeLeone's three years coaching on the defensive side of the ball at Rutgers, the team allowed an average of just 19.5 points per game over that 33-game span. He was appointed offensive coordinator at Holy Cross in 1984 and in his lone year at the school, running back Gil Fenerty rushed for 1,211 yards, a school single-season record at the time and now the third-highest figure.

A native of New Haven, Conn., DeLeone earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Connecticut and his master's in education from Southern Connecticut State. He and his late wife, Roberta, have two sons, Andy, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and Mark, a graduate of the University of Iowa.

KARL DORRELL
WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: UCLA
NFL: Sixth Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Karl Dorrell enters his third season on the Dolphins' coaching staff, having joined the club in 2008 following a five-year stint as head coach at UCLA.

Over the past two seasons (2008-09), Dorrell has been instrumental in the development of a core of reliable receivers, including veterans Davone Bess and Greg Camarillo and rookie Brian Hartline. Bess improved on his stellar rookie campaign by recording a team-leading 76 catches in 2009, tied for the fourth-best single-season reception total in team history. In addition, his 130 career catches places him at the top of the team's record book with the most receptions by a Dolphin in his first two NFL seasons. Camarillo returned in 2009 with his second straight 50 catch season, while Hartline provided a deep threat for Chad Henne.

During Dorrell's time heading up the Bruins' program, the school went 35-27 and appeared in a bowl game all five seasons. In 2005, UCLA went 10-2, recorded a victory over Northwestern in the Sun Bowl and finished with a No. 13 national ranking in the USA Today Coaches poll, and No. 16 by the Associated Press. For the team's performance that year, Dorrell was named the Pac-10 Conference co-Coach of the Year. Before that, he was wide receivers coach with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02. In Denver, Rod Smith's first two career Pro Bowl selections coincided with Dorrell's first two years with the team. In fact, Smith surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving mark all three years that Dorrell was there, and also attained the 100-catch plateau the first two seasons. In addition, Ed McCaffrey went over the 100-catch and 1,000-yard receiving barriers as well in 2000, as the pair combined for 201 receptions, 2,919 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns that year.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Dorrell had been an assistant at the collegiate level for the previous 12 seasons, including seven years as an offensive coordinator. This consisted of positions at UCLA (graduate assistant, 1988), Central Florida (wide receivers, 1989), Northern Arizona (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1990-91), Colorado (wide receivers, 1992-93; offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1995-98), Arizona State (wide receivers, 1994) and Washington (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1999). Overall in Dorrell's 17 seasons as a head coach and an assistant coach at the collegiate level, the teams with which he coached put together 10 winning records and made 12 bowl appearances. He also worked with the Broncos' staff during training camp in 1993 and 1999 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program.

Dorrell played five years as a receiver at UCLA (1982-86) and during that time he totaled 108 receptions for 1,517 yards and nine touchdowns. He grew up in San Diego where he attended Helix High School. He and his wife, Kim, have a son, Chandler, and a daughter, Lauren.

DAN HENNING
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: William & Mary
NFL: 31st Season
DOLPHINS: Fifth Season

Dan Henning begins his 31st season as an NFL coach in 2010. He re-joined the Dolphins' staff on February 4, 2008 marking his second stint with the team, having served as the team's quarterbacks and receivers coach from 1979-80 under Don Shula.

During his first two seasons as offensive coordinator, Henning oversaw the transformation of a unit that is widely regarded as one of the most innovative and creative offenses in the National Football League. In 2009, the Dolphins were a multi-faceted offense which included a top five rushing attack, a strong-armed young quarterback and the innovative Wildcat formation. The 2009 unit also was one of the most efficient on third and fourth downs, ranking second in the NFL in both categories. Furthermore, the 2009 campaign also saw the emergence and development of quarterback Chad Henne, who under the watchful eye of Henning, stepped into the starting role following an injury to incumbent Chad Pennington. The development of Henne, along with the re-emergence of running back Ricky Williams, whose fifth career 1,000 yard season broke the NFL record for the longest span between 1,000 yard rushing seasons, provided a potent offensive combination.

The evolution of the Wildcat offense coupled with the emergence of a talented core group of contributors that include Henne, two-time Pro Bowl selection Jake Long, running backs Ronnie Brown and Williams, as well as the addition of Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall will provide Henning an arsenal of weapons to further keep opposing defenses guessing in 2010.

Prior to being away from football in 2007, Henning was the offensive coordinator with the Carolina Panthers for the previous five seasons (2002-06). In his five-year stay there, the team advanced to the NFC Championship Game twice, including one year in which they went on to play in the Super Bowl (2003). Quarterback Jake Delhomme, who entered the league as an undrafted college free agent in 1997, became a full-time starter for the first time in 2003. Under Henning's guidance, he gradually became one of the NFL's top signal callers, having been selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad in 2005. In addition, from 2003-06 Delhomme tossed 89 touchdown passes, the fifth-highest total in the NFL over this four-year stretch. Overall in Henning's five seasons leading the Panthers' offense, five different offensive players made a total of six Pro Bowl appearances, including four skilled position players in RB Stephen Davis (2003), WR Muhsin Muhammad (2004), Delhomme (2005) and WR Steve Smith (2005, 2006). The 2005 squad scored 391 points, the third-highest total in the NFC that year and the second-highest figure in the 13-year history of the Panthers franchise.

Of Henning's 30 seasons in the NFL, seven have been spent as a head coach, including stints with Atlanta (1983-86) and San Diego (1989-91). Prior to joining the Panthers, Henning had served three seasons with the New York Jets (1998-2000), the first two as quarterbacks coach and the final one as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. New York compiled winning marks in two of those three seasons, including a regular season record of 12-4 in 1998 when they advanced to the AFC Championship Game. In that '98 campaign, quarterback Vinny Testaverde enjoyed the most efficient season of his pro career as he led all AFC quarterbacks and finished second in the NFL with a passer rating of 101.6, throwing for 29 touchdowns while being intercepted just seven times.

Henning got his start in the NFL as quarterbacks and receivers coach with the Houston Oilers in 1972. After a six-year stint in the collegiate ranks, including 1971 and 1973 as offensive coordinator at Virginia Tech and 1968-70 as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/wide receivers coach at Florida State, he returned to the NFL in 1976, when he began a three-year stint as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach with the New York Jets. That preceded his first stay with the Dolphins. In 1981, he was appointed assistant head coach with the Washington Redskins while also tutoring the team's quarterbacks, and held that post for two years. In his second year there, quarterback Joe Theismann compiled a passer rating of 91.3, the second-highest figure of his career as the Redskins put together a regular season record of 8-1 and went on to capture the Super Bowl XVII Championship. Running back John Riggins was the game's MVP as he rushed for a then-Super Bowl record 166 yards. Following his initial head coaching stop, Henning returned to the Redskins as assistant to the head coach/offensive coordinator in 1987, and served in that role for the next two years. That first season back in the nation's capital resulted in a regular season record of 11-4, capped by a victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXII, as quarterback Doug Williams was named the game's MVP. Also in that championship game, running back Tim Smith ran for a Super Bowl-record 204 yards, and the team scored a record 35 points in the second quarter. After his next stint as a head coach, Henning was the offensive coordinator with the Detroit Lions from 1992-93. The latter of those two seasons saw the Lions amass a regular season record of 10-6 as they captured the NFC Central crown, the club's most recent division title. That catapulted him into the head coaching position at Boston College from 1994-96. He returned to the NFL as offensive coordinator with the Buffalo Bills in 1997, and then moved on to the Jets the following year after the retirement of Marv Levy.

Henning played quarterback at William & Mary, where upon the conclusion of his career, he went to training camp with the San Diego Chargers in 1964 before playing two years in the Continental Football League. He was re-signed by San Diego in 1966 and was with the team through training camp in 1967. He finished his playing career with Norfolk of the Continental League. His first coaching position came as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Florida State from 1968-70. That was followed by a one-year stint (1971) as offensive coordinator at Virginia Tech.

A New York City native, Henning attended St. Francis Prep in Brooklyn, N.Y. Henning has three daughters, Mary K., Patty and Terry, and two sons, Dan and Mike. He also has 12 grandchildren: Teddy, Hunter, Taylor, Dillon, Chandler, Erica, Riley, Emily, Cassie, Patrick, Caylyn and Peyton.

DAVID LEE
QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: Vanderbilt
NFL: Seventh Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

David Lee enters his third season as part of the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2010. He joined the team following a one-year stay at the University of Arkansas (2007), where he ran the offense and tutored the quarterbacks as the team posted a regular season record of 8-4 and went on to appear in the Cotton Bowl. Following the 2007 season, he had assumed a similar role at Ole Miss under Head Coach Houston Nutt before joining the Dolphins' staff on January 10, 2008.

During the 2009 season, Lee molded a group of young quarterbacks, headed by second year pro Chad Henne, who emerged into the spotlight following a season-ending week-three injury to Chad Pennington. Henne gained a wealth of experience under Lee's guidance, completing nearly 60-percent of his passes and throwing for 2,878 yards while leading the Dolphins to a 7-6 record as a starter. Henne had three games in 2009 in which he threw for more than 300 yards, the only quarterback other than Dan Marino in team history to throw for multiple 300-yard games in a single season.

Lee also played an vital role in the transformation of the Wildcat offense. No longer a surprise, but a key part of the Dolphins attack, the formation evolved into a multi-dimensional threat that consistently challenged opposing defenses. Since its inception during the 2008 season, the Wildcat offense has accounted for more than 1,000 yards of offense while producing 16 touchdowns.

In 2008, Lee was charged with preparing Chad Pennington for the starting role despite the fact that Pennington was not signed until the day of the Dolphins' first preseason game. Pennington went on to earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year accolades as he started all 16 games and led the NFL with a completion mark of 67.4 percent. His passer rating of 97.4 ranked second in the NFL and was the second-best figure both in Dolphins history and of his career. His 3,653 yards passing represented the top figure of his NFL career.

In 2007, Lee presided over a Razorbacks offense that averaged 38.8 points per game and 457.4 yards per contest in the regular season, figures that ranked 12th and 18th nationally, respectively, and were school records. The running game in 2007 ranked fourth nationally, as it averaged 286.5 yards an outing and 6.0-yards per attempt led by Darren McFadden, who amassed 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns on 325 attempts. As a team, Arkansas threw for 1,928 yards with 24 touchdown passes and only 10 interceptions. The 2007 season marked Lee's third stint at Arkansas, having also coached the fullbacks and quarterbacks there from 1984-88 and the quarterbacks from 2001-02.

Lee's first NFL coaching position came with the Dallas Cowboys in 2003, when he served as the team's offensive quality control coach. He added the title of quarterbacks coach for the 2005 season. In Lee's four years in Dallas, three different Cowboys quarterbacks threw for 3,000 yards in a single season, while a fourth, Tony Romo, went from being an undrafted college free agent in 2003 to a starter in 2006 and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

Overall, Lee possesses 29 years of experience at the collegiate level, including five as a head coach, when he served in that role at Texas-El Paso from 1989-93. In Lee's collegiate coaching career, nine of his former quarterbacks were either drafted or signed as free agents in the NFL following their collegiate stints.

Lee got his start in the coaching profession tutoring the quarterbacks and receivers at Tennessee-Martin from 1975-76. A one-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt (1977) preceded a five-year run in the same role at Ole Miss, from 1978-82. He moved on to head up the offense at New Mexico in 1983 before embarking on his initial stint at Arkansas. Over that five-year period with the Razorbacks (1984-1988), Arkansas compiled a composite record of 45-15-1 and appeared in a bowl game all five years, including an Orange Bowl and a Cotton Bowl. That success helped catapult him to the head coaching position at Texas-El Paso in 1989. After five seasons in that post, Lee became offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Rice University from 1994-2000. He returned to Arkansas in 2001, where for two years Lee tutored future NFL players Matt Jones and Tarvaris Jackson during their first two collegiate seasons, before taking on his first NFL coaching role, with the Cowboys in 2003.

A three-year letterman as a quarterback at Vanderbilt (1972-74), Lee was the team captain and the most valuable player as a senior in 1974 when he led the Southeastern Conference in passing. That same year, he helped the Commodores to a record of 7-3-2, including a 24-10 upset win over No. 5-ranked Florida. In Lee's final two years there, Dolphins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells served as Vanderbilt's defensive coordinator. Lee earned his degree in history from Vanderbilt. A native of Dexter, Mo., he attended Woodham High School in Pensacola, Fla. Lee and his wife, Lynne, have two daughters, Dana and Shannon, and two sons, Brian and Jordan.

DOLPHINS RECORD IN PLAYOFF GAMES

In their 42-year history, the Dolphins are 20-20 in the playoffs. They own a record of 6-6 in First-Round/Wild Card Playoffs, 7-9 in Divisional Playoffs, 5-2 in AFC Championships and 2-3 in Super Bowls. In addition, Miami is 15-7 at home, 3-10 on the road and 2-3 on neutral sites. Of the 40 playoff games in the history of the Dolphins, Miami has led at the half on 15 occasions and in those 15 games, the Dolphins are 11-4.

EVAN MARCUS
HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Ithaca College
NFL: Seventh Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Evan Marcus is entering his third season as the Dolphins' head strength and conditioning coach.

He joined the team after one season in the same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. Prior to that, he served in the same role at the University of Virginia from 2003-06. Marcus started in the NFL as the assistant strength coach with the New Orleans Saints from 2000-02. During that time the Saints posted a composite record of 26-22, won an NFC West title (2000) and captured the club's first-ever playoff win (2000).

Marcus also held assistant strength and conditioning posts at Arizona State (1991-92), Rutgers (1993), Maryland (1994), Texas (1995-97) and Louisville (1998-99). He is a 1990 graduate of Ithaca College, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science. He lettered three times as an offensive tackle on the school's football team and was a starter on the 1988 NCAA Division III National Championship squad. The native of Union, New Jersey went on to earn his master's degree in higher education from Arizona State in 1992. Marcus and his wife, Lori, have a son, Jake, and a daughter, Anna.

IN A ZONE

When the Dolphins registered wins at Oakland (33-21 on November 27) and at San Diego (23-21 on December 11) in 2005, it marked the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins had won two regular season games in Pacific time zone in the same season, as they now have won each of their last three such contests, dating back to 2004. In 1999, they won a regular season contest in Oakland and a playoff matchup in Seattle. Overall in their 42-year history, the Dolphins have compiled a regular season record of 18-19 in games played in Pacific time zone (1-0 at Arizona, 3-0 at L.A. Rams, 5-8 at Oakland/L.A. Raiders, 4-7 at San Diego, 3-2 at San Francisco and 2-2 at Seattle). They are 1-5 in the playoffs in Pacific time zone, a record which includes a loss to San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX in Palo Alto, Calif. Their lone playoff win in six tries occurred in a 1999 First-Round contest, a 20-17 decision over Seattle on January 9, 2000 in the last game played at the Kingdome. Miami travels to the Pacific Time zone once in 2010, when they face the Oakland Raiders on November 28.

MIKE NOLAN
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Oregon
NFL: 24th Season
DOLPHINS: First Season
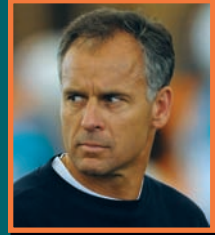

Mike Nolan was named the Dolphins' defensive coordinator on January 20, 2010. One of the most respected defensive coordinators in the NFL, Nolan has 12 years of experience in that capacity with five different teams: Denver (2009), Baltimore (2002-04), the New York Jets (2000), Washington (1997-99) and the New York Giants (1993-96).

Nolan joins Miami after spending last season as the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage in 2009, Denver's team defense improved to seventh overall in the NFL after a 29th place finish in 2008. Denver's pass defense was equally impressive, finishing third overall in the NFL, allowing 186.3 yards per game. Prior to joining the Broncos' staff, Nolan served as the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2005-08, following in the footsteps of his father, Dick, who coached that club for eight seasons from 1968-75 and had an 11-year NFL head coaching career.

The 49ers were one of the NFL's most consistent teams in stopping the run during Nolan's four years with the club, ranking fourth in the league in yards per carry allowed (3.9) during that period. Offensively, San Francisco's 4.3-yard rushing average over Nolan's four years was the eighth-best mark in the NFL.

Prior to San Francisco, Nolan served three years as Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2002-04, Nolan's group tied for the NFL lead in takeaways (106) while ranking fifth in the league in both points per game allowed (18.8) and third down percentage (34.7). Five Baltimore defenders earned a total of nine trips to the Pro Bowl, and Nolan instructed back-to-back AP NFL Defensive Players of the Year in Ray Lewis (2003) and Ed Reed (2004). After spending his first year (2001) in Baltimore as wide receivers coach, Nolan replaced Marvin Lewis as the club's defensive coordinator in 2002. He coached one of the league's youngest defenses in 2002, helping the Ravens post a franchise record and an AFC-high 25 interceptions while placing sixth in the league in opponent passer rating (73.4).

Nolan became the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1993 when the Giants hired him for that position at age 35. He spent eight consecutive seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Giants (1993-96), Redskins (1997-99) and Jets (2000). In his first year as a defensive coordinator with the Giants in 1993, Nolan's defense allowed an NFL low 12.8 points per game for the best mark by the club in 44 seasons.

Nolan's NFL coaching career began with the Broncos in 1987 as their special teams/linebackers coach, a position he held with the club through the 1992 campaign. He was a part of three teams that won the AFC West and helped the Broncos reach the Super Bowl during the 1987 (XXII) and '89 (XXIV) seasons.

Following a stint in the Broncos' 1981 training camp as a defensive back, Nolan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant that year at his alma mater, the University of Oregon. He was a three year starter at safety for the Ducks after beginning his collegiate playing career as a walk-on. Nolan landed his first full-time coaching job at Stanford University as its linebackers/defensive backs coach in 1982 and worked there for two years before serving in the same capacity at Rice University from 1984-85.

He spent 1986 as the linebackers coach for Louisiana State University before moving into the NFL coaching ranks with the Broncos in 1987.

A native of Baltimore, Nolan and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Michael, Christopher, Laura and Jennifer.

DAVE PULOKA
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Holy Cross
NFL: Fourth Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Dave Puloka is heading into his third season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having been named to his current post on January 28, 2008. He came to the club after spending the 2007 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Atlanta Falcons, his first year in the NFL.

Prior to embarking on his NFL stint, Puloka held the same post at the University of Virginia from 2005-06. He lettered in football and track at Holy Cross College (1997-2000), where he played defensive end and earned his degree in psychology. His career totals in football included 19 sacks. In football, he served as team captain each of his final two years when he was a first-team All-Patriot League performer both times. Following his collegiate career, he went to training camp with Cincinnati as an undrafted college free agent in 2001.

A product of Arlington (Mass.) High School, Puloka first started his coaching career as an assistant track coach at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and as a strength and conditioning coach in the Austrian Football League. He is a former high school state record holder in the discus. For several years growing up, Puloka lived on the island of Tonga in the South Pacific.

BIG 10 IS FIRST

Jared Odrick was the fourth consecutive player from the Big 10 to be drafted with Miami's first round selection in 2010, joining Vontae Davis (2009 - Illinois), Jake Long (2008 – Michigan) and Ted Ginn Jr. (2007 – Ohio State).

DARREN RIZZI
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: Rhode Island
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Darren Rizzi is entering his second season as both an NFL assistant a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff. He joined the Dolphins in 2009 with four years of experience as a college head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island.

Rizzi embarks on first NFL coaching position with a plethora of experience as a special teams coach. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at RU, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993. He moved on to staff at New Haven from 1994-97, one which was headed up by current Dolphins Head Coach Tony Sparano. He was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998 before returning to New Haven the following year.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All America selection in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career. A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

KACY RODGERS DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Tennessee
NFL: Eighth Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Kacy Rodgers is going into his third season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having joined the club after a five-year stint with the Dallas Cowboys (2003-07), the final three of which he tutored that team's defensive line.

Rodgers oversaw a unit that was highlighted by the emergence of Randy Starks, who posted a career-high seven sacks in 2009. Along with veterans Jason Ferguson and second-year players Phillip Merling and Kendall Langford the defensive line was a productive and reliable unit as an vital piece of the team's 3-4 defense.

Rodgers' first two years with the Cowboys (2003-04) were spent coaching the club's defensive tackles. Under Rodgers, defensive tackle La'Roi Glover was selected to the Pro Bowl each year from 2003-05. In four of Rodgers' five seasons with Dallas, the team ranked in the top ten in the NFL in rush defense, including a No. 6 finish in 2007 when they allowed an average of just 94.6 yards rushing per game.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Rodgers was an assistant at the collegiate level, including posts at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97), Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002). He tutored the defensive line at all four stops, while having also been assistant head coach at Tennessee-Martin (1997) and Middle Tennessee (2000-01).

Rodgers was a four-year letterman at the University of Tennessee (1988-91) where he played linebacker and defensive end on teams that won a pair of Southeastern Conference championships (1990, 1991) and appeared in three New Year's Day bowl games. He earned his degree in political science from the school in 1993. Following his playing career he went to training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 as a college free agent. He also played with the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian League in 1994. Rodgers is a native of Humboldt, Tennessee where he starred at Humboldt High School. He and his wife, Marcella, have a son, Kacy II.

	Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line (2000-01)
2002	Arkansas – Defensive Line Coach
2003-07	Dallas Cowboys – Defensive Tackles Coach (2003-04)
	Defensive Line Coach (2005-07)
2008-	Miami Dolphins – Defensive Line Coach

1972 DOLPHINS ONE OF 12 TO LEAD NFL IN POINTS SCORED AND ALLOWED

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

JAMES SAXON
RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: San Jose State
NFL: 19th Season
DOLPHINS: Sixth Season

James Saxon is entering his 11th season as an NFL assistant in 2010 and his third on the Miami coaching staff. Saxon, who also played with the Dolphins from 1992-94, joined the team's coaching staff in 2008 following a seven-year stint as the running backs coach with the Kansas City Chiefs.

In 2009, the tandem of Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown proved to be one of the most productive duos in the NFL and paced the Dolphins to the league's fourth-ranked rushing attack. Williams highlighted his remarkable season with his fifth career 1,000 yard season, which broke the NFL record for the longest span between 1,000 yard seasons. Brown continued to be a multi-dimensional threat as a key component in the Wildcat, while also continuing the pace that led to a Pro Bowl selection in 2008 before being sidelined following a Week Nine injury. First year running back Lex Hilliard proved to be up to the task taking over for Brown as he proved to be both a rushing and receiving threat during the second half of the season. Fullback Lousaka Polite garnered much deserved recognition as one of the league top fullback following a season which he was a reliable short yardage rusher as well as a punishing lead blocker.

In the past ten seasons as a coach Saxon's has had one of his pupils earn Pro Bowl status eight times, including in 2008 when Ronnie Brown, who was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career, led the Dolphins with 916 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns on 214 carries, a 4.3-yard average per attempt.

During Saxon's seven-year stint with the Chiefs, three different backs were voted to the Pro Bowl a total of seven times, including running backs Priest Holmes (2001-03) and Larry Johnson (2005-06), as well as fullback Tony Richardson (2003-04). Holmes and Johnson combined for five 1,000-yard rushing seasons over that stretch, while each of the top four and five of the top six single-season rushing performances in Chiefs history were accounted for in Saxon's tenure with the team. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Saxon held the same position with the Buffalo Bills in 2000. His first coaching position came tutoring the running backs at Rutgers University from 1997-98. He was a volunteer assistant for one year (1999) at Menlo College in California before entering the NFL ranks.

Saxon was a sixth-round draft choice of the Chiefs in 1988 and went on to play eight seasons as a running back in the NFL. This included stints with Kansas City (1988-91), Miami (1992-94) and Philadelphia (1995). Overall, he played in 111 career regular season games and rushed for 533 yards and five touchdowns on 145 attempts and caught 69 passes for 515 yards. He joined the Dolphins as a Plan B free agent during the 1992 offseason. In fact, Saxon is the eighth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins, joining Jeff Dellenbach, Bob Matheson, Tony Nathan, Bernie Parmalee, Terry Robiskie, Larry Seiple and Dwight Stephenson.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College in California, where he played from 1984-85. He went on to spend two seasons at San Jose State (1986-87) where he totaled 609 yards rushing and nine TDs on 118 carries, and caught 78 passes for 732 yards and four TDs. He also threw for four scores during his two-year stay with the Spartans. He attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina. Saxon and his wife, Shannon, have a son, Devin, who attends Harvard University and is a quarterback on the school's football team.

JAMES SAXON'S COACHING CAREER

1997-98	Rutgers – Running Backs Coach
1999	Menlo College – Volunteer Assistant
2000	Buffalo Bills – Running Backs Coach
2001-07	Kansas City Chiefs – Running Backs Coach
2008-	Miami Dolphins – Running Backs Coach

BILL SHERIDAN
LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Grand Valley State
NFL: Sixth Season
DOLPHINS: First Season

Bill Sheridan was named the Dolphins linebackers coach on January 19, 2010. Prior to joining the Dolphins he had spent the previous five seasons with the New York Giants (2005-09).

Sheridan joins Miami after spending the 2009 season at the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants. He spent the previous four seasons as the team's linebackers coach. Prior to joining the Giants, Sheridan spent three seasons at the University of Michigan, the first as linebackers coach and the last two as defensive line coach. He was also the school's recruiting coordinator in 2002-2003 and netted a pair of classes that were rated among the 10 best in the country.

Sheridan began his coaching career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Mich. from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army - from 1987-95. In 1996 and 97, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point. He then put in a three-year stint as the linebackers coach at Michigan State. Sheridan spent the 2001 season at Notre Dame, where he coached safeties and special teams. He moved to Michigan the following year.

A native of Detroit, Sheridan earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He graduated from De La Salle High School in Detroit. Sheridan and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

BROTHERS FIRST

When the Dolphins made safety Vontae Davis their first-round draft choice in 2009, he joined his brother, San Francisco 49ers tight end Vernon Davis (2006), as the third set of brothers to both be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. The last set of brothers that were both selected in the first round were Indianapolis Colts quarterback Peyton Manning and New York Giants quarterback Eli Manning. Peyton Manning was the first overall pick in the 1998 draft, while his brother Eli was the first choice of the San Diego Chargers in the 2004 draft (and was later traded to the New York Giants). Tackle Stockar McDougle (2000 by Detroit) and younger brother, defensive end Jerome (2003 by Philadelphia) were the first pair of brothers to both be NFL first-round draft selections.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: Maine
NFL: 12th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Brian Gaine was named the Dolphins' Assistant Director of Player Personnel on January 15, 2008 and will be entering his 12th season in NFL personnel.

He is responsible for directing pro scouting operations for the Dolphins, including player evaluation on all levels of professional football, advance scouting, free agency and tracking transactional player movement. Gaine is additionally responsible for participating in player evaluation of college prospects in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Before arriving in Miami, Gaine spent the previous three seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' Assistant Director of Pro Scouting, where he worked with Dolphins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Bill Parcells (2005-06), General Manager Jeff Ireland (2005-07) and Head Coach Tony Sparano (2005-07).

With Dallas, Gaine contributed to the Cowboys' player acquisition process by managing pro scouting operations and evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and all other levels of professional football. Additional responsibilities included advance scouting, free agency preparation, tracking of player movement and directing the development of the Cowboys' pro scouting database.

Gaine went to Dallas after spending six years (1999-2004) in the New York Jets' scouting department, including serving as the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2004. Prior to that promotion, he functioned as a pro scout for the Jets from 2001-03. In 2000, he was the Jets' Manager of Pro Development/NFC where his duties included pro player evaluation and advance scouting as well as the scouting and tracking of players in other professional leagues such as NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena League. Gaine began his personnel career as a member of the Jets' college scouting department in 1999.

Prior to joining the Jets in a front office capacity, he served as a member of the team's practice squad in 1996, while he also was with the Giants' practice squad in 1997. He then signed and spent the 1998 offseason with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was waived prior to the start of training camp.

Gaine attended the University of Maine from 1991-95 where he played tight end. He served as the Black Bears' captain his senior season and earned his degree in public administration from the Orono, Maine school. Gaine grew up in Pearl River, N.Y., and attended Don Bosco Prep High School in Ramsey, N.J. He and his wife, Tricia, have a daughter, Kelsey, and sons, Ryan and Connor.

