

Brian Flores is in his third season as head coach of the Miami Dolphins. He was named the 13th head coach in team history on Feb. 4, 2019.

Flores has a wealth of leadership and experience, having coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams – and beginning his professional career as a scout. During his 17 years in the NFL, Flores has won four Super Bowls – XXXIX, XLIX, LI and LIII – and seven AFC championships.

In his second season with Miami in 2020, Flores directed the Dolphins to a 10-win season by winning nine of the team’s final 12 games. The five-win improvement was tied for the best in the NFL that season and tied for the third-best in Dolphins history.

Flores joined the Dolphins in 2019 after spending 15 seasons with the New England Patriots organization, where he served in a variety of different roles.

He began his NFL career in player personnel, joining the Patriots as a scouting assistant in 2004. He was promoted to pro scout in 2006.

Flores began his coaching career as a special teams assistant for New England from 2008-09.

In 2010, Flores served as an offensive assistant and also worked with special teams.

He spent his final eight seasons (2011-18) in New England coaching defense, first as a defensive assistant (2011), then as safeties coach (2012-2015), linebackers coach (2016-2017) and finally as the team’s defensive play-caller and linebackers coach in 2018.

A two-year starter at linebacker for Boston College, Flores was part of four bowl-winning teams. He was named to the Big East All-Academic Team in 2003.

Flores is a native of Brooklyn, New York and attended Poly Prep, where he played running back and linebacker. He graduated from Boston College with his bachelor’s degree in English and a master’s degree in administrative studies.

Flores and his wife, Jennifer, were married in 2009. They have two sons, Miles and Maxwell, and a daughter, Liliana.