CROSSING THE BORDER

When the Dolphins took on the Buffalo Bills on December 7, 2008 at Toronto's Rogers Centre, it marked the second consecutive year in which they have played a regular season game outside the United States – the most by any NFL team. In 2007, they faced the New York Giants on October 28 at London's Wembley Stadium in just the second NFL regular season game to be staged outside of the U.S., and the first outside North America. The game in Toronto marked the regular season debut of NFL football in Canada.

CHRIS GRIER
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

COLLEGE: Massachusetts
DOLPHINS: 11th Season

Chris Grier begins his 11th season with the Dolphins and his third as the team's Director of College Scouting. He served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02 before being promoted to National Scout/Assistant Director of College Scouting in 2003. He joined the club after spending the previous five years in the personnel department with the New England Patriots.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000.

Grier is a 1994 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Grier is the son of Bobby Grier, the former Vice President-Player Personnel with the New England Patriots who currently is the Associate Pro Personnel Director with the Houston Texans. Chris' brother, Michael, plays for the NHL's Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.

CHRIS SHEA
PLAYER PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATOR

COLLEGE: Boston College
NFL: 12th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Chris Shea is in his 12th NFL season, third with the Dolphins, and first as the club's Player Personnel Administrator. He previously served as Player Personnel Coordinator in 2008-09. In his current position, Shea manages the operations of the Player Personnel and Football Administration Departments. He coordinates pro and college scouting operations, oversees NFL Draft preparations, scouts NFL and college players, and directs the development of player personnel-related technology. Shea works closely with senior management on football administration matters, including CBA and League compliance, player contract negotiations, contract drafting, player payroll management, grievances, and communication with the NFL Management Council. He also analyzes league-wide player personnel and contract trends. Shea possesses a diverse background in coaching, recruiting, scouting, the salary cap, officiating, corrections, and the law. He has worked for four NFL teams, the NFL Management Council and two NCAA football programs.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Shea was the Coordinator of Labor Operations for the NFLMC (2007-08). He was responsible for reviewing all NFL player contracts to ensure teams complied with the CBA and NFL Policy. Shea advised club executives on player contract and salary cap issues, was a speaker at the NFL Labor Seminar, and participated in a strategic group developing proposals for the next round of NFL/NFLPA collective bargaining. He also served as an Instant Replay Communicator for the NFL Officiating Department.

While attending Hofstra University School of Law from 2004-07, Shea began his tenure at the NFLMC in 2007 as a Law Clerk focusing on player-related litigation. During this period, he was also employed as a Law Clerk at the New York labor law firm of Colleran, O'Hara and Mills (2006-07), a student advocate for the Unemployment Action Center (2006-07) and as a Scouting Consultant with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-06). Shea was President of the Hofstra Law School Sports & Entertainment Law Society (2006-07).

Shea spent 2000-04 as the New York Jets' Pro Personnel Assistant. He joined the Jets from collegiate positions as the Football Recruiting Assistant at Boston College (1998 –2000) and the Asst. Offensive Line Coach for Harvard University (1997-98). While at Harvard, he coached four future NFL players including Pro Bowl center Matt Birk. He broke into the NFL in 1995 as an operations intern for the Carolina Panthers. Shea was the Head Student Football Manager at Boston College from 1994-96, and Varsity Student Football Manager from 1992-93. In 1991-92, he served as a Temporary Corrections Officer in Middlesex County (Mass.) Sheriff's Department. Shea was an assistant coach at Belmont (Mass.) High School in 1991.

A native of Belmont, Mass., Shea was a varsity linemen at Belmont High School. He is a graduate of Northfield Mount Hermon prep school, received a B.A. in history from Boston College (which included classes at Harvard University), and earned his Juris Doctor degree from the Hofstra University School of Law. Shea passed the New York State Bar Exam.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Cornell
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: First Season

Ryan Herman is entering his third season in the NFL and first with the Dolphins as the club's Football Administration Coordinator. In his role with the Dolphins, Herman is responsible for daily NFL player contract and marketplace analysis, assisting with the team's player contract and payroll management, preparing for and contributing to the club's contract negotiations, conducting various statistical and salary cap related studies, providing strategic legal insight and analysis, and coordinating with the NFL regarding player contracts and grievances.

Herman served as a legal intern in the Labor Law Department of Proskauer Rose, L.L.P., where he provided litigation support to numerous Major League Baseball Clubs during player salary arbitration hearings. Upon graduating from Cornell in 2004, Herman enrolled at Hofstra University School of Law, where he focused on labor and employment law, and served as a law clerk for the NFL Management Council from 2006 to 2007. During his tenure at the NFLMC, Herman assisted League attorneys in all aspects of the grievance process, drafted various legal pleadings and memoranda, conducted numerous League-wide analyses and legal studies, and provided litigation support to League attorneys during arbitration hearings. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Herman was as an attorney with the firm Solferino & Solferino, L.L.P., and practiced commercial litigation in Mineola, New York.

Herman was born and raised in Northport, New York, where his mother (Kate) and two brothers (Taylor and Kyle) currently reside. He received a B.S. in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University, and earned his J.D., cum laude, from Hofstra University School of Law in 2007. He became a member of the New York State Bar in November, 2008.

RON BROCKINGTON
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: Massachusetts
NFL: 14th Season
DOLPHINS: Fifth Season

Ron Brockington is entering his fifth season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the New York Jets, including the final seven as a scout. Brockington is responsible for the Mid-States in the Dolphins' scouting system.

Brockington started full-time with the Jets in 1997 when he worked in the team's personnel department. After two years as an assistant in player personnel, he was elevated to a scout for the 1999 season.

Brockington is a 1997 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he lettered as a running back for three seasons (1994-96). He had his best year as a senior when he led the team with 776 yards rushing and six touchdowns on 123 attempts. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management. During the summers while he was in college (1993-96), Brockington worked in the Jets' operations department where he served in a myriad of roles. From 1991-93, he worked in the club's equipment room as a student assistant. As a high school student, he also helped in the team's marketing department in the summer of 1990.

Brockington is a native of Hempstead, N.Y., where he was a two-time All-Long Island running back (1990-91) at Hempstead High School. He resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Aixa, daughters, Dajanae and Savaya, and son, Christopher.

CHUCK COOK
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: Southern Mississippi
NFL: 27th Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

Chuck Cook is entering his second season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the past 12 seasons as the Director of College Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs. The 2009 season will mark the 26th season Cook has spent elevating talent at the NFL level. He is responsible for scouting the Southwest in the Dolphins' system.

While in Kansas City, Cook was most recently in charge of coordinating the Chiefs' college scouting and preparation for the annual NFL Draft after being promoted to the position in May of 1997. Prior to his elevation, he spent 13 years as a regional scout for the Chiefs focusing primarily on the Southeast region of the United States. Cook joined the NFL ranks in 1984 when he was originally hired by Kansas City after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers (1982-83). He began his coaching career at the University of Wyoming during the 1980-81 seasons.

Cook starred as a wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Miss and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1993. Following his collegiate career, he was a member of training camps with the New York Giants and New York Jets prior to embarking on his off-field career. Cook followed the path of his father, Hamp, who served as a scout for the New Orleans Saints for many years.

A native of Andalusia, Alabama, Cook earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Mississippi. He and his wife, Carla, have twin daughters, Carley and Cori, and a son Colby.

ADAM ENGROFF
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: Kansas State
DOLPHINS: 12th Season

Adam Engroff is entering his 12th season with the team and his seventh as a college scout after spending 2001 as the club's college scouting coordinator. In his current role, Engroff covers the western portion of the country in the team's scouting system.

Engroff first joined the Dolphins in 1999 in the team's college scouting department. During that time, he performed a myriad of functions, including college scouting and draft preparation. Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Engroff worked in football operations for the Orange Bowl Committee from 1998-99. He also worked for the Prep Recruiting Network from 1997-98, where he scouted high school football players.

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Engroff received his undergraduate degree from Kansas State in 1997. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla., in 2000.

Engroff and his wife, Beth, reside in Boise, Idaho, with their sons, Austin and Brody.

ANTHONY HUNT
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: St. Thomas
NFL: 17th Season
DOLPHINS: 17th Season

Anthony Hunt begins his 17th season with the Dolphins and his 11th as a college scout. As one of the team's national scouts, Hunt is responsible for the Eastern half of the United States in the Dolphins' system. Hunt has covered the Northeast, Southeast, Southwest and parts of the Midwest as a regional scout in previous years. He also was the team's BLESTO representative his first few seasons as a scout.

Hunt joined the Dolphins in 1994 following his graduation from St. Thomas University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Hunt served as a scouting assistant in both the college and pro personnel departments during his first six years with the club.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School. Hunt and his wife, Suzy, reside in Flemington, N.J., with their two sons, Keaton and Marshall and daughter, Jolie.

RON LABADIE
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: Adrian
DOLPHINS: 21st Season

Ron Labadie enters his 21st year of service with the Dolphins in 2008. He spent his first 11 years with the club (1990-2000) as a college scout before spending the next six (2001-06) as the team's Director of College Scouting. As one of the team's regional scouts, Labadie focuses on the East Coast with regional responsibilities in the states of Ohio and Michigan.

Labadie joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. In his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, the team posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and 1989, as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall (Mich.) High School (1974-81), where he compiled a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and 1977.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilynn, have three children, Lisa (33), Brad (30) and Ben (26), and three grandsons, Gabe, Turner and Mason, and two granddaughters, Lucy and Grace.

MIKE MURPHY
REGIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: William Jewell
NFL: 15th Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Mike Murphy is entering his third season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous three seasons (2005-07) as a national scout with the Dallas Cowboys. The 2010 season marks Murphy's 15th in an NFL scouting department during which time he now has served with four clubs. He is responsible for scouting the South in the Dolphins' system.

Murphy got his start in the NFL as a pro personnel assistant in the scouting department of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-99. He moved on to the role as Midwest scout with the Seattle Seahawks in 2000 and served five years in that post before joining the Cowboys in 2005.

Before entering the NFL scouting ranks, Murphy was a coach at both the professional and collegiate levels. He first served on the staff at Iowa State as a graduate assistant from 1990-91, while pursuing his master's degree in higher education. He moved on to Arizona Western for one season (1992) prior to a two-year stint at Bethel College in Tennessee (1993-94), where he was that school's offensive coordinator. Two years as linebackers and special teams coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian League (1995-96) preceded his move into NFL scouting. He also spent one year (1989) assisting in the personnel department of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers, where his father, Cal, was the General Manager and Head Coach. In fact, Mike's father was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 2004 following a 26-year career as both a coach and general manager in the CFL (1974-99) during which time he led teams that claimed nine Grey Cup championships.

A native of Vancouver, British Columbia, Murphy earned his degree in physical education from William Jewell College. He and his wife, Camille, were married on May 3, 2008. They have two girls, Tyler and Meagan, and make their home in Sarasota, Fla.

JOE SCHOEN
NATIONAL SCOUT

COLLEGE: DePauw
NFL: Tenth Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

Joe Schoen begins his third season as a part of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending his first seven years in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers.

Schoen joined the Panthers in May of 2001 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to Southeast National Combine Scout one year later. In 2003, he began to scout the Southwest in Carolina's system. Prior to joining the Panthers on a full-time basis, he interned in the team's ticket office in January of 2000 while also having worked in the club's training camp later that same year in football operations.

Schoen was a three-year letterman at DePauw University (1997-2000) where he played quarterback as a freshman and wide receiver his final three years. As a senior he was named the Thomas Mount Offensive Player of the Year while also being selected as a first-team All-Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference choice as he set the school single-season record for receptions with 80 (now 2nd). Overall in his collegiate career he amassed 153 receptions for 1,861 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranks fifth in school history in receptions and sixth in receiving yards. Schoen, who earned his degree in communications from the Greencastle, Indiana school, also was named to the SCAC Academic Honor Roll his senior year.

A graduate of Elkhart (Ind.) Memorial High School, Schoen and his wife, Marie, have a daughter, Sydney Burke, and a son, Carson William. They make their home in Frisco, Texas.

STOFA TRADED TWICE BY DOLPHINS

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on December 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first- and second-round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on November 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

DWAYNE JOSEPH
PRO SCOUT

COLLEGE: Syracuse
NFL: 14th Season
DOLPHINS: Seventh Season

Dwayne Joseph is entering his seventh season with the Dolphins, having served as a pro scout in five of the previous six. He was Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2007. Before joining the Dolphins, he spent the six years (1998-2003) with the Chicago Bears, including the final three as Director of Player Development.

Joseph began his career with the Bears as a cornerback after signing with the club as an undrafted college free agent in 1994. After spending a majority of his rookie season on the team's practice squad, Joseph played in all 16 games, including one start, in 1995. He recorded 42 tackles, two interceptions, four passes defensed and a forced fumble that year. He spent the 1996 season on injured reserve before being released in training camp the following year. After concluding his playing career, Joseph was hired by the Bears in 1998 as Coordinator of Player Programs before being promoted in 2001.

In 2005, Joseph was the Dolphins' representative at the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers. During the 2007 offseason, he was chosen to participate in the NFL Football Operations Personnel Symposium in Dallas.

Joseph was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Syracuse where he served as team captain his senior season. He earned his undergraduate degree in human development and went on for a master's in education leadership from DePaul University. A native of Miami, Joseph attended Carol City High School. He is married with two sons.

DOLPHINS SEND 159 PLAYERS TO PRO BOWL

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a Dolphin has been selected to play in the Pro Bowl a total of 162 times, including three following the 2009 season and 25 over the last seven years. Over the course of those 39 seasons, 93 offensive players, 62 defensive players and seven special teams players have been chosen. The position that has been represented the most is guard, which has occurred on 19 occasions. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The 2010 Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders squad consists of 40 ladies who perform on the sidelines to bring spirit and excitement to every Dolphins home game. The squad is diverse with girls from six countries and ten states who come together to rehearse three nights each week, cheer at the Dolphins games on Sundays and appear at a variety of community appearances. When these ladies are not performing, they are teachers, sales representatives, legal assistants, physical therapists, nurses, account executives and full-time students.

HEIGHT: 7-0
WEIGHT: All Mussels
ACQUIRED: FA, 1997
NFL: 14th Season
DOLPHINS: 14th Season

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals, and various other functions.

A seven-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and over 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please fill out the appearance request form at www.miamidolphins.com or e-mail Mascotmail@miamidolphins.com.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years there, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

SUN LIFE STADIUM

Sun Life Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, Florida Marlins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Orange Bowl game, the 2013 BCS National Championship, and other world-class events. This multi-purpose, open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

Sun Life Stadium is one of only two facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue (McAfee Coliseum in Oakland). In 2007, the stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, new leading edge technology and superior amenities. Additional enhancements were made in 2009 with the refurbishment of concession stands, installation of flat-screen TV's, renovation of the end zone executive suites, and the creation of the sideline club and lounge among many others. More enhancements are planned in 2010 to maintain the facility among the finest in the world.

HISTORY

Now in its 24th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, multi-purpose, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, more than 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls staged at Land Shark Stadium are Super Bowl XXIX (January 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (January 31, 1999) and Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007).

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, the stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Sun Life Stadium.

On the field, Sun Life Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by owner Wayne Huizenga. In April 2006, Dolphins Enterprises CEO Joe Bailey announced and unveiled the new stadium logo and modified name. The stadium was named Dolphin Stadium and a new modern looking dolphin in orange, teal, blue and platinum colors with the words Dolphin Stadium was unveiled as the new stadium logo. Also unveiled were the two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006. The installation of the new technology was just the beginning of a historic transformation.

Working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new Club Level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, H. Wayne Huizenga sold fifty percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Mr. Huizenga remained the Managing General Partner of the franchise until he sold another forty-five percent of the team and stadium to Ross in January, 2009. Ross becomes General Managing Partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retains a five percent share of both and remains a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Mr. Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brings Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performs three songs and unveils the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

On January 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the leading international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation. The partnership's impact will be felt beyond the stadium and into the South Florida community. The two organizations have teamed up to bring the Sun Life Rising Star Awards program to South Florida through an annual donation to the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Sun Life Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, Florida Marlins baseball, University of Miami college football, the stadium is home to the Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game following the 1997, 2000, 2004 and 2008 seasons). The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls, including Super Bowl XLIV and the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003.

The stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, international soccer, Monster Jam, various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts have also been performed at the stadium, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync, The Police and Madonna.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Sun Life Stadium's 190 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The 10, 12, 16, 20, 24 and 32-seat suites offer air conditioning and DirecTV access with NFL Sunday Ticket, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 Club Level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars, a variety of concession areas, sit-down restaurants, Sports Fantasy Lounge and the Miccosukee Chairman's Club. The protective overhang is also a unique element of the Club Level seats.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Located in the east end zone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 150 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or other event in style. In addition to Club Level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers luxurious oversized seats, an exquisite buffet, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator, 21 televisions and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Centerplate, are available on all levels and include the Everglades BBQ, Boar's Head, Papa Johns and Edy's Ice Cream. On the Club Level, premium food stations feature delicacies such as sushi, coal-fire pizza, hand-carved sandwiches, sauté dishes, fresh baked desserts and much more.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Sun Life Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience through its commitment to technology, entertainment and customer service. Additional improvements and innovations will take place every year to maintain the stadium as the premier showplace of the Americas.

DOLPHINS TRAINING FACILITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 93,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Dolphin Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Dolphin Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova Southeastern can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2010

S YERAMIAH BELL
– Bell is looking to garner 100 or more tackles for the third consecutive season. He notched a career-high 120 tackles in 2008 and followed this up with 113 in 2009.

WR DAVONE BESS. . .
– Looks to have the most receptions in team history in his first three seasons. Bess had 130 receptions in his first two seasons. WR Chris Chambers (2001-03) had 164 receptions in his first three seasons while WR Oronde Gadsden (2001-03) notched 152 catches. RB Troy Stradford (1987-89) also has 129 receptions.
– With 70 catches, Bess will have notched 200 for his career. Bess had a career-high 76 receptions in 2009.

RB RONNIE BROWN. . .
– Currently has 4,081 rushing yards and needs 919 yards to become the third rusher in team history to reach 5,000 rushing yards, joining Larry Csonka (6,737) and Ricky Williams (5,763).
– With a 1,000-yard rushing season, would become just the third Dolphin to account for multiple 1,000 yard seasons, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73) and Ricky Williams (2002-03, 2009).
– Currently has 31 rushing touchdowns. Brown needs two touchdowns to tie Karim Abdul-Jabbar for the third-most rushing scores in team history.
– Currently has 15 100-yard rushing games in his career and is tied with Larry Csonka for second in team history. His next 100-yard rushing game would move Brown into sole possession of second place, trailing Ricky Williams with 24.

T VERNON CAREY. . .
– Enters 2010 having played in 92 consecutive contests. He can become just the tenth player in team history to see action in 100 ore more consecutive games.

CB VONTAE DAVIS. . .
– Led the team with four interceptions in 2009 as a rookie and is looking to become the first player to lead the team in interceptions in consecutive seasons since 2002-03 when Patrick Surtain had team highs of six in 2002 followed by seven in 2003.
– If Davis leads the team in interceptions this season, he will become the first player to lead the team in interceptions in the first two seasons of his NFL career in Miami since Louis Oliver led the team with four in 1989 and then tied for the team lead with five in 1990. No player in team history has led the team in interceptions in their first two seasons of their NFL career outright.

WR BRIAN HARTLINE. . .
– Led the team in touchdown receptions with three as a rookie and is looking to become the first player to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since Chris Chambers paced the team with seven TDs in 2004 and followed with 11 scores in 2005.
– If Hartline leads the team in touchdowns this season, he will become the first player to lead the team in touchdowns in the first two seasons of his NFL career in Miami since Oronde Gadsden tied for the team in touchdowns in 1998 with seven TDs and paced the team with six scores in 1999.
– Led the team in average yards per catch with 16.3 and is looking the first player to lead Miami in average yards per catch in consecutive seasons since Oronde Gadsden led the team in average yards per reception 1998 with 14.9 and 16.7 in 1999.

CHAD HENNE. . .
– Has 2,878 career passing yards, good for eighth all time in team history. Needs 118 passing yards to surpass Gus Frerotte (2,996) for seventh place in team history.
– Has seven wins as a starting quarterback, good for ninth in team history. Henne needs two wins to tie Gus Frerotte (nine), four to tie Earl Morrall and Chad Pennington (11) and seven to tie Don Strock (14).

BRANDON MARSHALL. . .
– Looks to catch over 100 receptions for the fourth consecutive season. At Denver, Marshall had 102 catches in 2007, 104 in 2008 and 101 in 2009. No receiver has caught 100 passes in a season in team history. The team record for receptions is 90 by O.J. McDuffie in 1998.

RB RICKY WILLIAMS. . .
– With 5,763 rushing yards with the Dolphins, he needs 237 yards to become the second player in team history with 6,000 rushing yards, joining Larry Csonka (6,737).
– With 8,892 career rushing yards, he needs 1,108 yards to reach 10,000 in his career.
– With 1,350 rushing attempts with the Dolphins, he needs 157 attempts to move past Larry Csonka for the highest amount in team history (1,506 attempts).
– With 46 rushing touchdowns with the Dolphins, he needs eight rushing scores to move past Larry Csonka (53) for most rushing touchdowns in team history.
– In 2009, Williams became the seventh running back in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season in which they were 32+ years old at the start of the season. If Williams rushes for 1,347 yards, he would tie John Riggins for the highest total for a running back over 32 years of age.

DOLPHINS ARE AMONG THE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are tied with the Pittsburgh Steelers for highest regular season winning percentage in the NFL with a record of 373-242-2 (.606). In addition, the Dolphins have the second-highest overall winning percentage over that time span (behind the Pittsburgh Steelers) with an overall mark of 394-265-2 (.598).

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only six teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Chicago, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and San Diego have each had four players recognized as the NFL Man of the Year, while Miami and Cincinnati both boast three award winners.

FINS FACT Having three kids of his own, Will enjoys spending his time away from the field working with children. He hopes to make a difference by being directly involved in his philanthropic endeavors. While with the Giants, he spoke at various schools, Pop Warner banquets and youth football camps, while also working with the Ronald McDonald House and at-risk teen boys. He continues that support with the Dolphins. He is part of the "All-Community Team," in which he donates tickets for every home game to various children's groups. "There are a lot of kids out there that think their lives just are not going the way they want them to go," Will says. "Sometimes they just need that extra push, as far as somebody bringing a smile to their face or letting them see you were actually in the same situation they are in and it doesn't have to turn out bad."

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Signed with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent from the Giants on March 20, 2006 . . . Originally drafted by the Giants in the first round (22nd overall) in 2001, with a choice obtained from Indianapolis in a draft-day trade-up.

2009 - Started the first six games of the season before suffering a knee injury that ultimately placed him on injured reserve . . . At the time of his injury he ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 21 stops, was second with six passes defensed and led the team in interceptions with two picks he returned for 27 yards . . . Had six tackles and one pass defensed in the season opener at Atlanta (9/13) . . . Tied for the team lead in tackles with seven stops at San Diego (9/27) . . . Registered a season-high three passes defensed and four tackles, including three solo tackles, vs. Seattle

(11/9) . . . Had five tackles, including one sack, vs. Oakland (11/16), tackling Raiders quarterback JaMarcus Russell for an 11-yard loss . . . Chipped in with three solo tackles, including a tackle for loss, and a pressure on Matt Cassel vs. New England (11/23) . . . Matched a season high with five solo tackles along with a pressure on Marc Bulger at St. Louis (11/30) . . . Provided a huge swing of momentum in Toronto against Buffalo (12/7), as he picked off a J.P. Losman pass in the end zone to stop a late Bills drive and keep Miami's lead at 13-3 in the Dolphins' eventual 16-3 win . . . Matched a playoff career high with five solo tackles vs. Baltimore (1/4/09).

2007 - Started all 16 games at cornerback, the team's only defensive back to open every contest on the year, and, along with DE Jason Taylor, one of only two players on defense to do it . . . Was an All-Pro selection by Sports Illustrated . . . Collected 62 tackles, a pair of sacks, an interception, a team-high 14 passes defensed and two forced fumbles . . . Tackle total ranked third on the team and led club's defensive backs . . . . Key part of a backfield that ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense . . . Produced a season-high six tackles in opener at Washington (9/9), a figure he matched in contest at Buffalo (12/9) . . . Came up with a season-high three passes defensed in game against N.Y. Giants in London (10/28) . . . Sacks came in consecutive weeks; in Monday night game at Pittsburgh (11/26) and vs. N.Y. Jets (12/2), the first Dolphins DB to post sacks in back to back games since Terry Cousin in games 14-15 of 2001. . . Allen also forced fumbles in both the Steelers and Jets contests . . . In the Jets game, jarred the ball loose from Kellen Clemens on a sack, as it was recovered by Michael Lehan, who returned it 43 yards for a touchdown . . . Game at Buffalo (12/9) marked the 100th regular season contest of his career while he made his 100th career start the following week against Baltimore (12/16).

2006 - Started all 15 games in which he appeared at left cornerback in his first season with the Dolphins . . . Only game he missed was Thanksgiving Day affair at Detroit (11/23) after sustaining a groin injury in the previous contest, vs. Minnesota (11/19) . . . It snapped a string of 42 straight games in which he had played and started . . . Registered 56 tackles, a sack, an interception, 11 passes defensed, three fumble recoveries and a forced fumble . . . Also was credited with a stop on special teams . . . Led team and tied for second in the AFC with three opponents' fumble recoveries . . . His 11 passes defensed tied for second on the team . . . In opener at Pittsburgh, had a key recovery of a Charlie Batch fumble in the fourth quarter after the Steelers had a first-and-goal from the one . . . Two weeks later in win over Tennessee (9/24), stripped the ball from Titans TE Bo Scaife at the Dolphins' 2 following a 22-yard reception, with André Goodman recovering and returning it 31 yards . . . Had best game of year at Houston (10/1) when he tallied eight tackles, in addition to his first interception as a Dolphin, when he wrestled the ball away from Andre Johnson and returned it 11 yards . . . In the Texans game, also was credited with three passes defensed and the second sack of his NFL career – his first since September 26, 2004 against Cleveland as a member of the Giants . . . Recorded fumble recoveries in consecutive contests; vs. Jacksonville (12/3) and vs. New England (12/10) . . . In the Jaguars game, pounced on a Matt Jones fumble (forced by Goodman) at the Dolphins' 17 . . . Recovered a Daniel Graham fumble (forced by Channing Crowder) at the Patriots' 39, leading to an Olindo Mare field goal in the Dolphins' 21-0 win over New England . . .

   FUMBLE RECOVERIES: Allen accounted for three opponents' fumble recoveries in 2006, matching his total from his first five NFL seasons combined . . . In addition, his total tied for the second-highest figure in both the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only Kansas City DE Jared Allen . . . His total also tied with Pittsburgh S Ryan Clark for the most among defensive backs:

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO

The most recent modification to the Dolphins' logo was made prior to the 1997 season. This marked just the third logo change in franchise history, and the first since 1972.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1972, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach. Also, there have been two father-son coaching tandems in franchise history, as both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

Led the Dolphins in rushing at time of injury with 147 carries for 648 yards and eight touchdowns, had 14 receptions for 98 yards and was 2-6 passing for 22 yards and one touchdown . . . At the time of his injury he ranked fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in rushing and was tied for fourth in the AFC and tied for sixth in the NFL in scoring among non-kickers . . . Led the team in rushing seven times in 2009 . . . The Dolphins were 2-1 in games when he had 20 or more rushing attempts in 2009 and in his five seasons they are 10-5 in those games . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with ten carries for 43 yards and added three catches for ten yards at Atlanta (9/13)   . . . Topped the Dolphins in rushing with 24 carries for 136 yards and two touchdowns, coming on runs of 14 and three yards vs. Indianapolis (9/21) . . . In the Wildcat formation he had seven carries for 62 yards and a touchdown vs. the Colts . . . In Colts contest the Dolphins rushed for 239 yards, the most rushing yards by Miami since Dec. 1, 2002 when they rushed for 270 yards at Buffalo . . . His two touchdowns rushing in the Indianapolis game marked the fourth time in his career he rushed for two or more touchdowns in the same game . . . In the contest he passed Tony Nathan and moved into fifth place among the Dolphins all-time rushing yardage leaders . . . He also tied Don Nottingham for sixth place among the Dolphins' all-time rushing touchdown leaders . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 18 carries for 75 yards at San Diego (9/27) . . . Also added three catches for 40 yards, including a 27-yard reception . . . In the San Diego contest he passed Jim Kiick and moved into fourth place among the Dolphins all-time rushing yardage leaders . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 20 carries for 115 yards and two touchdowns vs. Buffalo (10/4) . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and four yards . . . It was the second game this season and the 15th time in his career he rushed for 100 yards, tying him with Larry Csonka for second place on the Dolphins' all-time list of 100-yard rushing games . . . His two touchdowns rushing in the game was the second time in 2009 and the fifth time in his career he rushed for two or more touchdowns in the same game . . . In the Bills contest he passed Don Nottingham to move into sixth place among the Dolphins' all-time rushing touchdown leaders . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 21 carries for 74 yards and two touchdowns vs. N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . Also added three catches for 14 yards and was 1-2 passing, both out of the Wildcat formation, completing a 21-yard pass to Anthony Fasano . . . His two touchdowns came on runs of one and two yards . . . His two-yard TD run came with six seconds left in the game in a Wildcat formation to give the Dolphins a comeback 31-27 win . . . His two touchdowns rushing in the game was the third time in 2009 and the sixth time in his career he rushed for two or more touchdowns in the same game . . . His two rushing touchdowns in the game were the 28th and 29th rushing touchdowns of his career, moving him past Jim Kiick and into a tie for fourth place with Mercury Morris among the team's all-time rushing touchdown leaders . . . Had 16 carries for 48 yards and one touchdown, coming on an eight-yard TD run vs. New Orleans (10/25) . . . In that contest, he moved past Mercury Morris and into third place among the Dolphins career rushing leaders . . . He also broke a tie with Morris and moved into sole possession of fourth place among the team's all-time rushing touchdown leaders . . . He also moved ahead of Karim Abdul-Jabbar and into fourth place among the team's all-time rushing attempt leaders . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 15 carries for 48 yards and was 1-2 passing out of the Wildcat formation for one yard and a touchdown at New England (11/8) . . . His one-yard TD pass was to Joey Haynos . . . It was his first touchdown pass of the season and the second TD pass of his career . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on Nov. 18 with a foot injury he suffered against Tampa Bay (11/15) . . . Underwent surgery to his right foot on Nov. 20th by Dr. Bob Anderson in Charlotte, NC. . . .

PASSING: In 2009, Brown was 2-6 passing for 22 yards and one touchdown, a rating of 84.7 . . . Had a season-long 21-yard pass to Anthony Fasano vs. N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . Threw his second career touchdown on a one-yard completion to Joey Haynos at New England (11/8) . . . In his career, he is now 4-10 passing, becoming just the fifth non-quarterback in team history to have more than one completion in a career . . . He joins Jim Jensen (4-7), Tony Nathan (4-8), Marlin Briscoe (3-3) and Larry Seiple (3-3) . . . Of those five, only Brown, Briscoe and Nathan had more than one completion in a season; Briscoe was 3-3 in 1972 while Nathan was 3-4 in 1983 . . .

"WILDCAT" OFFENSE: In his 23 regular season games where the Dolphins have run the "Wildcat" formation, Brown has 102 carries for 604 yards (an average of 5.9 yards per carry) and seven touchdowns . . . He also is 3-8 for 41 yards with two touchdowns and two sacks for 17 yards in losses passing out of that formation and has lost one fumble . . . His complete regular season rushing breakdown is below:

2008 - Returned in 2008 from an ACL injury that cut short his 2007 season and proved to be one of the elite backs in the NFL as he capped a stellar season by being named to the AFC Pro Bowl team . . . Played in all 16 regular season games with 13 starts . . . For the fourth straight season led the team in rushing . . . Had 214 carries for 916 yards and ten touchdowns . . . Also added 33 catches for 254 yards and went 2-3 in pass attempts for 41 yards and a touchdown as he played a major role in the Dolphins "Wildcat" offense . . .

TOUCHDOWNS: Brown rushed for two or more touchdowns once in 2008 (four rushing touchdowns at New England (9/21)) with the Dolphins holding a 1-0 record . . . Went four straight games (games 2-5) in 2008 with at least one rushing touchdown per game . . . Became the first Dolphin to have a rushing touchdown in four straight games since Ricky Williams did so in games 2-5 in 2003 . . . This streak was one shy of the Dolphins' record of five straight games with at least one rushing touchdown, held by four different players, most recently by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in games 10-14 in 1997 . . . When he scored on a three-yard touchdown run at St. Louis (11/30), it was the 23rd rushing touchdown of his career, moving him past Andra Franklin and Lorenzo Hampton into sole possession of seventh place on the team's all-time rushing touchdown chart . . .

PASSING: In 2008, Brown was 2-3 passing for 41 yards and one touchdown, a rating of 149.3 . . . His first attempt was a 19-yard TD pass to Anthony Fasano off a "Wildcat" formation at New England (9/21) . . . His other completion was a 22-yard pass to David Martin at St. Louis (11/30) . . .

100-YARD GAMES: Recorded three 100-yard rushing games in 2008 (113 yards at New England (9/21), 125 yards vs. San Diego (10/5) and 101 yards vs. Oakland (11/16)) and the Dolphins were 3-0 in those contests . . .

LEADING THE TEAM: Brown led Miami in rushing in each of his first four years he was in the league (2005-08) . . . He is just the second Dolphin to lead the club in rushing four or more years:

MOST SEASONS LEADING THE DOLPHINS IN RUSHING

PLAYER	YEARS	NO.

"WILDCAT" OFFENSE: In the 14 regular season games where the Dolphins ran the "Wildcat" formation in 2008, Brown had 56 carries for 317 yards (an average of 5.7 yards per carry) and five touchdowns . . . He also was 1-2 for 19 yards and one touchdown passing out of that formation and lost one fumble . . .

HONORS: Was named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of September 21-22 when he had 17 carries for 113 yards and four touchdowns, and added a 19-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Fasano at New England (9/21) . . . It was the first weekly AFC honor of Brown's career . . . He became the first Dolphins running back to win that honor since Ricky Williams won the award for Week 14 of the 2002 season after he ran for 216 yards and two touchdowns vs. Chicago (12/9/02) . . . Coupled with Chad Pennington being named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of October 26-27, it was the first time since 1994 that the Dolphins had at least two different players win AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in the same season . . . That year, quarterback Dan Marino, wide receiver Mark Ingram and running back Bernie Parmalee each eared the award once in the regular season . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. N.Y. JETS (9/7): Had six carries for 23 yards and added three catches for 28 yards in the regular season opener . . .

AT ARIZONA (9/14): Recorded 11 carries for 25 yards and scored his first touchdown of the season at Arizona (9/14) . . . Added two catches for 19 yards . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (9/21): Was unleashed in the debut of the "Wildcat" offense and led the Dolphins in rushing with 17 carries for 113 yards and four touchdowns (coming on runs of two, 15, five and 62 yards) . . . Of those four touchdown runs, the first, third and fourth TD runs came on the direct snap "Wildcat" formation . . . Also displayed his passing touch as he was 1-1 in passing, throwing a 19-yard touchdown pass on an option play (also from the "Wildcat" formation) to TE Anthony Fasano . . . Also had one reception for nine yards . . . It was his first 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 11th 100-yard game of his career, moving him past Mercury Morris and into sole possession of third place on the Dolphins all-time list of 100-yard rushing games . . . His 113 yards on the ground gave him 2,678 career rushing yards, moving him past Delvin Williams (2,632 yards) and Mark Higgs (2,648 yards) into sole possession of seventh place on the Dolphins' all-time rushing list . . . His 62-yard run was the second-longest run of his career . . . In addition, he became the first player in Dolphins history to have three runs from scrimmage of 60 yards or longer in his career; he had been tied with Mercury Morris and Gary Davis with two such runs . . . His four rushing touchdowns established a Dolphins single-game record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, breaking the old mark of three, which had been achieved 14 previous times in the regular season and 15 times overall, including playoffs, by nine different players . . . His four touchdowns also tied a team record for most touchdowns in a game, achieved twice previously, by Paul Warfield on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit (four TD receptions) and Mark Ingram on Nov. 27, 1994 at the N.Y. Jets (also four TD catches) . . . The five touchdowns accounted for by Brown passing and running also is tied for the third highest single game total by a Dolphin (along with five games of five touchdown passes by Dan Marino), surpassed only by Bob Griese's six touchdown passes on Nov. 24, 1977 at St. Louis and matched by Marino's six TD passes on Sept. 21, 1986 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Brown also became just the second NFL player to score four touchdowns and throw for a touchdown in the same game, joining Paddy Driscoll, who as a member of Chicago Cardinals did so on October 7, 1923 against the Rochester Jeffersons . . . Brown's TD pass to Fasano was the second attempt and first completion and touchdown pass of his career (not counting a two-point pass attempt that was incomplete) . . . It was the first completion by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Marty Booker had a 48-yard completion to Chris Chambers on October 24, 2004 vs. St. Louis . . . It was the first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Terry Kirby tossed a 31-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar on September 10, 1995 at New England . . . Was named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts . . .

VS. SAN DIEGO (10/5): Eclipsed the 100-yard plateau for the second consecutive game and the 12th time in his career as he led the Dolphins in rushing with 24 carries for 125 yards and one touchdown, coming on a five-yard run from the Dolphins' "Wildcat" formation while adding one catch for eight yards . . . Combined with his 113 rushing yards in his previous game, at New England, it was the first time in 2008 and the third time in his career he put together two separate streaks of two or more consecutive 100-yard rushing performances . . .

AT HOUSTON (10/12): For the third consecutive game in 2008, led the Dolphins in rushing . . . Registered 13 carries for 50 yards and one touchdown, the 20th rushing TD of his career coming on a six-yard run . . . Added three catches for 43 yards, which included a 39-yard reception . . . Entered the Dolphins top ten all-time rushing touchdown list as he tied with Lamar Smith for ninth place with his 20th career touchdown run . . .

AT DENVER (11/2): Accounted for 89 yards of offense . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing with 20 carries for 59 yards and one touchdown . . . Added three catches for 30 yards . . . The touchdown, a two-yard scamper with 3:08 left in the contest in the Dolphins' 26-17 win, was the 21st rushing TD of his career, moving him into sole possession of ninth place on the club's all-time rushing touchdowns list . . .

VS. SEATTLE (11/9): Continued his rise up the Dolphins' all-time rushing touchdown list as he had ten rushes for 39 yards and one TD . . . The 16-yard scoring run was the 22nd rushing touchdown of his career and moved hime into a tie with Andra Franklin and Lorenzo Hampton for seventh place on the team's all-time list . . . He also went over 3,000 yards rushing in his career, becoming the seventh player in Dolphins history to reach that plateau . . . Also tied for the team lead in receptions with four catches for 27 yards . . .

VS. OAKLAND (11/16): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 16 carries for 101 yards and added one catch for 11 yards . . . It was the third time in 2008 and the 13th time in his career he rushed for 100 or more yards . . . Moved past Karim Abdul-Jabbar (3,063 yards) into sixth place on the Dolphins' all-time rushing chart . . .

AT ST. LOUIS (11/23): Had 15 carries for 48 yards and one touchdown . . . Also went a perfect 1-1 passing, completing his second pass of the season, a 22-yard toss off an option to TE David Martin . . . His three-yard rushing touchdown was the 23rd of his career, and placed him in sole possession of seventh place on the Dolphins' all-time rushing touchdown list . . .

AT BUFFALO (12/7): Led the Dolphins rushing attack with 16 carries for 70 yards and added two catches for 18 yards against Buffalo in Toronto . . .

VS. SAN FRANCISCO (12/14): Paced the Dolphins in rushing with 10 carries for 67 yards and added one catch for nine yards . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (12/28): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 11 carries for 57 yards and added four catches for 15 yards as the Dolphins captured the AFC East title with a victory . . .

PLAYOFFS: Led the Dolphins in both rushing yards and receptions in playoff debut against Baltimore (1/4/09) . . . Rushed 12 times for 19 yards and added six catches for 43 yards and a touchdown . . .

PRO BOWL: Was named to his first career AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He became the first Dolphins running back to be bestowed with this honor since Ricky Williams following the 2002 season . . . Brown is one of only six running backs in club history to have been selected, joining Larry Csonka (1970-74), Mercury Morris (1971-73), Andra Franklin (1982), Keith Byars (1993) and Williams (2002).

2007 - Was experiencing a stellar season before sustaining a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee in a week seven game vs. New England (10/21) . . . Prior to the injury, had started all seven contests and rushed for 602 yards and four touchdowns on 119 attempts (5.1 avg.), and caught 39 passes for 556 yards and a TD . . . Still led the team in rushing and finished second on the club in receptions . . . At the time of his injury, his rushing total was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, while his 991 total yards from scrimmage led the NFL . . . Also topped all NFL running backs in both receptions and receiving yardage . . . Finished the season 17th in the AFC in rushing, while his 5.1-yard average per carry was third-best among conference's top 30 rushers . . . In addition, became the first Dolphin to post a 4.0-yard average per rush attempt or better in three straight seasons (min. 100 carries) since Tony Nathan did it from 1983-85 . . . Sustained his season-ending injury on an interception return by the Patriots' Randall Gay on the first series of the second half . . .

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: In just seven appearances in 2007, Brown accounted for four 100-yard rushing games . . . His total of four in 2007 is tied for the fourth-highest single-season figure in club history and the second straight year in which he attained this total . . . In addition, Brown amassed an average per rush attempt of 5.0 or better in three of his four 100-yard games in 2007:

1. Ricky Williams	12-13, 2002	444
2. RONNIE BROWN	3-4, 2007	418
3. Ricky Williams	11-12, 2002	386

2007 GAME HIGHLIGHTS: After being held to 65 yards rushing on 22 attempts over the first two weeks of the season, exploded for 112 yards and two TDs on 23 attempts and six receptions for 99 yards and a TD in week three contest at N.Y. Jets (9/23) . . . In addition to his three touchdowns, scored on a run for a two-point conversion, the first of his NFL career . . . He fell one yard shy of becoming the first Dolphin to post 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game . . . It marked his third straight 100-yard rushing game against the Jets, joining Mercury Morris and Ricky Williams as the only Dolphins to have three straight such games against a single opponent . . . Morris did it against New England, over the second matchup of 1972 and both 1973 contests, while Williams accomplished the feat against Buffalo, covering the second meeting of 2002 and both 2003 contests . . . His 99 receiving yards not only set a career high, but also was the most by a Dolphins running back since Terry Kirby accumulated 148 yards (9 rec.) on December 19, 1993 against Buffalo . . . In addition to a 22-yard TD catch, had a career-long 43-yard reception in the contest, both from Trent Green . . . It was the second time in his career that he tallied two rushing TDs in a game, while his three total touchdowns marked a then-career best and was the most by a Dolphin since November 27, 2003 when Chris Chambers had three receiving scores . . . Brown became the first Dolphins running back to have three total touchdowns in a game since Karim Abdul-Jabbar did it on November 23, 1997 against the Jets (all rushing) . . . The following week vs. Oakland (9/30), Brown ran for a season-high 134 yards and a TD on 15 attempts and caught six passes for 73 yards . . . His 8.9-yard average per rush attempt marked the second-best figure of his career, trailing only his 11.9-yard mark (8-95) on October 21, 2005 against Kansas City . . . Brown's 60-yard run in the second quarter was a season long and the second-longest of his career to that point . . . At Houston (10/7), continued his streak of 100-yard rushing games with 114 yards and a TD on 23 attempts . . . Added five catches for 39 yards . . . It marked just the fourth time in franchise history that a back reached the 100-yard rushing plateau in three or more straight games, as Ricky Williams did it on each of the previous three occasions . . . It was his third straight game with a rushing touchdown and his fourth overall during that three-game span, as he became the first Dolphin to having a rushing touchdown in three consecutive contests since Williams did it in the final three contests of 2005 . . . The week afterwards at Cleveland (10/14) compiled 101 yards rushing on 19 attempts and nine receptions for 69 yards . . . In the process, he surpassed Karim Abdul-Jabbar and moved into a tie with Mercury Morris for the third-most 100-yard rushing games by a Dolphin in a career with 10 . . . It was only the second time in club history that a back produced four straight 100-yard rushing games, as he joined Williams with this distinction . . . His nine catches marked a career best, tied for the seventh-highest output by a Dolphins running back in the regular season and tied for ninth overall, including playoffs . . . They were the most catches by a Dolphins running back since Rob Konrad grabbed 10 passes in the 1999 season finale, on January 2, 2000 at Washington . . . Ran for 76 yards on 17 attempts and caught five passes for 33 yards in the New England contest (10/21) before leaving the game in the third quarter with the season-ending knee injury.

2006 - Started 12 of the 13 games in which he played . . . Was inactive for three games . . . Led the team in rushing with 1,008 yards and five touchdowns on 241 attempts . . . It was the tenth individual 1,000-yard rushing season in Dolphins history and he became the seventh different player to accomplish the feat . . . Rushing figure ranked tenth in the AFC . . . Also caught 33 passes for 276 yards, as reception total placed fifth on the team . . . Recorded four 100-yard rushing games on the year, tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in Dolphins history . . . Was 13th in the AFC with 1,284 total yards from scrimmage . . . Averaged 4.2 yards per carry, the second straight season in which he surpassed the 4.0 mark as he garnered a 4.4 figure in his rookie season of 2005 . . . Brown underwent surgery on November 24 to stabilize a second metacarpal fracture of his left hand, an injury which he sustained in Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/23) . . . The surgery was performed by Dr. John McAuliffe and Dolphins Chief Team Physician Dr. George Caldwell at Broward General Medical Center in Ft. Lauderdale . . . Was inactive for the next three games . . .

RUSHING YARDAGE: In 2006, Brown became the seventh different Dolphin to record a 1,000-yard rushing season, the tenth time that it has been done and the first since Ricky Williams in 2003 . . .

RUSHING YARDS BY A DOLPHIN IN HIS FIRST TWO NFL SEASONS: With 907 rushing yards as a rookie in 2005 and 1,008 yards in 2006, Brown accumulated 1,915 yards in his first two seasons with the Dolphins, the second-highest total in franchise history for a player in his first two NFL seasons . . . He is the first Dolphin to rush for more than 900 yards in each of his first two NFL seasons:

MOST RUSHING YARDS BY A DOLPHIN IN HIS FIRST TWO PRO SEASONS

PLAYER	YEAR 1	YEAR 2	TOTAL
1. Karim Abdul-Jabbar	1116 ('96)	892 ('97)	2008
2. RONNIE BROWN	907 ('05)	1008 ('06)	1915
3. Sammie Smith	659 ('89)	831 ('90)	1490

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: In 2006, Brown amassed four 100-yard rushing games, a figure which is tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in club history and was the most since Ricky Williams turned in seven such performances in 2003 . . . In each of his 100-yard rushing games in 2006, Brown compiled an average per attempt of more than 5.0 yards . . . This included a 5.8 mark at N.Y. Jets, 10/15 (22-127), a 5.4 figure at Chicago, 11/5 (29-157), a 6.1 figure vs. N.Y. Jets, 12/25 (18-110) and a 5.5 average at Indianapolis, 12/31 (21-115) . . . Coupled with his two 100-yard games from his rookie season of 2005, Brown's total of six tied him with Karim Abdul-Jabbar for the most 100-yard rushing games by a Dolphin in his first two pro seasons:

MOST 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES BY A DOLPHIN IN HIS FIRST TWO PRO SEASONS

PLAYER	YEAR 1	YEAR 2	TOTAL
1. RONNIE BROWN	2 (2005)	4 (2006)	6
Karim Abdul-Jabbar	4 (1996)	2 (1997)	6
3. Jim Kiick	2 (1968)	1 (1969)	3
Benny Malone	3 (1974)	0 (1975)	3
Troy Stradford	3 (1987)	0 (1988)	3

2006 GAME HIGHLIGHTS: In opener at Pittsburgh (9/7), scored on runs of two and five yards, representing the first multiple-touchdown game of his career . . . It also marked the first time a Dolphin had two rushing TDs in the same game since Sammy Morris on December 20, 2004 against New England . . . Recorded six receptions (52 yards) the following week vs. Buffalo (9/17) . . . Along with his 70 yards rushing (15 atts.), his 122 total yards from scrimmage ranked as the second-highest total of his career to that point . . . Eclipsed his career-high for both receptions and receiving yards with eight for 62 yards at Houston (10/1) . . . Accounted for his first 100-yard game of the season with 127 yards and one TD on 22 carries at N.Y. Jets (10/15) . . . At the time, it was the second-highest rushing total of his career . . . His 5.8-yard average in the game marked the first of four times in 2006 he posted an average per carry of more than 5.0 yards . . . Had best game of season in 31-13 victory over Chicago (11/5), when he rushed for a career-high 157 yards on a career-high 29 carries, a 5.4-yard average per attempt . . . It is the 11th best rushing performance in Dolphins history and the 10th in the regular season . . . Along with his 33 yards receiving on two receptions, his 190 total yards from scrimmage in the game was a career best to that point . . . On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/23), rushed for 68 yards on 15 attempts before sustaining a broken bone in his left hand on the first series of the third quarter . . . Was inactive for the next three games . . . Returned to action in a reserve role in Monday night game vs. N.Y. Jets (12/25) . . . Responded with 110 yards rushing on just 18 carries for a season-best 6.1-yard average per attempt . . . Became the first Dolphin to compile 100 yards rushing against the same opponent twice in a season since Ricky Williams did it against Buffalo in 2003 . . . Was the first to do it against the Jets twice in the same season since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 . . . When he ran for 115 yards on 21 carries (5.5) in finale at Indianapolis (12/31), he became just the ninth player in club history to post consecutive 100-yard rushing games and the first since Williams did it in the final two games of 2005 . . . Included in his total in the Colts contest was a season-long 47-yard run.

2005 - Started 14 of the 15 games in which he appeared as a rookie . . . Led team with 907 yards rushing on 206 attempts, including four touchdowns . . . Was fourth on the club with 32 receptions, totaling 232 yards and one touchdown . . . Rushing total ranked 12th in the AFC and second among NFL rookies, trailing only Tampa Bay's Cadillac Williams (290-1,178) . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing eight times and in receptions once on the year . . . His average per carry of 4.4 tied for fourth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL among players with 100 or more attempts . . . Compiled 815 yards and four touchdowns on 173 carries (4.7 avg.) over his final 13 games of the year, during which time he also caught 30 passes for 223 yards and a TD . . . Along with LB Channing Crowder and CB Travis Daniels, it marked the first time since 1996 that at least three Dolphins rookies started 10 or more games . . . Dolphins also were the only NFL team in 2005 to have three rookies start 12 or more games . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS ROOKIE RUSHERS: Brown became the sixth rookie in team history to lead the Dolphins in rushing, joining J.J. Johnson (1999), Karim Abdul-Jabbar (1996), Sammie Smith (1989), Troy Stradford (1987) and Jim Kiick (1968) . . . His rushing total ranked second all-time among Dolphins rookie rushers, trailing only Abdul-Jabbar (1,116 in 1996) while his 207 attempts also were the second-highest figure, trailing only Abdul-Jabbar's total of 307 from 1996:

DOLPHINS' SINGLE-SEASON ROOKIE RUSHING LEADERS

PLAYER	YEAR	YDS.	ATTS.	AVG.
1. Karim Abdul-Jabbar	1996	1116	307	3.6

FINS FACT The importance of an education was always stressed when Greg was growing up. His father, Al, is a professor of American history at Stanford. His mother, Susan, works as a middle school counselor in the Bay area, while his older brother, Jeff, is a middle school teacher in Compton, Calif., who earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania and his master's degree from Stanford. Greg's sister, Lauren, graduated from UCLA and is working on her master's degree at Stanford.

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Was awarded off waivers to Miami from San Diego on September 3, 2007 . . . Signed with San Diego as an undrafted college free agent on May 16, 2005 . . . Was waived on September 3, 2005 and then signed to the Chargers' practice squad on September 5 . . . Was re-signed by the club on January 3, 2006.

2009 - Started all 16 games . . . Finished second on the Dolphins in receptions and in reception yardage with 50 catches for 552 yards . . . Led team in receptions four times and in receiving yards three times . . . Had team-high four catches for 42 yards vs. Buffalo (10/4) . . . Recorded five catches for 55 yards vs. New Orleans (10/25) . . . Posted five receptions for 71 yards at New England (11/8) . . . Had season highs of seven catches for 110 yards at Jacksonville (12/13) . . . His seven catches and 110 receiving yards are the second-highest single-game totals of his career . . . Had team-high five catches for 46 yards at Tennessee (12/20).

2008 - Started each of the first 11 games before suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee vs. New England (11/23) . . . Finished with 55 catches for 613 yards and two touchdowns . . . Made his first career start and recorded three catches for 37 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (9/7) . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions with four catches for 49 yards at Arizona (9/16) . . . Posted four catches for 60 yards at New England (9/21) . . . Led the Dolphins in receiving with six catches for 68 yards and one touchdown, coming on a 17-yard TD pass from Chad Pennington, vs. San Diego (10/5) . . . For the second straight week led the team in receptions with four catches for 49 yards, at Houston (10/12) . . . Also forced a fumble after a Chad Pennington interception late in the fourth quarter which led to a Justin Smiley recovery and extended an eventual scoring drive . . . Registered team-high six catches for 74 yards vs. Baltimore (10/19) . . . Turned in the third-highest single-game reception total in team history as he hauled in 11 catches for 111 yards at Denver (11/2) . . . His 11 catches represents his single-game career high and his first career game of ten or more receptions . . . Camarillo became the first Dolphin to have 10 or more catches in a game since Chris Chambers snared a club record 15 catches on Dec. 4, 2005 vs. Buffalo . . .

In addition, his 111 receiving yards against the Broncos represents his single-game career high and his second career game of 100 or more receiving yards . . . Camarillo's first 100-yard receiving game came in the Dolphins only win of 2007, against Baltimore (12/16/07) when he caught three passes for 109 yards including a game winning 64-yard touchdown reception in overtime . . . Continued to be a reliable target as he tied for the team lead in receptions with four catches for 21 yards vs. Seattle (11/9), and also rushed once for six yards . . . For the seventh time in 2008, Camarillo either led or tied for the team lead in receptions with a team-high six catches for 75 yards and one touchdown vs. New England (11/23), coming on a three-yard scoring pass from Chad Pennington . . . Suffered a torn ACL during the fourth quarter of that game and was placed on Injured Reserve the next day (11/24).

2007 - Played in 15 games, all in a reserve role, with the Dolphins after being awarded off waivers from San Diego the week of the regular season opener . . . Caught eight passes for 160 yards and two touchdowns . . . Added three tackles on special teams . . . First NFL reception came on a 2-yard catch from John Beck in game vs. N.Y. Jets (12/2) . . . Had his biggest game of the year two weeks later vs. Baltimore (12/16), when he totaled 109 receiving yards on just three receptions, one of which went for the game-winning touchdown . . . That score, the first of his pro career, came in overtime, when he took in a pass from Cleo Lemon over the middle on third-and-8 and raced 64 yards for a TD, giving the Dolphins a 22-16 win, their only victory of the 2007 season . . . In fact, all three of his catches that day went for longer than 20 yards (24,21) and converted a third down . . . The following week at New England (12/23), accounted for his second touchdown in as many games when he took in a 21-yard pass from Lemon . . . Caught three passes for 43 yards in preseason with San Diego . . .

AMONG SINGLE-GAME LEADERS FOR AVERAGE PER RECEPTION: Camarillo's breakout game came on December 16, 2007, when he caught three passes for 109 yards, with all of his receptions going for longer than 20 yards, the longest of which was his 64-yarder for a touchdown in overtime . . . His average per reception in the game of 36.3 is the second-highest single-game figure in Dolphins history, with a minimum of three receptions:

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

HEIGHT: 6-5
WEIGHT: 340
BORN: 7/31/81
COLLEGE: Miami (Fla.) '04
ACQUIRED: D1, 2004
NFL: Seventh Season
DOLPHINS: Seventh Season
FINS FACT A majority of Vernon's work in the community with the Dolphins has focused on kids, particularly in the Liberty City area of Miami, in which he grew up. "I like working with kids because of a lot of young kids don't have the privilege of going different places and having an open mind about being successful in leadership," Vernon says. "They need somebody to talk to them once in a while and show them that there's more out there for them."

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: First-round draft choice of the Dolphins in 2004 (19th overall) . . . Was the third offensive lineman selected, behind only Iowa T Robert Gallery (2nd, Oakland) and Arkansas T Shawn Andrews (16th, Philadelphia).

2009 - Started all 16 games at right tackle . . . Named first-team All-Pro by Peter King of Sports Illustrated . . . Part of a line that led a running game that averaged 4.4 yards per carry, the fifth consecutive year in which the Dolphins' running game put together 4.0-yard average or better, during which time Carey has started 78 of 80 games . . . It was the first time in team history that the Dolphins have amassed this average in five straight seasons . . . Was part of offensive line that didn't allow a sack for two straight games (Games 9-10) for the first time since Games 8-9 of the 2005 season . . . Led the way as Miami rushed for 239 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/21) . . . Helped the Dolphins rush for 250 yards vs. Buffalo (10/4), the most rushing yards by Miami since Dec. 1, 2002 when they rushed for 270 yards at Buffalo.

2008 - Started all 16 games at right tackle . . . Was one of three offensive linemen (LT Jake long and C Samson Satele) to start all 16 games at the same position . . . Helped pave the way for RB Ronnie Brown's first career Pro Bowl selection . . . Contributed to one of the franchise's most productive offensive performances in a decade at New England (9/21), when the team compiled 461 net yards, the most since October 10, 1999 at Indianapolis . . . Helped anchor a line that paved the way for the Dolphins to rush for season highs of 222 yards and a 6.3-yard average per carry against Oakland (11/16) . . . Did not allow a sack of Chad Pennington as an offensive unit at St. Louis (11/30) . . . In what was the coldest game in Dolphins history at Kansas City (12/21), offensive line did not allow a sack of Pennington for the third time in 2008.

2007 - Started all 16 games at left tackle after making the move from the right side, where he had started the previous two years . . . Was one of four Dolphins offensive linemen to start every contest . . . In fact, took part in all but 26 offensive snaps over the course of the year, with most of his time missed having occurred in the second half of finale vs. Cincinnati (12/30) when he left contest with a back injury.

2006 - Started all 16 games at right tackle, the first time in his three NFL seasons he opened every contest . . . In fact, participated in all but one offensive snap over the course of the season . . . Along with C Rex Hadnot, was one of only two Dolphins offensive linemen to start every game at the same position in 2006 . . . Key part of a line that led the way for a running game which averaged 4.2 yards per carry . . . Along with the Dolphins' 4.3-yard per attempt in Carey's first season as a starter in 2005, it represented the first time the Dolphins averaged better than a 4.0-yard per carry in consecutive campaigns since 1986-87.

2005 - Played in all 16 games, including 14 starts at right tackle . . . The only games he did not open were at Buffalo (10/9) and at Tampa Bay (10/16) . . . Part of a line that yielded just 26 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL, and led a running game that averaged 118.6 yards an outing and 4.3 yards per rush attempt, which ranked seventh and fourth in the AFC, respectively . . . Took part in all but one offensive snap over the final 11 weeks of the season.

2004 - Played in 14 games, including two starts, in his rookie season . . . Was inactive for two contests . . . Made initial start of NFL career when he opened at right tackle in place of the injured John St. Clair (ankle) at New England (10/10) . . . Also opened at that spot the following week at Buffalo (10/17).

COLLEGE

Four-year letterman (2000-03) who started his final two seasons at Miami . . . Led the Hurricanes in key blocks (knockdowns/pancakes) as both a junior and senior . . . Started 11 games as a senior . . . Moved to left guard in spring drills after starting at right tackle as a junior . . . Named as a third-team All-America choice by the Associated Press and College Football News . . . Earned second-team All-Big East Conference honors from the media . . . Started all 12 games at right offensive tackle as a junior . . . Collected eight touchdown-resulting blocks and 79 key blocks (42 pancakes) . . . Named as a second-team All-Big East Conference choice . . . Played in every game with one start as a sophomore . . . Stepped in at tackle in the season finale at Virginia Tech when left tackle Bryant McKinnie went out with a knee injury . . . Played in eight games as a redshirt freshman . . . Redshirted as a true freshman in 1999 . . . Spent the season as a member of the Hurricanes' scout team . . . Holds B.A. degree in liberal arts.

Scored five points, going 1-1 in field goals and 2-2 in extra points vs. Oakland (11/16) as his one field goal was a 38-yarder with 38 seconds left to give the Dolphins a 17-15 win . . . It was his first career fourth quarter or overtime game winning field goal . . . Racked up ten points, going 3-3 in field goals (converting from 37, 47, and 42 yards) and 1-1 in extra points at St. Louis (11/30) . . . His third field goal in the game was his 11th consecutive field goal made, setting a new Dolphins team record for most consecutive field goals made by a rookie . . . Scored ten points for the second week, going 3-4 in field goals and 1-1 in extra points against Buffalo in Toronto (12/7) . . . Hit from 50, 35, and 27 yards out before missing from 48 yards which ended a streak of 14 straight field goals made, which tied the NFL record for most consecutive FGs made by a rookie . . . His 50-yard field goal was the fourth 50-yard field goal by a Dolphins rookie in the regular season and the fifth overall, including playoffs . . . For his efforts against Buffalo he was named as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the games of Dec. 7-8   .

. . In the AFC Wild Card Playoff game vs. Baltimore (1/4/09), accounted for three of the nine Dolphins points with a 19-yard field goal . . .

ROOKIE MARKS: Starting with the game vs. Buffalo on Oct. 26 and continuing until a miss on Dec. 7 against Buffalo in Toronto, Carpenter made 14 consecutive field goals, eight of which came from longer than 40 yards out . . . His 14 straight field goals are the longest consecutive field goals made streak by a rookie in Dolphins history, surpassing the previous record of ten straight FGs, set by Uwe von Schamann in his rookie season in 1979:

LONGEST FIELD GOAL STREAK, DOLPHIN ROOKIE

PLAYER	CONSECUTIVE FGS	YEAR	GAMES
1. DAN CARPENTER	14	2008	7-13
2. Uwe von Schamann	10	1979	9-15
3. Pete Stoyanovich	8	1989	5-9

His 14 straight field goals also is tied for the longest consecutive field goal streak by a rookie in NFL history, tying the previous record of 14 straight FGs, set by Ali Haji-Sheikh in his rookie season in 1983 with the New York Giants:

LONGEST FIELD GOAL STREAK, NFL ROOKIE

PLAYER	TEAM	CONSECUTIVE FGS	YEAR
1. Ali Haji-Sheikh	N.Y. Giants	14	1983
DAN CARPENTER	MIAMI	14	2008

John Kasay	Seattle	13	1981
Lin Elliott	Dallas	13	1992
Doug Pelfrey	Cincinnati	13	1993
Kris Brown	Pittsburgh	13	1999
Martin Gramatica	Tampa Bay	13	1999

With 21 field goals made, Carpenter ranks tied for second for most field goals made in a season by a Dolphins rookie:

MOST FIELD GOALS MADE IN A SEASON BY A DOLPHINS ROOKIE

PLAYER	YEAR	NO.	ATT.	PCT.
1. Fuad Reveiz	1985	22	27	.815
2. DAN CARPENTER	2008	21	25	.840
3. Uwe von Schamann	1979	21	29	.724
4. Pete Stoyanovich	1989	19	26	.731

With 103 points, Carpenter ranks second for most points in a season by a Dolphins rookie:

MOST POINTS IN A SEASON BY A DOLPHINS ROOKIE

PLAYER	YEAR	PAT	FG	POINTS
1. Fuad Reveiz	1985	50	22	116
2. DAN CARPENTER	2008	40	21	103
3. Uwe von Schamann	1979	36	21	99
4. Pete Stoyanovich	1989	38	19	95

LONG FIELD GOALS: Kicked one field goal of 50 or more yards in 2008 . . . His 50-yard field goal against Buffalo in Toronto on December 7 was one of only four 50-yard field goals by a Dolphins rookie kicker in the regular season and one of only five overall, including playoffs . . . The 50-yard kick ranks as the fifth-longest by a Dolphins rookie in team history:

LONGEST FIELD GOALS BY A ROOKIE IN DOLPHINS HISTORY

	PLAYER	DATE	OPPONENT	DISTANCE
1.	Pete Stoyanovich	11/12/89	at N.Y. Jets	59

BORN: 1/31/83
COLLEGE: North Texas '06
ACQUIRED: FA, 2006
NFL: Fifth Season
DOLPHINS: Fifth Season

FINS FACT Patrick enjoys working with troubled kids. In fact, his mother is a child therapist. During college, Patrick worked part-time in the Nelson Center, a juvenile facility in Denton, Texas, where he counseled kids ages 6-15. His work at the center was something from which he got a lot of self-gratification. "The kids really look forward to you coming in to see them," Patrick says. "A lot of them need a father-figure in life and somebody that they can look up to in a positive manner."

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Spent 10 games on Miami's practice squad before being activated to the team's 53-man roster on December 2, 2006 . . . Had signed with Miami's practice squad on September 12, 2006 . . . Was waived by the Steelers on September 8, 2006 . . . Was traded by New England to Pittsburgh on September 1, 2006 for an undisclosed draft choice . . . Went to camp with New England as an undrafted college free agent in 2006.

FINS FACT

Channing has always had an affection for animals – and not just his Rottweiler, L.T. While at the University of Florida, he wrestled alligators and wild boars. "The alligator was about eight feet and we just grabbed the snout and snatched it up," Crowder said. "It was one of those late nights in Gainesville. We were bored and there was nothing better to do."

PRO CAREER

CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Third-round draft choice (70th overall) of Miami in 2005, with a choice obtained from Chicago in the Marty Booker-Adewale Ogunleye trade from 2004.

2009 - Started 13 games . . . Finished with 51 tackles, one interception and one sack . . . Was inactive at N.Y Jets (11/1) and at New England (11/8) with a shoulder injury . . . FINS FACT In an effort to give back to the youth of the tri-state area of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, Anthony started the "Anthony Fasano Foundation" in 2008. The Foundation, which raises money to support underprivileged children in Northern N.J., hosts an annual golf tournament and food giveaway in Montville, N.J.

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Acquired by the Dolphins from Dallas, along with LB Akin Ayodele, on April 26, 2008 in exchange for a 2008 fourth-round draft choice (100th overall) . . . Originally was a second-round draft choice (53rd overall) of the Cowboys in 2006.

2009 - Started 14 games . . . Finished with 31 catches for 339 yards and two touchdowns . . . Led the team in receptions twice and in reception yardage once during season . . . Had team-high four catches for 38 yards and one touchdown vs. N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . His long catch in the contest, a 21-yard reception, came on a Ronnie Brown pass from the Wildcat formation . . . Was inactive for games vs. Tampa Bay (11/15) and at Carolina (11/19) due to a hip injury . . . Led the Dolphins in receptions and reception yardage with five catches for 74 yards at Buffalo (11/29) . . . Had five catches for 67 yards vs. New England (12/6) . . . Had four catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, coming on a two-yard TD reception from Chad Henne at Tennessee (12/20) . . . The TD catch came on a 4th-and-one on the Tennessee two-yard line with 1:34 left in the 4th quarter to complete the Dolphins' comeback from a 24-9 deficit at the start of the quarter to tie the contest (following the subsequent two-point conversion) at 24-24 in a game the Dolphins eventually lost in overtime 27-24 . . . Had two catches for 41 yards, including a 27-yard reception, the longest catch of his career, vs. Pittsburgh (1/3/10).

2008 - Started all 16 regular season games . . . Recorded career-high totals of 34 catches for 454 yards and a team-high seven touchdown receptions . . . Led the team in receptions once and in receiving yardage twice . . . Made his Dolphins debut in a starting role and led the team in both receptions and receiving yardage with eight catches for 84 yards and a touchdown vs. N.Y. Jets (9/7) . . . His first Dolphins touchdown came on a five-yard pass from Chad Pennington . . . His performance against the Jets represented single-game career highs in receptions and receiving yards . . . His reception yardage total was the most by a Dolphins tight end since Randy McMichael had 87 yards at the N.Y. Jets on Nov. 1, 2004 . . . Fasano's eight receptions tied for the second highest single-game figure by a Dolphins tight end, behind only McMichael's nine catches vs. Cleveland on Dec. 26, 2004:

MOST RECEPTIONS BY A DOLPHIN TIGHT END IN A GAME

PLAYER	OPPONENT	DATE	RECEPTIONS
1. Randy McMichael	vs. Cleveland	Dec. 26, 2004	9
2. Larry Seiple	at Buffalo	Dec. 16, 1969	8
Keith Jackson	at San Diego*	Jan. 8, 1995	8
Randy McMichael	vs. New England	Oct. 19, 2003	8
Randy McMichael	vs. Tennessee	Sept. 11, 2004	8
Randy McMichael	at N.Y. Jets	Sept. 18, 2005	8
Randy McMichael	at N.Y. Jets	Oct. 15, 2006	8
ANTHONY FASANO	VS. N.Y. JETS	SEPT. 7, 2008	8

In that contest against the Jets, Fasano combined with fellow tight end David Martin, who recorded four catches for 53 yards and one TD, for a total of 12 catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns . . . The 12 receptions were the most ever by a Dolphins tight end tandem, surpassing the previous mark of 11 catches, set on Sept. 18, 2005 by Randy McMichael (eight catches) and Lorenzo Diamond (3) . . . With Fasano and Martin each catching a touchdown pass, it was the first time two Dolphins tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game since October 29, 2005 at Buffalo when McMichael and Will Heller each had a TD catch . . . Recorded three catches for team-high 66 yards and one touchdown at New England (9/21), with the touchdown coming on a 19-yard option pass from Ronnie Brown . . . His TD reception from Brown was the first completion by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Marty Booker tossed a 48-yard completion to Chris Chambers vs. St. Louis on Oct. 24, 2004 . . . It was the first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback for the Dolphins since Terry Kirby tossed a 31-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar at New England on Sept. 19, 1995 . . . Had three catches for 47 yards vs. San Diego (10/5) . . . Hauled in two catches for 17 yards and one touchdown vs. Buffalo (10/26), his touchdown came on a two-yard TD pass from Chad Pennington . . . Continued to be a reliable receiver as he had three catches for 36 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass, vs. Buffalo in Toronto (12/7) . . . Recorded three catches for 47 yards and a career-high two touchdown receptions, coming on two 14-yard TD passes from Chad Pennington, at Kansas City (12/21) . . . It was the first time a Dolphins tight end had two touchdown catches in the same game since Oct. 14, 2007 when David Martin had TD receptions of 14 and four yards . . . Overall, Fasano became the eighth Dolphins tight end to have two TD catches in a game, a feat which has happened 12 times in the regular season and 16 times overall, including playoffs . . . With David Martin also catching a touchdown pass in the Chiefs game, it was the third time two Dolphin tight ends caught at least one TD pass apiece in the same game in 2008 . . . Had three catches for 39 yards and one touchdown at N.Y. Jets (12/28), as the Dolphins captured the AFC East Division title . . . His touchdown reception, coming on a 20-yard pass from Chad Pennington, was Fasano's seventh of the year, tying Keith Jackson (1994) for the team record for most TD catches by a Dolphins tight end in a season . . . Started and played but did not record a reception vs. Baltimore (1/4/09) during the AFC Wild Card playoff game.

AMONG DOLPHINS TIGHT ENDS: With seven touchdown receptions, Fasano is tied for the highest single-season total of touchdown catches by a tight end in Dolphins history, along with Keith Jackson, who had seven TD catches in 1994:

MOST SINGLE-SEASON TD RECEPTIONS BY A DOLPHIN TIGHT END

	PLAYER	YEAR	TD RECEPTIONS
1.	Keith Jackson	1994	7
	ANTHONY FASANO	2008	7
3.	Jim Mandich	1974	6
	Keith Jackson	1993	6

In addition, with Fasano's seven scoring catches, along with three by David Martin and one by Joey Haynos, the 11 total TD receptions the trio accounted for is tied for the highest total of TD receptions by Dolphins tight ends in a single season:

MOST SINGLE-SEASON TD RECEPTIONS BY DOLPHIN TIGHT ENDS

LINEBACKER U

With the selection of linebackers Koa Misa, A.J. Edds, Chris McCoy and Austin Spitler in the 2010 draft, Miami drafted four linebackers for the first time in the same draft since 1997, when they picked Derrick Rodgers (3rd, 92), Ronnie Ward (3rd, 93), John Fiala (6th, 166) and Mike Crawford (6th, 173). The team also chose four linebackers in 1992 and 1984. In 1992, the Dolphins selected Marco Coleman (1st, 12), Dwight Hollier (4th, 97), Roosevelt Collins (6th, 155) and Andre Powell (8th, 209). In 1984, Miami chose Jackie Shipp (1st, 14), Jay Brophy (2nd, 53) Rowland Tatum (6th, 165) and Mike Weingrad (12th, 333).

ANDREW HARTLINE'S NFL REGULAR SEASON STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS: 2009: 2/0

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

HEIGHT: 6-3
WEIGHT: 280
BORN: 7/2/85
COLLEGE: Michigan '08
ACQUIRED: D2b, 57
NFL: Third Season
DOLPHINS: Third Season

FINS FACT A tough, gritty player, Chad said he received his no nonsense approach from his father, Sheldon. Chad looked up to him and developed his work ethic watching his father work two full-time jobs as both a welder and as a high school and junior high school football coach in Hamburg, Pa. Chad said he remembers accompanying his father to work and watching Sheldon battle the intense heat and sparks as he embraced his blue-collar job. The images of his father coming home with burns all over his face and hands still resonate with Chad today, which is why he is considered so durable and he never complains about being in pain or playing in the cold or the heat.

PRO CAREER   CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Originally was the second of two second-round draft choices (57th overall) of the Dolphins in 2008.

2009 - Played in 14 games with 13 starts in 2009 as he replaced the injured Chad Pennington as the Dolphins starting quarterback… Completed 274 of 451 passes (60.75%) for 2,878 with 12 touchdowns and 14 interceptions for a passer rating of 75.2 . . .
    300-YARD PASSING GAMES: Henne has three career 300-yard passing games, all occuring during the 2009 season . . . He joined Dan Marino (13 times) and CHad Pennington (2008) as the only quarterbacks in Dolphins history to have multiple 300-yard games in a single season . . . Overall, Henne's three 300-yard games are tied with Bob Griese and Jay Fiedler for the second-most regular season 300-yard games, behind's only Dan Marino (63) in team history:

MOST 300-YARD PASSING GAMES BY A DOLPHINS QUARTERBACK

CAREER STARTS: The Dolphins were 7-6 in games Henne started in 2009, the first 13 starts of his career in Miami . . . His seven wins in his first 13 career starts is tied for the sixth-highest total by any Dolphins quarterback in their first 13 starts with the team, and he is one of only seven Dolphins quarterbacks to win at least seven of his first 13 games in Miami:

MOST WINS BY A DOLPHINS QUARTERBACK IN FIRST 13 STARTS

PLAYER	YEARS	RECORD
1. Dan Marino	1983-84	11-2
2. Don Strock	1975-79	10-3
3. Jay Fiedler	2000	9-4
4. Chad Pennington	2008	8-5
David Woodley	1980-81	8-5
6. CHAD HENNE	2009	7-6
Gus Frerotte	2005	7-6

When he won his first two starts of 2009 (the first two starts of his career), Henne became the first Dolphins quarterback to win his first two career starts since Damon Huard won his first three career starts in 1999 (16-13 vs. Philadelphia on Oct. 24; 16-9 at Oakland on Oct. 31 and 17-0 vs. Tennessee on Nov. 7) . . . Henne became the first Dolphins quarterback to win his first career start since Huard defeated the Eagles in 1999 . . . Henne also became just the sixth quarterback in Dolphins history to win his first career start, joining John Stofa, Don Strock, David Woodley, Scott Mitchell, and Huard . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – AT SAN DIEGO (9/27): Saw first action of the 2009 season replacing Chad Pennington during the third quarter . . . Completed 10 of 19 passes for 92 yards with one interception in his relief role . . .

VS. BUFFALO (10/4): Became the 12th Miami quarterback to win first Dolphins start, and just the sixth to win first NFL career start . . . Completed 14 of 22 passes for 115 yards and one touchdown for a passer rating of 92.0 . . . His five-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter to Brian Hartline was the first touchdown pass of his career . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (10/12): Excelled in the national spotlight with a career performance in leading the Dolphins to a 31-27 comeback win on Monday Night Football . . . It was his first career fourth quarter comeback . . . Connected on 20 of 26 passes for 241 and two touchdowns for a career-high 130.4 passer rating . . . The figure was the highest passer rating by a Dolphin since Jay Fiedler had a rating of 154.8 on October 24, 2004 against St. Louis . . . Henne led the Dolphins back from two deficits in the fourth quarter, first from a 20-17 deficit and then from a 27-24 deficit . . . The Dolphins scored 21 points in that fourth quarter, with Henne going 9-12 for 121 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in that period . . . Trailing by that 27-24 margin with 5:12 left in the game, Henne led the Dolphins on a 13-play, 70-yard drive over 5:06 that culminated with a two-yard TD run by Ronnie Brown with six seconds left to give the Dolphins a 31-27 win . . . On that final drive, Henne was 3-5 for 34 yards . . .

VS. NEW ORLEANS (10/25): Went 18-36 for 211 yards with no touchdown and two interceptions . . . Connected on a season-long 67-yard pass to Brian Hartline . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (11/1): Making his first career NFL start on the road, Henne was 12-21 for 112 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in Miami's 30-25 win . . . His touchdown pass was a five-yard toss to Joey Haynos with 8:48 left in the game that capped the Dolphins scoring . . .

VS. TAMPA BAY (11/15): Helped the Dolphins to a victory over their in-state rival as he was 17-31 for 175 yards with one touchdown and one interception . . . His touchdown was a five yard pass to Kory Sperry . . . Henne led the Dolphins back from a 23-22 deficit with 1:14 left in the game, going 2-3 for 41 yards in the final drive, covering five plays and 77 yards, culminating in a 25-yard field goal with ten seconds left for a 25-22 win . . . The come from behind victory over the Bucs was his second fourth quarter comeback of the season and in his career . . .

AT CAROLINA (11/19): Was 17-29 for 172 yards with one touchdown, a 14-yard pass to Ricky Williams, and no interceptions on a national stage during the NFL Network's Thursday Night Football telecast . . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (11/19): Finished 29-52 for 335 yards with two touchdowns and one interception . . . At the time his attempts, completions, and yards passing all represented a single game career high . . . It was his first career game of throwing for 300 or more yards and the first Dolphins 300-yard passing performance since Chad Pennington's 341 yards against New England (11/23/08) . . . Henne led the Dolphins back from a 21-19 deficit starting the fourth quarter, going 6-16 for 79 yards in the final quarter, culminating in a ten-play, 51-yard drive that resulted in Dan Carpenter's 41-yard field goal with 1:02 left for a 22-21 win . . . It was Henne's third fourth-quarter comeback in 2009 and in his career . . .

AT JACKSONVILLE (12/13): Made his way in to the Dolphins record books as he was 21-29 for 220 yards with no touchdowns and one interception ... Also had four rushes for one yard and one touchdown . . . The rushing touchdown, which came on a one yard run, was the first rushing touchdown of his career . . . In the game, Henne completed 17 straight passes, which tied him with Chad Pennington's effort during games 13 and 14 in 2008, for the most consecutive completions overall in Dolphins history . . . Henne's 17 straight completions also set the record for the most consecutive completions in a single game in team history, the previous record of 13 was held by Earl Morrall (12/1/75) and Dan Marino (11/10/96) . . .

AT TENNESSEE (12/20): Threw for a season high of 349 yards on 29-46 passes with one touchdown and three interceptions . . . His touchdown came on a two-yard pass to Anthony Fasano with 1:34 left in the fourth quarter to complete the Dolphins' comeback from a 24-9 deficit at the start of the quarter to tie the contest (following the subsequent two-point conversion) at 24-24 in a game the Dolphins eventually lost in overtime 27-24 . . . It also was his second 300-yard passing game of the season and in his career . . . Henne's 349 yards were the most by a Dolphins quarterback since Joey Harrington's 414 yards against Green Bay (10/22/06) . . .

VS. HOUSTON (12/27): Went 35-55 for 322 yards with one touchdown, a ten-yard pass to Lex Hilliard, and one interception . . . Set season and career marks with 35 completions and 55 attempts . . . His 35 completions tied for the third-highest single-game completion total in Dolphins history (behind only Dan Marino's 39 completions at Buffalo (11/16/86) and Marino's 38 completions at New England (11/23/97)) . . . In addition, Henne's 55 attempts was tied for the sixth highest regular season attempt total (and tied for the seventh highest total including playoffs) in team history . . . His 322 yards passing represented his third 300-yard passing game during the 2009 season and in his career . . . In addition, coupled with his 349 yards passing on Dec. 20th at Tennessee, it marked the first time a Dolphins quarterback threw for 300 or more yards in consecutive games since Dan Marino threw for 355 yards vs. Denver (12/21/98), followed by his 320 yards passing at Atlanta (12/27/98) . . .

VS. PITTSBURGH (1/3/10): Closed out the 2009 campaign 16-20 for 140 yards with one touchdown, an 11-yard pass to Lex Hilliard, and one interception before being forced from the game permanently at the end of the first half with an eye and head injury.

2008 - Played in three regular season games . . . Was 7-12 passing for 67 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions for a 74.0 rating . . . Made his NFL regular season debut at Arizona (9/14) when he entered the game in the fourth quarter and went 7-12 for 67 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions . . . That all came on the Dolphins' last series of the game, which was an 18-play drive covering 89 yards that resulted in a Ronnie Brown one-yard touchdown run . . . Henne's first NFL completion came on a 19-yard pass to Derek Hagan on the second play of that series, following an incompletion . . . Did not play in AFC Wild Card game vs. Baltimore Ravens (1/4/09) . . . Was 40-63 for 351 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions for a rating of 70.3 in four preseason contests . . . Made his NFL preseason debut in a reserve role and was 5-10 for 67 yards with no touchdown or interceptions vs. Tampa Bay (8/9) . . . Was 17-26 for 133 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions at Jacksonville (8/16) . . . His attempts and completions were the most by a Dolphins QB in the preseason since Cleo Lemon was 21-27 for 271 yards vs. St. Louis on Aug. 31, 2006 . . . Was 2-7 for 14 yards with no touchdowns and one interception vs. Kansas City (8/23) . . . Was 16-20 for 137 yards with one touchdown and one interception at New Orleans (8/28) . . . His touchdown came on an eight-yard TD pass to Sean Ryan . . . His passing yardage was the most by a Dolphins QB in the preseason since Lemon threw for 271 yards on 21-27 passing vs. St. Louis on Aug. 31, 2006.

BORN: 7/30/84
COLLEGE: Montana '08
ACQUIRED: D6c, 2008
NFL: Second Season
DOLPHINS: Second Season

FINS FACT Growing up in Kalispell, Montana, Lex had a unique way to miss defenders both on and off the field. He would constantly try to avoid Charlie, his German Shepherd, from nipping at his heels using techniques that he would use to great advantage on the football field. "You're riding a bike, he'd try to bite the tires. I'm out in the yard playing football, he'd try to bite my ankles," said Lex who joked that he developed his quick twitch and high stepping running style from the elusiveness he showed in evading Charlie.

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Resigned with the Dolphins on January 14, 2009 . . . Signed to the Dolphins' practice squad on August 31, 2008 after being waived a day earlier . . . Originally was the third of three sixth-round draft choices (204th overall) of the Dolphins in 2008.

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2006 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Chris Chambers scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the game's scoring. In the process, Chambers became the fifth Dolphin to account for a touchdown in the NFL's annual All-Star contest. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphin to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game. The others who have achieved this feat are wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

FINS FACT All football fans have a Super Bowl memory, however not many have one like Kendall's parents, Calvin and Ardee. During the first quarter of Super Bowl XX in 1986, Ardee, who was expecting her third child, called Calvin, who was attending a Super Bowl party that he helped organize for his fellow police officers to let him know that she was in labor and his third child was on the way. Thinking that Ardee was playing a joke on him, Calvin returned home to find Ardee in labor. The couple headed to the hospital and a few hours later an 8-pound, 3-ounce Kendall Arkel Langford was born.

FINS FACT   Being selected with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft doesn't mean success is instant. In 2008, Jake became just the fourth overall No. 1 selection, since 1970 when the AFL and NFL merged, to play in the Pro Bowl following his rookie campaign. He is the first since New Orleans Saints running back George Rogers, who accomplished the feat in 1981. Jake joins the exclusive company of Rogers, Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell (1978) and Detroit Lions running back Billy Sims (1980), who were each selected to the annual NFL all star game after being the top selection.

FINS FACT   NFL players need motivation and sometimes it comes when you least expect it and such was the case for Tony, an undrafted free agent in training camp with the Jaguars in 2006. "In high school, I wasn't one of the top players in the nation," Tony said. "In college, I wasn't really one of the top players. I've always been a guy that people say has potential. So when the head coach, Jacksonville's Jack del Rio, comes and says 'You're a good player' and 'You can do all this if you just work on a couple of things,' to a guy who hadn't even made the team yet, it was kind of the confidence booster that made me believe that I can do this."

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Acquired by the Dolphins for a 2009 7th-round (232nd overall) draft choice on March 20, 2009 . . . Signed by the Jacksonville Jaguars as an undrafted free agent on April 30, 2006.

FINS FACT Quentin got an early indoctrination into the type of atmosphere at Univ. of Georgia home football games. Not only did he grow up in Athens, Ga., where he attended Cedar Shoals High School, but while he was in middle school, his school operated a concession stand at Sanford Stadium, home of the Bulldogs. Having seen first-hand the excitement of playing before crowds of more than 90,000 every Saturday, there were really no other options for Quentin as to where he wanted to go to college. "Everybody there loves the University of Georgia," he says. "I really wanted to play basketball, but once I made the decision to play football, I knew where I wanted to go."

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In their history, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of these were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins have had two runners reach the 100-yard plateau occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries. The Dolphins are 4-0 in games when they have had a pair of 100-yard rushers.

FINS FACT John had hopes of playing for a major college football program, particularly nearby Rutgers, coming out of Lawrence High School. However, he never received a scholarship offer and landed at Monmouth. During his second year on campus, he realized the Football Championship Subdivision isn't so far from the NFL, thanks to his teammate Miles Austin, now a receiver with the Dallas Cowboys. "I became friends with this kid, and he had scouts coming for him," John recalled. "I saw it and said, 'Hey, if you're good enough, you work hard enough, they're going to come find you.'" Sure enough, three years later Dolphins scouts drafted Nalbone.

2008 - Started all 16 regular season games in his first season with the Dolphins, the second time in his career that he opened every contest (2006) . . . Named as the co-winner (along with LB Joey Porter) of the team's 2008 Dan Marino Most Valuable Player Award as well as the recipient of the 2008 Don Shula Leadership Award . . . Completed 321 of 476 passes (67.4%) for 3,653 yards with 19 touchdowns and seven interceptions . . . Became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 3,500 yards and have seven or fewer interceptions and just the third quarterback in league history to compile at least 3,400 yards passing and have seven or fewer interceptions, joining Kansas City's Steve DeBerg (3,444 yards, 4 INTs in 1990) and San Francisco's Steve Young (3,465 yards, 7 INTs in 1992) . . . Completion percentage of 67.4 led the NFL and was the third-highest figure of his career . . . The figure set a single-season record by a Dolphin (64.2 by Dan Marino in 1984) as well as in a career (59.4 by Dan Marino from 1983-99) . . . Passer rating of 97.4 was second in the NFL, trailing only the 105.5 mark by San Diego's Philip Rivers . . . In addition, it shattered the Dolphins previous career mark of 86.4 by Dan Marino, while it stands as the second-highest single-season figure in team history, trailing only the 108.9 rating put forth by Marino in 1984. . . Over the course of the year led the Dolphins on 37 touchdown drives, during which time he completed 84.4 percent of his passes (130 of 154) . . . Completed more than 70 percent of his passes eight times on the season while he also had a passer rating of better than 100.0 in eight games . . . First touchdown pass as a Dolphin came on a 5-yard strike to Anthony Fasano in opener against N.Y. Jets (9/7) . . . Put together an 85.0 percent completion mark on 17 of 20 passing in 38-13 win at New England (9/21), the highest completion percentage of his career and the second-highest figure in Dolphins history, trailing only the 92.3 mark by Bob Griese (12 of 13) on December 18, 1978 against New England . . . In the game, Pennington had a streak of 11 consecutive completions in the first half . . . Compiled a passer rating of 122.8 at Houston (10/5), the third straight game in which he had a mark of 100.0 or better, the first Dolphin to do that since Marino in the first three games of 1994 . . . He threw for 284 yards and two touchdowns in the game, both to running back Patrick Cobbs . . . One went for an 80-yard touchdown off a screen pass, the longest completion of his career . . . Went over the 15,000-yard mark for his career in contest against Baltimore (10/19), as he surpassed the plateau on an 8-yard completion to Ted Ginn, Jr. in the third quarter . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week in a 25-16 win over Buffalo (10/26), when he completed 22 of 30 (73.3%) for 314 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions . . . It was the fifth such honor of his career . . . Produced the seventh fourth-quarter comeback win of his career in 17-15 victory over Oakland (11/16) . . . After the Raiders took a 15-14 lead on a 93-yard punt return by Johnnie Lee Higgins, the offense took over at their own 20 with 4:30 to play . . . Pennington proceeded to complete four of five passes for 51 yards as part of a 10-play, 61-yard drive that ended with Dan Carpenter's 38-yard field goal with 38 seconds remaining . . . Lone rushing score of the year came on a 7-yard run the following week against New England (11/23) . . . Went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season in 16-3 win over Buffalo in Toronto (12/7) . . . Had a rating of 104.2 in that Bills game, the first of four in a row to close the season that he reached the 100.0 mark . . . Connected on 23 of 29 passes, including each of his last 11, in the Bills contest . . . The following week against San Francisco (12/14), was 12 of 19 for 156 yards with two touchdowns, no interceptions and a season-best 124.0 passer rating . . . Completed his first six passes of the game, extending his streak of consecutive completions to 17, setting a new Dolphins record, surpassing the previous one of 15, held by Dan Marino (1992) . . . Tied a season-high the following week with three touchdown passes in a 38-31 win at Kansas City (12/21) . . . All three scores went to tight ends, consisting of two to Fasano and one to David Martin . . . The final one to Fasano was a 14-yard strike with 4:08 remaining in the contest to break a 31-31 tie . . . In finale at N.Y. Jets (12/28), connected on 22 of 30 (73.3%) for 200 yards with two touchdowns, no interceptions and a passer rating of 113.2 as the Dolphins clinched the AFC East title with a 24-17 victory . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance, his second such honor of the season and the sixth of his career, as he became the first Dolphins quarterback to come away with the award twice in the same season since Dan Marino in 1999 . . . Accounted for the 100th touchdown pass of his career on a 27-yard strike to Ted Ginn, Jr. in the second quarter . . . He also became the first Dolphin to have a rating of 100.0 or better in four or more consecutive contests since Marino did it in six games in a row (3-8) in 1984 . . . In fact, over the final four regular season games of 2008, Pennington completed 83 of 112 passes (74.1%) for 772 yards with 8 TDs, 1 INT and a passer rating of 112.6 . . .

NFL COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR: For his efforts in 2008, Pennington was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year by the Associated Press . . . It was the second such honor of his career as he also came away with the accolade in 2006 with the New York Jets   . . . Since the award was first given out in 1972, Pennington is the first player to earn it more than once . . . He also was the fourth Dolphin to win the honor, joining QB Earl Morrall (1972), FB Larry Csonka (1979) and QB Dan Marino (1994) . . .

FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACK VICTORIES: In his career, Pennington has been at the controls when his team has rallied from a fourth-quarter deficit for a victory on seven occasions, including once with the Dolphins . . . He guided two such comebacks in both 2003 and 2004:

FINS FACT Lousaka and some of his teammates joined former President Bill Clinton on April 18, 2010, at the Miami-Dade County Homeless Trust's Homestead complex on the final day of the 2010 Clinton Global Initiative University meeting. They were there as part of the rehabilitation and expansion of the existing facilities on the site. "It was an honor and it was encouraging to get that close to somebody who's such a large figure and see that he's a true American and a regular guy," said Lousaka. "He shows that he's around and involved and it was definitely a positive thing. It's always cool to know that a guy like him is a football fan with as busy as his schedule is."

DUAL 100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 18 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers attain the 100-yard mark occurred on November 25, 2001 when Oronde Gadsden accumulated 118 yards on eight receptions and Chris Chambers totaled 101 yards and two scores on five catches against the Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It marked the third time that Gadsden had been a part of a dual 100-yard receiving game, with the first two occasions coming in 1999. The Dolphins are 8-10 in regular season games when they have had a pair of 100-yard receivers and 9-11 overall, including playoffs.

FINS FACT Randy chose to attend the University of Maryland over Penn State because he thought that going to Maryland would improve the chances that his father, Randolph, Sr., and his mother, Beverly, would be able to attend all of his games. In his three years with the Terps, they did not miss a single game he played. During his first two seasons, they drove to most of his road games, sometimes leaving on Thursdays to make it in time to see their only son play. In his final season, they flew to all of the Terps' road games. In Starks' first four NFL seasons, his parents did not miss a Titans home game.

PRO CAREER CAREER TRANSACTIONS: Signed a five-year contract as an unrestricted free agent from Tennessee on March 1, 2008 . . . Originally was the first of two third-round draft choices of the Titans (71st overall) in 2004, with a selection obtained from Houston in a draft-day trade.

TWO DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Two Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season.

TOUCHDOWNS: Williams scored a touchdown in each of the first five games of 2003 . . . Along with his touchdown in the final game of the 2002 season, he scored a touchdown in six straight games . . . That tied a team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown, along with Paul Warfield, who scored a touchdown in six consecutive contests in 1972, and Mark Clayton, who scored in six games in a row over a two-year period, from 1988-89 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. HOUSTON (SEPT. 7): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 17 carries for 69 yards and added five receptions for 60 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 35-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It marked his lone receiving touchdown of the season . . .

AT N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 14): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 34 carries for 125 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 2-yard run . . Also tied for the team lead in receptions with four catches for 37 yards . . . It was his 11th 100-yard rushing game as a Dolphin, moving him past Mercury Morris into sole possession of second place for most 100-yard rushing games by a Dolphin . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 21): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 42 carries for 153 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 1-yard run . . . His 42 rushing attempts set a team record for most carries, breaking the former club record of 40 rushes by Lamar Smith in an AFC First-Round playoff game vs. Indianapolis on December 30, 2000 . . . It also was a new single-game career high for Williams, surpassing his former high of 40 carries, which was set on October 31, 1999 vs. Cleveland as a member of the Saints . . . His 42 carries, combined with his 34 carries in his previous game against the Jets, gave him a total of 76 rushing attempts in consecutive games, which tied an NFL record set by Earl Campbell of the Houston Oilers, who totaled 76 carries in two straight games in 1981 (37 carries vs. Cincinnati on October 4 and 39 carries vs. Seattle on October 11) . . . In the contest, he moved past Lamar Smith (2,107) and Benny Malone (2,129) into ninth place among the Dolphins' all-time leading rushers . . . He was named as the FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week . . .

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 12): Topped the Dolphins' rushing chart with 19 carries for 75 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 14-yard run . . . Along with his touchdown in the final game of the 2002 season, it was the sixth straight game he scored a touchdown, tying a team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown, along with Paul Warfield, who scored a touchdown in six straight games in 1972, and Mark Clayton, who scored in six consecutive games over a two-year period, from 1988-89 . . .

VS. WASHINGTON (NOV. 23): Led the Dolphins in rushing with 23 carries for 107 yards and two touchdowns . . . Added two receptions for ten yards . . . It was his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, his 14th as a Dolphin, and the 26th of his career . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and 24 yards, with both coming in the fourth quarter to key a Dolphins comeback . . . His 1-yard run came on a fourth and goal situation with the Dolphins trailing 23-10, and his 24-yard TD run came with 4:19 left in the contest to give the Dolphins their final score in a 24-23 come from behind victory . . . It was the first time in 2003 and the 11th time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . .

AT DALLAS (NOV. 27): On Thanksgiving Day, led the Dolphins in rushing with 31 carries for 104 yards and added four receptions for 41 yards . . . It was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the year and his 15th as a Dolphin, tying Larry Csonka's club all-time mark . . . In addition, Williams went over the 1,000 yard rushing milestone in the contest, his fourth career 1,000-yard rushing season and his second as a Dolphin, as he became only the second player in team history (along with Csonka) to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons . . .

VS. PHILADELPHIA (DEC. 15): In Monday night game, led the Dolphins in rushing with 18 carries for 107 yards and one touchdown, which came on a 3-yard run . . . Had a season-long 45-yard run in that contest . . . It was his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the year and his 16th as a Dolphin as he broke Larry Csonka's team record of 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

2002 - Started all 16 games in his first season with the Dolphins . . . Became the first Dolphin to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,853 yards and 16 touchdowns on 383 attempts . . . It marked just the eighth time that a Dolphin reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark in a season, and he became the sixth different player to do it . . . Also caught 47 passes for 363 yards and one touchdown . . . Reception total was second on the squad and yardage figure was fourth . . . 2,216 total yards from scrimmage were second-most in the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only Kansas City's Priest Holmes (2,287) . . . 17 total touchdowns tied for second in the AFC and third in the NFL . . . Was the first Dolphins running back to start all 16 games since Sammie Smith in 1990 . . . Accounted for 103 first downs on the season (89 rushing, 14 receiving), the third-highest figure in the AFC and in the NFL . . . On the year, established seven Dolphins single-season records and two single-game standards in regular season play . . .

RUSHING YARDS, ATTEMPTS & TOUCHDOWNS: In 2002, Williams established the club's single-season records for rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns . . . His 1,853 yards broke Delvin Williams' 14-year old yardage record of 1,258, which he set in 1978 . . . His 383 attempts surpassed the previous mark set by Lamar Smith, who had 313 carries in 2001 . . . His 16 rushing touchdowns were one more than the total that Karim Abdul-Jabbar amassed in 1997 . . .

NFL RUSHING LEADER: Williams became the first Dolphin to lead the NFL in rushing . . . With 1,853 yards, Williams' total was 170 more than San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson . . .

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Williams accounted for ten 100-yard rushing games in 2002, shattering the Dolphins single-season record of five, formerly held by Delvin Williams (1978) . . . This included a season-high 228 yards at Buffalo on December 1, which represents a club single-game record . . . Williams also became the first player in club history to produce more than two 100-yard rushing games in a row, having accomplished the feat on two occasions . . . He went over the 100-yard barrier in each of the first three games of the year, and put together five straight such performances in games 10-14 . . .

200-YARDS RUSHING: Williams had two 200-yard rushing games on the season . . . This included a 228-yard effort at Buffalo on December 1, marking a new career-high and establishing the Dolphins' single-game record, as he eclipsed the old mark of 209, first set by Lamar Smith in a First-Round Playoff game against Indianapolis on December 30, 2000 . . . It was the first 200-yard rushing game by a Dolphin in the regular season . . . The previous regular season record was 197 yards by Mercury Morris against New England on September 30, 1973 . . . The following week, in a Monday night game against Chicago, he amassed 216 yards rushing . . . Williams now owns each of the top two single-game rushing totals, and three of the top four regular season (three of the top five, including playoffs) marks in Dolphins history:

PLAYER OF THE WEEK/MONTH: Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week on two occasions in 2002, the second and third times in his career that he has earned the NFL weekly honor . . . His first AFC Offensive Player of the Week came for the games of November 24-25, following his performance against San Diego on November 24 in which he led the Dolphins with 29 carries for 143 yards and two touchdowns and added two catches for eight yards . . . It marked the first time that a Dolphin was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week in the regular season since the 2000 season-opener when running back Lamar Smith earned that honor against Seattle . . . He also was named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of December 8-9, following his performance in a Monday night win over Chicago on December 9, in which he rushed for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries . . . He became just the third Dolphin to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week accolades two or more times in the same season during the regular season, joining QB Dan Marino, who did it on five occasions (1984, 1985, 1988, 1989, 1999) and QB Scott Mitchell, who won the honor twice in 1993 . . . Williams' first weekly award of his career occurred in 2001 as a member of the Saints when he was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week in the season's fourth week as he rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries and caught five passes for 42 yards in a win against Minnesota . . . In addition, Williams was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October, 2001 as a member of the Saints, when he rushed for 411 yards and two touchdowns on 99 carries, and caught 22 passes for 157 yards in four games . . .

PRO BOWL: Earned his first career Pro Bowl appearance . . . He became the first Dolphins running back to be named to the Pro Bowl since Andra Franklin was chosen in 1982 (Keith Byars was selected as a fullback in 1993) . . . Overall, Williams became the sixth running back in team history chosen to the Pro Bowl, along with Byars (1993), Larry Csonka (1970-74), Franklin (1982), Mercury Morris (1971-73), and Delvin Williams (1978) . . . In the AFC's 45-20 victory, led the squad in rushing with 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries . . . Added three receptions for 18 yards and a forced fumble on special teams . . . For his efforts, was named the game's MVP, becoming the second player in Dolphins history to earn the honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian, who was named MVP of the 1974 Pro Bowl . . .

POSTSEASON HONORS: Following the season, Williams earned All-Pro status from virtually every media outlet . . . He was a first-team selection by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, The Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Also was named to the "All-Iron" Team as selected by CBS-TV analyst Phil Simms . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS – VS. DETROIT (SEPT. 8): In his Dolphins debut, rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 attempts, marking the 13th 100-yard rushing game of his career . . . Did not play at all in the fourth quarter as the Dolphins held a 42-14 lead entering the final period . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and two yards . . . It marked the 12th 100-yard rushing game by a Dolphin in a season-opener and was the ninth-highest by a Dolphin on opening day . . . It also was the fifth-best rushing total by a Dolphin in his debut with the team . . . His two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both were tied for the second-highest single-game totals of his career . . .

AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 15): Accounted for back-to-back 100-yard rushing games with 132 yards on 24 carries . . . Also caught two passes for a team-high 62 yards . . . This included a season-long 52-yard reception and a 10-yard TD pass from Jay Fiedler . . . It marked the first time a Dolphin posted consecutive 100-yard rushing games since 1994 when Bernie Parmalee had two straight 100-yard rushing games on October 16 (150 yards vs. the L.A. Raiders) and October 30 (123 yards at New England) . . . It was the tenth time in team history a Dolphins running back had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games . . . His receiving touchdown, along with Rob Konrad's 9-yard scoring catch from Fiedler, marked the first time two Dolphins running backs had at least one touchdown reception in the same game since December 12, 1988 against Cleveland, when Jim Jensen and Lorenzo Hampton each caught a touchdown pass from Dan Marino . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (SEPT. 22): Rushed for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, and caught two passes for 23 yards in the Dolphins' 30-3 victory . . . It marked the 15th 100-yard rushing game of his career as he became the first Dolphin in club history to rush for 100 yards in three consecutive games . . . His 53-yard run in the game was the longest of his career to that point and now is the fourth longest . . . Coupled with his 132 yards rushing the previous week at Indianapolis, his 283 yards rushing in those two contests was the most by a Dolphin in back-to-back games to that point, breaking the former team record of 273 yards rushing in consecutive games that was set by Bernie Parmalee in 1994 (150 yards rushing on Oct. 16, 1994 vs. L.A. Raiders and 123 yards rushing on Oct. 30, 1994 at New England) . . . Williams also had 110 yards rushing in the second half of the game, becoming the first Dolphin to rush for 100 or more yards in a half since Lamar Smith had 109 yards rushing in the first half against the Jets on October 23, 2000 in New York . . .

VS. BALTIMORE (NOV. 17): Rushed for 102 yards on 26 attempts and two touchdowns . . . Led the Dolphins in receiving as well with five catches for 28 yards . . . It was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season (17th of career), as he tied Delvin Williams' club single-season record for most 100-yard rushing games first set in 1978 . . . His touchdowns came on runs of two and four yards . . . The two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both tied for the second-highest single-game total of his career . . . It was the third time on the season and the sixth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For Williams, it began a streak of four straight games with a pair of rushing touchdowns . . .

VS. SAN DIEGO (NOV. 24): Rushed for 143 yards and two touchdowns on 29 carries and caught two passes for eight yards . . . His touchdowns came on runs of one and 12 yards . . . It was his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season (18th of career), as he eclipsed Delvin Williams' team single-season record of five, which had been set in 1978 . . . In addition, Ricky Williams went over the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the season in the contest, reaching that plateau in 11 games, tying Delvin Williams for the fewest games in a season to reach 1,000 yards rushing; Delvin Williams reached 1,000 yards rushing in 11 games in 1978 . . . His two rushing touchdowns and his two overall touchdowns both tied for the second-highest single-game total of his career . . . It was the fourth time on the season and the seventh time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For his efforts in that contest, Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for games of November 24-25 . . .

AT BUFFALO (DEC. 1): Turned in the most prolific rushing day in Dolphins history with 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 attempts . . . His rushing total represents the highest single-game rushing total of his career, breaking his former single-game best of 179 yards rushing on 40 carries on October 31, 1999 against Cleveland as a member of the New Orleans Saints . . . It also was a new Dolphins record for most yards rushing in a single game, breaking the overall club record of 209 yards on 40 carries, set by Lamar Smith on December 30, 2000 against Indianapolis in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, and breaking the Dolphins' regular season single-game rushing record, set by Mercury Morris with 197 yards rushing on 15 carries on September 30, 1973 against New England . . . It also was the second-highest single-game rushing total in a loss in NFL history, surpassed only by O. J. Simpson's 273 yards rushing on November 25, 1976 as a member of the Buffalo Bills in their 27-14 defeat at Detroit . . . Williams also set a new Dolphins single-season rushing record, breaking Delvin Williams' former club record of 1,258 yards that he set in 1978 . . . In that contest, Ricky Williams had 121 yards rushing in the first half, marking the second time in 2002 that he surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark in one half . . . He then had 107 yards rushing in the second half of the game, marking the third time in '02 that he recorded 100 or more yards rushing in a half . . . In addition, his total of 224 yards rushing after three quarters is the highest rushing total in NFL history after three quarters of play . . . It was his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 19th of his career . . . His touchdowns came on a 45-yard run on the Dolphins' first play from scrimmage and a 55-yard run in the third quarter . . . The 55-yard run is the third-longest run of his career . . . It marked the fifth time in 2002 and the eighth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . .

VS. CHICAGO (DEC. 9): In a Monday night win over Chicago, rushed for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries, marking his second consecutive 200-yard rushing performance and the fourth straight game in which he posted a pair of rushing scores . . . His touchdowns came on runs of 15 and 63 yards . . . The 63-yard run marked a career-long to that point (now second) . . . His rushing total represents the second-highest single-game rushing total of his career and the second highest single-game total in Dolphins history . . . It was the second-highest single-game rushing figure in Monday Night Football history, surpassed only by the 221 yards by the Raiders' Bo Jackson on November 30, 1987 at Seattle . . . It also was the most yards rushing by an individual against the Bears in that team's history . . . It was his fourth straight 100-yard rushing game, setting a new club record for most consecutive 100-yard rushing games . . . Overall, it was his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 20th of his career . . . It was the sixth time in '02 and the ninth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game . . . For his efforts, Williams was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the games of December 8-9 . . .

VS. OAKLAND (DEC. 15): Put together his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing game by compiling 101 yards on 27 attempts . . . It was his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 21st of his career . . . Also had five receptions for 39 yards . . . In the contest, surpassed Lamar Smith as the club's single-season leader for most rush attempts, which Smith had set in 2001 with 313 . . . Did not have a touchdown, snapping his string of four straight games with a score . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (DEC. 29): Rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts . . . Added two receptions for seven yards . . . His 185 yards rushing is the fourth-highest single game rushing total in Dolphins history (fifth, including playoffs) . . . It was his tenth 100-yard rushing game of the season and the 22nd of his career . . . The ten 100-yard games in a career tied him with Mercury Morris for the second-most ever by a Dolphin . . . In the game he set a new Dolphins club record for most rushing touchdowns in a season . . . He tied the mark of 15, first set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997, with his 8-yard run in the first quarter . . . He set the record with a 14-yard TD in the second quarter . . . It was the seventh time in '02 and the tenth time in his career that he had two rushing touchdowns in a game.

2001 - Started all 16 games in which he played with the Saints . . . Rushed for 1,245 yards and six touchdowns on 313 carries, and caught 60 passes for 511 yards and one score . . . It marked the seventh 1,000-yard rushing season in Saints history, and the first time it had been achieved in back-to-back seasons . . . He joined George Rogers (1981, 1983) as the only players in Saints history to rush for 1,000 yards two times . . . Rushing total was the fourth-highest single-season total in Saints history at the time (now sixth) . . . It also ranked fourth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in '01 . . . Was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 1,756 total yards from scrimmage . . . Reception total was the second-most by a running back in Saints history, trailing only the 74 catches by Tony Galbreath in 1978 . . . Reception figure also tied for 19th in the NFC and tied for sixth among conference running backs . . . Totaled 77 first downs on the year (58 rushing, 19 receiving), fourth in the NFC and tied for eighth in the NFL . . . Rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown on 30 attempts and caught five passes for 42 yards vs. Minnesota (10/7) in the Saints' 28-15 victory . . . For his efforts, was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career . . . The following week at Carolina (10/14), compiled 147 yards rushing and a score on 31 carries in a 27-25 win . . . Had a season-long 46-yard run in the game . . . Score came on a 1-yard TD run as time expired to provide New Orleans with the winning margin . . . Had 51 yards rushing on 21 carries while tying a career-high with nine receptions for 65 yards vs. Atlanta (10/21) . . . In four games during the month of October, totaled 411 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 99 attempts (4.2 avg.) and caught 22 passes for 157 yards . . . For his performance, was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month . . . Rushed for 121 yards on 24 carries and had three receptions for 52 yards at San Francisco (11/11), as he surpassed Mario Bates for sixth on the club's all-time rushing list . . . Ran for 120 yards, including a 14-yard TD, on 28 carries, and had four receptions for 48 yards the week afterwards vs. Indianapolis (11/18) . . . Rushed 27 times for 102 yards and had four receptions for 72 yards, including a season-long 42-yard catch, vs. Carolina (12/2), as he moved ahead of Tony Galbreath into fifth on the Saints' career rushing chart.

2000 - Started all ten games in which he played . . . Missed each of the final six games of the year with a broken left ankle . . . Rushed for 1,000 yards and eight touchdowns on 248 attempts and caught 44 passes for 409 yards and one score . . . It marked the sixth 1,000-yard rushing season in Saints history, and he became just the fifth different player to accomplish the feat . . . Rushing total ranked 12th in the NFC and 23rd in the NFL . . . At the time of his injury, with six games still to play, his 1,000 rushing yards were second-most in the NFC while his 1,409 total yards from scrimmage also were second in the conference . . . At San Diego (9/10), rushed for 50 yards on 24 attempts and caught four passes for 27 yards, including a 13-yard TD catch from Jeff Blake for his first NFL touchdown reception . . . Rushed for 107 yards on 23 carries the following week at Seattle (9/17), commencing a string of five games in a row in which he reached the 100-yard rushing mark . . . Matched a team mark with his third straight 100-yard rushing performance as he compiled 128 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries at Chicago (10/8), tying George Rogers (1981), Wayne Wilson (1983) and Dalton Hilliard (1989) for that honor . . . In addition, the Bears game marked the first of five in a row that he tallied a rushing touchdown . . . Rushed 38 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns, and had three receptions for 35 yards vs. Carolina (10/15), as he established the club record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games at four . . . Also had a 34-yard completion to Keith Poole in the Panthers contest, his first NFL completion . . . The week afterwards at Atlanta (10/22), ran for a season-high 156 yards and three touchdowns on 29 carries, as he registered his fifth straight 100-yard rushing game . . . The three rushing touchdowns tied a club record that had previously been achieved by six others, most recently by Mario Bates at L.A. Rams on December 4, 1994 . . . Although the streak ended the following week at Arizona (10/29) with 54 yards rushing and a TD on 21 attempts, turned in the best receiving day of his career with nine catches for 92 yards . . . Rushed for 81 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries vs. San Francisco (11/5) . . . The score came on a 1-yard run in the second quarter, marking the fifth straight game in which he had a rushing touchdown, tying the club record first set by Hilliard in 1989 . . . Compiled 93 yards on 16 attempts at Carolina (11/12) . . . Final carry was a 2-yard run in the fourth quarter as he reached 1,000 yards rushing for the season . . . Sustained a broken left ankle on the play and was inactive each of the final six regular season games and NFC First-Round Playoff game vs. St. Louis (12/30) . . . Saw limited action in a reserve role in Divisional Playoff contest at Minnesota (1/6/01) . . . Had six carries for 14 yards and one reception for two yards.

1999 - Started all 12 games in which he played as a rookie . . . Rushed for 884 yards and two touchdowns on 253 attempts and caught 28 passes for 172 yards . . . It stands as the third-best rushing figure by a rookie in Saints history, trailing only the 1,674 yards by George Rogers in 1981 and the 1,353 yards by Rueben Mayes in 1986 . . . It was the tenth-highest rushing total in the NFC and 20th in the NFL in 1999 . . . It was the most by a rookie in the NFC and third-most among NFL rookies, trailing only Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (1,553) and Denver's Olandis Gary (1,159) . . . First career 100-yard rushing game occurred in his sixth NFL game when he rushed for 111 yards on 25 attempts at N.Y. Giants (10/24) . . . In the process, became the first Saints rookie to rush for 100 yards since Mario Bates had 141 yards on 22 carries vs. Atlanta on November 13, 1994 . . . Followed up that performance by registering 179 yards on 40 carries vs. Cleveland (10/31), marking the third-highest single-game rushing total in Saints history and the second-best by a rookie . . . His 40 attempts represented a new club single-game best, as he surpassed the previous mark of 35, held by both Earl Campbell (at Minnesota, 11/24/85) and Dwight Beverly (at St. Louis, 10/11/87) . . . Became the first Saint since Bates in 1995 to account for 100 rushing yards in consecutive games.

COLLEGE   Started 46 of the 48 games in which he played during his four-year career for the Longhorns (1995-98) . . . Played fullback his first two years before shifting to tailback for his final two seasons . . . Rushed for 6,279 yards and 72 touchdowns on 1,011 carries and caught 85 passes for 927 yards and three scores in his career . . . Finished his collegiate career as the owner of 20 NCAA rushing records, including most rushing yards (6,279), all-purpose yards (7,206), highest average per carry (6.2), rushing touchdowns (72), total touchdowns scored (75), 200-yard rushing games (11; tied Marcus Allen of Southern California (1978-81), points scored (452), games with a touchdown (33) and games with two or more scores (21) . . . Also finished with 44 school records . . . Rushing total now ranks second in NCAA history, trailing only former University of Wisconsin star and current Houston Texan Ron Dayne (6,397) . . . Averaged 182.5 yards rushing a game over his final two seasons . . . Had at least one reception in 41 of 46 career regular season games . . . BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was a member of the Dolphins from 2006-08. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history.

The Dolphins also have had two sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. The first set of brothers to have coached with the Dolphins was the Shulas, which included David (1982-88) and his younger brother, Mike (1991-92, 2000-02). In addition, Judd Garrett was an offensive quality control coach with the club from 2000-05, while his brother, Jason, was the team's quarterbacks coach from 2005-06.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club has had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

ORIGINAL DATE, VENUE	OPPONENT	NEW DATE, VENUE	REASON	RESULT
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	New England	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chicago	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT
9/16/01, Pro Player Stadium	Buffalo	1/6/02, PPS	9/11	Dolphins, 34-7
10/27/03, Qualcomm Stadium	San Diego	10/27/03, Sun Devil	California Wildfires	Dolphins, 26-10
9/12/04, Pro Player Stadium	Tennessee	9/11/04, PPS	Hurricane Ivan	Titans, 17-7
10/23/05, Dolphins Stadium	Kansas City	10/21/05, DS	Hurricane Wilma	Chiefs, 30-20

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The most recent inductee was Dan Marino, who played quarterback under Shula with the Dolphins from 1983-95, and entered the Hall in 2005. Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was Head Coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95). This total of 15 is the second-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined.

GAME 1

FALCONS 19, DOLPHINS 7
September 13, 2009

Georgia Dome
Atlanta, GA

Putting to rest any questions about how less creative they were going to be on the offense in 2009, the Miami Dolphins pulled out some new trickery in the season opener with the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome but could not overcome a sloppy first half in a 19-7 loss. Miami was held scoreless until the closing minutes of the game when Chad Pennington hit running back Ricky Williams with a 9-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 12-play, 76-yard drive. Turnovers played a key role with the Dolphins having four in the game, two of which led directly to points for the Falcons, with Pennington getting picked off by Atlanta linebacker Mike Peterson late in the third quarter to put Miami in a very deep hole. Three plays later, Falcons second-year quarterback Matt Ryan connected with tight end Tony Gonzalez on a 20-yard scoring pass, with Gonzalez shaking the tackle of Dolphins strong safety Yeremiah Bell and making it into the end zone to give Atlanta a 16-0 lead. Miami's defense earlier had tightened up after allowing Ryan to take Atlanta deep into scoring territory on the opening drive, with veteran kicker Jason Elam missing a 42-yard field goal. He also missed a 38-yarder in the second half, hitting the left upright, but made a 50-yarder with 7:35 left in the game to stretch Atlanta's lead to 19 points, which was accomplished without the Falcons being able to run the ball effectively as Miami held them to 68 yards on the ground and 2.5 yards per carry. Late in the second quarter, with the ball at the Atlanta 16 after some nifty play-calling by offensive coordinator Dan Henning, Fasano caught a 6-yard pass from Pennington and was hammered by Falcons linebacker Mike Peterson, who jarred the ball loose. Atlanta cornerback Brian Williams scooped it up and ran it back 53 yards to the Miami 31. Elam made a 36-yard field goal to change it from what could have been a 7-7 or 7-3 ballgame to 13-0 at the half. Ryan mixed in an efficient 14-play, 89-yard scoring drive, capping it off with a 1-yard scoring pass to fullback Ovie Mughelli, converting two third-and-longs on the drive to keep it alive. The highlights for Miami came on a couple of drives in the second quarter when Henning broke out the Wildcat for the first time in 2009 and with rookie quarterback Pat White seeing game action. On the next drive, Greg Camarillo made a circus 14-yard catch, managing to keep the ball off the ground with his feet, and was given the catch after an instant replay review. Two plays later Pennington pitched to Brown who threw it back to him for a double pass as Pennington hit a wide open tight end Joey Haynos for a 21-yard gain down to the Falcons' 16 at the two-minute warning. Fasano's fumble happened on the next play for a dramatic change in momentum and Miami never recovered.

GAME 2

COLTS 27, DOLPHINS 23	Land Shark Stadium
September 21, 2009	Miami, FL

    Playing in their first prime time home opener since Thurs., Sept. 10, 1981 and their first Monday night home opener since September 22, 1973, the Miami Dolphins dominated the time of possession, but could not prevent a fourth-quarter comeback led by Peyton Manning in a 27-23 loss to the Indianapolis Colts at Land Shark Stadium. Ronnie Brown made an impact in the base offense and the vaunted Wildcat formation to the tune of 136 yards and two touchdowns on 24 carries. Miami rushed for 239 yards, the team's most yards on the ground since gaining 270 yards on December 1, 2002 against the Buffalo Bills and owned the time of possession by a 45:07 to 14:53 advantage. It was the Dolphins highest time of possession in team history, besting the 43:39 mark set on December 7, 1987 against the New York Jets. The Colts became the first team since time of possession was established as a stat in 1977 to win a game with such a marked difference. Manning opened the game with an 80-yard scoring pass to tight end Dallas Clark streaking down the middle as he got behind linebacker Akin Ayodele and broke the tackle of safety Gibril Wilson. However, the Dolphins answered with an efficient 75-yard scoring drive that took nine plays and ate up 6:06 of clock, with Brown capping it off with a 14-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat to tie the game. Manning couldn't answer on his next drive and the Colts had to punt for the first time, allowing Miami to put together another long scoring drive, this one covering 53 yards on 13 plays and eating 7:24 of clock. Dan Carpenter kicked a 45-yard field goal to give Miami a 10-7 lead. The Colts answered with a 48-yard drive that was capped off by a 43-yard field goal from Adam Vinatieri but Miami responded by driving right back down the field to set up Carpenter for a 44-yard field goal that gave the Dolphins a 13-10 lead. Indianapolis managed to get three points on the board before the end of the half as Vinaitieri kicked a 48-yard field goal off the left crossbar to tie the game at 13-13. The third quarter saw only three total possessions as Brown finished off a 13-play, 80-yard drive with a 3-yatd touchdown run to give his team a 20-13 lead, but Manning came right back with a 79-yard drive in three plays to tie the game, with Donald Brown finishing it off with a 15-yard scoring run up the middle. Carpenter's third field goal of the game, from 45 yards off the dirt gave the Dolphins a 23-20 lead with under four minutes to play, but Manning hit Pierre Garcon with a 48-yard scoring pass to cap off an 80-yard drive in just 32 seconds in what would later become the game-winning score. With the loss, the Dolphins fell to 39-35 all-time on Monday Night Football.

GAME 3

CHARGERS 23, DOLPHINS 13   Qualcomm Stadium
September 27, 2009   San Diego, CA

Costly turnovers hurt Miami as they fell to the San Diego Chargers, 23-13 and dropped to 0-3 on the season. After Miami's defense played tough on San Diego's opening drive and forced a punt on that first series, Chad Pennington methodically drove the offense 94 yards all the way down to the Chargers' 1-yardline. On second-and-goal from inside the 1after a defensive offsides on San Diego, Brown fumbled the exchange with Pennington into the end zone and by the time left guard Justin Smiley pounced on it, his shoulder was on the end line, resulting in a touchback for the Chargers. San Diego, with new life, drove 72 yards to take a 3-0 lead. The Dolphins defense broke through to force their first turnover of the season when Joey Porter sacked Philip Rivers and knocked the ball loose for Phillip Merling to recover, leading to Dan Carpenter's 24-yard field goal that tied the game at 3-3. Miami took a little momentum into the locker room at the half after stifling Rivers and his explosive offense again late in scoring territory. Nate Keading pushed his 41-yard field goal to the right, allowing the Dolphins to stay tied at intermission. The second half started out positively, although Miami received terrible news as Pennington hurt his shoulder on a pass play and gave way to Chad Henne who was listed as the third quarterback. Henne drove the Dolphins 44 yards on 12 plays to their first lead on Carpenter's 23-yard field goal. On the first play after Darren Sproles' 16-yard kickoff return, Rivers launched a 47-yard pass down the middle to Malcolm Floyd, who had two defensive backs blanketing him. Two plays later, Rivers took it into the end zone himself from five yards out to give the Chargers the lead for good at 10-6. San Diego's defense forced another three-and-out, aided by two false start penalties, and Rivers went for the home run again on the first play after the punt. This time he connected with Vincent Jackson for 55 yards down the middle as Jackson got behind Will Allen and Yeremiah Bell all the way to the Miami 13. Jackson finished the game with five catches for 120 yards. The Dolphins tightened up defensively to force the Chargers to settle for Keading's 26-yard field goal and keep them within 10 points. Henne's lack of experience came back to bite him on the next drive as his pass intended for Davone Bess was intercepted by safety Eric Weddle and returned 31 yards into the end zone to put the game out of reach at 23-6 with under six minutes to go in the game. The Dolphins didn't go away quietly as Henne put together a 10-play, 76-yard scoring drive, converting a 4th-and-4 in the process. Ricky Williams finished things off with a 14-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit back to 10 points but time ran out on Miami.

GAME 4

October 4, 2009   Miami Gardens, FL

It was a coming out party for the Miami Dolphins rookies at Land Shark Stadium as cornerback Vontae Davis and wide receiver Brian Hartline each scored their first career touchdowns in Miami's 38-10 rout of the Buffalo Bills. This also was the Dolphins' first win of the season, and in the process, second-year quarterback Chad Henne earned a win in his first career NFL start while also throwing his first touchdown pass. He was an efficient 14-of-22 for 115 yards, the one touchdown and no interceptions. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Ricky Williams also gave him plenty of help on the ground game as Miami rolled up 250 rushing yards – 200 alone from those two. Not only did the younger players have a big afternoon, but first-year outside linebacker Cameron Wake had a career game as well. Wake, the two-time CFL Defensive Player of the Year, had two and a half sacks of Bills quarterback Trent Edwards and also did well stopping the run, finishing with six solo tackles (four for loss), two quarterback hurries and a forced fumble. Davis electrified the crowd early in the second quarter, just after second-year kicker Dan Carpenter put up the first points on the scoreboard with a 33-yard field goal. Davis read the eyes of Edwards as he tried to hit Lee Evans on an out pattern and broke on the ball, jumping in front of Evans to make the interception and sprinting untouched down the sideline 23 yards into the end zone. Miami's mainstays on offense, Brown and Williams, gave Henne all of the support he needed with another dominant performance. Brown's 38-yard sprint midway through the second quarter out of the Wildcat formation got the ball all the way down to the Miami 6 and he finished off the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run on fourth down to stretch the lead to 17-3. The Dolphins, who entered the day ranked third in the league in rushing with an average of 161.3 yards per game, surpassed that total again as they blitzed through the depleted Bills defense. When Williams ripped off a 28-yard run late in the fourth quarter and then Brown followed with a 25-yarder to the 1, Miami was well over 200 yards rushing. Brown finished it off with a 4-yard scoring run for his second touchdown of the day with 3:43 left to salt the game away at 38-10 and once again make a statement about the effectiveness of the running game. In addition to the six sacks and holding Buffalo to just 46 total rushing yards, the secondary came up with three interceptions - two by Will Allen.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 31, NEW YORK JETS 27   Land Shark Stadium
October 12, 2009   Miami Gardens, FL

   Chad Henne engineered a memorable fourth-quarter comeback, culminated by Ronnie Brown's 2-yard touchdown run with six seconds remaining in the game, as the Dolphins, donning their orange jerseys, knocked off the New York Jets, 31-27, at Land Shark Stadium. The Dolphins won for the 40th time on Monday Night Football (35 losses) and improved to 4-0 when wearing their orange jerseys. Brown's score capped off a 13-play, 70-yard drive that ate up 5:06 of clock, with Henne converting two key third downs with clutch passes to Greg Camarillo both times. Henne completed 20-of-26 passes for 241 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and he was never sacked as he finished with an outstanding passer rating of 130.4. His marquee moment came with 10:10 remaining after New York had regained the lead, 20-17, when on first down from his own 47 out of the play-action fake Henne reared back and launched a 53-yard bomb to a streaking Ted Ginn, Jr. down the middle of the field. Ginn got behind top-notch Jets cornerback Darrelle Revis and caught the ball in stride and waltzed into the end zone. Miami ended the game the same way it started, with a clock-killing, efficient drive that had the Jets defense off balance the entire time with a creative mixture of the run, pass and Wildcat formation. After the opening kickoff, Henne, Brown and running back Ricky Williams keyed a 12-play, 80-yard drive that chewed up 7:29, with Brown throwing a 21-yard pass to tight end Anthony Fasano on his first pass attempt of the year out of the Wildcat. Williams took a handoff from Brown on the very next play and swept left 18 yards to the New York 27 and Henne later connected with Davone Bess for 7 yards and with Ginn for 4 yards on a crossing route to give the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 5. Three plays later Brown dove across the goal line to give Miami the early lead. However, the Jets called a gutsy fake punt on the ensuing drive. Punter Steve Weatherford sprinted 26 yards down the right sideline and then with the help of a pass interference call on Dolphins safety Yeremiah Bell, Sanchez tied the game with a 3-yard scoring pass to newly acquired Braylon Edwards in the back of the end zone. Henne answered with a six-play, 62-yard drive to set up Dan Carpenter's 35-yard field goal with less than a minute to go in the first quarter. The two teams then traded punts and when it looked like Miami's defense had held again to force another punt,
Jets special teams coach Mike Westhoff struck again, this time calling for the direct snap to the up back, Brad Smith, and former Dolphins kicker Jay Feely connected from 40 yards to tie the game. Sanchez showed how far he has grown in five games as he managed to drive the Jets 31 yards on six plays in less than a minute with the first half winding down to get into field goal range. Feely hit from 43 yards with four seconds left to allow New York to take a 13-10 lead into the locker room at intermission. Defense dominated the third quarter as both punters kept busy, but Henne, Brown and Williams found their rhythm again as they put together the longest drive the Jets had allowed to that point and one that bled into the fourth quarter. The Dolphins drove 64 yards on 15 plays, with Brown accounting for 32 yards himself out of the Wildcat and Williams picking up 15 more, including 10 big yards on a 3rd-and-6 out of the Wildcat. Williams hurdled Jets safety Jim Leonhard as he turned the corner to get the first down, and later followed fullback Lousaka Polite down to the 1-yard line on the last play of the quarter. Two plays later, Henne on the play-action rolled right and found Fasano in the back of the end zone for a 17-13 lead. Brown finished the night with 74 rushing yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns and Williams added 68 yards on 11 carries.

GAME 6

October 25, 2009   Miami Gardens, FL

Drew Brees was picked off three times and sacked five times, but still managed to complete 22-of-38 passes for 298 yards and three touchdowns en route to the Saints' 46-34 victory over Miami in Land Shark Stadium. Miami's offense struck first as Ricky Williams capitalized on a an interception by Tyrone Culver to score on a 5-yard run the very next play and then he broke loose for a 68-yard touchdown later in the first quarter to make it 14-3. Williams finished with a career-high three rushing touchdowns in the game against his former team, but it wasn't enough as the Saints returned two interceptions returned for touchdowns, one for 42 yards by Darren Sharper and one for 56 yards by Tracy Porter. The tide started to turn in the closing two minutes of the first half after a Davone Bess fumble was reviewed by instant replay and upheld, giving the Saints the ball at midfield with 1:38 remaining. Brees converted one key first down and then on 3rd-and-6 from the 21 with 12 seconds remaining Brees found Marques Colston, who made a leaping catch and dove across the line for what looked to be a touchdown. However, after a booth review it was ruled he was short. The Saints were going to have to settle for the field goal because the clock was going to start right away but the Dolphins called a timeout with five seconds left in the half, giving New Orleans a chance to change its mind and go for it. Brees kept it and stretched the ball over the line for the score so the Saints went into the locker room trailing 24-10. On the third play of the second half, disaster struck for Miami as Saints safety Darren Sharper took a Henne interception 42 yards the other way for a touchdown to cut the Dolphins lead to 24-17. Dolphins cornerback Nate Jones helped steal some momentum from New Orleans when he picked off Brees in his own end zone for a touchback to kill another scoring drive, and after an exchange of punts, back-to-back sacks of Brees by Joey Porter and Phillip Merling on one play and Taylor on another. On 3rd-and-17 Taylor hit Brees from behind and knocked the ball loose again and this time Randy Starks recovered at the New Orleans 15. Williams on first down swept left for 4 yards to the 11 and on 2nd-and-6 Ronnie Brown was in trouble and suffered a 4-yard loss back to the 15. On 3rd-and-10 Henne was hit as he threw for Williams, so the Dolphins had to settle for Dan Carpenter's 33-yard field goal to stretch the lead to 27-17 – and they would be outscored 29-7 the rest of the way. Second-year quarterback Chad Henne, who was coming off of a stellar performance in the win over the New York Jets two weeks prior, had an 18-for-36 performance for 211 yards and the two interceptions. He saw the Saints switch up some things in the second half in a desire to slow down Miami's running game, which had piled up 120 yards and three rushing touchdowns on just 22 carries in the first 30 minutes, and managed to hit one big pass play of 67 yards to rookie receiver Brian Hartline that set up Williams' third score of the game, but he found a lot tougher sledding in that second half. That play to Hartline followed by Williams' 4-yard run into the left corner of the end zone gave Miami a 34-24 lead headed into the final 15 minutes, but the Saints just kept on coming and Brees and tight end Jeremy Shockey found something in the secondary they could exploit the rest of the way. Shockey caught a 66-yard pass from Brees on the first play of the fourth quarter and finished the night with four catches for 105 yards.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 30, NEW YORK JETS 25   Meadowlands
November 1, 2009   East Rutherford, NJ

    After a nondescript first half that saw Miami's Dan Carpenter and New York's Jay Feely exchange field goals, things got wild and wacky in the third quarter thanks to a rejuvenated Ted Ginn, Jr., who ran back two kickoffs for touchdowns, and an opportunistic veteran Jason Taylor on defense. When the dust kicked up by the legendary swirling winds settled, the Dolphins were victorious, 30-25, to improve to 3-4 on the season and 3-0 in the AFC East. Taylor's 48-yard fumble return for a touchdown, the ninth touchdown of his career and an NFL-record sixth by fumble, was sandwiched in between a 100-yard kickoff return by Ginn and a 101-yarder, marking the first time that has happened in the same game in Dolphins history. His second return was even more impressive as it appeared he was bottled up in the middle of the field near the 20 but he kept his feet and found the open field down the right sideline to pay dirt. Ginn's first return came after Feely's career-long 55-yard field goal gave the Jets a short-lived 6-3 lead, and then Taylor pounced on a loose ball after Paul Soliai stripped running back Shonn Greene of the ball and sprinted into the end zone to give Miami a 17-6 lead and stun the home crowd of 77,531. But suddenly the Jets' offense came alive after Sanchez and company had been stifled to that point and came up with some big plays to keep pace, aided by one big special teams play. Davone Bess muffed a punt at his own 26 and New York recovered. Rookie quarterback Mark

Sanchez finished off the drive with a 1-yard quarterback keeper to cut the deficit to 17-13, but Ginn made it 24-13 just like that on the next return to help Miami regain momentum. Sanchez came right back and hit Jerricho Cotchery on a 53-yard pass play, most of that coming after the catch. Two plays later he found Braylon Edwards from 19 yards out as Edwards made a one-handed catch and dragged Sean Smith and Chris Clemons into the end zone. The two-point attempt failed to make it a 24-19 ballgame Chad Henne engineered a 13-play, 67-yard drive that ate up 7:47 of clock and he tried for two points but failed, leaving it a 30-19 ballgame, and Sanchez delivered again, taking his team 81 yards on just six plays and capping it off with a 16-yard touchdown pass to tight end Dustin Keller. He initially converted the two-point conversion but the Jets were flagged for an illegal shift and he misfired the next time to keep it a five-point game at 30-25. Miami's defense held strong on the desperation last drive by Sanchez, even though he converted one 4th-and-10 by hitting Keller for a 16-yard completion behind linebacker Reggie Torbor. The Dolphins answered with a sack by Randy Starks that set up 4th-and-13 from the 15 and when Sanchez's desperation pass sailed out of the end zone they left the Meadowlands victorious. The Jets came into the game leading the league in rushing with an average of 184.9 yards per game and made it known early on they were going to try to run the ball down Miami's throat. By game's end they had rushed the ball 40 times for 127 yards, with Thomas Jones doing the bulk of the work to the tune of 102 yards on 27 carries, but their average of just 3.2 yards per carry was a testament to Miami's defensive line and linebackers. Sanchez was forced to try to beat the Dolphins with his arm and had a better performance than the first time these two teams met on Monday night three weeks prior, completing 20-of-35 passes for 265 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for one touchdown and almost pulled out the win at the end, but defensive players like Taylor, Joey Porter, Jason Ferguson and the rest would not let that happen.

GAME 8

NEW ENGLAND 27, DOLPHINS 17
November 8, 2009

Gillette Stadium
Foxborough, MA

There was success again at Gillette Stadium with the Wildcat formation for the Miami Dolphins, but this time it was not enough to overcome Tom Brady and Randy Moss and the big-play offense of the New England Patriots in a 27-17 loss. Moss' 71-yard touchdown reception on the Patriots' lone possession of the third quarter broke the back of a Dolphins defense that had kept the game close up to that point by holding New England to field goals instead of touchdowns. Miami's offense grabbed a one-point lead with a clock-killing 16-play drive to open the second half, with running back Ronnie Brown recreating memories of 2008 when he threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joey Haynos. But just three plays later, Brady out of the shotgun with plenty of time hit Moss on a crossing route in stride and Moss stiff-armed Vontae Davis after the catch and turned it into a 71-yard touchdown. Brady hit Moss for the two-point conversion that proved to be the difference down the stretch. Moss caught six passes for 147 yards and Brady completed 25-of-37 for 332 yards and one touchdown. It was a tough test for Dolphins rookie cornerback Vontae Davis having to contend with Moss and he held his own early on, staying step-for-step with the bigger and faster wideout in the first quarter and intercepting Brady's first pass thrown in that direction. That led to a 52-year-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter, the longest of his career, and a short-lived 3-0 lead. Brady answered with a five-play, 63-yard drive and connected with Moss on a 36-yard pass down the right sideline to the 1 to set up Lawrence Maroney for a 1-yard touchdown run. Moss fended off Davis with his left hand and made a one-handed grab. After a Stephen Gostkowski field goal made it a one-touchdown game, Miami answered with an 80-yard play drive highlighted by a 33-yard run from rookie quarterback Pat White. He was on the field for the tying touchdown as he took the shotgun snap and pitched it to Ricky Williams, who sprinted 15 yards into the end zone for the score. Two pass interference penalties on Miami late in the first half hurt the Dolphins as Brady was able to get the Patriots into field goal range and get his team a 16-10 lead going into the locker room at the half. With the win, New England improved to 6-2 while Miami dropped to 3-5 and 3-1 in the AFC East.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 25, TAMPA BAY 23
November 15, 2009

Land Shark Stadium
Miami Gardens, FL

    Dan Carpenter's game-winning field goal with 10 seconds remaining lifted Miami to a 25-23 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to improve to 4-5 on the season. Chad Henne finished the exciting contest going 17-of-31 for 175 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Charlie Anderson filled in admirably for Joey Porter, who was deactivated before the game, with five tackles, two sacks of Bucs rookie quarterback Josh Freeman and two forced fumbles, and Cameron Wake and Channing Crowder also sacked Freeman. Jason Taylor came up with an interception near the end of the first half to set up Kory Sperry's touchdown reception, the first of his career. Taylor also broke up two passes and had one tackle for loss, actually on the play before his interception when he threw Cadillac Williams for a 2-yard loss. On 2nd-and-12, Freeman threw for Michael Clayton and it was ruled incomplete. Taylor picked up the ball and ran it into the end zone in case it was ruled a fumble. The play went under booth review and it was determined that it was a catch and then an interception because the ball never hit the ground but the whistle blew so the touchdown did not count. There was an unsportsmanlike conduct after the play on Tampa Bay Head Coach Raheem Morris, so it was Miami's ball at the 8. Henne found tight end Kory Sperry in the back of the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown. Carpenter's kick made it 16-6 with 1:25 left in the half and Miami managed one more field goal by Carpenter before intermission to stretch the lead to 19-6. Connor Barth's 54-yard field goal late in the third quarter made it a 10-point game and then Ronnie Brown's fumble after a 9-yard run eventually led to the Bucs' first touchdown of the game. Brown suffered what would be a season-ending foot injury on the play, and Freeman took advantage six plays later when he connected with Maurice Stovall on a 33-yard scoring pass on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut Tampa Bay's deficit to 19-16. Carpenter's 45-yard field goal with 6:08 left made it a six-point lead and after Miami's defense stopped Freeman on 4th-and-6 from the Dolphins' 22-yard line with 2:04 remaining it looked as if the win was secure. But three plays later, Henne stepped up into the pocket and threw an ill-advised pass for Brian Hartline that was picked off by Quincy Black, who ran it back to the Miami 26 and the Bucs took over with 1:43 left. Williams dove over from the 1 and Barth's point after kick gave the Bucs' a 23-22 lead. Henne showed a short memory on the game's final drive when he connected with Davone Bess on a 25-yard pass followed by a leaping 16-yard catch on the near sideline. Bess was taken down inbounds so Henne spiked the ball at the 34 on the next play. Then Ricky Williams ripped off his 27-yard run to set up Carpenter for the game-winning field goal.

GAME 10

November 19, 2009   Charlotte, NC

Facing a stiff challenge from a very similar opponent Thursday night at Bank of America Stadium, the Miami Dolphins showed the resolve that defined them during their 2008 AFC East title run and pulled out a gutsy 24-17 victory to even their record at 5-5. Miami entered the game with the knowledge that its leading rusher, running back Ronnie Brown, was lost for the season to a foot injury and it would also be without its starting tight end, Anthony Fasano, and backup nose tackle, Paul Soliai. Not about to feel sorry for themselves, the Dolphins filled in the holes and after trudging through the first quarter clearly out of synch they found their rhythm in the second quarter and took control of the game. Ricky Williams had his second straight 20-carry game, something he did with regularity when he led the league in rushing in 2002, and gained 119 yards on the 22 carries taking over the starting role for Brown. He salted the game away with a 46-yard touchdown run with 3:55 left in the contest, his third touchdown of the night and ninth of the season. It was the third time in his career and second time in 2009 that he scored three touchdowns in a game. Williams received a boost from second-year running back Lex Hilliard on the second scoring drive as the back had an 18-yard run that converted a 3rd-and-16. When Williams dove over the pylon from a yard out to give Miami a 14-3 lead with less than a minute to go in the first half it became the first time in his career that he had a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game (he caught a 14-yard scoring pass from Chad Henne on the previous drive). Outside linebacker Joey Porter and defensive end Randy Starks spearheaded a physical defense that kept the Panthers out lf the end zone until the last six minutes of the ballgame and put their quarterback, Jake Delhomme, on his back numerous times. Porter, who missed the previous week's win over Tampa Bay, led the team with eight tackles (seven for loss) and added two sacks while Starks had a sack and came up with big run-stuffing tackles. Cornerback Nate Jones had an interception on Carolina's first drive of the second half after DeAngelo Williams had gotten the Panthers all the way down to Miami's 24. Henne finished the night completing 17-of-29 passes for 172 yards and one touchdown with no interceptions and Davone Bess caught six passes for 63 yards to lead the team. Miami did not turn the ball over at all and now has its second two-game winning streak of the season.

GAME 11

BUFFALO 31, DOLPHINS 14   Ralph Wilson Stadium
November 29, 2009   Buffalo, NY

   Ricky Williams continued to turn back the clock with his running but he and the Miami Dolphins found themselves in another AFC East dogfight at Ralph Wilson Stadium with the Buffalo Bills until the final four minutes of the game. This time they came out on the losing end of a 31-14 ballgame, falling to 5-6 overall on the season. Williams grinded out 115 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries and his 1-yard run out of the Wildcat midway on the opening drive of the second half seemingly gave Miami back the momentum it had lost in the first half. But it wasn't enough as Buffalo's offense, behind quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick and running back Fred Jackson, answered with a game-tying 75-yard drive and then watched their defense take over from there. Cornerback Drayton Florence's interception of an underthrown Chad Henne pass caused by a hit from Chris Kelsay set up the game-clinching touchdown for Buffalo. Terrell Owens hauled in a 51-yard touchdown pass on the very next play from Fitzpatrick, padding the lead given to Buffalo by Rian Lindell's career-long 56-yard field goal. Safety Donte Whitner killed any hopes of a Miami comeback with his team's third interception of the day, running it back to the Miami 26, and Jackson added insult to injury with his 7-yard scoring run to account for the final margin. Henne was picked off for the third time on the final series. This was the first time in 2009 the Dolphins had thrown more than two interceptions in a single game (Williams was picked off in the first quarter out of the Wildcat from the Bills' 1). After an efficient second quarter and solid first drive of the second half, Miami's offense lost its rhythm and never got it back, even as the defense did all it could, sacking Fitzpatrick five times and picking him off once.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 22, NEW ENGLAND 21　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Land Shark Stadium
December 6, 2009　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Miami, FL

   Dan Carpenter's 41-yard field goal with 1:02 remaining in the game lifted Miami to an emotional 22-21 victory over New England and tightened up the race in the AFC East for the second straight year. The packed house at Land Shark Stadium couldn't breathe easy until inside linebacker Channing Crowder intercepted Brady with 42 seconds left, and even then everyone had to wait for the officials to review the play as they wanted to make sure Brady wasn't already sacked by Cameron Wake. Henne completed a career-high 29 passes on a career-high 52 attempts for a then career-high 335 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. After one quarter of play it did not look like the game would be this close at the end, much less that it would end in victory for the Dolphins. On the sixth play of the game Brady connected with Randy Moss on a 58-yard touchdown pass as Moss got behind rookie cornerback Vontae Davis and free safety Gibril Wilson to give New England a quick 7-0 lead. Brady led another 80-yard march down the field and Kevin Faulk capped it off with a 6-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second quarter to stretch the lead to 14-0. Henne answered with the poise of a seasoned veteran, taking the Dolphins 88 yards on 10 plays in just under four minutes. He capped it off with a 13-yard scoring pass to Davone Bess, who finished with a career-high 10 catches for 117 yards and the touchdown. During that drive, Henne established that he would be employing an aerial attack all afternoon by spreading the ball out among Bess, Brian Hartline, Greg Camarillo, Ted Ginn, Jr., and his tight ends. That would come into play on the game-winning drive, especially on the most crucial play of the game - a 4th-and-6 with 2:09 remaining and Miami down 21-19 – when Henne sprinted right and hit Camarillo for 13 yards on a comeback route to keep the drive alive. Patriots head coach Bill Belichick was again left shaking his head after a loss Miami's defense came up with the first of those big plays at the two-minute warning of the first half when New England chose to go for it on 4th-and-1 from the Dolphins' 6. Brady handed it to fullback Sammy Morris and he was stuffed at the line for no gain by Joey Porter with help from nose tackle Paul Soliai and a host of other defenders, turning the ball over on downs. Henne ran a picture-perfect two-minute drill as he went 7-of-9 for 72 yards to set up Carpenter's 29-yard field goal that made it a 14-10 ballgame at the half. The Dolphins' will was tested again early in the second half when Brady connected with Sam Aiken on an 81-yard touchdown pass that looked like it was going to be picked off by rookie cornerback Sean Smith for his first career interception. Aiken timed his jump well and reached over Smith's shoulders to make the catch, and then he ran untouched down the sideline to make it 21-10. Henne drove the team right back down the field all the way inside New England's 10 but had his potential touchdown pass to Camarillo tipped by Patriots cornerback Leigh Bodden and the Dolphins had to settle for a 24-yard field goal by Carpenter to make it an 8-point game. After the defense forced another three-and-out, Henne went back to the air and got the Dolphins back into the end zone with a 7-yard strike to Hartline in the back of the end zone to cap off a 12-play, 64-yard drive. The two-point conversion failed, setting up the dramatic finish, and it became more dramatic after Davis went up high in the corner of the end zone to intercept a Brady pass intended for Moss.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 14, JAGUARS 10 Jacksonville Municipal Stadium
December 13, 2009 Jacksonville, FL

On a day when second-year quarterback Chad Henne set a Dolphins record for consecutive completions, it was Miami's defense that came up big by stifling Jacksonville's dangerous running back, Maurice Jones-Drew, and constantly frustrating the entire Jaguars offense in a crucial 14-10 victory on the road. Miami forced seven three-and-outs and pressured quarterback David Garrard all afternoon, giving up one big pass play of 63 yards in the third quarter, to keep their playoff hopes alive at 7-6. Randy Starks put an exclamation point on the victory by mauling Garrard on a 4th-and-3 keeper with less than two minutes to play. Jones-Drew finished with just 59 rushing yards on 18 carries and a touchdown. Meanwhile, the Dolphins' offense converted 9-of-14 third downs and Henne finished 21-of-29 for 220 yards, including a streak of 17 straight completions that set a single-game record and tied the overall record set by Chad Pennington over two games in 2008. He also scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 1-yard keeper in the second quarter that stretched the lead to 14-0. Ricky Williams carried the ball 28 times for 108 yards and a touchdown, marking the fourth time in five games he surpassed 100 yards on the ground. Greg Camarillo led the team with seven catches for 110 yards as Henne spread the ball around to eight different receivers, with two of his catches going for 24 and 23 yards to keep drives alive. But three turnovers by the offense (two fumbles and an interception) allowed the Jaguars to stay in a game in which they were dominated in time of possession by more than 10 minutes (35:06 to 24:54). That's where the defense came in and for the second week in a row shut out the opposing offense in the fourth quarter. In the first half the defense had plenty of time to build up some energy as Henne engineered two 13-play scoring drives and found his rhythm like no Dolphins quarterback had ever done before in one game. He took the offense 67 yards on 13 plays in 6:47 on the second drive of the game, with Williams capping it off from a yard out after fullback Lousaka Polite converted a 4th-and-1 and caught a 4-yard pass on another 3rd-and-1. Jacksonville was forced to punt again, and this time Henne drove the offense 74 yards on 13 plays in 7:22, finishing it off himself as he kept the ball on the play-action fake and emphatically spiked the ball in the end zone in a rare show of emotion.

GAME 14

TITLE: TITANS 27, DOLPHINS 24 (OT)

TITANS 27, DOLPHINS 24 (OT) LP Stadium
December 20, 2009 Nashville, TN

    There was another Music City Miracle once again by the Cumberland River, and it almost lifted the Miami Dolphins to an improbable come-from-behind victory, but it was not to be as the Tennessee Titans recovered to pull out a 27-24 overtime win and deal a blow to Miami's 2009 playoff hopes. Rob Bironas kicked a 46-yard field goal four plays after Dolphins quarterback Chad Henne threw his third interception of the game and an intense comeback from 18 points down fell short. Rookie wide receiver Brian Hartline was the author of the miracle play late in the fourth quarter as he turned an under thrown pass by Henne that was about to be picked off by Michael Griffin into a 57-yard catch that set up Henne's 2-yard scoring pass to tight end Anthony Fasano in the back of the end zone. Hartline knocked the ball out of Griffin's hands into his own and was taken down at the Titans' 11. Ricky Williams took a handoff from Pat White and dove in for the two-point conversion to tie it. Miami won the toss and got the ball first at its own 23 following a 23-yard return by Ted Ginn, Jr., but on 3rd-and-6 from the 27 Henne's pass sailed high and Griffin redeemed himself by intercepting it. A 15-yard personal foul penalty on Greg Camarillo moved the ball up to the Miami 27 and then Johnson lost 2 yards back to the 29. On 2nd-and-12 it was no gain for Johnson and on 3rd-and-12, Johnson gained a yard and it looked like he might have fumbled but he was ruled down. Bironas came out for the field goal and Miami called a timeout. Bironas then made good on the kick despite a high snap for the win. Henne was 29-of-46 for a career-high 349 yards (his second 300-yard passing performance of the season), one touchdown and the three interceptions and Hartline caught two passes for 96 yards. Williams rushed 19 times for 80 yards for the Dolphins. Johnson carried the ball 29 times for 104 yards while Vince Young went 14-of-27 for 236 yards and a career-high three touchdowns to go along with one interception. Miami also had a fumble lost by Williams and Johnson himself lost a fumble, so the two teams combined for six turnovers in the game.

GAME 15

December 27, 2009   Miami Gardens, FL

Houston jumped to a 27-0 lead in the first half against Miami in Land Shark Stadium and withstood a late Dolphins rally to win 27-20 in a key AFC matchup. Texans quarterback Matt Schaub completed 14-of-18 passes for 247 yards and two touchdowns in the first 30 minutes, and then went just 6-of-13 for 39 yards and an interception in the second half. Meanwhile, Dolphins second-year quarterback Chad Henne did basically the reverse, finishing 35-of-55 for 322 yards, one touchdown and one interception after going just 11-of-23 for 82 yards and a pick in the first half. He eclipsed 300 yards passing for the third time in three weeks. With his 349 yards the previous week at the Titans, Henne became the first Dolphins quarterback to throw for 300-plus yards in consecutive games since Dan Marino did it over a three-game stretch in 1998. Running back Lex Hilliard, who took over the bulk of the running duties in the third quarter after Ricky Williams left with a shoulder injury, was Henne's leading receiver with nine catches for 74 yards and a 10-yard touchdown reception. Schaub connected with his favorite wide receiver, Andre Johnson, twice for 38 yards on the first two plays of the game – a 13-yarder on a slant and a 25-yarder near the right sideline. The Dolphins defense clamped down from there and forced Kris Brown to make a 49-yard field goal, but the offense couldn't get anything going and when Schaub got the ball back he drove Houston 80 yards on nine plays, hitting Johnson on 4th-and-1 with a 10-yard scoring pass that gave his team a quick 10-0 lead. Things snowballed from there as Schaub took the Texans 94 yards on just six plays, with Schaub hooking up with Jacoby Jones on a 44-yard touchdown pass to stretch the lead to 17-0, and on Miami's next drive, Henne's short pass over the middle for Williams bounced off of his hands right into the waiting arms of Houston rookie linebacker Brian Cushing and he ran it back 6 yards to the Miami 28. Rookie running back Arian Foster, who led all rushers with 97 yards on 19 carries, ran through a huge hole up the middle 17 yards into the end zone for a 24-0 lead. Another three-and-out gave Schaub one more chance to cushion the lead and he moved the Texans all the way down to the Miami 3 before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Brown. He then watched Henne drive the Dolphins 61 yards on 18 plays to three points on Dan Carpenter's 27-yard field goal in the closing seconds and he took a knee, content with a 24-point lead headed into the locker room. Henne responded on the opening drive of the second half and marched the offense down the field 79 yards on 12 plays, with Hilliard running it in from 2 yards out for the Dolphins' first touchdown of the game and the first of his career. On Houston's first drive of the second half there was a potential momentum swing when Miami's Kendall Langford got his hand up and tipped a Schaub pass at the line of scrimmage into the air. Safety Yeremiah Bell came down with the interception and ran it back 29 yards to the Houston 33. However, Henne was sacked on first down for a 7-yard loss and Carpenter's 56-yard field goal sailed wide right, just his third miss of the season. To their credit, the Dolphins still did not give up as Henne opened up another scoring drive with a 35-yard completion to Ginn, Jr. and then followed that up with a 15-yard completion to Davone Bess, who made an acrobatic catch along the right sideline. Two plays later Hilliard caught the 10-yard scoring pass out of the backfield after setting it up with a 7-yard run and Miami was within 10 points at 27-17 with 9:25 remaining. Two more defensive stops kept the outcome in the balance, and Henne put together an 11-play drive that stalled at Houston's 20, setting up Carpenter's 38-yard field goal that brought Miami within one touchdown of the Texans with 2:30 left in the game. Carpenter bounced a high onside kick but nobody from the Dolphins could break through that first line of defense and Houston's Kevin Walter recovered it. Miami had no timeouts left so after the clock stopped for the two-minute warning all the Texans needed was one first down, and Foster got it on 3rd-and-3 to end the game.

GAME 16

STEELERS 30, DOLPHINS 24 Land Shark Stadium
January 3, 2010 Miami Gardens, FL

Even when they were down to their emergency third quarterback and trailing the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers by 17 points, the Miami Dolphins maintained their personality and did not give up. As a result, they nearly pulled off a miraculous comeback in the 2009 regular-season finale at Land Shark Stadium but came up short in a 30-24 loss. Miami wound up finishing the season the same way it started with three straight losses and had to witness the scary sight of its second-round draft pick at quarterback, Pat White, get carted off the field and taken by ambulance to the hospital with a serious head injury. Second-year starting quarterback Chad Henne was hit high near the end of the first half and experienced blurred vision that kept him out of the game in the second half so Tyler Thigpen was tasked with leading the comeback and he almost pulled it off. But in the end, Pittsburgh's defense, running game and strong-armed quarterback proved to be too much. The Steelers rushed for 202 yards, with Rashard Mendenhall gaining 94 on 20 carries and Willie Parker picking up another 91 on 12 carries while Ben Roethlisberger completed 18-of-27 passed for 220 yards and three touchdowns. Henne finished completing 16-of-20 for 140 yards a touchdown and an interception and Thigpen was 4-of-8 for 83 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Davone Bess led all receivers with five catches for 85 yards and a career-long 34-yard touchdown reception.

SEAN SMITH SETS ROOKIE RECORD

With his start against Pittsburgh on January 3, 2010, Seasn Smith extended the record for most starts by a rookie cornerback in team history with 16. The second-round pick from Utah broke the record of 14 starts in a season set by Curtis Johnson in 1970 and Travis Daniels in 2005. He became the tenth defensive rookie to start every game in team history and the first since 1998 when DE Kenny Mixon started every contest.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 12, JAGUARS 9
August 17, 2009

Miami Gardens, FL

In a physical contest between in-state rivals, Miami outlasted Jacksonville in its preseason opener, 12-9 at Land Shark Stadium. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter after Dan Carpenter connected on a 48-yard field goal. Chad Pennington was sharp in his first game, connecting on four of seven passes for 38 yards. Ten Ginn, Jr. was active as well, catching 2 passes for 26 yards. The wide receiver added one carry on a reverse and positioned himself perfectly behind the secondary for a 34-yard pass interference penalty from deep in Miami territory. Jacksonville responded in the second quarter, tying the game at 3-3 on a 43-yard Josh Scobee field goal that culminated an eight play, 52 yard drive by Jaguars backup quarterback Todd Bouman. Miami, with Chad Henne under center marched back with a 14 play, 55-yard drive which gave them a 6-3 lead after Connor Barth connected on a 27-yard field goal in the second quarter. However, the Jaguars answered back to tie the game again at 6-6 when Scobee made a 36-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining in the second quarter. The second half brought both heavy rain and several turnovers for both teams. Henne was the first to have a miscue as his short pass for wide receiver Patrick Turner was picked off by Brian Witherspoon at the Miami 33. The turnover led to a 9-6 Jacksonville lead as Scobee connected on a 43 yard field goal after the Dolphins' defense held strong. Henne responded with a strong drive, this time ending with a touchdown as he found tight end Ernest Wilford on a 33-yard touchdown. The former Jacksonville wide receiver, deftly evaded a Jaguar defender then walked in untouched for the score and 12-9 lead. The extra point was blocked however by Montavious Stanley. Miami's defense held Jacksonville scoreless for the rest of the game, with rookies Sean Smith and J.D. Folsom notching interceptions to stall Jaguar drives in the third and fourth quarter respectively. Miami sealed the victory on Jacksonville's last drive when Courtney Bryan broke up a Paul Smith pass in the end zone on fourth and four. Miami, with Pat White under center, ran out the clock for the Dolphins first win of the preseason.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 27, PANTHERS 17　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Land Shark Stadium
August 22, 2009　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Miami Gardens, FL

　　　Miami defeated Carolina 27-17 in their second preseason game at Land Shark Stadium. The Dolphins started out strong as Chad Pennington opened up the scoring immediately driving down the field on a six play-60 yard drive capped off on a well-designed play where Pennington found Ronnie Brown wide open on a wheel route for a 28-yard touchdown reception. Carolina answered back to tie the score at 7-7, when Panthers running back DeAngelo Williams had an impressive run breaking several tackles on a 25-yard touchdown score. Pennington responded in his most extensive action of the preseason, driving Miami down the field for a 21-yard field goal from Connor Barth for a 10-7 lead. For the game, Pennington completed 8-of-10 passes for 105 yards and one touchdown and a game-high 132.8 QB rating. Miami forced a punt on Carolina's next possession, but rookie free agent Chris Williams muffed the kick, allowing the Panthers to gain possession on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Decori Birmingham subsequently punched it in from two yards out to give Carolina a 14-10 advantage. Miami opened up the second half with Chad Henne, who marched down the field on a 13-yard, 54-play drive that culminated in a 41-yard field goal by Dan Carpenter. After another Miami defensive stop, the Dolphins got the ball again and scored quickly when Lex Hilliard exploded off tackle for a 39-yard touchdown in a drive that lasted two plays for 53 yards in a span of 46 seconds. Carolina's John Kasay added a 21-yard field goal, but Henne led the Dolphins' on his third scoring drive of the evening when he found Joe Kowalewski for a two-yard touchdown pass and the 27-17 final score. Henne finished the game completing 10-of-16 passes for 75 yards, one touchdown and a 94.5 QB rating. For the night, Miami's defense held strong, only allowing the Panthers to convert on 2-of-11 third down conversions and limiting Carolina to 244 yards of total offense.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 10, BUCCANEERS 6   Raymond James Stadium
August 27, 2009   Tampa, FL

Miami traveled to Tampa Bay and defeated the Buccaneers 10-6 to improve their 2009 preseason record to 3-0. It was the first time the Dolphins began a preseason with three consecutive wins since 1998, when the squad went undefeated with a 4-0 record. Early on, the Buccaneers dominated the time of possession by a margin of 20:18 to 9:42, limiting Miami to only four first downs in the first half, with three coming on one drive. After Miami stopped the Buccaneers in the game's opening drive on third-down, Patrick Cobbs made an exceptional special teams play, getting a hand on a Dirk Johnson punt. However, the punt passed the line of scrimmage and Charlie Anderson was unable to come up with the deflection, allowing Tampa Bay to pounce on the ball and recover it to maintain possession for the Buccaneers. Byron Leftwich was able to take this second chance and lead his team down the field for a 29-yard field goal from Mike Nugent and a 3-0 lead. After a stalled Miami drive, the Tampa Bay signal caller led his unit down the field again with the same result from Mike Nugent, this time connecting on a 38-yard field goal on the Buccaneers' first possession of the second quarter. The game would go on to take an interesting turn when lightning forced a 45-minute delay as both teams were sent into the locker room for their safety with 10:11 remaining in the second quarter. Head Coach Tony Sparano and his staff used this time to go over miscues and the Dolphins came back sharp, responding with their best possession as Chad Pennington led the team on a 10-play 53 yard drive culminated by a 34-yard field goal from Dan Carpenter. Miami carried the momentum into the third quarter when the Dolphins scored the lone touchdown of the game on their first possession. Pennington found Anthony Fasano wide open on a misdirection play in the back of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown and a 10-6 lead which would be the final score of the game. The touchdown was set up by a 54-yard Pennington to Brian Hartline reception where he beat Tampa Bay's Torrie Cox on a fade route. The rookie from Ohio State finished the night with a game-high 79 yards on three catches while Pennington had a QB Rating over 100.0 for the second straight game, finishing the contest with a rating of 103.1, completing nine of 18 passes for 128 yards and one touchdown. The defense was also able to effectively get pressure on Tampa Bay's three quarterbacks (Leftwich, Luke McCown and rookie first-round pick Josh Freeman), finishing with four sacks on the day.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 10, SAINTS 7   Louisiana Superdome
September 3, 2009   New Orleans, LA

Miami traveled to New Orleans and defeated the Saints 10-7 to finish the 2009 preseason with a perfect 4-0 record. The unbeaten mark was the first for Dolphins since the 1998 season, with that team advancing to the AFC Divisional Championship. The beginning of the contest saw the Saints driving down the field on their first possession with Mark Brunell at the helm in place of Drew Brees who was held out for precautionary reasons. New Orleans drive stalled at the Dolphins 42 yard line when Jason Taylor batted down a Brunnel pass to Heath Evans in the flat on fourth and two which turned over the ball on downs. Chad Pennington was sharp on his first drive after the change of possession, leading the Dolphins on a nine play, 35-yard drive which ended with a Dan Carpenter field goal from 41 yards. On the drive, Pennington found Greg Camarillo on a nifty 17-yard pass down the sideline. New Orleans marched down the field again, but rookie Sean Smith ended the drive in impressive fashion. In tight, one-on-one coverage with Courtney Roby, Smith turned around and made an incredible one-handed interception for a touchback. He reached up with his right hand and snared it, then managed to keep his feet inbounds for the touchback. Pennington would go on to play the remainder of the first quarter and two plays in the second frame before giving way to Chad Henne. After struggling in the previous week's game against Tampa Bay, Henne responded against the Saints. The signal-caller put together a near-perfect second quarter by completing all seven of his passes for 47 yards on his first drive. That led to Patrick Cobbs' 6-yard touchdown run, capping off a 10-play, 68-yard drive and giving Miami a 10-0 lead. Henne's most impressive throw was a 23-yard bullet to Ted Ginn, Jr. on 2nd-and-10. The former second-round pick out of Michigan ended the night completing 11 of 16 passes for 89 yards and was able to keep some plays alive with his feet. Miami's defense stepped up big against the high-powered New Orleans offense, which came into the game averaging 33.3 points and 424 yards of total offense, by pitching a shutout up until Rod Harper's 55-yard punt return for a touchdown with 8:11 remaining in the game. The Dolphins sacked ex-Dolphins quarterback Joey Harrington eight times for a total loss of 36 yards. By the time rookie quarterback Pat White took a knee to kill the final seconds off of the clock at the end of the game, Miami had held the Saints to a grand total of 234 total yards of offense and just 89 on the ground.

LONG TIME COMING

Miami's offensive line paced the NFL's fourth-best rushing attack in 2009, led by Jake Long, who was named as a starter in the 2010 Pro Bowl. Long has started all 31 games at left tackle for the Dolphins since becoming the first overall pick in the 2008 NFL draft, and joins Richmond Webb (1992-95) as the only Dolphins offensive tackle to be named a Pro Bowl starter. Long becomes the first Dolphins offensive lineman selected to back-to-back Pro Bowls since Webb was named to seven straight Pro Bowls (1990-96).

100-YARD RICKY

Ricky Williams has accounted for a franchise record 24 100-yard rushing games as a Dolphin. He tied the previous mark of 15, first set by Larry Csonka, with a 104-yard effort (31 atts.) at Dallas on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 2003. Williams surpassed the mark with a 107-yard, 1 TD performance (18 atts.) two weeks later against Philadelphia in a Monday night contest on December 15. In addition, Williams holds the two highest single-season totals in club annals. In his five seasons with the club, the Dolphins have posted a mark of 20-4 when he has run for 100 or more yards.

* Playoff game    Super Bowl
+ Single-game record by two rushers, 277 yards; includes Larry Csonka 18 for 80.

FOUR QUARTERBACKS

When Tyler Thigpen entered the game against Pittsburgh on January 3, 2010, he became the fourth quarterback to see game action in 2009, joining Chad Henne, Chad Pennington and Pat White. It was the first time four quarterbacks played in the same season for the Dolphins since 1993, when Steve DeBerg, Dan Marino, Scott Mitchell and Doug Pederson all saw game action.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four year stretch from 1971-74, they compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998.

STARTING THEM BIG AND EARLY

The Dolphins and Cleveland Browns are the only teams in the NFL to have two offensive linemen start all 16 games in their rookie seasons over the last three years. For the Dolphins, Samson Satele started all 16 games at center in 2007 and Jake Long followed the achievement in 2008. For the Browns, it was Joe Thomas at left tackle in 2007 and Alex Mack at center in 2009.

Dec. 27   –   The Dolphins name 54-year-old Chuck Studley as their Defense Coach to replace Bill Arnsparger. Studley had spent the 1983 season as defensive coordinator and then interim head coach of the Houston Oilers.

March 5   –   Miami Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces plans to build a new multi-purpose stadium in north Dade County. Mr. Robbie also announces acquisition of the land and discusses possible stadium funding.

June 24   –   Running back David Overstreet is killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas.

Oct. 21   –   Wide receiver Nat Moore catches a 19-yard TD pass from QB Dan Marino for the 58th touchdown of his Dolphin career, surpassing Larry Csonka's all-time club record of 57.

Nov. 11   –   The Dolphins remain the NFL's only unbeaten team as they improve their record to 11-0 (16 straight regular-season wins) with a 24-23 victory over Philadelphia. DE Doug Betters' block of an Eagle PAT with 1:52 remaining in the game seals the win.

Dec. 2   –   The Dolphins lose a 45-34 decision to the Raiders, but QB Dan Marino breaks the all-time NFL record for TD passes in a season with his 37th. His record-breaking touchdown pass, which came on a four-yard toss to Jimmy Cefalo in the first quarter, was the first of four on the day for Marino as he reached the 40-touchdown plateau. He also shatters Dolphin single-game records for most yards passing (470), most completions (35) and most attempts (57).

Dec. 17   –   Miami ends the regular season with the best record in the AFC (14-2) following a 28-21 victory over Dallas. WR Mark Clayton catches three touchdown passes to give him 18 for the season as he eclipses the all-time NFL mark in that category. Dan Marino becomes the first-ever NFL quarterback to pass for over 5,000 yards in a season as he ends up with 5,084. The most prolific passing season in NFL history also consists of 48 touchdown passes, 564 attempts, 362 completions and only 17 interceptions for a franchise record passer rating of 108.9. Both Clayton (73-1,389) and WR Mark Duper (71-1,306) surpass prior Dolphin records for receptions and reception yardage in one season.

Dec. 20   –   QB Dan Marino is named as the NFL's Most Valuable Player by the Associated Press.

Feb. 19 – Miami appoints Receivers and Quarterbacks Coach David Shula to the position of Assistant Head Coach. In addition, the club names Mike Westhoff as the Special Teams/Tight Ends Coach.

June 3 – Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.

Sept. 6 – Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as quarterback of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child – Daniel Charles.

Sept. 21 – Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game.

Oct. 12 – In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

Nov. 24 – The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.

Nov. 25 – Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.

Dec. 14 – Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 10   –   John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year

Jan. 20   –   Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.

Jan. 27   –   Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.

Aug. 16   –   The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.

Sept. 22   –   NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is canceled because of strike.

Oct. 4   –   The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

Oct. 11   –   Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.

Oct. 25   –   After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses, 34-31, in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team at the time.

Nov. 1   –   Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 29   –   The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.

Dec. 30   –   RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

Feb. 29   –   Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).

July 31   –   The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the preseason.

Oct. 9   –   The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.

Oct. 23   –   Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Oct. 30   –   Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

Dec. 12   –   Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21,1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

Jan. 23 – Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.

Jan. 25 – Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Feb. 27 – David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their respective positions to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.

March 1 – George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.

March 6 – Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.

May 15 – Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.

June 12 – Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.

Sept. 17 – In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Oct. 8 – In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.

Nov. 12 – Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history at the time.

Nov. 19 – Miami defeats Dallas, 17-14, in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys.

Dec. 3 – Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

Jan. 7 – Joseph Robbie, founder and owner of the Dolphins and the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium, dies of respiratory failure at age 73.

Jan. 12 – The Miami Dolphins and Robbie Stadium Corporation undergo an organization realignment to ensure continued administration of both entities by the Robbie family. Tim Robbie becomes President of the Dolphins, Dan and Janet Robbie are named Executive Vice Presidents of the team, while Eddie Jones is named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the club. In addition, J. Michael Robbie is named Executive Vice President of Robbie Stadium Corporation.

Jan. 19 – Dolphin President Tim Robbie announces that the Dolphins have signed Don Shula to a three-year contract to remain as head coach.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphins great Bob Griese is among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Griese becomes the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor with induction scheduled for August 4.

Feb. 7 – Monte Clark, former San Francisco and Detroit Head Coach and Dolphin Assistant Coach, is named Miami's Director of Pro Personnel, while Charley Winner is given expanded duties and is named the club's Director of Player Personnel.

Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.

Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins record a 30-7 triumph over the Buffalo Bills, marking Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as the team's head coach.

Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.

Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."

Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.

Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.

Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.

Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff game was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.

Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.

Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.

March 8 – Mike Shula joins the Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.

March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.

May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.

May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.

June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.

June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil.

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson, a week after a federal-court ruling in Minneapolis made a free agent of Jackson, in addition to Garin Veris, Webster Slaughter and D.J. Dozier.

Oct. 4 – In a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touch-down pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn right Achilles) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Historical Highlights • 483

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

May 6 – Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.

Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant career passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a 10-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10, at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history.

Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

Aug. 4 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.

Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.

Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.

Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.

Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week, a 17-3 Dolphins loss on December 28.

Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.

March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.

Aug. 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Muñoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.

Nov. 29 – In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 27 – In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first playoff win since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.

Jan. 14 – Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.

Jan. 21 – Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.

March 2 – Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.

June 15 – Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.

Sept. 13 – The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.

Oct. 10 – The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.

Oct. 17 – Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.

Dec. 5 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at the Meadowlands. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

Historical Highlights • 489

Dec. 21 – Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.

Dec. 27 – Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996. Mare would finish the season with 39 field goals.

Jan. 9 – The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.

Jan. 15 – The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 16 – Jimmy Johnson, the Dolphins' General Manager/Head Coach since 1996, retires. Dave Wannstedt, the team's Assistant Head Coach in 1999, is named Head Coach.

Jan. 24 – Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.

Feb. 1 – Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.

Feb. 7 – Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.

Feb. 10 – Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.

Mar. 13 – Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.

Apr. 14 – The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.

May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.

June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.

Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.

Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.

Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.

Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ends the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It is the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marks the longest game in the history of Monday Night Football.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 12th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.

Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 6 – The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.

Jan. 15 – Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.

Jan. 27 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.

Feb. 2 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.

Mar. 1 – Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.

May 9 – Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.

June 4 – George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Aug. 4 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.

Sept. 13 – In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.

Dec. 10 – The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 16 – The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.

Dec. 22 – Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 30 – With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of these five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

Jan. 6 – In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).

Jan. 28 – Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.

Feb. 5 – The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).

Feb. 13 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.

March 14 – The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.

June 5 – At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).

Sept. 8 – The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.

Sept. 22 – The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.

Oct. 13 – In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.

Nov. 24 – Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.

Dec. 1 – In a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo, Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.

Dec. 9 – In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13).

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins fall to the Vikings, 20-17, at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome on a Saturday afternoon. A win would have secured the AFC East title for the Dolphins over the weekend as New England is defeated by the Jets on Sunday. Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5. He also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

Dec. 29 – The Dolphins drop a 27-24 overtime decision to the Patriots in their first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. The Patriots produce 11 points over the final 2:46 to send the game into overtime, where Adam Vinatieri's 35-yard field goal 2:03 into the extra period gives New England the victory. A win by the Dolphins would have given them the AFC East title. A win by the Jets over the Green Bay Packers later in the day makes the Jets the 2002 AFC East champions, thus eliminating the Dolphins from the playoffs for the first time since 1996. Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing touchdown of the season as he establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing total also leads the NFL, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

Feb. 2 – Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.

Feb. 13 – The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.

May 2 – Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.

May 4 – Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.

May 9 – Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.

June 28 – At a press conference, it is announced that former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton, popularly known as the "Marks Brothers", will be inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll at halftime of a December 15 game against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium.

Oct. 27 – The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).

Nov. 23 – In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.

Nov. 27 – The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.

Dec. 15 – At halftime of a 34-27 loss to Philadelphia at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 21 – In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.

Dec. 29 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12 – Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager from Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel, a position in which he had served since 2002. He first joined the club as Vice President-Player Personnel since 2000. In addiiton, Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.

Jan. 26 – Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with he Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

Feb. 2 – Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.

Feb. 3 – Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."

May 10 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

July 25 – Running back Ricky Williams informs the Miami Herald of his intention of retiring from professional football.

July 30 – On the day the Dolphins report for the 39th training camp in franchise history, the club places Ricky Williams on its Reserve/Did Not Report list.

Sept. 26 – Kickoff for the Dolphins-Steelers game at Pro Player Stadium is moved from 1:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., one day after South Florida feels the effects of Hurricane Jeanne.

Oct. 10 – Kicker Olindo Mare aggravates a calf injury during pre-game warm-ups prior to a game against New England at Gillette Stadium. It thrusts return man Wes Welker into kicking duties. Not only did Welker perform his usual punt and kickoff return chores, but he also converted both a 29-yard field goal attempt and a PAT, and kicked off as well, becoming the first player in NFL history to do all five in the same game. Although the Dolphins lost, 24-10, Welker was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

Nov. 9 – Dave Wannstedt steps aside as head coach. Defensive coordinator Jim Bates takes over on an interim basis.

Nov. 21 – In Jim Bates' first game as head coach, the Dolphins suffer a 24-17 loss at Seattle, dropping their record to 1-9, clinching the franchise's first losing season since 1988.

Nov. 28 – After spending the entire week in San Francisco preparing for their game against the 49ers, the Dolphins give Jim Bates his first win as an NFL head coach by virtue of their 24-17 victory at Monster Park.

Dec. 25 – While in Orlando, Fla., preparing for his team's Capital One Bowl game against Iowa, LSU Head Coach Nick Saban announces that he will accept an offer to become the sixth head coach in Dolphins history.

Dec. 27 – Nick Saban signs a five-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins.

Jan. 10 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces major organizational and stadium changes through the creation of an innovative sports and entertainment company, Dolphins Enterprises, LLC. This company now will serve as an umbrella for all of the Huizenga sports and entertainment entities. In addition, Pro Player Stadium is re-named Dolphins Stadium. Improvements to the stadium include a remodeled club level and luxury suites, improved traffic flow, additional parking and state-of-art scoreboards.

494 • Historical Highlights

Dec. 30 – The National Football League announces that Dolphin Stadium will be the first venue in recent history to host the Pro Bowl outside of Hawaii following the 2009 season. The 2010 Pro Bowl will be the first played prior to the Super Bowl and only the second Pro Bowl played in the same city as the Super Bowl. The Los Angeles Coliseum hosted the first Super Bowl on January 15, 1967, and the Pro Bowl the following week. The 2010 Pro Bowl will be played on Sunday, January 31, 2010 and televised live on ESPN at 8:00 p.m. ET from Dolphin Stadium, also the site of Super Bowl XLIV a week later on Sunday, February 7.

Jan. 15 – Dave DeGuglielmo is named offensive line coach. DeGuglielmo comes to the Dolphins with 18 years of coaching experience, including spending the previous five seasons with the New York Giants.

Jan. 20 – Wayne Huizenga and Stephen M. Ross jointly announce that Ross has closed on the purchase of an additional 45 percent of the Miami Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium. Coupled with his earlier purchase of 50 percent of the franchise, the stadium, and the excess developable land last February 22, Ross now has 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga will retain a 5 percent share of both and remains a 50 percent partner in that land.

Jan. 20 – Rookie tackle Jake Long is added to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. He becomes just the fourth No. 1 overall pick in the draft to earn this honor since 1970, and the first one who was not a running back.

Feb. 21 – Darren Rizzi is named assistant special teams coach. Rizzi joins the Dolphins after spending the 2008 season as the head coach at the University of Rhode Island.

May 3 – Michael Dee is named as Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Dolphin Stadium by Dolphins Owner and Managing General Partner Stephen M. Ross. Dee is responsible for the business development and growth of both entities and to position the team and the stadium in the forefront of the sports and entertainment field. Dee joins the Dolphins after 14 years in Major League Baseball, including the last five as Chief Operating Officer of the Boston Red Sox.

May 8 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross, and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brings Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performs three songs and unveils the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

June 25 – Stephen M. Ross, Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, announces that 19-time Grammy Award-winning producer Emilio Estefan and international superstar Gloria Estefan are joining the organization as limited partners of the franchise. The Estefans are the first Cuban-Americans to hold an ownership stake in an NFL franchise and one of the few Hispanics league-wide to hold this unique distinction.

July 21 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Grammy Award-winning singer/songwriter Marc Anthony is joining the organization as a limited partner of the franchise.

Aug. 7 – Miami Dolphins owner Stephen Ross announces that world-renowned artist Romero Britto will bring Land Shark Stadium alive through his iconic art. The stadium's helixes and gate entrances will be adorned by Britto's high-energy and vibrant art, adding life and a touch of South Florida to the venue. In connection with the Dolphins celebrationcof Hispanic Heritage Month, children from various community organizations under the Brazilian artist's direction help paint the helixes with Britto's pulsating colors and pop themes.

Aug. 25 – Owner and Managing General Partner of the Miami Dolphins, Stephen M. Ross announces that Venus and Serena Williams, who have 18 Grand Slam tennis singles titles combined and are residents of Palm Beach Gardens, are joining the organization as limited partners of the franchise. The Williams sisters are the first female African-Americans to hold an ownership stake in a NFL franchise and one of the few African-Americans league-wide to hold this unique distinction.

Sept. 21 – The Dolphins open the 2009 home schedule with a prime time Monday night ESPN contest against the Indianapolis Colts, marking the team's first prime time home opener since a Thursday night against the Pittsburgh Steelers on September 10, 1981 and the first home opener on Monday night since September 22, 1975 against the Oakland Raiders.

Oct. 12 – For the third time in team history (all in home prime time games), the Dolphins wear orange jerseys and defeat the New York Jets, 31-27, at Land Shark Stadium in a Monday Night contest. The win gives the Dolphins a perfect 3-0 record in those contests, having defeated the Washington Redskins, 24-23, on Nov. 23, 2008, and the New England Patriots, 29-28, on Dec. 20, 2004.

Oct. 13 – The National Football League approves Stacy Ann Ferguson as a proposed limited partner of the franchise during the NFL Fall Meetings that were held in Boston. Ferguson, who is better known by the stage name 'Fergie', the female vocalist of the hip hop/pop group the Black Eyed Peas, is the sixth celebrity partner approved by the NFL and added to the franchise by Owner and Managing General Partner, Stephen M. Ross.

Nov. 1 – In the Dolphins' 30-25 victory over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium, Ted Ginn, Jr. becomes the first player in NFL history with two touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game, running kickoffs back 100 and 101 yards for touchdowns, both in the third quarter. The third-year veteran also becomes the eighth player in NFL history with two kick return touchdowns in a game. Additionally, Ginn becomes the first player to record two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter since Green Bay's Travis Williams accomplished the feat November 12, 1967 vs. the Cleveland Browns in Milwaukee County Stadium. Ginn also records the second most kickoff return yards in a game in NFL history with 299 yards, which is second to Tyrone Hughes of the New Orleans Saints who registered 304 yards against the L.A. Rams on October 23, 1994.

Dec. 20 – Ricky Williams has 19 carries for 80 yards at Tennessee, eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark for the season. Williams finishes the season with 1,121 rushing yards and breaks the NFL record for longest span between 1,000-yard seasons. Williams' last 1,000-yard season came in 2003, six seasons earlier. He finished second to Ernest Byner by 98 yards for the most yards in a single season between 1,000 yard rushing seasons.

Dec. 29 – Tackle Jake Long is voted as a starter at tackle on the AFC Pro Bowl team. He was later forced to miss the game due to injury.

Jan. 19 – Bill Sheridan is named linebackers coach. Sheridan joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the New York Giants.

Jan. 20 – Mike Nolan is named defensive coordinator, replacing Paul Pasqualoni, after spending the 2009 season as the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos.

Jan. 20 – The Miami Dolphins and the U.S. division of Sun Life Financial Inc. (NYSE: SLF, TSX: SLF) announce a multi-dimensional partnership that results in the team playing in what is now called "Sun Life Stadium." In addition to acquiring naming and sponsorship rights, which go into effect for the upcoming Pro Bowl and Super Bowl, Sun Life Financial, a leading international financial services organization, will make Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through an annual partnership with the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

Jan. 25 – Safety Yeremiah Bell is named to the AFC Pro Bowl roster. The selection is the first for Bell in his career, replacing Indianapolis Colts safety Antoine Behea, who would play in the Super Bowl.

Jan. 26 – Kicker Dan Carpenter is named to the AFC Pro Bowl roster. The selection is the first for Carpenter in his career as he replaces San Diego Chargers kicker Nate Kaeding.

Jan. 31 – The Miami Dolphins unveil the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The bronze statue adorns the entrance of the new Dolphins corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, marking the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. In addition, the stadium address is announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

Jan. 31 – The 2010 Pro Bowl, the first contested prior to the Super Bowl and only the second Pro Bowl played in the same city as the Super Bowl, is staged at newly named Sun Life Stadium. Houston Texans quarterback Matt Schaub is named the games' MVP after an impressive performance 13 of 17 for 189 yards and two touchdowns while leading the AFC to a 41-34 win.

Feb. 7 – The New Orleans Saints rally with 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, to win Super Bowl XLIV. It is the tenth Super Bowl held in Miami at the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins: the newly named Sun Life Stadium had hosted four previous Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, and XLI) and five were played in the Miami Orange Bowl (II, III, V, X, XIII). The game is broadcast live on CBS, with the National Anthem sung by Carrie Underwood and the halftime show featuring the British rock band The Who.

Feb. 24 – Joe Danna is named assistant defensive backs coach. Danna joins the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant.

Mar. 1 – The Dolphins announce a six-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that results in WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) becoming the Dolphins flagship stations.

May 20 – In an emotional press conference, Zach Thomas announces his retirement after signing a free agent contract with the Dolphins. It allows him to finish his career with the team that he played for in his first 12 seasons in the league (1996-2007), making seven Pro Bowls and registering 100 or more tackles in all but one season in that span.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14   Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970   Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs)   Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971   Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0	Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972	Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

January 16, 1972   New Orleans, LA

   A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14   Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972   Miami, FL

   On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17 | Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 | Pittsburgh, PA

    Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

January 14, 1973   Los Angeles, CA

   "This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16   Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973   Miami, FL

   A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10	Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973	Miami, FL

    A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7   Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974   Houston, TX

 Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

December 21, 1974   Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

December 24, 1978   Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14　　　　　　　　　　　Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Pittsburgh, PA

　　Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT)   Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982   Miami, FL

 A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points
(79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-
38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards.
Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13   Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983   Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983   Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

January 23, 1983   Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17   Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983   Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20　　　　　　　　　　　　Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Miami, FL

　　The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10　　　　　　　　　　　　Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　Miami, FL

　　The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28   Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985   Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16	Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985	Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21   Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986   Miami, FL

    Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14	Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986	Miami, FL

   The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16   Joe Robbie Stadium
January 5, 1991   Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34   Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991   Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0   Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993   Miami, FL

    Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10   Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993   Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21　　　　　　　　　　　　Jack Murphy Stadium
January 8, 1995　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　San Diego, CA

　　Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3   Foxboro Stadium
December 28, 1997   Foxboro, MA

    The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17   Pro Player Stadium
January 2, 1999   Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3   Mile High Stadium
January 9, 1999   Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17   Kingdome
January 9, 2000   Seattle, WA

   In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7   ALLTEL Stadium
January 15, 2000   Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT)   Pro Player Stadium
December 30, 2000   Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0   Network Associates Coliseum
January 6, 2001   Oakland, CA

    The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The score occurred after the Dolphins were at the Raiders' 16.
The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3   Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002   Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grbac hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

RAVENS 29, DOLPHINS 9   Dolphin Stadium
January 4, 2009   Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal, eight plays after Joey Porter recovered a Le'Ron McClain fumble and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 49. Patrick Cobbs accounted for 41 yards on the drive, on a pair of receptions. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon with 2:30 to play in the first half when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover, culminating a seven-play, 46-yard drive. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain, four plays after Terrell Suggs recovered a Cobbs fumble at the Dolphins' 19. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as the he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the seven AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME
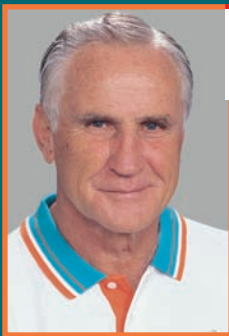

DON SHULA
HEAD COACH/VICE CHAIRMAN

BORN: 1/4/30
COLLEGE: John Carroll '51
PLAYER: 1951-57
ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95
DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95
YEAR INDUCTED: 1997
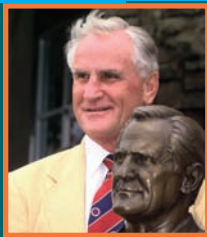

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 15 years, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 41st season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium on November 25, 1996.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Coach Shula was further honored on January 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Coach Shula Award" – that honors each NFL season a football coach that displays the integrity, achievement and positive impact on others that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns of the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, 51, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 45, currently serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently, in 2009 they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on . They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

NICK BUONICONTI
LINEBACKER

85

BORN: 1/15/40
COLLEGE: Notre Dame '52
NFL: 1962-76
DOLPHINS: 1969-76
INDUCTED: 2001

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

DOLPHINS TWICE OPEN WITH 10-0 RECORD

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while eight other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season-opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins), Washington in 1991 (11 games), Denver in 1998 (13 games), Indianapolis in 2005 (13 games) and New England in 2007 (16 games).

39

BORN: 12/25/46
COLLEGE: Syracuse '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79
DOLPHINS: 1968-74, 1979
INDUCTED: 1987
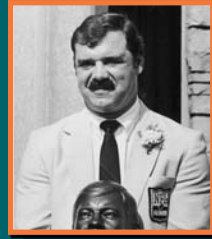

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which placed him sixth on the league's all-time rushing list when he retired, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired.

BOB GRIESE

12

BORN: 2/3/45
COLLEGE: Purdue '67
NFL: 1967-80
DOLPHINS: 1967-80
INDUCTED: 1990
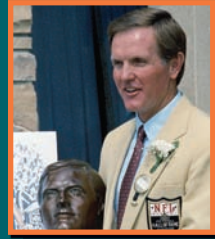

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

62

BORN: 5/16/48
COLLEGE: S. Dakota St. '70
NFL: 1970-81
DOLPHINS: 1970-79
INDUCTED: 1987

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

GUARD
66

BORN: 11/2/45
COLLEGE: Bethune
      Cookman '67
NFL: 1969-80
DOLPHINS: 1969-80
INDUCTED: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 38 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 92 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes until Brett Favre broke his record in 2007 . . . Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career, ranking second in NFL history:

Marino reached the 200 touchdown passes plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history and is tied with Peyton Manning for the fastest to reach 300 TD passes . . . In his career Marino threw at least one TD pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) . . . Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests . . . Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests . . . Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) . . . Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons, a record that Favre broke in 2008 . . . Marino and Peyton Manning are the only players in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in their first ten NFL seasons and is one of three players (along with Manning and Brett Favre) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is third behind Manning (five, 2000, 2004, 2006-07, 2009) and Brett Favre (nine, 1994-98, 2001, 2003-04, 2009) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . . In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 . . . Marino's record was broken by Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts, who threw for 49 touchdown in 2004 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds nine NFL regular season records and is tied for five others . . . In addition to the above records, Marino holds NFL single-season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . Marino and George Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . .

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road . . . Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from-behind wins . . . In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . Marino became the second Dolphin player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 and Jason Taylor became the third Dolphin to win that award in 2007.

PRO BOWL: Marino was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), including seven as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he was able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections set a Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts set a Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . Marino was first selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad following his rookie season of 1983.

PERSONAL Married to Claire (1/30/85), Marino and his wife have six children, Daniel Charles (9/4/86), Michael Joseph (5/18/88), Joseph Donald (7/26/89), Alexandra Claire (5/13/92), Niki Lin (12/15/96) and Lia (7/12/95) and reside in Weston . . . GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, the "Gallery of Legends" made its public debut at Dolphin Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football. Special exhibits were created to track the team's history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the chairs the players used for meetings at St. Thomas University, in addition to the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON
CENTER

57

BORN: 11/20/57
COLLEGE: Alabama '80
NFL: 1980-87
DOLPHINS: 1980-87
INDUCTED: 1998

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.
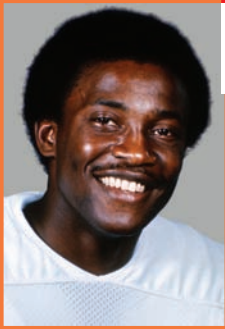

PAUL WARFIELD
WIDE RECEIVER

42

BORN: 11/28/42
COLLEGE: Ohio State '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
DOLPHINS: 1970-74
INDUCTED: 1983

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs. He ranks 20th on the team's all-time list for receptions, while he is eighth in receiving yards and fifth in receiving touchdowns. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches at the time of his retirement were tied for the third-highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium.

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK   YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000   DOLPHINS: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. His rushing total currently ranks 14th in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage are eighth-most and seventh among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

BOB GRIESE   #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

DAN MARINO   #13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium. He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date. Marino was furthered honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

LARRY CSONKA   #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Sun Life Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

1972 DOLPHINS ONE OF FOUR TO BOAST PAIR OF 1,000-YARD RUSHERS

The 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL by averaging an astounding 211.4 yards rushing per game that year. They were led by running backs Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris, who rushed for 1,117 and 1,000 yards, respectively. The '72 Dolphins are one of only four teams in NFL history to have two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. They are joined by the 1976 Pittsburgh Steelers (Franco Harris – 1,128; Rocky Bleier – 1,036), the 1985 Cleveland Browns (Kevin Mack – 1,104; Earnest Byner – 1,002) and the 2006 Atlanta Falcons (Warrick Dunn – 1,104; Michael Vick – 1,002).

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only five coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

- This will be the 7th time the two teams have played each other since the 2000 season with the teams splitting the previous six games.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM)
Flagship Stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

WINZ (940 AM) and WBGG (105.9 FM)are the new flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that will result in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 --The Sports Animal) being the new Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphin preseason, regular season and playoff games will be broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show will round out "Dolphins Game Day Live" coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, MiamiDolphins.com, The Sun Life Stadium Television Network and WFOR TV.

In May 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year partnership with Univision Radio in Miami to be the new Spanish language flagship of the Miami Dolphins. Univision Radio's WQBA AM and The Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network will broadcast every preseason, regular season, and post-season Dolphins game.

The radio and TV broadcasts are part of the Dolphins' fully integrated multi-media assets that also include "The Finsiders" daily sports radio show on WINZ (radio) and MiamiDolphins.com (video simulcast); Juntos con los Dolphins weekly radio show on WQBA (Spanish radio); "The Tony Sparano Show", "Dolphins Weekly" and "The Finsiders 5th Quarter" shows on WFOR (television), WINZ and WBGG (radio), MiamiDolphins.com (video simulcast), Sun Life Stadium Television Network (video simulcast); MiamiDolphins.com and TheFinsiders.com (web); Dolphin Digest and The Finsider Gameday Magazine (print); and Dolphins FanVision, Stadium Vision and Video Board (stadium); Twitter and Facebook (social media).

Following is a list of radio stations on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network in 2010 (as of printing):

Ft. Myers ....WRXK 96 K-Rock	Miami ....WQBA 1140 AM (Spanish)
Ft. Pierce ....WCZR 101.7 FM	Vero Beach ....WCZR 101.7 FM

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four Miami Dolphin preseason games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami, the 15th consecutive season WFOR has served as the preseason home of the Dolphins. In addition, the games can also be seen on WXCW (Channel 6) in Fort Myers as well as WTVX (Channel 4) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins open their 2010 preseason schedule with a home game on Saturday, August 14 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The game will mark the 11th consecutive season and the 18th time in 20 years that the two teams have played in the preseason. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:00 PM ET at Sun Life Stadium and the game will be televised live on WFOR, WXCW and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis.

The road portion of the preseason gets underway on Saturday, August 21 when the Dolphins visit Jacksonville Municipal Stadium for a game against the Jacksonville Jaguars. It marks the eighth straight year the two teams have met in the preseason. The game will be at 7:30 PM ET and will be televised live on WFOR, WXCW and WTVX.

The Dolphins will return to action six days later on Friday, August 27 at 7:00 PM. ET as the Atlanta Falcons make their first preseason appearance in South Florida since 2005. Again, the game will be shown live on WFOR, WXCW and WTVX if it is sold out 72 hours before kickoff; otherwise it will be broadcast on a delayed basis.

The Dolphins close out their preseason with their first trip to the new Cowboys Stadium to face the Dallas Cowboys. It will be only the fifth time in history and the first in Dallas since 1983 that the two storied franchises have met in the preseason. The game will be on Friday, September 2 at 8:00 PM ET and will be televised live on WFOR, WXCW and WTVX.

Dick Stockton begins his first season handling the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. Stockton has a long history of covering almost every major sports event on a national level. Currently he is a member of FOX's NFL broadcast team and also handles national telecasts of Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association on both FOX and Turner Sports. Joining Stockton as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary. Kim Bokamper, sports anchor of WFOR and a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

* Game will be broadcast live if sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be shown on a tape delay basis.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least one week in advance to: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press will call booth, located outside Gate H of Sun Life Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show a valid photo identification upon entering the stadium. The media entrance is at Gate H.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers are required to wear a vest that must be obtained prior to the game in the photo tent located right inside Gate B. All photographers must kneel when shooting in either the East or West end zone.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Sun Life Stadium press box, enter at Gate H. Go through a set of double doors and turn right to access the press elevator. Exit elevator on the second floor and the press box is to your left on both the second and third floors. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Sun Life Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with a number "3" will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Go straight to the main corridor and turn left. The Dolphins' locker room will be on your left, and the interview room will be about 20 yards further, also on the left. Continue straight past the Gate A tunnel, and the visitor's interview room, as well as the visitor's locker room, will be on the left.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Head Coach Tony Sparano will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Sun Life Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Joe Curbelo of the Miami Dolphins Information Technology department, (954/452-7135). Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

WIRELESS ACCESS: Sun Life Stadium offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press boxes. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. For those computers that do not have wi-fi capabilities, every seat is equipped with a "Cat 5" network jack to which members of the media can connect using a Cat 5 patch cable.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphins home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 22 Keswick B, Deerfield Beach, FL, 33442 (954/428-9751; CELL: 954/548-9033 or e-mail: timlippman@yahoo.com).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper, network TV photographers, club/stadium officials and a limited number of local TV photographers are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Senior Vice President - Media Relations; Fitz Ollison, Director of Communication; Jason Jenkins, Director of Media Relations; and Gayle Baden, Executive Assistant. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anteriogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Cortisone – An anti- inflammatory medication.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacar-pophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue inthe shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligamament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myosistis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx – Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax – A collection of air or gas that enters the cavity surrounding the lungs as a result of a perforation through the chest wall or the cavity wall.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum - Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) - Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis– Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.
